

VI. Financial Services, Scholarships, Bursaries, Awards and Prizes

The Office of Student Financial Services is responsible for:

1. The administration of all aspects of students' financial accounts with the University.
2. Serving as the principal point of contact for students applying for OSAP loans.
3. The administration of scholarship and awards programs for undergraduate and graduate students.
4. The administration of the work-study program.
5. Providing assistance to students who are experiencing financial difficulties.
6. Providing students with tax receipts (T2202A).

Academic Fees

Academic fees for undergraduate students are assessed by credit. The Office of Student Financial Services publishes fees and refund tables for each academic session. It is the responsibility of the student to make themselves aware of changes in fees and financial penalties associated with dropping courses.

A current list of academic fees can be found at www.yorku.ca/osfs.

Supplementary Fees

The Ontario Ministry of Education permits universities to charge certain fees in addition to regular tuition fees. These fees are called supplementary fees. There are three types of supplementary fees: a) those which are centrally collected and part of tuition; b) those approved by student referenda; and c) associated course fees.

a) Centrally collected. Supplementary fees covering athletics/recreation, counselling, and cultural and special services are permitted and are included in the per credit fee for tuition.

b) Approved by student referenda. Supplementary fees approved by student referenda are included in the per credit fee for tuition.

c) Associated course fees. Fees for placement, learning material/clothing retained by the student, and production material for items which become student property, may be listed on your Financial statement, or may be charged locally. If you have any questions about whether a particular supplementary fee falls into one of the above categories and can be charged in addition to your tuition, contact the Chair of the department or unit charging the fee first. If, after having done so, you wish to pursue the matter further, please address your concerns to the Office of Student Financial Services, West Office Building, York University, 4700 Keele Street, Toronto, Ontario M3J 1P3.

In accordance with Canada Customs and Revenue Agency regulations, the supplementary fee component of a tuition fee payment, as well as any course material fee, are not eligible for a tuition tax credit, and therefore are not included in the Tuition and Education Credit Certificate (see Tuition and Education Credit Certificate).

Note: The procedures and charges associated with the administrative fees levied by the University are not affected by the policies governing supplementary fees.

Academic Tuition Rates

There are two academic tuition rates at York University: (a) a Domestic Tuition Rate for students who are specifically exempted by the government of Ontario regulation from the International student charge; and (b) an International Tuition Rate for students not so exempted, or students unwilling or unable to provide documentary proof of exempted status to the Office of the Registrar. These rates are also tied to your home Faculty.

The Office of the Registrar is the University office responsible for all matters related to which academic tuition rate a student is required to pay. Information on the interpretation of eligibility for exemption, tuition rate reassessment, deadlines for submitting documents, academic tuition rate information, or changes of status in Canada, must be confirmed by the Office of the Registrar.

A) Domestic Tuition Rate

You are eligible for the Domestic Tuition Rate if you fall into one of the exempt categories listed below and are able to give satisfactory proof of your status to the Office of the Registrar by the following deadline dates:

Note: A change of status is not retroactive to any previous session.

Fall/Winter Session

October 31 - deadline for reassessment at the Domestic Tuition Rate for the complete Fall/Winter Session

January 31 - deadline for reassessment at the Domestic Tuition Rate for the Winter Term only of the Fall/Winter Session

Summer Session

June 30 - deadline for reassessment at the Domestic Tuition Rate for the complete Summer Session

July 16 - deadline for reassessment at the Domestic Tuition Rate for certain Summer Session courses which begin later in the session, e.g. July 2. Questions regarding specific courses should be directed to the Office of the Registrar.

If you wish to be considered for exemption under one of the approved categories, you must contact the Office of the Registrar regarding the official documentation necessary to support such a request. Original documents must be presented. Photocopies of documents are not accepted. All documents presented in support of consideration for exemption, or if requested as proof of status, must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar, prior to payment of academic tuition.

If you are unable to provide the required documentation before paying your academic tuition, you are required to pay at the International Tuition Rate.

In order to retain an exemption for a subsequent term or session, you may subsequently be required to submit supplementary or new documents to prove that your status has been maintained.

If you present acceptable documentation for exemption from the International Tuition Rate, and this documentation contains an expiry date, it is your responsibility to bring updated documentation to the Office of the Registrar no later than 10 working days after the expiry date on the original documentation. This must be done to maintain your exemption.

