At a joint meeting, held on January 14, 1999, the executive committees of the Board of Governors and the Senate agreed to recommend to their respective bodies that they endorse the new York University mission statement. It was endorsed by the Senate at its meeting on January 28, and by the Board of Governors on February 22, 1999.

These endorsements validated a shared vision of the University's mission and values as York continues to prepare for the challenges and opportunities of the future. The mission statement is intended to provide a sense of common direction and aspiration for the University's governing bodies and for all members, alumni and friends of York.

I. York University Mission Statement

The mission of York University is the pursuit, preservation and dissemination of knowledge. We promise excellence in research and teaching in pure, applied and professional fields. We test the boundaries and structures of knowledge. We cultivate the critical intellect.

York University is part of Toronto: we are dynamic, metropolitan and multicultural. York University is part of Canada: we encourage bilingual study, we value tolerance and diversity. York University is open to the world: we explore global concerns.

A community of faculty, students and staff committed to academic freedom, social justice, accessible education and collegial self-governance, York University makes innovation its tradition.

Tentanda via: the way must be tried.

II. Important Notice and Disclaimer

This calendar is intended to assist readers to understand the academic and administrative structure and policies and procedures of the University, and to describe the academic programs offered. The material has been submitted by academic units and administrative departments. All general information and course references have been checked for accuracy, but there may be inconsistencies or errors. By the act of registration each student becomes bound by the policies and regulations of York University, including the Faculty in which the student is registered. Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the general information, rules and regulations contained in the calendar, and with the specific information, rules and regulations of the Faculty or Faculties in which they are registered or enrolled or seek registration or enrolment, as well as the specific requirements of each degree, diploma or certificate sought. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that the courses chosen are appropriate to the program requirements.

York reserves the right to make changes in the information contained in the calendar without prior notice. Not every course listed in the calendar will necessarily be offered in any academic year. York reserves the right to limit the number of students who enrol in any program or course. While reasonable efforts will be made to offer courses as required within programs, admission to a program does not guarantee admission to any given course.

If there is an inconsistency between the general academic regulations and policies published in the calendar and such regulations and policies as established by resolution of a Faculty or of the University Senate, the version of such material as it is established by a Faculty or the University Senate will prevail.

York University disclaims all responsibility and liability for loss or damage suffered or incurred by any student or other party as a result of delays in or termination of its services, courses, or classes by reason of force majeure, fire, flood, riots, war, strikes, lock-outs, damage to University property, financial exigency or other events beyond the reasonable control of the University.

York University disclaims any and all liability for damages arising as a result of errors, interruptions or disruptions to operations or connected with its operations or its campuses, arising out of computer failure or non-compliance of its computing systems.

III. General Information

About York University

Since its inception in 1959, York University has become world renowned for its unique interdisciplinary approach to teaching and research. A York University education provides a broad perspective and a modern approach to real world issues studied from every angle. York is where students and faculty from differing disciplines join together to explore their subjects to the fullest possible extent. The result is a dynamic, all-round perspective that delivers a more relevant learning experience. Our graduates are better able to develop advanced solutions to complex problems, and benefit from a unique perspective that is both flexible and optimistic.

York University is also known for its interdisciplinary approach to research and scholarship. We are home to 24 research centres covering a wide spectrum of interests from Sustainability and Vision Research, to Earth and Space Science and Refugee Studies.

York is an academic community of over 60,000 people, over 7,300 faculty and staff, 54,000 undergraduate and graduate students and over 200,000 alumni. The University graduates more than 7,000 students annually from its 11 Faculties: Arts, Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Education, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, Glendon College, Graduate Studies, Osgoode Hall Law School, Health, Schulich School of Business, and Science and Engineering.

On July 1, 2009 the programs from the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies and the Faculty of Arts – both at the Keele campus – will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies. This Faculty will comprise the most comprehensive range of interdisciplinary academic programs and researchers in social sciences, humanities and related professional programs in Canada.

York University offers a world-class, modern academic experience in Toronto, Canada's most international city. York is at the centre of innovation, with a thriving community of faculty, students, staff and alumni who challenge the ordinary and deliver the unexpected. Working together, we redefine the possible.

York as a Secular University

From its inception in 1959, York University was created as a secular institution. York's Mission Statement emphasizes its multicultural nature, and the value it places on tolerance and diversity. It also emphasizes a commitment to testing the boundaries and structures of knowledge and to cultivating the critical intellect. It is in this context that the university is governed and its curriculum developed and delivered.

What this can mean in practice is that those who have strong commitments to various faith communities or political ideologies may find their beliefs challenged by others and/or they may find that material presented in the curriculum criticizes or offends some of their values. This is to be expected in a pluralistic society. The university is a reflection of our society and more: it is a place where knowledge and beliefs are subject to critical assessment.

York University is committed to providing a place of study and work which upholds the democratic and pluralistic values of Canadian society. The university's policies and procedures, including its academic rules and regulations, are designed to be fully in compliance with all legal requirements, specifically the Ontario Human Rights Code, in providing accommodation for the observance of significant religious occasions by its faculty, staff and students. This position is reflected in the Senate Policy on Sessional Dates which confirms the university's respect for such observance and its commitment to accommodation in the scheduling of examinations. It is the responsibility of students, faculty and staff to comply with Senate policy in both requesting and providing such accommodation. For further information go to: <http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/regobs/>.

Registration and Fees

The Senate, the Board of Governors and the administration of York University reserve the right to make changes in both the fees and regulations given in this calendar, without prior notice.

All students, whether newly admitted, returning or continuing, must formally enrol in their courses.

Once you have selected and enrolled in courses, the next major step is to register. Registration is the process by which you become listed on the official student records of the University.

In order to register, you must: (i) pay all outstanding financial liabilities owing to the University; (ii) enrol in a program of study for which you are eligible and in courses to which you are entitled; (iii) pay your current academic fees.

Please note: For complete information on enrolment, consult the most recent online Undergraduate Enrolment Guide available at <http://www.registrar.yorku.ca>.

YU-card (Student Card)

The YU-card is York University's official photo ID and campus debit card. The YU-card serves as photo ID for exams and as your library card, and provides access to recreation facilities. You can load up your YU-card with money and use it as a debit card at participating locations across campus. Using your YU-card for purchases is fast and convenient – perfect for students on the go!

Obtaining your YU-card is easy. Bring your student number and one piece of valid government-issued photo ID (acceptable photo ID includes passports, driver's licences, citizenship cards etc.) to the YU-card Office while you are on campus for your advising appointment. We will take your photo and you will receive your card on the spot. Best of all, your first YU-card is free!

To find out more, visit <http://www.yorku.ca/yucard/>.

Official Examination Identification

Students are required to present identification at each examination during the official examination period. The following items will be accepted:

- a YU-card with a photo;
- a YU-card without a photo plus a photo-bearing form of identification such as a driver's licence or passport.

The College System

A distinguishing feature of York University is the college system which uniquely bridges the large multi-Faculty University to smaller units for a closer relationship between faculty members and students. York colleges are small interdisciplinary communities, with distinctive characters and mandates, that offer a welcoming, innovative and convivial environment supportive of students' successful adjustment to the university and the successful completion of their degree requirements. Each undergraduate student entering York University for the first time becomes affiliated with a college. The seven colleges serving students – Calumet, Founders, McLaughlin, Norman Bethune, Stong, Vanier and Winters – provide a wide range of academic and extracurricular activities to complement the instructional programs of the various Faculties and to enrich the experience of the York student. College facilities may include common rooms, dining halls, coffee shops, study areas, computer rooms, seminar and small lecture rooms, in addition to a variety of recreational facilities. Colleges accommodate about 260 out-of-town students, about 10 per cent of the total college enrolment, in well-equipped residences adjacent to college buildings. For further information, please consult the Academic Services and Support section in this calendar.

The college is self-governed in its day-to-day activities by both faculty members and students. Each college is administered by a master and academic adviser, and by the residence life coordinator and dons in the residence. Each college also has a College Council, elected by students, which plans and finances a full range of social, cultural and athletic programs. Academic Orientation and Peer Advising, especially for first-year students in each college, is coordinated by the college's academic adviser with the support of specially trained upper-level students. Fellows, who are valued members of the college and York community offer additional support in accordance with the academic mandate of each college.

The recent Task Force on the Colleges (2007) recommended a new alignment of affiliation between colleges and Faculties, with the college masters reporting to the deans of the affiliated Faculty as of July 1, 2007. Colleges are affiliated with Faculties to support the academic mandate and enhance the student experience for Faculties. Colleges will continue to encourage an interdisciplinary approach to academic life. The new Faculty affiliations for colleges are:

- Calumet College – Faculty of Health
- Founders College – Faculty of Arts
- McLaughlin College – Faculty of Arts
- Norman Bethune College – Faculty of Science and Engineering and Faculty of Environmental Studies
- Stong College – Faculty of Health
- Vanier College – Faculty of Arts
- Winters College – Faculty of Fine Arts and Faculty of Education

Glendon College, which is a constituent Faculty, offers daytime bilingual (French and English) undergraduate programs on a separate campus. Please consult the Glendon section of this calendar for further information.

College Programs

The college programs provide a variety of co-curricular events and activities that support the distinctive academic mandates of each college and enhance the student experience. Norman Bethune College offers foundations courses as well as a special series of first year courses (first year university seminar: FYUS) linked to the Faculties of Science and Engineering and Environmental Studies. Winters College academic offerings are linked to the Faculty of Fine Arts Cultural Studies program. The colleges are located in two complexes with both offering an updated computer lounge for students to relax, conduct academic work and/or utilize the provided computers. These lounges also provide a wireless environment for students who bring their own laptop computers. Events offered by the colleges can be found on each college's Web site (see below) or by referring to: <http://www.yorku.ca/colleges/events/>.

Calumet College

Calumet College was founded in 1970, sixth of the seven undergraduate colleges. We were initially housed in the Steacie Library and later at Atkinson. The unique character of Calumet College life and governance developed during the many years in Atkinson when Calumet served only commuter students. Master Eric Winter opened the college's first computer lab and introduced computer-related college courses. In 1991, through the leadership of Master Peggy Keall, Calumet College and Calumet Residence buildings were opened. Calumet is affiliated with the Faculty of Health and the Schulich School of Business.

Calumet aims to provide services, facilities and opportunities for students in all aspects of university life: academic, social, cultural and recreational. All members of the Calumet community, students, Fellows, alumni, alumnae and administration are encouraged to participate.

Behind all of Calumet's activities there is a fundamental point of view, a theme, which celebrates the individual. We cherish the differences among us; we seek to demonstrate the role of lively discussion and eventual consensus through mutual tolerance and understanding. Calumet College Council (CCC) and Calumet Residence Council (CRC) provide opportunities to get more involved in college life. CCC publishes the college paper, The Pipe, its name suggestive of its role in the flow of information; CRC organizes workshops, symposiums, seminar series, social events and recreational sports. Our focus has been around our mandate or theme: Technology and the Arts which is currently under review with our new affiliation with the Faculty of Health. Several co-curricular events and activities enrich the student experience. Students can benefit from help provided by the College Advising Team in the areas of essays and assignments, stress management, time management, course selection and academic policies.

Calumet provides a PC microcomputer lab serving the complex comprising Bethune, Calumet and Stong Colleges. Both the college and residence buildings are networked and connected to the fibre-optic backbone of the campus-wide computer facilities.

Recreational activities of the college are extensive. Calumet teams play in a wide range of intramural sports: hockey, broomball, water polo, softball and soccer to name a few. In some sports there are men's and women's teams, while others are coed. Usually there are separate teams for highly competitive and for recreational athletes. All students with a desire to play are encouraged to participate.

The Calumet Residence consists of 43 six-person coeducational suites. Suites normally have four single bedrooms and one double. Each suite also includes a lounge area, a kitchenette and two bathrooms. The suites are grouped into seven houses, each with a don: the entire residence is overseen by the residence life coordinator. Suite members are responsible for cleaning their own room; the cleaning of the common spaces, such as kitchens, lounges, entrances and stairwells, is shared by all suite members. Network drops in each room allow "res" students with their own computers to join the Calumet computer network and enjoy high quality access to e-mail, University library catalogues and the Internet.

Throughout the year, students spend time organizing a variety of social activities including dances, movie nights, gala dinners and other events. Much of the activity is formed around the interests of involved students.

The student government, Calumet College Council (CCC), is entrusted with the monies collected from the student body and the disbursement of those funds on activities and services for the benefit of all students. Elections for positions on CCC occur in March, and shortly after that planning is initiated for the activities for the next school year. The student government holds regular open meetings (Calumet Open Forum, COF) at which all members of the community are welcome and encouraged to participate.

Founders College

Founders College was the first college established on the Keele campus and it is proud of the part that its Fellows and students have played in the development of York University. The theme of Founders College is "Self, Culture and Society", which reflects the special interests of the college in the disciplines of anthropology, French studies, Italian studies, history and psychology, as well as its strong commitment to internationalism and contemporary issues. Founders College supports and houses African Studies, East Asian Studies, Latin American and Caribbean Studies, South Asian Studies and International Development Studies. Founders has a special affiliation with the undergraduate program of the School of Women's Studies and provides extensive women's studies facilities.

The Fellows of Founders are chiefly professors from a number of different departments who have come together to support the college's goals, but they also include administrators and external people such as journalists, writers and artists. Over 40 of the academic Fellows have their offices in the college, and are available for interaction with Founders students. The Fellows, with the students, are the lifeblood of the community Fellows of the college are active in many ways, especially in fostering their academic interests in an interdisciplinary environment, mounting cocurricular events such as seminars and conferences, and participating in the strong advising program for student members of the college, under the direction of an academic adviser. A rich network of peer advising including student academic resource advisers, is operated by the academic adviser for the benefit of all Founders students.

The following program-related groups are associated with the college: History Students Association, the African Students Association, the East Asian Studies Students Association at York, the Caribbean Students Association and the Anthropology Students Association. Founders College also houses the East Asian Studies Jerome Ch'en Reading Room, which has recently expanded to include a large collection of Chinese-language texts; the Nellie Langford Rowell Women's Studies Library (also recently enlarged, with a bigger focus on its international collection); the Elia Chair in Italian-Canadian Studies, and the Harriet Tubman Resource Centre on the African Diaspora. The college organizes and supports a variety of activities related to the arts, including art exhibitions in the Arthur Haberman Art Gallery. The gallery, the Reading and Listening Room, the Addiction Cyber Cafe are amongst the excellent array of academic and social facilities managed by the Founders College Student Council and available for commuter as well as residence students. The college also has an attractive assembly hall; newly renovated large junior common room; and a historic pub, renamed the Bull Pub. An annual festival of the art, Poiesis, involves students and Fellows in a competition including painting, sculpture, photography, poetry and music. Lectures and colloquia are regularly offered in a wide variety of academic and cultural areas associated with the college. Finally, Founders is home to Canada's most prestigious popular/academic feminist journal, Canadian Woman Studies/les cahiers de la femme.

