

Grades and Grading Schemes

Except for courses taken under the Pass/Fail Option, courses in the Undergraduate Faculties represented in this publication are graded according to the following scale. The grade point values are used to compute averages. For information regarding the Pass/Fail option regulations, refer to the Grading information available in your Faculty's section of the Calendar.

Note: Only courses taken at York University are included in the grade point averages. The percentages indicated are not part of the official grading scheme and are meant only to be used as guidelines. The letter-grade system is the fundamental system of assessment of performance in undergraduate programs at York University.

Calculation of Averages:

Two types of averages are calculated and reported to students: Sessional and Cumulative. All averages calculated for purposes such as determining eligibility to proceed and graduate are credit-weighted and include all attempts at graded courses, including failures.

Sessional Grade Point Average: This average reflects a student's grades for a particular academic session (e.g. Fall/Winter 1999-2000).

Cumulative Grade Point Average: This average reflects a student's grades over the entire undergraduate career in a student's particular degree program (for example, all grades earned while completing a Bachelor of Arts at York University).

Definitions of Pass and Fail:

Passed Courses:

A passed course is one in which the student has achieved a grade of D or better.

Failed Courses:

There are two failing grades on the Undergraduate Grading Scheme: E (marginal failure) and F (failure).

Grades Release Dates (grade reports and transcripts):

Session	Term	Release Date
Fall/Winter	Fall	First week of February
Fall/Winter	Winter/Full Year	June
Summer	Courses ending in June	July
Summer	Courses ending in August	Mid September

Academic reviews occur prior to the release of grades on grade reports and transcripts. Grades submitted by an instructor are subject to review by the teaching unit in which the course is offered and by the Faculty Council or Faculty Committee on Academic Policy and Planning. Grades are released by the Office of the Registrar when the review is completed.