Certain exemption categories specify that both the person who has the status, and his/her dependants, are eligible for exemption from the International Tuition Rates. The definition of a "dependant" is as follows:

"the spouse of that person, and any unmarried son or daughter of that person, or the spouse's unmarried child, who is in attendance at York University."

Note: "Spouse" refers only to a legally married husband or wife.

The dependent status must be fully documented. In the case of dependants of Canadian citizens, Permanent Residents and Permanent Resident applicants, the dependant status must have been established a minimum of three years prior to the student's application for exemption, and this status continuously maintained to the date of application for exemption.

Note: The exemption categories are subject to change at any time on the decision of the Government of Ontario and on the approval of the Board of Governors of York University.

Those in the exemption categories are:

- (i) a citizen of Canada within the meaning of the Citizenship Act or a person registered as an Indian within the meaning of the Indian Act;
- (ii) a student who is the legal dependant of a Canadian citizen may be exempted from the International Tuition Rates. Documentation must be provided which verifies that the dependant status, e.g. by marriage or adoption, was instituted a minimum of three years prior to the deadline dates and that this status was continuously maintained to the date of application for exemption;
- (iii) a Permanent Resident within the meaning of the Immigration Act, 1976;

(iv) a student who is the legal dependant of a Permanent Resident may be eligible for exemption from the International Tuition Rates. Documentation must be provided which verifies that the dependant status, e.g. by marriage or adoption, was instituted a minimum of three years prior to the deadlines and that this status was continuously maintained to the date of application for exemption;

(v) an applicant for Permanent Resident status, provided the applicant has met all the preliminary requirements for the granting of that status, and provided the applicant obtains an official statement from the Canadian Employment and Immigration Commission which confirms this;

(vi) a student who is the legal dependant of an applicant for Permanent Resident status (as outlined in category (v)) may be exempted from the International Tuition Rates. Documentation must be provided which verifies that the dependant status, e.g. by marriage or adoption, was established a minimum of three years prior to the deadline dates and was continuously maintained to the date of application for exemption;

(vii) a visitor admitted to and remaining in Canada under clause 10(c) of the Immigration Act, 1976, who has entered Canada or is in Canada to carry out official duties as a diplomatic or consular officer or representative or official properly accredited, of a country other than Canada, or of the United Nations or any of its agencies or of any intergovernmental organization in which Canada participates, or as a dependant or a member of the staff of any such diplomat, consular officer, representative or official, or a member of a foreign military force or of a civilian component thereof admitted to Canada under the Visiting Forces Act, and any dependants of such personnel.

Note: a student who has been exempt under this category, but whose exemption status changes during the course of his/her program due to circumstances beyond the students' control, continues to be exempt from the payment of International Student Tuition for the duration of the program of study in which the student is registered at the time of the change in status. Contact the Office of the Registrar regarding official documentation required;

(viii) a visitor, and his/her dependants (other than graduate teaching and research assistants), who are admitted to, and remain in Canada (under clause 10(c) of the Immigration Act, 1976), for the purpose of engaging in employment;

(ix) a person and his/her dependants, who are officially recognized by the Employment and Immigration Commission of Canada as a Convention Refugee within the meaning of the Immigration Act, 1976;

(x) a person and his/her dependants, who are refugee claimants in Canada, only if the claim for refugee status was made to Employment and Immigration Canada before January 1, 1989;

(xi) a person who is a participant in the Ontario-Jiangsu Academic Exchange Agreement between the Ontario Ministry of Colleges and Universities and the Higher Education Bureau of Jiangsu Province, China;

(xii) a recipient of a Fulbright Scholarship awarded by the Foundation for Educational Exchange between Canada and the United States of America.

B) International Tuition Rate

As the result of a policy decision by the Government of Ontario, all non-exempt international students in an undergraduate program of study are subject to the International Tuition Rate.

Note: A change of status is not retroactive to any previous session.

Fall/Winter Session

October 31 - deadline for reassessment at the Domestic Tuition Rate for the complete Fall/Winter Session

January 31 - deadline for reassessment at the Domestic Tuition Rate for the Winter Term only of the Fall/Winter Session

Summer Session

June 30 - deadline for reassessment at the Domestic Tuition Rate for the complete Summer Session

July 16 - deadline for reassessment at the Domestic Tuition Rate for certain Summer Session courses which begin later in the session, e.g. July 2. Questions regarding specific courses should be directed to the Office of the Registrar.