The college is governed by the master, the academic adviser and the residence life coordinator, assisted by an office staff headed by the administrative assistant and by a variety of committees involving Fellows and students. A student council, Founders College Student Council (FCSC), administers an important budget derived from an annual operating grant, organizes a variety of programs and manages services and enterprises in the college.

A four-story residence (without elevators) for 250 undergraduate students is composed of seven houses, each named for a painter of the Group of Seven. Five of these houses are coed. We try to maintain a fine balance between a lively environment and one conducive to serious study. The residence is governed by a residence life coordinator, dons and students forming a residence council.

The college encourages in its students both active participation in college life, and academic excellence, an internship program that places 12 students with programs and units in the college, each supported by a University Service Bursary. Founders College tries to remain faithful to what is best in the collegial tradition – hard study, stimulating interaction between Fellows and students, and a lively community spirit.

McLaughlin College

Founded in 1968, McLaughlin College was named in honour of the late Colonel R. S. McLaughlin, business pioneer and philanthropist. Public policy is the academic mandate of the college. The college is dedicated to fostering knowledge and critical attitudes about public policy. Special attention is given to inviting policy analyses and review aimed at improving our society – the local community, the province, Canada, and the global commons. A full range of cocurricular and extracurricular activities fills the college public policy program: panel discussions, lectures and noon-hour seminars on issues of the day. Public policy concerns that are either national or international in scope are included in the series of symposia.

The college is part of the Faculty of Arts' foundations course program. The Divisions of Humanities and Social Science offer first- and second-year courses, which are affiliated with McLaughlin College. Most of the instructors who teach McLaughlin College foundations courses are Fellows of the college. Two-hour tutorials of not more than 25 students are an integral part of each foundations course. These courses cover a wide variety of public policy concerns and stress the learning of critical skills. Each year McLaughlin jointly plans and sponsors with Vanier College a conference entitled "Encounter Canada", on an important issue of the day. The college also features an annual public policy address by a person of distinction in the field of public policy. Other forums on matters important to student life – gender concerns, academic integrity, aboriginal issues – enhance the varied cocurricular program. We try to carry on the ideal of the college's first Master, George Tatham by providing an environment for the development of the all-round, "whole person". The college sponsors a University-wide poetry contest at our annual Burns Night, welcomes jazz sessions in the college pub and encourages students to become active in intramural and intercollegiate athletics. We also organize special art shows and cinema festivals in our combination gallery and screening room.

Social and cultural activities include trips to special musical and theatre events in Toronto organized by the McLaughlin College Student Council. Its athletic program is oriented to winning the York Torch. Social activities include talent nights, special Halloween and Valentine's Day dances, Christmas and year-end dinner formals and an annual ski trip. A well-equipped weight room, Dyna-Macs, is available to students on a membership basis. Locker rooms with showers are adjacent.

Through our affiliation with the Faculty of Arts, student associations representing majors in health and society, law and society, labour studies, political science, public policy and administration, international relations and sociology are invited to make McLaughlin College their base of activities. These groups work with the master and with McLaughlin College Council to develop cocurricular programs for students majoring in those fields and for the wider community.

The college provides offices for Fellows from a wide variety of York's divisions and departments. Fellows are available to students for advice about courses and careers.

McLaughlin College serves both non-residence and residence students. McLaughlin's 13 storey Tatham Hall offers single and double-room accommodation in six houses for men and women. Each house has a common recreation room. The residence life coordinator and dons work closely with house presidents and an active residence council. A full calendar of residence events provides a rounded social and cultural life on campus. The master of McLaughlin, the academic adviser and their administrative staff have an open door policy. They warmly welcome students who drop by for information, advice or a social visit.

Norman Bethune College

Norman Bethune College is named in honour of the famous Canadian physician and social activist who became a Chinese folk hero. Bethune College whose theme is "Science and Society", is affiliated with the Faculty of Science and Engineering and the Faculty of Environmental Studies. We welcome students from these disciplines as well as any York student who is interested in science and society, in our clubs and facilities, our intramural sports teams, our college council and our academic courses.

On the social side, the college houses a number of student clubs, including the Association of Chinese Students and Scholars at York University (ACSSY), Astronomy Club at York University, Kinesiology and Health Science Student Organization (KAHSSO), Students for the Exploration and Development of Space (SEDS), York University Anime and Manga Association (YAMA), York Chemical Society at York University (YCS), York Pre-Med Society (YPMS), Physics Society, Research Society, Engineers Without Borders, Photography Club, Displaced Animals Re-Integration Program (DARP), Vetzoo and York University Outing Club (YUOC). The Bethune Athletic Council enters teams in both competitive and recreational sports for the York Torch award. Bethune's College Council is a communal blend of elected and appointed students and representatives from the college's alumni, Fellows and the Master's Office. This council receives a portion of your student activity fees and uses it to fund social events, the college newspaper – The Lexicon, concerts, orientation events and a variety of worthwhile campus activities. We welcome and encourage student participation.

Bethune College also provides friendly and accessible student academic support and cocurricular opportunities – e.g. programs that can help you identify potential careers and professional paths. We host a comprehensive academic orientation for new students as well as a series of one-day summer orientations. All Bethune students are served by the Student Ombuds Service (SOS), a walk-in office and resource centre, staffed by knowledgeable upper-year students who can assist you in all manner of academic and personal issues. The Bethune Writing Centre provides one-on-one tutorial support, by appointment, to help you develop university-level critical writing skills. Bethune College's Fellows (faculty, staff and community members) are a diverse group who provide a wide range of skills and interests, knowledge and wisdom.

Bethune College offers academic (for credit) elective courses, including the First-Year University Seminars in Science course and an upper-year science writing course. In addition to courses, Bethune offers a rich mix of seminars, speakers, discussion groups and special programs of interest to students and faculty alike.

Our residence has a mix of single rooms, double rooms and apartment-style suites. Save for one female-only floor all floors are coed. An in-house cafeteria offers a full menu of healthy and varied fare.

Stong College

Established in 1969 Stong College is named for the pioneering Stong family, who came to this area from Pennsylvania in 1800 and farmed the lands upon which York University is built. Stong takes pride in its roots in a pioneer heritage, which finds its modern counterpart in the immigrants of today.

Four major themes have traditionally characterized Stong College, although, like all of the other colleges of York University, we welcome diversity of thought, experience and academic specialization. The first theme includes English language and literature, both past and present, and critical thinking and writing, all of which are seen to be related under the general heading of the arts of discourse. The second principal interest of the college is in other languages, literatures and cultures. The scholarly pursuit of these subjects has given our college a multicultural flavour. Our pride in the rich multiculturalism of Stong College, York University, Metropolitan Toronto and Canada goes well with a third major theme of the college: our strong social commitment. Through programs with a neighbouring school and other projects, we are pleased to acknowledge our inseparable relationship with the society around us and our debt to it. Finally, Stong College has shown a consistent commitment to study of sport as a social institution. The college houses three of the School of Kinesiology and Health Science's specialized certificate programs: Coaching, Sport Administration and Athletic Therapy. Moreover, our students have participated enthusiastically and successfully in Recreation York's inter-college sports programs. Stong College has recently embraced its new affiliation with the Faculty of Health which will be reflected in its future thematic emphasis.

As a college concerned and involved in all aspects of student life, Stong has a wide variety of facilities and programs that reflect the diversity of life at Stong. The Samuel J. Zacks Art Gallery, whose mandate is to feature student art, has a number of showings throughout the year that feature the work of traditional and native, international and professional artists. The student newspaper, The Flying Walrus, and The Orange Snail pub and coffee shop, provide many opportunities for discussion, debate and celebration of life at Stong and York.

Stong has a rich tradition of supporting the financial needs of its students through a wide and varied bursary and scholarship program. Funded in large part by an active and involved alumni, these awards reflect the caring side of our college and provide evidence that our students' commitment and involvement with Stong continues beyond graduation.

The Academic Resource Centre in the college lobby serves as a centre for our peer advising program, and also as a nerve centre for student support resources on campus. Additionally, the academic adviser, the residence life coordinator, the staff of the Master's Office and a long list of Fellows from a variety of disciplines are available and enthusiastic resource people intent on helping you gain the most from your university career.

Stong College is a happy and vibrant college that values and honours diversity, academic endeavours and achievement. We encourage initiative and provide numerous opportunities for fulfillment and invite you to embrace the Stong "way" through a lifestyle of active participation in the rich mosaic of cultural, social and athletic life here in Stong.

Vanier College

Vanier College is proudly named after Governor General Georges Vanier, one of the most distinguished and socially conscientious Canadians of the 20th century who himself embodied the humanistic values of this institution. The college is comprised of students, residents, Fellows and staff who all contribute to the college's academic and social life.

Vanier is affiliated with the Division of Humanities (whose administrative offices are housed in the college), the Faculty of Education, the departments of Philosophy and Psychology, and the programs in Creative Writing, Classical Studies and Religious Studies.

The Fellows of Vanier College are a highly varied group, including humanists, social scientists, many distinguished researchers, award winning teachers, administrators, social activists, artists and writers – all of whom have great knowledge and skills to share with the Vanier community. Vanier provides opportunities for many different kinds of interactions including: co-curricular lectures linked to Vanier foundations courses; a full year of musical and dramatic presentations by Vanier College Productions; a regular symposium, "Encounter Canada," on current Canadian moral ethical issues co-hosted by McLaughlin College; yoga and relaxation courses to promote community well-being; a "Creative Writing" series co-sponsored by the Creative Writing Program which includes opportunities for students not only to meet contemporary writers, but also to present their own work; and on-going scholarly seminars and lectures.

The master, academic adviser, Fellows and staff are readily available to all Vanier students as are the academic resource and peer advisers. In addition, there are faculty members from Classical Studies, Creative Writing, Education, English, History, Humanities, Philosophy, and Psychology who have offices in Vanier. The college also houses York International, the Centre for Jewish Studies, the Canadian Children's Culture Collection, the Wellness Centre at York University and a variety of student clubs.

The student government, Vanier College Council, is central to the college life and organizes social and sports activities through which student can enhance their university experience. The Council also supports a literary journal, Existere, and a newspaper, The Vandoo. Facilities in the college especially for students include a computer lab, the Vanier Studio Theatre, the Judith Rosner-Siegel Resource collection and the junior common room known as "The Renaissance" where students can study, socialize and relax.

Through all it is and does, Vanier College aims to provide a home on campus for every member of its diverse community, seeking to link them to each other and to the university.

Winters College

Winters College is named in honour of the late Robert Winters, first Chair of York University's Board of Governors. The college shares with the Faculty of Fine Arts the common goal of providing an environment where the development and expression of creativity is paramount. Recently, the Faculty of Education has moved into the Winters College building which has established a new relationship and opportunities for services to students.

Through the Master's Office, events are planned with a view to offering both commuter and resident students the chance to be inspired, entertained and challenged. Workshops, performances, film screening, presentations, special lectures and conferences are offered, and tickets are purchased for the ballet, theatre, symphony and opera at special discounted rates.

Wandering around the newly renovated college building is a visual and auditory treat. One can hear a music rehearsal taking place, catch a glimpse of a dance recital or a juggling practice, or see the work of many of York's visual artists, both student and faculty, hanging on the walls, in the courtyards and in the Eleanor Winters Art Gallery. Music, poetry and spoken word performances are regularly staged here, in the junior and senior common rooms, and the Winters Dining Hall. Similar events also take place in the Absinthe Coffee Shop and Pub, the heart of the college and a popular venue for emerging local bands. The Ab is student run, and is managed by Winters College Council, a lively mix of resident and commuter students who also organize frosh week, the formal and various other events throughout the year. Winters College Council and the Master's Office work in close collaboration and our primary concern is the creation of a rich social, cultural and academic milieu for all Winters' students. Ideas and suggestions are always welcome.

But Winters is not exclusively fine arts. Many of the students who are affiliated with us come from a wide variety of disciplines, and this diversity informs and enriches the community. We are also home to the York University Portuguese Association, as well as other student clubs, and benefit enormously from their activities in the college. Faculty of Education students have now also joined and been embraced as part of the Winters community.

Winters has long been known for its vitality and creative spirit, and it is also a community of serious scholars where academic excellence is fostered. We have a Student Peer Advising and Information booth where students can come to get information, discuss both academic and personal issues and talk to student peer advisers and our academic adviser. Throughout the college a variety of study spaces – the junior common room, the dining hall, and in the warmer months, the courtyard – offer students a place to talk, to curl up with a book or to simply find a quiet retreat. Winters scholarships, bursaries and book prizes are offered yearly.

V. Admission

York's Office of Admissions ensures that all qualified applicants are considered for admission in a fair and equitable manner. The University makes offers of admission to the highest qualified candidates.

The following pages address admission information for undergraduate studies. Visit <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/> for detailed information about undergraduate programs. Visit <http://www.yorku.ca/graduatestudents/> for detailed information about graduate studies.

Categories of Admission

There are several ways to achieve your academic goals at York. Different categories of admission are described below. In order to be considered for admission, you must meet the prerequisite(s) and minimum average requirements of the program(s) to which you apply. Requirements vary by program and admission is not guaranteed. For details, visit <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/>.

Undergraduate Degree

Individuals with appropriate preparation may apply for admission to an undergraduate degree program at York. Undergraduate direct-entry degrees include the bachelor of administrative studies, bachelor of applied science, bachelor of arts, bachelor of business administration, international bachelor of business administration, bachelor of design, bachelor in environmental studies, bachelor of fine arts, international bachelor of arts, bachelor of health studies, bachelor of human resources management, bachelor of science and international bachelor of science.

The bachelor of education and bachelor of laws require previous postsecondary studies.

The bachelor of science in nursing and bachelor of social work are offered as both direct-entry degree programs and ones which require previous postsecondary studies.

Joint Undergraduate Degree/Diploma

York students have the opportunity to combine a university degree program with a diploma/certificate program at a college of applied arts and technology in a variety of areas. Students can only apply in upper years and enrolment is very limited.

Undergraduate Certificates

Individuals with appropriate preparation may apply for admission to complete an undergraduate certificate. Certificate programs develop professional expertise or skills in specific fields. Certificates are normally completed at the same time as a degree program, although some certificates can be done on their own. Visit <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/> and click on Courses & Programs for details.

Visiting Student

York will consider for admission individuals who wish to take credit courses, but who do not intend to complete a degree or a certificate at York. Visiting students are individuals who already hold an undergraduate degree or are currently attending another recognized university and wish to take York courses on a letter of permission issued by their home institution, or do not hold an undergraduate degree but want to enrol in York courses to fulfill the academic, upgrading or professional development requirements of a professional designation.

Provisional Student

In very exceptional circumstances, York will admit an individual on a provisional basis, for a maximum of one academic year (normally in anticipation of admission as a degree candidate). Provisional status is granted at the discretion of the University and on the basis of compelling evidence of an applicant's ability to complete the requirements for a degree or certificate.

Admission Requirements

York gives admission consideration to applicants who present successful academic credentials earned at recognized/accredited institutions around the world. The following information describes the types of academic preparation York recognizes. In addition, York requires minimum overall average grade requirements and course prerequisites. Some programs also require supplementary admission information. Visit <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/> for further details. Please note that meeting the minimum requirements does not guarantee admission to the University. If you feel that your academic record does not reflect your abilities, you are invited to present documentation outlining circumstances that may have affected your academic performance. All information will be taken into consideration.

Academic Preparation

Secondary School

British Columbia and Yukon: High-school diploma with four academic courses, including Faculty- or program-specific prerequisites at the Grade 12 level. Academic courses do NOT have to be provincially examinable courses.

General Certificate of Education (GCE): Minimum of two Advanced Level (A-level) and three GCSE or IGCSE Ordinary Level (O-level) passes. Two Advanced Subsidiary Level (AS-level) courses may be substituted for one Advanced Level course. A minimum average of C is required on Advanced Level and Ordinary Level passes. Transfer credit of up to 18 credits may be granted for Advanced Level courses with final grades of C or better, depending on the programs applied to. You must also satisfy York's regular admission requirements.

Caribbean Advanced Proficiency Examinations (CAPE): Completion of the CAPE diploma with a total of at least six units, including prerequisites, and grades of 1, 2 or 3 in each unit. A minimum overall average of 3 out of 7 is required. Transfer credit granted for courses passed at the 2-unit level with grades of 1, 2 or 3, depending on the program (maximum of 18 credits).

International High School: For admission requirements from other educational systems, visit <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/requirements/>.

University

University transfer students who have completed a minimum of four full courses or one year of accredited full-time degree studies or equivalent with a minimum overall grade point average of 2.00 on a 4-point scale (C/60 per cent or equivalent) may be considered for admission. In addition, all Honours-level programs require a minimum overall grade point average of 2.30 on a 4-point scale (C+/65 per cent or equivalent). All courses taken, including failed courses, will be used to calculate the admission average. If a student's transcript shows repeated courses, the second grade achieved is the grade that will be used for the purpose of calculating average(s). Meeting the minimum requirements does not guarantee admission to the University. Some programs will require higher minimum averages. All Faculty- and program-specific requirements must also be met.

University courses taken may be assessed for potential transfer credit. In order for the Office of Admissions to assess your eligibility for transfer credit, you must submit detailed course descriptions for any academic studies completed at an accredited university outside of Canada or the United States. These course descriptions must be prepared by your former institution or be available on the institution's Web site. Please provide the exact URL or print out the course descriptions from the Web site. For more information, see the Eligibility for Transfer Credit section.

Official English or French translations (by a certified translator) of original transcript(s) that are not in English or French are also required. Course descriptions not in English or French can be translated into English or French by the applicant and submitted with the institutionally prepared copy.

College

- College transfer students who have completed a minimum of two full semesters or one year of full-time study in an academic program from a College of Applied Arts and Technology (CAAT) or Institute of Technology and Advanced Learning (ITAL) in Ontario with a minimum overall average of 3.00 on a 4-point scale (B/70 per cent), including all attempted courses, may be considered for admission; or
- A minimum of one year of full-time study in an academic program at an accredited/recognized college outside of Ontario with a minimum overall average of 3.00 on a 4-point scale (B/70 per cent or equivalent), including all attempted courses, may be considered for admission.

If a student has not graduated from a college program and the transcript shows repeated courses, the second grade achieved in the course(s) is the grade that will be used for the purpose of calculating average(s). Some programs will require higher minimum averages for admission. Meeting the minimum requirements does not guarantee admission to the University. All Faculty- and program-specific requirements must also be met.

Academic college courses may be assessed for potential transfer credit. In order for the Office of Admissions to assess your eligibility for transfer credit, you must submit detailed course descriptions for any academic studies completed at an accredited college outside of Canada or the United States. These course descriptions must be prepared by your former institution or be available on the institution's Web site. Please provide the exact URL or print out the course descriptions from the Web site. For more information, see the Eligibility for Transfer Credit section.

Official English or French translations (by a certified translator) of original transcript(s) that are not in English or French are also required. Course descriptions not in English or French can be translated into English or French by the applicant and submitted with the institutionally prepared copy.

Mature Student

To be considered for admission under the University's "Mature Student" regulations you must:

- be at least 21 years of age or older as of the first day of classes of the session for which you have applied;
- have been out of full-time high-school studies for at least two years or have returned to upgrade after a two-year absence;
- have attempted less than one full year of studies at an accredited university or college;
- not have an unfavourable academic record; and
- have demonstrated potential for success through academic, professional or volunteer activities and other accomplishments.

You may also be considered for admission as a mature student if you have completed a York University pre-university course, offered through the Division of Continuing Education, or a Women's Bridging course, with a minimum grade of B, if you also meet specific program and language-proficiency requirements.

Senior Citizens

Senior citizens who wish to be admitted to the University (as candidates in a degree program or as visiting students) are evaluated as mature students unless they have completed previous postsecondary studies (see the appropriate sections above).

In order to be eligible for a domestic tuition fee waiver, applicants must be Canadian citizens/permanent residents and 60 years of age or older by May 1 for the summer session or September 1 for the fall/winter session. The fee waiver is capped for senior citizens to the level of tuition fees assigned to domestic, non-professional undergraduate arts, science and other programs as defined in the tuition fee guidelines from the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities. The tuition fee waiver for an eligible senior citizen is restricted to a maximum of one undergraduate or graduate degree. Eligible senior citizen tuition waiver students are required to pay all other fees attached to a course or program, or required during the process of registration (including centrally collected ancillary fees, fees approved by student referenda, material fees, financial penalties etc.). Please contact Student Client Services for additional information.

Language Proficiency Requirements

If you apply to an undergraduate program at York, you may meet our English-language requirements if you have successfully completed, or are in the process of successfully completing, one of the following:

- Four full years of study in Canada in English or French at the secondary-school level.
- Four full years of study at the secondary-school level in English in a country where English is a primary language.
- One full year of study in an accredited university degree program in English in a country where English is a primary language.
- Two full years of study in an accredited college diploma program in English in a country where English is a primary language.

Note: Time spent in ESL courses will not be counted towards meeting these requirements. Language requirements will not be waived based on letters written by students or as a result of completing senior-level high-school English courses.

These are general guidelines only. York University reserves the right to request a successfully completed language proficiency test.

If you are unsure whether or not you meet York's language requirements, you should submit an acceptable English-language test score as soon as possible to avoid potential delays in the processing of your application for admission.

Language test scores are reviewed in combination with academic credentials to determine your admissibility to the University.

Applicants to the Glendon Campus

Since Glendon is a bilingual (French/English) campus, you may choose to provide proof of language proficiency in either English or French. You may choose to write one of the acceptable tests of English noted below or the French Language Admissions Test administered by the Glendon Recruitment and Liaison Office (416-487-6710, liaison@glendon.yorku.ca).

	YELT York English Language Test	TOEFL Test of English as a Foreign Language York's TOEFL code is 0894	IELTS International English Language Testing Service

Language Test Exemption for Students who Complete Courses at the York University English Language Institute (YUELI)

YUELI offers a range of non-credit, full-time and part-time English-language training courses that prepare students for university study.

Completion of the YUELI Intensive Program Level 6 with Distinction, Honours or Pass satisfies York's English Language Proficiency requirements for admission to most of York's undergraduate programs. Engineering and the Schulich School of Business programs require Distinction.

For more information, contact YUELI at 416-736-5353 or visit <http://yueli.yorku.ca>.

Application Procedures

How to apply

- Ontario high-school students: Apply using the Ontario Universities' Application Centre (OUAC) 101 application form. Contact your school's guidance office for details.
- All other applicants: Apply online or obtain an application form from the Ontario Universities' Application Centre (OUAC) Web site <http://www.ouac.on.ca>.
- If you are applying to a certificate program or as a visiting student, use the York application form available at <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/> or by calling the Office of Admissions at 416-736-5000.

Evaluations/Auditions for the Faculty of Fine Arts

Most York Fine Arts applicants participate in a supplemental evaluation, which may include an audition, interview, written exercise or portfolio. Most evaluations take place during the winter months on the Keele campus. If distance precludes an on-campus evaluation, other arrangements can be made. For details, visit <http://www.yorku.ca/finearts/>.

Supplementary Admission Information Form for the Schulich School of Business

Before submitting a Supplementary Admission Information Form, future students must first apply to York University through the Ontario Universities' Application Centre by the deadline date. Visit <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/requirements/deadlines.html> for application deadlines.

Submission of the Supplementary Admission Information Form is mandatory. Visit <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/forms.html> for a copy of the form and the deadline dates for submission.

Supplementary Admission Information Form for Bachelor of Social Work

The Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) is offered as a direct-entry, full-time, daytime program and as a post-degree, part-time program, offered primarily in the evening.

Applicants to both BSW programs, who are not applying directly from high school, must submit a completed Supplementary Admission Information Form and supporting documents. For a copy of the form go to <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/forms.html>.

For more information about programs of study, visit <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/> and click on Courses & Programs.

Special Admission Consideration for Students with Disabilities

York has a policy of supporting and accommodating students with physical, learning or psychiatric disabilities who wish to pursue higher education.

If you have a diagnosed disability, it is important to identify yourself during the admission process.

If you do not meet our minimum admission requirements, you may wish to be considered for modified admission consideration.

If your circumstances do not impact your admissibility to the University (in other words, you meet our admission requirements), we want to make sure you know about the support services we have in place.

In no way will identifying yourself be a disadvantage to you. We want to know who you are so we can ensure you get the support you need both during the admission process and afterwards. Even if you don't presently need any support, this could change.

York provides a number of support services for students with physical, learning or psychiatric disabilities. If you are admitted to York and need support and accommodations, consult with an adviser before the beginning of the academic year. You may request accommodation in teaching style, evaluation methods or other course requirements in all courses. Arrangements should be made before the start of the academic term. Failure to make these arrangements may jeopardize your opportunity to receive academic accommodations.

For more information visit <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/requirements/disabilities.html>.

Application Deadlines

Visit <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/requirements/deadlines.html> for all deadlines. To ensure a timely response to the program of your choice, you should apply and provide all official documentation much earlier than the final deadlines.

Faculty of Education: Refer to the Education section of this calendar for application procedures.

Osgoode Hall Law School: Refer to the Osgoode Calendar published separately.

Faculty of Graduate Studies: Refer to the Graduate Calendar published separately.

Eligibility for Transfer Credit

All information regarding previously completed postsecondary studies must be provided upon application to York University. Applicants admitted to York University who present accredited previous postsecondary studies may be eligible for transfer credit. The determination of transfer credit eligibility will take into consideration the applicant's complete record of accredited postsecondary study. The amount of transfer credit granted depends on the nature of the program completed, the grades received and the program to which the student has applied at York. A separate application requesting transfer credit consideration is not required. The receipt of all transfer credit documentation and the evaluation of all possible transfer credits available at the time of admission must be completed within one academic term from the date of admission to the University. (Fall term and fall/winter session admission: completed by the end of the fall/winter session; winter term admission: completed by the end of the summer session; summer session admission: completed by the end of the fall term.) Applicants admitted to York who were not in good standing at all previous postsecondary institutions may be eligible for transfer credit consideration and will be assessed on an individual basis.

Institutionally-prepared, detailed course descriptions are required for all academic work completed outside of Canada and the United States at the postsecondary level. These course descriptions must be prepared by the former institution or be available on the institution's Web site. Please provide the exact URL or print out the course descriptions from the Web site. Course descriptions not in English or French can be translated into English or French by the applicant and submitted with the institutionally-prepared copy. Official English or French translations (by a certified translator) of original transcripts that are not in English or French are also required.

For all students, detailed descriptions of postsecondary work completed in the intended major are recommended to determine if any transfer credits can be applied to the major.

If you have previously completed business-related courses (e.g. accounting, taxation), you must also provide institutionally-prepared course outlines/syllabi, including a list of all required textbooks, in order to evaluate previous studies.

Undergraduate University Degree Programs

Applicants admitted to York who have completed degree credit work toward baccalaureate degrees at an accredited postsecondary institution may be considered for transfer credit. Transfer credit consideration is given to course work in which the grade achieved is that normally required of a continuing York student. Transfer credits are determined in accordance with the requirements of the Faculty to which the student is admitted.

York University accepts the Pan-Canadian Protocol on the transferability of university credits, and undertakes to ensure that all course work completed by transfer students during the first two years of university study in Canada [including the final year of studies leading to a diploma of college studies (DCS) in Quebec and the university transfer courses offered by community colleges and university colleges in British Columbia and Alberta] will be recognized and fully credited for the purposes of granting a degree provided that: 1. the transfer student is deemed admissible and has been presented with an offer of admission; 2. the transfer student has achieved a passing grade in his/her course(s) and has obtained grade levels that would normally be required of continuing students; and 3. the credits earned are related to the program of study in which the transfer student will register, or the credits can be counted as electives for the program of study.

Should a student transfer to a different program after admission to York University, the transfer credits assigned upon admission may be reassessed.

Should a student, having left York to pursue study at another postsecondary institution, decide to return to York, a new application to York is required and all previous transfer credit will be reassessed.

Depending on the Faculty to which the student is admitted, not all transfer credits granted may be used to fulfill the requirements of a given program of study.

College Diploma Programs

Applicants admitted to York who have completed at least one year of full-time study in an academic program at a College of Applied Arts and Technology (CAAT) or Institute of Technology and Advanced Learning (ITAL) in Ontario or an accredited college outside of Ontario may be considered for transfer credit. The minimum requirement for transfer credit consideration is a minimum overall average of 3.00 on a 4-point scale (B/70 per cent) on all courses taken, including failed courses. Transfer credits are determined in accordance with the requirements of the Faculty to which the student is admitted. Articulation agreements with a College of Applied Arts and Technology (CAAT) or Institute of Technology and Advanced Learning (ITAL) or equivalent may result in enhanced transfer credit.

Should a student transfer to a different program after admission to York University, the transfer credits assigned upon admission may be reassessed.

Should a student, having left York to pursue study at another postsecondary institution, decide to return to York, a new application to York is required and all previous transfer credit will be reassessed.

Depending on the Faculty to which the student is admitted, not all transfer credits granted may be used to fulfill the requirements of a given program of study.

Failure and Debarment

Students who have been debarred may be re-admitted in a subsequent session only if they give convincing evidence to the Committee on Admissions that they can benefit from further university work. Applications for re-admission will not be considered until two years from the date of debarment. In cases of failure at another university, or where another university's regulations on failure and debarment differ from York's, or where that institution calculates years or semesters differently from the York method, the York regulations will normally apply.