International Students and the University Health Insurance Plan (UHIP)

International students in Ontario are not covered by the government's health care plan. They must join the mandatory insurance plan, arranged by the Ontario Universities, called the University Health Insurance Plan (UHIP). It provides international students and their eligible family members with comprehensive protection. The cost depends on the number of individuals covered - a single person, two persons, or three or more persons. Students must enrol annually. The premium is in addition to academic fees and is charged to the student's account. To enrol, you must complete a registration form at 108 Vanier College.

For further information, consult York International, 108 Vanier College, 416-736-5177 or uhip@yorku.ca.

Please note UHIP is compulsory for all international students in Ontario.

Method of Payment

For complete information, please refer to the Web at www.yorku.ca/osfs or the Undergraduate Lecture Schedule, available from the Office of the Registrar.

Outstanding Academic Debts

York University Senate policy stipulates that graduation privileges, enrolment, transcript requests etc. be withheld from any student until all outstanding financial liabilities to the University are settled.

Students with an outstanding balance of $150 or more will be blocked from enrolling in courses at the University. In addition, academic sanctions are in place throughout the year, so that academic and administrative services are withheld until the liabilities to the University are settled satisfactorily. For further information, please see the Undergraduate Lecture Schedule.

Tuition and Education Credit Certificate

In accordance with Canada Customs and Revenue Agency regulations, the University issues tuition and education credit certificates to eligible students in late February/early March. Forms are mailed to the current address on the student account file.

Entitlements are based on the calendar year, not the academic year. For further details on the tax forms, please see the Web at www.yorku.ca/osfs, or check the Government of Canada Web page.

Tuition Fee Credit

In accordance with Canada Customs and Revenue Agency regulations, only direct tuition fees are eligible for the tuition tax credit. Both the supplementary fees and any course material fees you pay are not eligible and will not be included in the receipt. The Office of Student Financial Services mails tax receipts to eligible students at approximately the end of February each year.

Education Benefit

In order to be eligible for the education benefit in any month, a student must be registered for at least part of the month.

For information concerning eligibility and entitlement, as well as other aspects of income tax requirements, please consult the Canada Customs and Revenue Agency's brochure "Income Tax and the Student," appropriate Canada Customs and Revenue Agency Interpretation Bulletins, or contact your local Canada Customs and Revenue Agency office.

For duplicates, contact the Office of Student Financial Services, telephone 416-872-9675.

Residents of Quebec: Normally, the University does not produce or distribute the Certificate Respecting the Exemption for Full-time Post-

Secondary Studies (TP-697V) required by Revenu Québec. Quebec residents who require this form in order to complete an income tax return must provide the Office of Student Financial Services with a copy of the form and the corresponding instructions, available from a Revenu Québec office.

Refunds

Please refer to the Web at www.yorku.ca/osfs or the current Undergraduate Lecture Schedule.

Service Charges

For complete information, please refer to the Web at www.yorku.ca/osfs or the Undergraduate Lecture Schedule.

However, there are some scholarship and bursary funds available to international students. For further information, students should contact the York International Office, 108 Vanier, telephone 416-736-5177.

Entrance Scholarships and Awards (For First-Year Students)