VI. Academic Information

General Information

Academic Sessions

The academic year is divided into two “sessions”: the fall/winter session and the summer session. The fall/winter session begins in September and ends in April or May. Normally, full year courses are scheduled during the fall/winter session. Within the fall/winter session there are two “terms”: the fall term, that begins in September and ends in December and the winter term that begins in January and ends in April or May. The fall and winter terms last for approximately 13 weeks each and the fall/winter session lasts about 26 weeks.

The summer session begins in May and is completed in August. This session is comprised of numerous terms ranging in varying lengths of instructional time from six to 13 weeks. Information on sessional/term dates can be found on the Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Course Numbering

Courses listed in this calendar have the form: AS/EN 1000 6.00 which contains the following key parts: AS = the designation of the Faculty offering the course (in this case, Arts); EN = the prefix of the teaching unit offering the course (in this case, English); 1000 = the number of the course, the first digit of which identifies the level of the course; and 6.00 = the suffix indicating the “credit value” of the course.

Credit Value of Courses

The Faculties at York University may offer courses with varying credit value. Each course will have a suffix identifying the credit value for that particular course. For example, AS/EN 1000 6.00 has the suffix “6.00”, signifying that the course carries a credit value of six. The credit value normally correlates to the length of the course and the number of hours the course meets per week. A course with a “3.00” suffix would meet three hours per week for one term while a “6.00” suffix would normally meet for three hours per week for the session (or two terms).

The York Courses Web site (<https://w2prod.sis.yorku.ca/Apps/WebObjects/cdm>) lists the courses being offered as well as the terms, days of the week, time and location of each course.

Cross-listed Courses

As has been noted, the prefix of a course indicates the unit or program which offers the course. Many courses are “cross-listed”: that is, they are offered jointly by two or more teaching units such as departments or divisions. In some cases, courses are cross-listed between units in two different Faculties. Cross-listed courses may not be “double-counted” in order to fulfill degree requirements; e.g. if AS/HUMA 4610 6.00 is cross-listed with AS/PSYC 4120 6.00, it may be counted as a humanities course or a psychology course, but not as both.

Overlapping Courses

Some courses overlap significantly with other courses in terms of content and approach. There are two categories of overlap: course credit exclusions and course substitutions.

Course Substitutions: These are pairs of courses which are similar enough in content that they can replace each other in order to fulfill program requirements. Note that only one of the pair can be taken for degree credit. Course substitutions are identified in the Programs of Study section of the calendar.

Course Credit Exclusions: These are pairs of courses which may not both be taken for degree credit since their content overlaps significantly. If degree requirements specify that one of the pair is required to fulfill a program requirement, you may not enrol in the other – it can not be used to fulfill degree requirements. Course credit exclusions are listed in the course descriptions found online on the Courses Web site or in the Courses of Instruction section of the calendar.

Year-of-Study Equivalents

A student’s progress towards a degree is measured in terms of credits passed rather than years of study completed. Where it is necessary or helpful to equate credits passed with years of study, the following table may be used:

Credits Completed	Year Equivalent
fewer than 24 credits earned	1
24 credits to less than 54 credits earned	2
54 credits to less than 84 credits earned	3
84 credits or more	4*

*References to year 4 apply to students in Honours programs only. Education courses taken by students coregistered in the Faculty of Education are not included in an Academic Faculty’s (e.g. Arts, Glendon etc.) year-of-study equivalents.

Enrolment and Registration

Enrolment and registration should not be confused. They are two separate actions which are defined as follows:

a. Enrolment: Students who are eligible to enter or proceed, enrol by placing themselves in courses, using the University’s enrolment system, in accordance with the regulations of the Faculty and its teaching units.

b. Registration: Students register by paying tuition fees for courses in which they are enrolled, in accordance with the regulations of the Registrar’s Office. Students who are not registered in a course are not entitled to have their work in the course graded.

Grades and Grading Schemes

Except for courses taken under the pass/fail option, courses in the undergraduate Faculties represented in this publication are graded according to the following scale. The grade point values are used to compute averages. For information regarding the pass/fail option regulations, refer to the grading information available in your Faculty’s section of the calendar.

Note: Only courses taken at York University are included in the grade point averages. The percentages indicated are not part of the official grading scheme and are meant only to be used as guidelines. The letter-grade system is the fundamental system of assessment of performance in undergraduate programs at York University.

Grade	Grade Point	Per Cent Range	Description
A+	9	90-100	Exceptional
A	8	80-89	Excellent
B+	7	75-79	Very Good
B	6	70-74	Good
C+	5	65-69	Competent
C	4	60-64	Fairly Competent
D+	3	55-59	Passing
D	2	50-54	Marginally Passing
E	1	(marginally below 50%)	Marginally Failing
F	0	(below 50%)	Failing

Note: All of the above-noted grades are used to calculate averages and credits.

Definitions of Grading Descriptions

A+ Exceptional. Thorough knowledge of concepts and/or techniques and exceptional skill or great originality in the use of those concepts/techniques in satisfying the requirements of an assignment or course.

A Excellent. Thorough knowledge of concepts and/or techniques together with a high degree of skill and/or some elements of originality in satisfying the requirements of an assignment or course.

B+ Very Good. Thorough knowledge of concepts and/or techniques together with a fairly high degree of skill in the use of those concepts/techniques in satisfying the requirements of an assignment or course.

B Good. Good level of knowledge of concepts and/or techniques together with considerable skill in using them to satisfy the requirements of an assignment or course.

C+ Competent. Acceptable level of knowledge of concepts and/or techniques together with considerable skill in using them to satisfy the requirements of an assignment or course.

C Fairly Competent. Acceptable level of knowledge of concepts and/or techniques together with some skill in using them to satisfy the requirements of an assignment or course.

D+ Passing. Slightly better than minimal knowledge of required concepts and/or techniques together with some ability to use them in satisfying the requirements of an assignment or course.

D Barely Passing. Minimum knowledge of concepts and/or techniques needed to satisfy the requirements of an assignment or course.

E Marginally Failing.

F Failing.

Calculation of Averages

Two types of averages are calculated and reported to students: sessional and cumulative. All averages calculated for purposes such as determining eligibility to proceed and graduate are credit-weighted.

Sessional grade point average: This average reflects a student's grades for a particular academic session (e.g. Fall/Winter 2008-2009 Session).

Cumulative grade point average: This average reflects a student's grades over the entire undergraduate career in a student's particular degree program.

Definitions of Pass and Fail

Passed courses

A passed course is one in which the student has achieved a grade of D or better.

Failed courses

There are two failing grades on the Undergraduate Grading Scheme: E (marginal failure) and F (failure).

Grades Release Dates (grade reports and transcripts)

Academic reviews occur prior to the release of grades on grade reports and transcripts. Grades submitted by an instructor are subject to review by the teaching unit in which the course is offered and by the Faculty Council or Faculty Committee on Academic Policy and Planning. Final course grades may be adjusted to conform to program or Faculty grades distribution profiles. Grades and transcripts are normally released by the Registrar's Office when the review has been completed.

Withdrawal

Withdrawal from a Session

You are considered officially withdrawn from the academic term or session and from the University after you drop your last course via the registration and enrolment system. Your official student record at the University is then annotated to indicate that you have formally discontinued your studies in a given program and academic term or session.

Discontinuation of studies/non-attendance of courses does not constitute official withdrawal for purposes of regulations and fee adjustments.

Ignorance of the regulations or proof of other activity does not constitute grounds for retroactive withdrawal.

In the case of withdrawal, the Office of Student Financial Services will use the date of notification or the date you dropped your courses to compute the amount of fees owing or to be refunded.

Re-admission After Withdrawal

Normally, students who withdraw from a term or session and who wish to attend a subsequent session may request reactivation through the Registrar's Office. Students who attend another institution without first obtaining a letter of permission, must reapply for admission and supply supporting documentation where necessary. Students who withdraw from their first session at York without having completed any courses, may request reactivation within one academic year. If longer, a student is required to reapply for admission.

Tuition Refunds After Withdrawal

Refunds for withdrawal will be based on the University Refund Table, which is available on the Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: Students may not withdraw from any course(s) in which a charge of academic dishonesty is being considered against them or in which they have been found guilty of academic dishonesty. Students who are found innocent of a charge of academic dishonesty may continue in the course and may request that someone other than the instructor grade their work. Alternatively students who are found innocent of a charge of academic dishonesty may withdraw from the course(s) in question without academic penalty by informing the Faculty Dean's Office in writing.

Deregistration

The University Registrar is empowered to deregister students who:

- do not meet the University's admissions requirements or the conditions of admission imposed by the Admissions Office;
- are not eligible or entitled to enrol in a program of study, and are not authorized to enrol by the Faculty;
- do not meet the country's citizenship and immigration laws;
- contravene the policies stated in the York University Act, upon instructions from the President.

Students who are deregistered on these grounds will be deemed not to have registered in the academic session. No registration or academic activity records will be retained. Students will be refunded their academic fees in full less any indebtedness to the University.

The University Registrar or other appropriate officer will inform the student, and appropriate academic and service areas.

A student who enrolls or registers for courses pending notification of academic standing at the end of the previous session or pending the result of a petition bearing on academic standing may have that enrolment subsequently cancelled or be subsequently deregistered if academic standing is such as to require withdrawal, debarment or suspension.

Classification of Students

For general purposes, a student is deemed by the University to be full-time if s/he takes the equivalent of 18 credits or more in a given two-term session. For further information, contact Student Client Services.

Student Records Policy on Access to Records and Protection of Privacy

Access to student records is governed by York University's Policy on Access to Information and Protection of Privacy and complies with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. The University shall collect and record personal information related to its students in accordance with the following guidelines.

Access to Student Records Guidelines

By applying for admission to York University and by enrolling in a program at the University, students consent to the collection of their personal information by York University for educational, administrative and statistical purposes. The information is needed to process their admission application and their enrolment and registration in academic programs; to record and track their academic progress; to provide the basis for awards and governmental funding and for related recordkeeping purposes. Students agree that all information and documentation submitted to the University in support of an application for admission, counselling and disability services, residence accommodation or financial award, or any petition or appeal, becomes the property of the University.

York University may be required to disclose student information

- in situations where the University is required to comply with the law
- as part of law enforcement investigations or proceedings
- in situations where personal student health or safety is of concern or
- in compassionate circumstances

An electronic record of students' achievements at the University is preserved permanently, but all other documentation contained in students' files may be destroyed in accordance with the University's records retention policies.

Access to Confidential Student Records and Disclosure of Information

Public access

It is the University's policy to make the following information routinely available:

- current registration status in a particular college, school, Faculty or division in a particular session including whether or not a student is currently pursuing studies on a full or part-time basis;
- current field of studies (e.g. major, minor, certificate program, stream);
- whether or not a student has received a particular academic award, honour or distinction whether from York or an external third party; and,
- degree(s) or credential(s) that have been conferred by the University and the date(s) of conferral.

Except as specified above, other information contained in the record will be disclosed with the student's written consent. This restriction applies to requests from all third party inquirers including parents, spouses and credit bureaus.

Students who are currently registered in a program/course at the University are entitled to submit a written request to the Registrar's Office if they do not wish to allow release of their active registration status, their current field of study, information about any academic awards, honours or distinctions and if they have not successfully graduated.

Student access

Students have the right to inspect all documents contained in their own record, with the exception of evaluations and letters of reference supplied to the University with the understanding that they be kept confidential.

Students have the right to request that erroneous information contained in their records be corrected and that recipients of any information found to be in error be advised of the correction.

Students wishing to inspect their record must make an appointment with the Associate Registrar, Student Services.

Upon written request to the Registrar's Office, students whose fee account shows no outstanding balance may request to have an official transcript of their record of studies at the University sent to a third party.

Documents pertaining to a student's achievement at another institution, which may have been received by the University, will not be released or redirected.

Employee access

Employees of the University are permitted access to information contained in student records, if they need to know the information in order to perform their official duties. As a general rule, employees involved in some aspect of academic administration or student affairs are given access to a student's record. The level and nature of access should be related to their particular administrative duties. Supervising managers and/or the University Registrar have the authority to withdraw access to student records from any employee.

Third party/student organization access

All third party organizations and student organizations are required to sign FIPPA-compliant confidentiality agreements with an authorized officer of the University before obtaining access to student records. Student information may only be used or disclosed in accordance with the provisions of the confidentiality agreements.

All requests from student organizations must be approved by the Office of Student Community and Leadership Development within the Division of Students. Listings of members will be made available upon written request to the Office of Student Community and Leadership Development and must be accompanied by a signature of the authorized officer of that organization.

All requests from other third party organizations must be approved by the Registrar's Office.

If someone other than the student wishes to pick up a document on behalf of a student (e.g. transcript, diploma etc.), the student must provide that person with a signed authorization. The third party must provide the signed authorization as well as photo identification.

Legally mandated access

Specified records or portions thereof may be provided to persons or agencies pursuant to a court order directing the University to release information; to Statistics Canada; or to the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities.

Transcripts of Academic Record

A student's signature, or Passport York login is required for the release of their own records. Transcripts issued directly to the student are stamped "Issued to Student". York University is not responsible for transcripts lost or delayed in the mail.

In accordance with University policy, transcripts and diplomas will not be released to students who have an outstanding account with the University.

Change of Name

Each student is required to provide, either on application for admission or in personal data required for registration, his/her full legal name. Any requests to change a name, by means of alteration or deletion, substitution or addition, must be accompanied by appropriate supporting documentation. Upon making application for graduation a student may be asked to provide proof of his/her name. Students may verify their official name on record through the Web at the Current Students' Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Change of Address

A student must maintain current and up-to-date permanent and mailing address information on the records of the University in order to receive pertinent mailings.

Address changes are done through the Web at the Current Students' Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Emergency Situations Requiring Student Access

On occasion, a personal emergency may require students to be contacted quickly. In emergency situations involving the health and safety of an individual, or in compassionate situations, the University Registrar or designate may, if considered to be in the best interest of the student, authorize the release of personal information about the student. The University will then inform the student of the disclosure.

Students are urged to provide those who may need to be reached in an emergency with an up-to-date copy of their class timetable, specifying days, times and locations. In addition, students are required to routinely update their next of kin and emergency contact information through the Web at the Current Students' Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Notification of Disclosure of Personal Information to Statistics Canada

Statistics Canada is the national statistical agency. As such, Statistics Canada carries out hundreds of surveys each year on a wide range of matters, including education.

It is essential to be able to follow students across time and institutions to understand, for example, the factors affecting enrolment demand at postsecondary institutions. The increased emphasis on accountability for public investment means that it is also important to understand "outcomes". In order to carry out such studies, Statistics Canada asks all colleges and universities to provide data on students and graduates. Institutions collect and provide to Statistics Canada student identification information (student's name, student ID number, Social Insurance Number), student contact information (address and telephone number), student demographic characteristics, enrolment information, previous education and labour force activity.