York University Entrance Scholarships

Donor: York University

- a) York University offers President's Scholarships to those secondary school applicants to a first-year daytime undergraduate program with the highest entrance averages. These awards are renewable for up to four years of undergraduate study provided the student maintains the required academic standing. The required academic standing for renewability is a grade point average of 7.8 in all Faculties. Scholarships are renewed based on the sessional grade point average and once lost cannot be regained.
- b) The York University Entrance Scholarships are awarded to those applicants to a first-year undergraduate program who complete the Ontario Secondary School Diploma and six OACs (or its equivalent) with high academic standing, and to those admitted under the mature student regulations who present the best qualifications.
- c) York University offers Faculty of Fine Arts Talent Awards to those applicants to a first-year daytime undergraduate program in the Faculty of Fine Arts who demonstrate exceptional talent in their chosen field of study.
- d) Science and Engineering Scholarships are offered automatically to outstanding students entering the first-year of study in the Faculty of Pure and Applied Science.
- e) Bachelor in Environmental Studies Award is given to a first-year undergraduate student entering the Faculty of Environmental Studies who has a combination of high academic achievement and participation as demonstrated on the supplementary application form. Eligible candidates will automatically be considered at the time of their admission and the admission average will be used to determine academic standing. Applicants must be entering postsecondary studies for the first time and may not be assessed for more than 12 university transfer credits.
- f) Provost's Awards are offered to community college applicants who present high academic standing.
- g) Second-year Entrance Scholarship Program/CEGEP - Glendon offers five Entrance Scholarships to those applicants who have completed two years of CEGEP, have graduated with a diploma, have high academic standing and are entering a second-year program of study at Glendon.

York University Alumni Endowment

To honour outstanding academic achievement, the York University Alumni have, through their generous donations, established a scholarship endowment to provide funds for new and continuing undergraduate students.

York Business and Professional Alliance Community Fund

The Awards of Distinction

The Awards of Distinction are York University's most prestigious undergraduate entrance scholarships. These awards were established to recognize exceptional academic achievement and individual accomplishment among entering undergraduates. Candidates must be students in their final year of study in a secondary school who will be seeking admission into first-year undergraduate study at York University in any discipline. They must possess an outstanding scholastic record and will have other accomplishments—such as community service, achievement in arts or sports, or excellence in other areas of individual endeavour—which demonstrates the wholeness of the person and grace of character. The application form is available from secondary school guidance offices and York's Scholarships and Bursaries unit of the Office of Student Financial Services.

Award of Distinction: Alumni Awards of Distinction

Donor: York University Alumni Association

The York University Alumni Association (YUAA) is committed to providing goods, services and programs that facilitate the life-long process of education and personal development for all York graduates. The YUAA is equally committed to advancing the interests of York University itself. Whether the activity be in the form of advocacy, counsel, philanthropy or any other form of volunteer assistance, the graduates of York University have a unique and valuable role to fill in promoting the excellence, welfare and prestige of the University. Two Alumni Awards of Distinction are awarded annually.

Award of Distinction: The Betty Jean and John M. Bankes Entrance Scholarship

Donor: John Bankes and Family

This award has been made possible through the generosity of John Bankes, a member of the University's Board of Governors, and that of his family. The award honours their parents for their long-standing encouragement to family and others to pursue higher education. The Betty Jean and John M. Bankes Entrance Scholarship will be granted once every four years.

Award of Distinction: Bruce Bryden Entrance Scholarship

Donor: Board of Governors Colleagues, Family and Friends of the late Bruce Bryden

Bruce Bryden (1942-1992) was a member of York University's first class of students in 1960, later graduating in the Glendon class of 1964. Bruce was a tireless volunteer leader whose legacy and personal qualities will always be celebrated. In 1965, he was elected as founding President of the York University Alumni Association. Subsequently he became the first York graduate to be appointed to the University Senate, and then in 1971 to the Board of Governors, where he served for 20 years. Ultimately he set high standards as the Chair of the Board from 1982 until his untimely passing. Bruce Bryden was devoted to the entire University, modestly but genuinely proud of its many exceptional achievements. Typical of Glendon graduates, he cherished not only his student memories at Glendon but also the history, warmth, beauty and feelings of this campus as a special place. The Bruce Bryden Entrance Scholarship will be granted once every four years.

Award of Distinction: John S. Proctor Entrance Scholarship

Donor: Friends and Colleagues of John S. Proctor

This award honours John S. Proctor, former Chancellor and Chair of the University's Board of Governors, and also commemorates the University's 25th anniversary. It has been made possible by the generosity of past and present members of the Board. John Proctor was a banker, tennis champion and philanthropist who served on York's Board of Governors for many years and eventually became Chancellor in 1982. Mr. Proctor rendered untold hours of service to York University. He became a model of excellence and was recognized for his personal integrity, graceful counsel and wise leadership. The John S. Proctor Entrance Scholarship will be awarded annually.

Awards of Distinction Merit Scholarships

These scholarships are awarded to applicants short-listed for the Awards of Distinction. Refer to the criteria listed above.