The Federal Statistics Act provides the legal authority for Statistics Canada to obtain access to personal information held by educational institutions. The information may be used only for statistical purposes, and the confidentiality provision of the Statistics Act prevents the information from being released in any way that would identify a student.

Students who do not wish to have their information used are able to ask Statistics Canada to remove their identifying information from the national database.

Further information on the use of this information can be obtained from Statistics Canada's Web site: <http://www.statcan.ca/english/concepts/ESIS/index.htm>, by writing to the Postsecondary Section, Centre for Education Statistics, 17th Floor, R.H. Coats Building, Tunney's Pasture, Ottawa, K1A 0T6 or by calling 1-613-951-1666.

VII. Financial Services, Scholarships, Bursaries, Awards and Prizes

The office of Student Financial Services is responsible for:

- The administration of scholarship and awards programs for undergraduate and graduate students.
- Serving as the principal point of contact for students applying for OSAP loans and grants.
- Providing assistance to students who are experiencing financial difficulties.
- The administration of all aspects of students' financial accounts with the University.
- The administration of Work/Study, Research at York and Service Bursary programs.
- Providing online (Web) tax receipts (T2202A and T4A) for students.

Our students are served through information posted on the Web (<http://www.yorku.ca/osfs/>), by phone at 416-872-9675 or in person at Student Client Services in the Bennett Centre for Student Services.

Academic Fees

Academic fees for undergraduate students are assessed on either a per credit or per program basis (see Academic Tuition Fee Categories below). Fees and refund tables for each academic session are posted on the Web. It is the responsibility of students to make themselves aware of changes in fees and financial penalties associated with dropping courses.

A current schedule of academic fees can be found at <http://www.yorku.ca/osfs/fees/>.

Supplementary Fees

The Ontario Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities permits universities to charge supplementary fees in addition to regular tuition fees. At York, there are three types of supplementary fees: a) those which are centrally collected and are part of the tuition fee; b) those approved by student referenda; and c) associated course fees. The procedures and policies which govern associated course fees differ from those which govern tuition and supplementary fees.

- Centrally collected: supplementary fees covering athletics/recreation, counselling, and cultural and special services are permitted and are included in tuition/program fees.
- Approved by student referenda: supplementary fees approved by student referenda are included in the per credit fee for tuition.
- Associated course fees: fees for work-term placements, learning materials or special clothing retained by the student, and production material for items which become student property, may be listed on your student account statement, or may be charged locally.

If you have any questions about whether a particular supplementary fee falls into one of the above categories and can be charged in addition to your tuition, first contact the Chair of the department or unit charging the fee. If, after having done so, you wish to pursue the matter further, please address your concerns to Student Client Services. See the Web for their current address at <http://www.yorku.ca/scsweb/>.

(In accordance with Canada Revenue Agency regulations, the supplementary fee component of a tuition fee payment and any course material fees cannot be included in the tuition tax credit, and therefore are not captured on the T2202A Tuition and Education Credit Certificate (see Tuition and Education Credit Certificate).

Academic Tuition Fee Categories

There are two academic tuition fee categories at York University: (a) the domestic tuition rate, which is charged to students who are specifically exempted by the government of Ontario regulations from the international student charge; and (b) the international tuition rate charged to students who are not so exempted, or who are unwilling or unable to provide documentary proof of exempted status to the Registrar's Office.

Information on the interpretation of eligibility for exemption, tuition rate reassessment, deadlines for submitting documents, or changes of status in Canada, must be confirmed by the Registrar's Office.

Fees may also vary depending on the Faculty, program or course selections, or on the year of entry into a particular program of study.

A) Domestic Tuition Rate

You are eligible for the domestic tuition rate if you fall into one of the exempt categories listed below and are able to give satisfactory proof of your status to the Registrar's Office by the following deadline dates:

Note: All changes or corrections to your tuition rate on your York record must be done before the deadline dates below. Any changes or corrections made after these dates will only be applicable to the next term or session and will not be retroactive to any previous term or session.

Fall/Winter session

October 31 - deadline for reassessment at the domestic tuition rate for the complete fall/winter session.

January 31 - deadline for reassessment at the domestic tuition rate for the winter term only of the fall/winter session.

Summer session

June 30 - deadline for reassessment at the domestic tuition rate for the complete summer session.

July 16 - deadline for reassessment at the domestic tuition rate for certain summer session courses which begin later in the session, e.g. July 2. Questions regarding specific courses should be directed to the Registrar's Office.

If you wish to be considered for exemption under one of the approved categories, you must contact the Registrar's Office regarding the official documentation necessary to support such a request. Original documents must be presented. Photocopies of documents are not accepted. All documents presented in support of consideration for exemption, or if requested as proof of status, must be submitted to the Registrar's Office, before payment of academic tuition.

If you are unable to provide the required documentation before paying your academic tuition, you are required to pay at the international tuition rate.

In order to retain an exemption for a subsequent term or session, you may, at a later date, be required to submit supplementary or new documents to prove that your status has been maintained.

If you present acceptable documentation for exemption from the international tuition rate, and this documentation contains an expiry date, it is your responsibility to bring updated documentation to the Registrar's Office no later than 10 working days after the expiry date on the original documentation. This must be done to maintain your exemption.

Certain exemption categories specify that both the person who has the status, and his/her dependants, are eligible for exemption from the international tuition rates. The definition of a "dependant" of a person includes his/her:

- spouse
- unmarried child, or
- spouse's unmarried child.

The dependent status must be fully documented, the dependant status must have been established a minimum of three years prior to the student's application for exemption, and this status continuously maintained to the date of application for exemption.

Note: The exemption categories are subject to change at any time on the decision of the government of Ontario and on the approval of the Board of Governors of York University.

International tuition fee exemption categories:

- a citizen of Canada within the meaning of the Citizenship Act or a person registered as an Indian within the meaning of the Indian Act;
- a student who is the legal dependant of a Canadian citizen may be exempted from the international tuition rates. Documentation must be provided which verifies that the dependant status, e.g. by marriage or adoption, was instituted a minimum of three years prior to the deadline dates and that this status was continuously maintained to the date of application for exemption;

(iii) a person officially recognized by Citizenship and Immigration Canada as a permanent resident in Canada;

(iv) a student who is the legal dependant of a permanent resident may be eligible for exemption from the international tuition rates. Documentation must be provided which verifies that the dependant status, e.g. by marriage or adoption, was instituted a minimum of three years prior to the deadlines and that this status was continuously maintained to the date of application for exemption;

(v) an applicant for permanent resident status, provided the applicant has met all the preliminary requirements for the granting of that status, and provided the applicant obtains an official statement from Citizenship and Immigration Canada which confirms this;

(vi) a student who is the legal dependant of an applicant for permanent resident status (as outlined in category (v)) may be exempted from the international tuition rates. Documentation must be provided which verifies that the dependant status, e.g. by marriage or adoption, was established a minimum of three years prior to the deadline dates and was continuously maintained to the date of application for exemption;

(vii) a person who is admitted to and remaining in Canada, with official accreditation from the Canadian government, to carry out official duties as a diplomatic or consular officer; or as a Canadian government-accredited representative or official of a country other than Canada, of the United Nations or any of its agencies, of any intergovernmental organizations of which Canada is a member; or as a dependant or a member of the staff of any such diplomat, consular officer, representative or official accredited to Canada by the Canadian government; or a member of a foreign military force or of a civilian component thereof admitted to Canada under the Visiting Forces Act or any dependants of such personnel.

Note: a student who has been exempt under this category, but whose exemption status changes during the course of his/her program due to circumstances beyond the student's control, continues to be exempt from the payment of international student tuition for the duration of the program of study in which the student is registered at the time of the change in status. Contact the Registrar's Office regarding official documentation required;

(viii) a person and his/her dependants, who is officially recognized by Citizenship and Immigration Canada as admitted to and remaining in Canada for the purpose of employment. This category excludes graduate teaching and research assistants;

(ix) a person and his/her dependants, who is officially recognized by Citizenship and Immigration Canada as a Convention Refugee;

(x) a person and his/her dependants, who is a refugee claimant in Canada, only if the claim for refugee status was made to Citizenship and Immigration Canada before January 1, 1989;

(xi) a person who is a participant in an Ontario government sponsored exchange agreement.

B) International Tuition Rate

As the result of a policy decision made by the government of Ontario, all non-exempt international students in an undergraduate program of study are subject to the international tuition rate.

Note: All changes or corrections to your tuition rate on your York record must be done before the deadline dates below. Any changes or corrections made after these dates will only be applicable to the next term or session and will not be retroactive to any previous term or session.

Fall/Winter session

October 31 - deadline for reassessment at the domestic tuition rate for the complete fall/winter session.

January 31 - deadline for reassessment at the domestic tuition rate for the winter term only of the fall/winter session.

Summer session

June 30 - deadline for reassessment at the domestic tuition rate for the complete summer session.

July 16 - deadline for reassessment at the domestic tuition rate for certain summer session courses which begin later in the session, e.g. July 2. Questions regarding specific courses should be directed to the Registrar's Office.

International Students and the University Health Insurance Plan (UHIP)

International students who register in courses and attend York University are automatically enrolled in the mandatory University Health Insurance Plan (UHIP). Students can opt out only if they have comparable coverage under a limited number of pre-approved plans and should contact York International directly before purchasing alternate coverage. UHIP provides comprehensive medical coverage for students and eligible dependents who accompany them to Ontario.

The cost of the plan is based on the length of coverage and number of dependents. The premium charged is in addition to academic fees and is posted to the student's account. To receive proof of coverage, students must apply to York International, 108 Vanier College, at the beginning of each academic year. For further details, please visit the Web at <http://www.yorku.ca/yorkint/uhip/>, call 416-736-5028 or e-mail uhip@yorku.ca.

Methods of Payment

Students are encouraged to pay their fees and other charges (e.g. residence and meal plan) through electronic methods such as Web or telephone banking. For complete information, please refer to the Web at <http://www.yorku.ca/osfs/howtopay/>.

Outstanding Academic Debts

York University Senate policy stipulates that graduation privileges, enrolment, transcript requests etc. be withheld from any student until all outstanding financial liabilities to the University are settled.

Undergraduate students with an outstanding balance of $75 or more will be blocked from enrolling in courses at the University. In addition, certain sanctions are in place throughout the year such that academic and administrative services are withheld until the liabilities to the University are settled satisfactorily. For further information, please refer to the Web at <http://www.yorku.ca/osfs/>.

Tuition and Education Credit Certificate

In accordance with Canada Revenue Agency regulations, the University provides Web copies of the Tuition and Education Credit Certificates for eligible students by the end of February each year. Forms are posted to the Web where students can print copies as needed. These forms are not mailed to students. Entitlements are based on the calendar year rather than the academic year. For further details on these tax forms, please see the Web at <http://www.yorku.ca/osfs/taxforms/>.

Eligible Tuition Fees

Only direct tuition fees are eligible for the tuition tax credit. Both the supplementary fees and any course material fees you pay are not eligible and will not be included in the receipt.

Education Benefit: Months in Attendance

In order to be eligible for the education benefit in any month, a student must be registered for at least part of the month.

For information concerning eligibility and entitlement, as well as other aspects of income tax requirements, please consult the Canada Revenue Agency's Web site, or contact your local Canada Revenue Agency office.

Residents of Quebec: York does not routinely distribute the Certificate Respecting the Exemption for Full-time Post-Secondary Studies (TP-697V) required by Revenu Québec. Quebec residents attending York who require this form in order to complete an income tax return should contact Glendon Student Financial Services at 416-487-6701 for assistance.

Service Charges

Late charges are calculated monthly on outstanding student account balances. For complete information, please refer to the Web at <http://www.yorku.ca/osfs/othercharges/>.

Scholarships, Bursaries, Awards and Prizes

General Information

Financial assistance is available to York University undergraduate students from a variety of sources, such as government assistance programs, York University specific awards and awards from external organizations. York University offers undergraduate students entrance and in-course scholarships, prizes and medals in recognition of scholastic achievement. A number of additional awards and bursaries are also offered to recognize community involvement, leadership or assist students with demonstrated financial need. Awards are funded by the University or donated by corporations, associations and private individuals. All awards listed are subject to change without notice. An award search database is available on the Student Financial Services Web site. However, there are some scholarship and bursary funds available to international students. For further information, students should contact the York International Office, 108 Vanier College, telephone 416-736-5177.

Entrance Awards

York University Entrance Scholarships

Donor: York University

a) York University offers President's Scholarships to those secondary school applicants entering a first-year daytime undergraduate program with the highest entrance averages. These awards are renewable for up to four years of undergraduate study, provided the student maintains the required academic standing. The required academic standing for renewability is a grade point average of 7.8 in all Faculties. Scholarships are renewed based on the sessional grade point average and once lost cannot be regained.

b) The York University Renewable Entrance Scholarships are awarded to secondary school applicants entering a first-year undergraduate program who complete the Ontario Secondary School Diploma and six Grade 12 U or M courses (or its equivalent), including Grade 12 U English and all Faculty-specific prerequisites, with high academic standing. To renew the scholarship, students must have achieved a cumulative grade point average of 8.0 in a minimum of 24 credits in the previous fall/winter and summer sessions.

c) York University offers Faculty of Fine Arts Talent Awards to applicants entering a first-year daytime undergraduate program in the Faculty of Fine Arts who demonstrate exceptional talent in their chosen field of study.

d) Science and Engineering Scholarships are offered to outstanding students entering the first-year of study in the Faculty of Science and Engineering.

e) Provost's Awards are offered to community college applicants who present high academic standing.

f) Glendon offers five Quebec Entrance Scholarships to applicants who have completed two years of CEGEP, have graduated with a diploma, have high academic standing and are entering a second-year program of study at Glendon.

The Governor General's Awards of Distinction

The Governor General's Awards of Distinction are York University's most prestigious undergraduate entrance scholarships. These awards were established to recognize exceptional academic achievement and individual accomplishment among entering undergraduates. Candidates must be students in their final year of study in a secondary school who will be seeking admission into first-year undergraduate study at York University in any discipline. They must possess an outstanding scholastic record and will have other accomplishments—such as community service, achievement in arts or sports, or excellence in other areas of individual endeavour—which demonstrates the wholeness of the person and grace of character. The application form is available from secondary school guidance offices, York's Scholarships and Bursaries unit of Student Financial Services and on the York Admissions Web site at <http://www.yorku.ca/web/futurestudents/>.

Donor: York University Alumni Association

The York University Alumni Association (YUAA) is committed to providing goods, services and programs that facilitate the life-long process of education and personal development for all York graduates. The YUAA is equally committed to advancing the interests of York University itself. Whether the activity be in the form of advocacy, counsel, philanthropy or any other form of volunteer assistance, the graduates of York University have a unique and valuable role to fill in promoting the excellence, welfare and prestige of the University. Two Alumni Awards of Distinction are awarded annually.

Governor General's Award of Distinction: The Betty Jean and John M. Bankes Entrance Scholarship

Donor: John M. Bankes and Family

This award has been made possible through the generosity of John Bankes, a member of the University's Board of Governors, and that of his family. The award honours their parents for their long-standing encouragement to family and others to pursue higher education. The Betty Jean and John M. Bankes Entrance Scholarship will be granted once every four years.

Governor General's Award of Distinction: Bruce Bryden Entrance Scholarship

Donor: Board of Governors Colleagues, Family and Friends of the late Bruce Bryden

Bruce Bryden (1942-1992) was a member of York University's first class of students in 1960, later graduating in the Glendon class of 1964. Bruce was a tireless volunteer leader whose legacy and personal qualities will always be celebrated. In 1965, he was elected as founding president of the York University Alumni Association. Subsequently, he became the first York graduate to be appointed to the University Senate, and then in 1971 to the Board of Governors, where he served for 20 years. Ultimately he set high standards as the Chair of the Board from 1982 until his untimely passing. Bruce Bryden was devoted to the entire University, modestly but genuinely proud of its many exceptional achievements. Typical of Glendon graduates, he cherished not only his student memories at Glendon but also the history, warmth, beauty and feelings of this campus as a special place. The Bruce Bryden Entrance Scholarship will be granted once every four years.

Governor General's Award of Distinction: John S. Proctor Entrance Scholarship

Donor: Friends and Colleagues of John S. Proctor

This award honours John S. Proctor, former chancellor and Chair of the University's Board of Governors, and also commemorates the University's 25th anniversary. It has been made possible by the generosity of past and present members of the board. John S. Proctor was a banker, tennis champion and philanthropist who served on York's Board of Governors for many years and eventually became chancellor in 1982. Mr. Proctor rendered untold hours of service to York University. He became a model of excellence and was recognized for his personal integrity, graceful counsel and wise leadership. The John S. Proctor Entrance Scholarship will be awarded annually.

Governor General's Award of Distinction: Murray Ross Entrance Scholarship

Donor: Dr. Murray G. Ross

Murray G. Ross, a native of Nova Scotia, received his university education at Acadia University, the University of Toronto, the University of Chicago and Columbia University. He has been a member of the academic staff of the University of Toronto and served as its vice-president from 1957-1960. In 1960, Dr. Murray G. Ross became the president of York University. It was his insight, commitment and leadership which helped to build the University. This award honours York students who share these qualities. The Murray Ross Entrance Scholarship will be granted once every two years.

Awards of Distinction Merit Scholarships

These scholarships are awarded to applicants short-listed for the Awards of Distinction. Refer to the criteria listed above.

Ray and Joe Abramson Award in Mathematics and Statistics

Donor: Blanca Abramson and Professor Morton Z. Abramson

The award will be given annually to a student entering first year in a major program within the Department of Mathematics and Statistics, who is a Canadian citizen, permanent resident or protected person, a resident of Ontario, and who demonstrates financial need. Candidates must have a demonstrated record of extracurricular involvement in a math-related club and/or activity. Should there not be a suitable first-year candidate, the award will be given to an upper year mathematics and statistics student who has demonstrated a record of extracurricular involvement in a math-related club and/or activity. This award commemorates the parents of Professor Morton Abramson, who retired in 2004 after 37 years at York University. It is created as a tribute to Professor Abramson's wide-ranging contributions to student and faculty life in the Department of Mathematics and Statistics, at York University, and within the wider community.

Alexander Lithographers Award

Donor: Alexander Lithographers

As a friend and supporter of York University since its inception, Alexander Lithographers has witnessed the evolution of the University from its modest beginnings at the Glendon campus in 1959 to its current status as a renowned Canadian university. The Alexander Lithographers Award has been established to provide an annual award to a deserving secondary school student entering a first-year program at York University. The successful applicant must have a minimum 85 per cent average at the time of admission to York, demonstrate financial need, be a Canadian citizen, permanent resident or protected person and be a resident of Ontario.

Applicants must have a minimum final admission average of 80 per cent (or equivalent) to be considered.

Harry W. Arthurs Alumni Entrance Scholarship

Donor: York University Alumni Association

The York University Alumni Association has established the Harry W. Arthurs Alumni Entrance Scholarship in commemoration of the achievements of Harry W. Arthurs, president of York University from 1985 to 1992, and in celebration of the 30th anniversary of York University. President Arthurs' unflinching commitment to building excellence into the University's academic, social, cultural and physical development was fundamental in shaping its identity and direction. This award will be given to a student seeking admission into the first year of undergraduate study. To apply, candidates must be children or grandchildren of graduates holding a York University degree; be eligible for a York University Entrance Scholarship; and have a demonstrated record of participation and leadership in extracurricular student life.

Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies Entrance Scholarship

The York University Senate has provided Atkinson with Entrance Scholarships every year. The scholarships are awarded to selected applicants newly admitted to Atkinson who are: pursuing their first degree programs; mature (21 years and over), college or university transfer students; or are students under 21 years old who do not have access to other York entrance scholarships such as the Provost, York Entrance Scholarships, e.g. students who graduated from high school at least two years prior to admission to Atkinson and have not attended a postsecondary institution since; and students who demonstrate high academic potential through their previous academic/work/community and life experience.

Avie Bennett Awards

Donor: Avie Bennett

These awards are available to students entering their first year of full-time undergraduate study at the University who are applying from a permanent residence in the City of Brampton (Ontario), who are Canadian citizens, permanent residents or protected persons, who have demonstrated financial need, and who have a minimum 75 per cent average at the time of admission to the University.

Avie Bennett Visionary Leadership Scholarship

Donor: Avie Bennett

These awards will be available to students entering their first year of full time undergraduate study at the University who are applying from a permanent residence in the City of Brampton, who are Canadian citizens or permanent residents, who have demonstrated financial need, and who have a minimum 80 per cent average at the time of admission to the University. The students must also have a proven commitment to service and society, and a desire to continue that service as a leader while at York. The award is renewable for a maximum of four years on an annual basis provided the recipient has maintained a minimum grade point average of 7.8, continues to demonstrate financial need, and has a successful annual review of their new leadership project at York. A York Visionary Leadership Award is one of the most distinguished and celebrated awards that York provides selected incoming students. The key focus of York's Visionary Leaders will be to "find the difference that makes a difference" during their academic studies at York. They will do this by defining and implementing a forward-looking vision for service leadership as a full-time student at York. Students' projects will focus on service leadership in all its styles, and can be developed in areas as diverse as improving student life at York, using the expertise of their academic discipline to serve the community, or contributing to the needs of special populations or communities with special challenges. Examples of projects could be as varied as:

- A communications project to promote tolerance and respect for diversity on campus.
- A peer financial consulting service for new students.
- A performing arts project to raise funds for musical instruments and offer free lessons in the community.
- A mentoring program to work with students on First Nations reserves to help aboriginal students build their experience and eligibility for financial assistance to attend university.
- A young writers project to organize and find sponsors for an annual Canada-wide poetry writing competition for university students.
- A health promotion project to develop a smoking cessation program for York students.

York Visionary Leaders will work on their projects with the support of a mentoring team, spending the first one to two years developing the vision and plan for their leadership project and the last two to three years implementing the project.

Value of the Award:

Each Visionary Leadership Scholarship is worth a total of $38,000 over four years. Each recipient will receive as part of the award:

- Financial support for tuition and living expenses ($9,000/year for 4 years).
- Reimbursement of approved project costs (Up to $500 per year, depending on your project's needs and a review of the budget you submit to the Vice-President Students, with an overall maximum of $2000).

The Chancellor Bennett Entrance Awards for the Westview Partnership

Dr. Robert Lundell Achievement Bursary

Donor: Guy Burry and Elizabeth Lundell

This award has been established in honour of Dr. Lundell's long standing career at York University. As a faculty member of the Faculty of Science and a McLaughlin Fellow, Dr. Lundell was truly a York pioneer. Dr. Lundell's commitment to York University and its students extended far outside of the classroom, and over the years he has been an active participant and supporter of a wide range of university events and activities. This award has been established as encouragement to those who follow Dr. Lundell's example of active involvement in the university wide community. The successful applicant will have demonstrated commitment to York University outside of the classroom through extracurricular involvement. Examples include varsity and/or intramural athletics, volunteer activities, college affiliations, student government, student publications etc. This award is open to all third- or fourth-year undergraduate students at York University who have completed 10 university courses or York University equivalent with a minimum of five courses completed at York. The successful applicant must be in good academic standing with a minimum 7.0 (B+) average. A student may be eligible to receive this award in both their third and fourth year of their undergraduate program. Applicants must be Canadian citizens, permanent residents or protected persons, and Ontario residents who demonstrate financial need.

York University English Language Institute (YUELI) offers a range of non-credit, full-time and part-time English-language courses, primarily for students who wish to improve their English language skills for university entrance and/or professional advancement. Programs include:

YUELI Academic – a six-level program offered throughout the year that teaches the language, critical thinking, information retrieval and study skills required to be a successful undergraduate or graduate student in a university where English is the language of instruction. Completion of level six of this program with distinction, Honours or pass (depending on Faculty/program applied for) satisfies York's English language proficiency requirements for entry to most undergraduate and graduate programs.

Pre-MBA Program – a full-time, eight-week program offered twice a year, designed to prepare students who have already earned an undergraduate degree to be successful in an MBA program in an English-medium North American university.

YUELI Bytes – part-time programs (generally two evenings a week for eight weeks) that focus on specific aspects of English language proficiency such as Speaking English, Pronunciation and Business Writing.

Summer Language Program – a special four-week intensive program, offered in July and again in August, which emphasizes speaking and listening in English. Cultural visits and trips are an integral part of each course.

Custom-Designed Programs – developed, often in collaboration with a York Faculty, for specific groups of students with particular educational and/or professional needs. These programs can be delivered on-site at York University, elsewhere in Canada and abroad, or by distance education. Individual tutoring is also available.

Institute for Social Research (ISR)

The Institute for Social Research provides consultative and support services, many of which are offered without charge, to undergraduate students conducting research primarily in the social sciences, but also in the biological and physical sciences.

The Institute houses the largest university-based survey research organization in Canada and the staff of ISR's Survey Research Centre carries out all phases of survey research, from questionnaire and sample design, through data collection, to the preparation of machine-readable data files, statistical analyses and report writing.

The Institute's Statistical Consulting Service (SCS) provides assistance in research design, sampling, questionnaire design, statistical computing and statistical analysis. SCS also sponsors short courses on statistical analysis, research methodology and the use of statistical software (including SAS and SPSS). These courses are offered in the fall, winter and spring each year.

The Institute's annual Spring Seminar Series on Social Research Methods presents short courses in questionnaire and sample design, using focus groups for social research, how to analyze qualitative data, conducting Web-based surveys, and survey data analysis.

ISR's Data Archive provides access to results of studies conducted by the Institute and other major Canadian surveys. The archive also provides access to official statistics such as the census aggregate and public-use data files from the Canadian Census.

York students may contact the Institute to arrange for consultation in any of these areas or to enquire about upcoming courses.

Learning and Study Skills Programs

Centre for Academic Writing

The Centre for Academic Writing assists students to become effective independent writers, within both their academic life and elsewhere. The primary means of achieving this objective is through the centre's individualized tutoring program. All Faculty of Arts students are eligible to enrol in this program and take advantage of the opportunity to work on their writing with one of the centre's experienced faculty. The centre also regularly offers mini-courses on various issues related to writing effectively in university.

In addition, students can enrol in one of the centre's credit courses on writing in the humanities or the social sciences. These courses provide the opportunity for students to develop their writing in all phases: research, composing, drafting and revising by learning to integrate the latest research on the writing process into these activities. Please see the Courses of Instruction section of this calendar for more details.

Multimedia Language Centre

The Faculty of Arts Multimedia Language Centre provides service primarily to the Department of French Studies and the Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics. For more information, contact the Language Laboratory at S117 Ross, 416-736-5197.

Learning Skills

The Learning Skills Program in the Counselling and Development Centre offers individual learning skills counselling as well as regular workshops on selected topics designed to improve your study habits, organizational skills and learning strategies. Please consult the Student Services section below for further information.

Libraries

York's five libraries provide essential support for York's teaching, learning, and research activities. The largest of our libraries, Scott Library, holds our major collections in the humanities, social sciences, and fine arts. The Scott Library building also houses the Clara Thomas Archives, Special Collections, the Map Library, and the Sound and Moving Image Library. In addition to Scott, the Peter F. Bronfman Business Library, the Steacie Science and Engineering Library, and the Law Library are all located on the Keele campus. The Leslie Frost Library supports the curriculum and research on the Glendon campus in both French and English. All told, these libraries contain over 6.5 million items including books, periodicals, theses, archival materials, microforms, maps, films, videos, CDs, DVDs—even a skeleton.

Professional librarians are available in all these locations to assist with research needs. Assistance is available in person as well as by e-mail, telephone, and live Web chat. Instruction in library use and research methods is also offered by librarians in course-specific sessions and through general drop-in workshops. These classes provide an introduction to selecting and narrowing a research topic; finding books, scholarly journal articles, and Internet materials; critically evaluating information; and using it ethically. Students who attend these “information literacy” classes are better equipped to earn higher grades and, more importantly, to engage themselves as active learners in their courses and beyond.

The libraries have made both collections and services accessible on the Web. The libraries' Web site is available 24 hours a day at <http://www.library.yorku.ca>. In addition to standard online services such as book renewal, hold, and transfer requests, our site functions as a unique gateway to more than 37,000 full-text electronic scholarly journals and other electronic resources including e-books, encyclopedias, dictionaries, subject pathfinders, government documents, datasets, and image collections. The libraries also provide RefWorks®, a premier Web-based citation management program. All these licensed “e-resources” can be used online by students and researchers with YU-card (or other valid library card) from home or elsewhere beyond the library buildings. For additional information on how to access our e-resources remotely, please consult <http://www.library.yorku.ca/ccm/Home/eResources/RemoteAccess.htm>.

Even in this increasingly computer-mediated research environment, our print collections remain an important component of the resources to which we provide access. Because the libraries exist to meet the information and research needs of the whole York University community, borrowing regulations are essential to ensuring fair access to collections, services, and facilities. These regulations include the designation of specific loan periods, restrictions on the circulation of certain library materials, the definition of borrower privileges and responsibilities, and the definition of access to and the use of library services and facilities. Privileges are granted subject to users' continuing adherence to established library regulations. For more information, please see <http://www.library.yorku.ca/Home/About/Policies/LendingCode.htm>.

The libraries provide study facilities for students of various kinds. There are areas and furnishings suitable for group work, including some 30 group study rooms. There are also silent study rooms for both undergraduate and graduate use. In addition to the provision of alternate format materials for students with disabilities, we have an adaptive equipment lab for drop-in use. Students can sign out laptop computers for use in the library building or use any of our approximately 350 desktop computers, most of which also provide access to word processing, spreadsheet and presentation applications. Our libraries are open from early morning to late evening most days and the first floor of Scott Library is open for study until 1am most weeknights (see exact opening hours online: <http://www.library.yorku.ca/ccm/Home/Hours/index.htm>).

We welcome you to the libraries and we encourage frequent visits, whether you come to read at a carrel, debate with classmates in a group study room, or search a database through our Web site. Librarians and other library staff members are here to help students (and all researchers) get the most out of the libraries: do ask us!

Cooperative Childcare Centre

The York University Cooperative Daycare Centre, located in Atkinson Residence on the Keele campus has served the York community for 39 years. It is licensed for 119 children between the ages of six weeks and 10 years.

Fees range from $445 to $1,073 per month, plus one hour's participation per week per child. The centre has a Purchase of Service Agreement with the City of Toronto, that permits it to accept subsidized children. Priority is given to children of students, staff and faculty of the York University, then children from the surrounding community.

Qualified staff, playgrounds, delicious meals prepared on the premises and optional Martial Arts program are offered.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the daycare centre by telephone: 416-736-5190, or by e-mail daycare@yorku.ca or by mail to York University Co-operative Daycare Centre, 90 Atkinson Road, Apt. 128, Toronto, Ontario, M3J 2S5. You may download an application form from our Web site: <http://www.yorku.ca/daycare/>.

Counselling and Development Centre (CDC)

The Counselling and Development Centre (CDC) helps students to realize, develop and fulfill their personal and academic potential through an assortment of diverse programs.

Personal Counselling

York students are invited to discuss their personal concerns with a counsellor. In order to make an appointment, come to N110 The Bennett Centre for Student Services between 9am and 4:30pm Monday to Friday, or telephone 416-736-5297. All interviews are confidential.

Group Program

The CDC offers groups and workshops with a variety of focuses and themes, including: assertiveness training, effective presentation skills, eating and body image, anger management, achieving goals, stress management, mindfulness, building self-esteem and self-confidence and avoiding procrastination among others. Most groups are offered during both the fall and winter terms depending on enrolment.

Learning Skills

Through individual consultation and workshops, students can work at improving reading, listening, note taking, memory, time management, exam preparation, essay writing skills and academic stress management.

Learning Disabilities Program

The Learning Disabilities Program provides a range of specialized services to students with learning disabilities, including advice on courses and academic programs, academic accommodations, orientation to campus facilities and services, psychodiagnostic assessment, personal career counselling, learning skills counselling and workshops, peer tutoring, consultation and advocacy academic concerns.

Psychiatric Dis/Abilities Program

Educational support for students with on-going mental health issues such as depression, post traumatic stress, bipolar disorder, anxiety disorder and schizophrenia. Services include: annual orientation to campus, one-on-one educational support, access to assistive technology, learning skills workshops, peer groups/workshops and peer mentor program, advocacy and self-advocacy and linkages to community resources.

Community Mental Health Consultation and Outreach

The staff of CDC are available to consult with any member of the York University community with regard to aspects of campus psychological well-being and development. Outreach programs may be tailored to community needs.

The Counselling and Development Centre's reception area in N110 The Bennett Centre for Student Services, is open from 9am to 4:30pm Monday to Friday (telephone 416-736-5297). Web site: <http://www.yorku.ca/cdc/>.

Atkinson Counselling Centre

The Atkinson Counselling Centre is committed to supporting the emotional, social and academic well-being of the Atkinson student community through a variety of counselling and disability services.

Individual Personal Counselling

Full- and part-time students are often faced with a number of difficulties. Discussing these issues with a trained professional can be helpful in acquiring new skills, resources and approaches. Atkinson Counselling Centre offers individual consultation to the Atkinson student on a short-term basis. A simple phone call is all that is required to arrange an appointment. The Centre is gay, lesbian, transgender and bisexual positive and sensitive to cultural differences.

Special Needs

The academic problems faced by full-time and part-time learners can arise from a variety of sources. Upgrading courses and study skills workshops can address many of these needs. However, for some, academic problems can arise from disabilities related to a learning disability, or a physical or psychiatric disability. The Atkinson Counselling Centre is committed to helping students with Special Needs achieve success in the university setting. Counsellors trained in assisting students with Special Needs can provide assessment, academic adaptations, advocacy and individualized study skill instruction.

Workshops and Group Programs

Entering university as a full- or part-time student, resuming an interrupted university career, and attending classes while working, are just some of the special circumstances faced by Atkinson students. The Counselling Centre offers a variety of Skills Building and Personal Development Workshops designed to address student needs: Study Skills, Notetaking, Time Management, Understanding Anxiety, and Stress Management are examples of topics covered in workshops. The Centre will consider arranging workshops in any area relevant to members of the Atkinson community; your suggestions are welcome.

Career Exploration

Full-time and part-time learners are by definition involved in career development. In many cases Atkinson is a part of an overall plan leading to a new career, job enrichment, or simply a change in direction. A variety of resources are available at the Centre to assist in career exploration, development, and planning.

The Counselling Centre's office is open between the hours of 8:30am and 7pm, Monday through Thursday, and 9am to 4pm Friday. The Centre is open on Saturdays from 9am to 3pm by appointment only.

Atkinson Counselling Centre, 116 Atkinson Building; Telephone: 416-736-5225; Fax: 416-736-5782, TTY 416-736-5782.

Health Education and Promotion

Health Education and Promotion is located in the Centre for Student Community and Leadership Development. Students can schedule an appointment with a professional health educator who is available to provide referrals on health related needs and answer questions relating to sexual health, healthy relationships, birth control, smoking cessation, alcohol and drug information, as well as any other health related questions or concerns. All services are free and confidential. In addition, a team of Student Peer Health Educators deliver creative presentations, organize educational events and plan weekly programs such as Wellness Wednesday and Mellow Mondays. For more information on Health Education at York visit <http://www.yorku.ca/healthed/>, e-mail: healthed@yorku.ca or call 416-736-5196.

Office of the Ombudsperson and Centre for Human Rights

Welcome to York University's Office of the Ombudsperson and Centre for Human Rights. The mandate of the Office is to provide an independent, impartial and confidential process through which any current student or employee of the York University community may pursue the just, fair and equitable resolution of complaints about University-related concerns. Such complaints may be about:

- Alleged unfairness in a University process, application of a process or absence of a process as outlined in its policies, procedures, rules or directives
- Alleged discrimination and/or harassment as defined in the Ontario Human Rights Code or York University's human rights policies

The Office provides impartial information, advice, referrals, problem solving and informed intervention. We are available to listen to concerns, issues, and complaints; to clarify university policy and procedure; to explore informal and alternative conflict resolution options; and, to help you find the person or department that can address your inquiries. Sometimes we will conduct an investigation but mostly we mediate and facilitate resolutions between people. We collaborate and coordinate with other offices across York as needed to solve problems and miscommunications as they arise.

The Ombuds Office can be your "last resort," offering assistance when existing channels, processes, and procedures have failed to adequately address or bring resolution to a problem. Or, we may be your first stop when you do not know where to begin.

In terms of Human Rights, the Office assists individuals and groups to address and resolve allegations of discrimination and harassment as defined by the Ontario Human Rights Code along with York's Human Rights policies and provisions. If you have or are dealing with a human rights complaint, for example, sexual harassment or racial discrimination, our Office is available at any time to assist.

The Office plays a significant role in promoting Human Rights through the distribution of information and educational programming. Additionally, the Office houses an extensive and expanding collection of print and audio-visual resources, which are available to members of the York community.

The Ombudsperson and Director of the Centre for Human Rights at York University reports to the President of the University but has an arm's length relationship and is independent of all administrative structures. The role of the Ombudsperson is to provide all university constituencies an accessible, impartial, non-adversarial, and confidential resource for the timely and fair resolution of problems. The Ombudsperson works independently and objectively to assist in mediating and resolving misunderstandings and disagreements. The universally recognized features of Ombudship include: Independence, Flexibility, Accessibility and Credibility.

The Office of the Ombudsperson and Centre for Human Rights is located at S327 Ross South Building. It is open daily from 9am to 5pm and if you need to see us outside office hours, we can arrange that. You can reach us at 416-736-5682, TTY 416-650-8023 or by e-mail at ombuds@yorku.ca.

Office for Persons with Disabilities

The Office for Persons with Disabilities (OPD) provides information, support and advocacy on behalf of students, staff and faculty with physical and sensory disabilities as well as medical conditions.

Office assistance includes advising on financial and academic matters, referrals for personal counselling as well as other University services and community resources such as the Independent Living Assistance program.

If you have received your acceptance to the University, it is in your best interest to contact the OPD as soon as possible.

While the OPD offers a short orientation, we do suggest that you take part in your college or Faculty orientation, which will provide you with valuable information and give you the opportunity to meet fellow peers.

The Office for Persons with Disabilities is open Monday to Friday, 9am to 4pm. The office is located in N108 Ross Building. 416-736-5140 Voice, 416-736-5263 TTY, 416-650-8068 Fax. You may also reach us by e-mail at opd@yorku.ca, or online at <http://www.yorku.ca/opd/>.

Religious Activities

York University offers a unique environment for faith-based programming on campus. The Interfaith Council is designed to provide a forum where harmony and good will permit the diversified religious communities at York to address common concerns and express mutual support.

The Interfaith Council at York is administered and supported by the Centre for Student Community and Leadership Development (SC&LD), which devotes staff time and resources to the smooth and effective operation of the Interfaith Council with a view of enhancing the faith-based student club experience at York. The Chair and other members of the Interfaith Council may be contacted through SC&LD, N200 Bennett Centre for Student Services, 416-736-5144.

The Scott Religious Centre provides a comfortable chapel for religious services and peaceful meditation room for individual introspection and quiet prayer. It also provides office space for many of the faith-based student clubs.

The chapel may be booked on a regular basis or for a single religious event through SC&LD (416-736-5144) from September 1 through April 30 and Hospitality York (416-736-5020) from May 1 through August 31. The Scott Religious Centre has entrances on the ground floor in Central Square and outside on the second floor between the Scott Library and the Ross Building.

For more information visit our Web site <http://www.yorku.ca/scld/organizations/>.

Security, Parking and Transportation Services

York University Security Services

York University Security Services is located in the William Small Centre, room 228, at the Keele Campus and in the Greenhouse at the Glendon Campus. We are comprised of dedicated security personnel who are focused on the delivery of quality security services to all people within our community. Our service is "community based". This means we seek collegial partnerships with community stakeholders and provide inclusive solutions to security problems for our campus' that best meet the needs of the large and diverse community we serve. Security Services remains committed to the timely delivery of security services in a professional and sensitive manner, treating all persons with the utmost respect, dignity and absolute fairness.

York University Security Services is comprised of four groups: patrol, property watch, campus relations and investigations. Each partners with various community groups or external agencies to provide a specific need to the community, such as pro-active patrolling, service response, emergency response, pro-active event planning, crime prevention, safety programs, statistical analysis, outreach/liaison, and investigation of complaints and criminal activity. Security Services has partnerships within the University community and with external agencies and organizations to provide a better, more efficient and effective service to our community.

The security and safety of the campus requires the cooperation and support of the whole community. Security Services encourages the community to take personal precautions and report any suspicious activity immediately.

The Security Control Centre is staffed and operational 24 hours a day/365 days a year. Any security related information may be obtained by contacting Security Services' general telephone number at 416-650-8000 or extension 58000. For all urgent matters contact 416-736-5333 or extension 33333.

Security Control Centre

Located in the William Small Centre, room 228, the Security Control Centre is open 24 hours a day/365 days a year and houses a dispatch centre, Closed Circuit Television Operation (CCTV), alarm monitoring equipment and a first aid station. The Security Control Centre ensures that appropriate community related security services and emergency response are available to the Keele and Glendon community at all times.

Security Officers

Security Officers are customer service professionals trained in non-violent crisis intervention, crime prevention, emergency response, first aid, CPR, Automated External Defibrillators, and a variety of other relevant skills. While maintaining strong working relationships with the Toronto Police Service, they serve a different role. Their primary duties are to provide community security services, proactive visual patrolling, medical response and a variety of other duties, such as assisting community members, alarm response, responding to reports of crime, report writing and investigations. Uniform officers can be seen on foot patrol, in marked patrol vehicles and on mountain bikes. Security Officers have extensive knowledge of York University regulations, grounds, departments and services.

Campus Relations

Campus Relations Officers are a support body within Security Services that initiates and formulates proactive security and safety oriented communication ties with community groups, activity leaders, administration, and academic liaisons. Campus Relations Officers function in a security capacity for events and incidents, using community liaisons to manage the security component of the events. The aim is to provide prevention, non-violent crisis intervention and/or de-escalation, information services and readiness. These officers actively educate community members regarding departmental policies, activities and accomplishments, as well as provide tips about personal safety.

York University Security Services - Behind the Scenes

Investigations

In addition to investigating and providing follow-up to criminal and provincial offences committed on campus, York Security Services proactively researches upcoming events to ensure student safety while continuing to provide a peaceful forum for York educational objectives. On a continual basis Security Services works in conjunction with the Toronto Police Service to enhance the level of service provided to our community.

Crime Prevention

Part of Security Services' crime prevention mandate consists of compiling and analysing statistical information to proactively deploy campus patrols and formulate crime prevention programs and services. These programs are designed to educate people in the community. Through education, individuals become increasingly resilient to the factors that can trigger and influence criminal behaviour. The department also fosters Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED) to make it harder, riskier, or less rewarding for offenders to commit crime. The CPTED program introduces ways to deter crime by changing the design of buildings and public spaces.

Emergency Preparedness

York Security Services actively upgrades and sustains an emergency response plan, which is designed to protect life and property, prevent injury, and reduce the negative impact of an emergency on the University community.

Medical Assistance

York Security Services provides 24-hour medical assistance to individuals experiencing illness or injury. The advanced Security Control Dispatch Centre allows the department to ensure appropriate emergency services are dispatched and escorted to the scene, ensuring the fastest and most appropriate response in an emergency.

For more information, please visit our Web site at <http://www.yorku.ca/security/>.

goSAFE

The primary role of the goSAFE program is to provide safer movement after dark for students, faculty and staff. Student Safety Officers will meet you at campus bus stops, parking lots, buildings and/or residences and safely accompany you to either your destination or one of the goSAFE stops on campus. There are two routes on campus the North Route and the South Route with 11 pick up/drop off locations. It is a complimentary safety service provided to the York community by Security, Parking and Transportation Services, CSBO. The Service operates daily during the academic year (September to April) from 6pm to 2am, and during the summer months (May to August) from 8pm to 2am.

For more information, please call York Student Security/Escort Service at 416-736-5454 or ext. 55454, or visit us at <http://www.yorku.ca/gosafe/>.

Lost and Found

A Lost and Found office is maintained on the Keele campus at N107 Ross, with operating hours from 11am to 3pm, Mondays through Fridays, and from 5 to 7pm, on Wednesdays and Thursdays. We can also be reached via e-mail lost@yorku.ca. If you are leaving a message by phone or e-mail, please indicate a description of the item that you lost, the date and time that you last saw it, and a contact name and number (or e-mail) where you can be reached. Any items turned into this office are retained for 30 days only. On the Glendon campus, enquiries should be directed to the Security and Parking Office in the Greenhouse, or call 416-487-6808.

The University regrets that it cannot be responsible for items of personal property left unattended on the grounds or within buildings.

Parking Services

A limited supply of parking permits are available to all community members on a first come, first serve basis. Parking Services encourages early purchases for the availability of space and to avoid any line ups.

Please ensure you have fully completed an application form. Incomplete applications will result in unnecessary delays. In order to purchase a parking permit you must provide a valid vehicle ownership or registration (photocopy of the front and back of your vehicle ownership will be sufficient for mail/fax and drop off applications). If the vehicle driver is different than the vehicle owner, the vehicle owner must also sign the application.

Parking permits can not be issued to persons or vehicles with outstanding violations on their parking account. For information regarding outstanding violations please call 416-736-5705 for Keele campus, and 416-487-6788 for Glendon campus and ask to speak with a Violations Officer.

Acceptable payment methods to purchase your permit are cash, cheque, debit, Visa, Mastercard or AMEX. To avoid line-ups and the need to apply in person, applications can be processed by mail/fax.

Applicants renewing their parking permits may be eligible to renew online. Please visit our Web site at <http://www.yorku.ca/parking/> for more information.

Transportation Services

Carpooling

Carpooling is a simple way for students and staff to save thousands on gas, maintenance and parking by sharing a ride. Carpooling is an effective option for individuals who commute long distances to and from school/work and have limited access to public transit. For information on how to start carpooling or to register for a free ride-matching service, go to the Smart Commute North Toronto, Vaughan Web site <http://www.smartcommuteNTV.ca> to find a carpool partner to York University. On average it costs $9,000 a year to own and operate a personal vehicle. When you switch from driving alone, you can save a lot of money while helping to reduce traffic congestion, improve air quality and conserve energy.

VAN GO

VAN GO is a service designed to assist persons with disabilities with their transportation needs at York University. This service is a joint effort between Transportation Services and the Office for Persons with Disabilities, in consultation with ABLE York. The service operates from 8am to 10pm, Mondays to Fridays, during the academic year.

For more information, please call 416-736-2100 ext. 82646 (VANGO) or the Office for Persons with Disabilities at 416-736-5140.

Sport and Recreation

York University, through the School of Kinesiology and Health Science, has developed programs in both sport and recreation, aimed at offering opportunities across the broad continuum of physical activity to all students. Programs are designed to allow individuals to select appropriate levels of physical activity participation and, where possible, personal development, wellness and/or leadership opportunities to meet their individual needs and aspirations.

Students not only have the opportunity to participate in sport and recreation activities at York, but become involved in the planning, organization and implementation of programs, either as a volunteer, workstudy student or part-time employee. The University also encourages students to take advantage of the exciting environment generated through Sport and Recreation at York by attending events held on campus throughout the season.

Interuniversity Sport

The interuniversity sport program is an integral part of the University's educational mission and complements the potential for personal growth that the York experience fosters. All full-time students are welcome to try out for any of the 23 interuniversity teams offered by Sport York. Sport programs give student athletes the opportunity for skill development and the pursuit of excellence through qualified coaching and competitive schedules.

A Proud and Growing Tradition - For more than 36 years, York University student athletes have been making their mark on the Canadian sport scene. Provincial and national team titles, combined with numerous athletes and coaches who participate on many of Canada's national teams, attest to the success of York University.

Coaches - The coaching staff at York is composed of experienced, highly qualified and dedicated professionals, many of whom hold full-time positions within the University. A majority of our coaches also hold leadership positions in provincial and national sport organizations and are experts in their field of coaching. These individuals are dedicated to the attainment of the student athletes' potential in the sport and in the classroom.

Varsity Teams - York University offers the opportunity to participate at the highest level of university competition. In Ontario, universities compete in each sport for the provincial championship title within Ontario University Athletics (OUA). Nationally, York competes within Canadian Interuniversity Sport (CIS).

Men's Teams - badminton, basketball, cross country, football, ice hockey, soccer, swimming, tennis, track and field, volleyball and water polo.

Women's Teams - badminton, basketball, cross country, field hockey, ice hockey, rugby, soccer, swimming, tennis, track and field, volleyball and water polo.

Recreation

An important dimension of the total educational experience is the participation in physical activity. The Recreation York program provides an opportunity for the University community to participate in a wide range of activities including intramural sport competitions, fitness/lifestyle and instructional classes, sport clubs and casual recreation. The aim of the program is to provide activities that meet the individual needs, interests and abilities of York students. Registered students may enrol free of charge in most Recreation York programs (space permitting).

Intramural Sports - A variety of individual and team activities are offered at both a competitive and recreational level. Featuring 44 tournament and sport leagues including three-on-three basketball and the All-Night Rage

Volleyball Tournament. Join a team from your college or form your own team with a group of university friends.

Fitness/Lifestyle and Instructional Classes - For the fitness enthusiast, more than 50 instructional classes are offered each week. Several different levels of step classes, total body conditioning, cardio taekwondo and hi/lo are among the variety of fitness classes available. For those with other interests, instructional courses are offered in the areas of martial arts, dance, aquatics, relaxation and sports like tennis, skating and squash (for an additional charge).

Sport Clubs - For those who would like to join other members of the York community in an activity or sport that may not be offered at either the interuniversity or intramural level, there is a sport club program. Squash, table tennis and curling are a few of the many clubs waiting to welcome new members.

Casual Recreation - For those who like to swim, run, skate, play tennis or squash, or work out, there are many casual recreational opportunities for the person who enjoys the flexibility of self-directed physical activity. Of particular interest is the Tait McKenzie Fitness Centre, featuring state of the art exercise machines and free weights, and staffed by qualified fitness personnel who can assist with equipment use and provide exercise prescription. There are also casual use times set aside in facilities such as the gymnasium and the ice rink for pick-up hockey, skating, badminton, basketball, volleyball, indoor soccer, table tennis, outdoor tennis and squash.

Facilities

York University offers state-of-the-art sport and recreation facilities and amenities. At the Keele campus, the Tait McKenzie Centre serves as the centre of activity. For outdoor events, York Stadium is the main attraction. The University also serves as the home of the City of Toronto Track and Field Centre, the Rexall (tennis) Centre and Canlan Ice Sports - York. At the Proctor Field House on the Glendon campus, a variety of facilities and amenities are also available, including a renovated gymnasium and unique walking/hiking trails that lead to local parks.

Keele Campus - stadium, four gymnasia, five studios, five squash courts, five sport playing fields, three softball fields, nine outdoor tennis courts, swimming pool, a recreational cricket pitch, a 12,000 square foot fitness centre with 45 cardio machines, 23 selectorized machines and free weights and a Sport Injury Clinic.

Plus - Canlan Ice Sports at York University (six rinks), City of Toronto Track and Field Centre at York University (indoor and outdoor), Rexall Centre (outdoor and indoor tennis courts).

Glendon Campus - two gymnasia, five squash courts, swimming pool, fitness studio, weight room, indoor golf driving range, three outdoor tennis courts, softball diamond, playing field, walking/hiking trails.

The Centre for Student Community and Leadership Development (SC&LD)

Reporting to the Assistant Vice President, Student Community Development, the Centre for Student Community and Leadership Development is dedicated to continuously improving the quality of student life at York University.

Through the efforts of a dedicated, student focused staff team, the Centre coordinates a wide range of services and activities which directly benefit students' communal and co-curricular life on the York University campus, including: leadership development; student government liaison; elections support; administration of student clubs; off-campus housing listings; coordination of first-year Orientation events, the Information Fair and Parents' Orientation; Health Education and Promotion, and Residence Life and York is U. Through a combination of assessment, planning, and meaningful program design, we can effectively maximize opportunities for academic excellence and personal development.

Student Community and Leadership Development enriches student life by promoting education, awareness and growth; celebrating diversity, encouraging collaboration and developing citizenship.

The Centre for Student Community and Leadership Development is located at N200 Bennett Centre for Student Services, 416-736-5144; TDD 416-736-5940. E-mail: sclcd@yorku.ca. Online at: <http://www.yorku.ca/sclcd/>.

Student Conduct and Dispute Resolution

The Office of Student Conduct and Dispute Resolution is responsible for administering the University's non-academic Student Code of Conduct. Under the Code, students are expected to conduct themselves in a way that supports an atmosphere of civility, diversity, equity and respect. Any community member may file a complaint about a student or group of students under the Code. Students wishing to make a complaint about another student's behaviour must complete a Complaint Form and submit it to the Office of Student Conduct and Dispute Resolution. The office will assess the complaint and take appropriate action. The office also provides advice, referrals and services related to conflicts and dispute resolution. For more information on the Code, filing a complaint or seeking advice please visit <http://www.yorku.ca/scdr/> or call 416-736-5231.

Student Government

The York Federation of Students is dedicated to the representation and support of the student movement at York University. It is a democratic, non-profit, service-oriented organization committed to working towards a university environment wherein members of the federation (all undergraduate students) can pursue academic excellence as well as personal and social growth free from all forms of discrimination and harassment.

YFS is committed to universally accessible postsecondary education and rejects all impediments to postsecondary education including, but not limited to, financial constraints through tuition fees, residence costs, streaming and discrimination based upon gender, race, sexual orientation, class, religion, colour, ethnicity, nationality, geographic location, state of health or age.

The federation strives for the highest quality of postsecondary education available. It supports student organizations, on and off campus, which promotes its stated principle.

The federation offers many services, including a health plan, a student datebook, a courtesy phone, five cent photocopies and free International Student Identity Cards and Student Saver Cards.

YFS is located in Room 336 in the Student Centre, 416-736-5324. Come and visit for more information.

College and Faculty Student Governments

Student governments take different forms in each of the colleges and the Faculties but have the same general goal - to serve their student members using funds made available to them each year and to represent their interests in a variety of dealings with the University Faculties, service offices and departments, both academic and administrative.

Graduate Student Governments

At the graduate level, the student governments are the Graduate Students' Association, the Graduate Business Council, and the Graduate Environmental Studies Students' Association. Each of these organizations collects an annual levy from its members to finance its activities and programs. Student societies receive over one million dollars of support in this way. Annual elections within each unit provide the executive officer group which is responsible for the administration and accounting for these funds. Many of these organizations publish newspapers and newsletters to inform their members about their services and programs.

Other Student Organizations

Eleven student organizations receive annual levies from their constituents: Excalibur Publications, CHRY North York Community Radio, Community and Legal Aid Services Program (CLASP), ProTem, Theatre Glendon, Ontario Public Interest Research Group (OPIRG) (refundable), Glendon Women's Centre, York Women's Centre (refundable), the Atkinson Essay Service (Atkinson students only), Sexual Assault Survivor's Support Line (SASSL) (refundable) and World University Services of Canada (WUSC) (refundable). These organizations are subject to the same financial reporting requirements as student governments. Constitutions and financial reports of these councils are public documents and are available through the Centre for Student Community and Leadership Development, or the office of the individual organization.

Student Representation on University Committees

The participation of students in the governance of the University is an important element in effective decision making and policy development at York University. Students are entitled to participate as full voting members on the Board of Governors, the University Senate, Faculty Councils and other bodies. The system of governance established by the York University Act is bicameral, with two central governing bodies: the Board of Governors and the Senate. Decision-making powers are divided and/or shared among the Chancellor, the President, the Board and the Senate and some of these powers are delegated to or shared with other bodies.

The Board of Governors. The Board of Governors is vested by the York Act with authority for the "government, conduct, management and control of the University and of its property, revenues, expenditures, business and affairs". The board consists of 30 members in addition to the President and the Chancellor. There are two designated seats on the board for students. By agreement of the board and the Student Senator Caucus, the selection of one student nominee each year has been done through a process of popular election among registered York University students, usually held in the spring. Upon election, the student's nomination must be confirmed by the Student Senator Caucus and recommended to the board. The term of office is two years. The board conducts much of its business through committees such as the Finance and Audit Committee, the Academic Resources Committee, Land and Property Committee, the Student Relations Committee, the Investment Committee and Community Affairs Committee.

The Senate. The Senate is responsible for the academic policy of the University, including the recommendation to establish new Faculties and colleges, admission standards, student aid policies, the establishment of degrees and diplomas and the structure and content of all academic programs. It is composed of the Chancellor, the President, the Chair and representatives of the Board of Governors, vice-presidents, deans, department Chairs and elected faculty members from each Faculty with some representation from other groups both inside and outside the University. Students are elected to the senate through their Faculty Councils. Student representation on senate constitutes 15 per cent of the total number of senate seats and elections are conducted each March. Students are represented on most senate committees, examples of which include Executive; Tenure and Promotion; Senate Appeals; Academic Policy and Planning; Curriculum and Academic Standards; Libraries and Information Technology; Admissions, Recruitment and Student Assistance; and Research.

Faculty Councils. York University consists of 11 Faculties and each has a Faculty Council which is responsible for making decisions on the variety of matters affecting the curriculum and academic policies of the Faculty. Each Faculty Council is a committee of senate and has, in turn, a number of council committees on which students sit as members. More details on the specific structure and student participation in a Faculty Council may be obtained through the office of the secretary of the council in your Faculty.

Students are also members of a variety of advisory and decision-making bodies throughout the University. Information about these positions can be obtained by contacting academic units or administrative offices. General questions about student participation in university governance should be directed to the University Secretariat (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/>).

The Centre for Women and Trans People

The Centre for Women and Trans People ("the Centre") is a student-funded, collectively run, volunteer-driven organization at York University. We are a progressive, pro-choice, anti-racist, queer-positive, trans-positive, feminist organization committed to:

- breaking the social isolation that women and trans people face on campus through programming, socials and networking events;
- individual and collective empowerment through esteem building, education and decolonization;
- providing services such as peer-to-peer crisis intervention, peer counselling, advocacy and referrals from a feminist, anti-oppressive framework;
- acting as a resource base for understanding, exposing and organizing on issues around gender violence and social justice;
- creating working relationships between students and the University administration, where students are directly involved in developing programs and policies that make the campus safer for everyone;
- developing a culture of resistance and celebration by supporting initiatives by local artists.

We offer a comfortable lounge with couches and chairs, free phone, computer and Internet access, a fridge, a microwave and good company! Whether you want to debrief with someone about your day, or are looking for a place to chill, eat your lunch, catch up on your readings, get involved in our work — don't be shy, drop by and check us out!

All Atkinson students enrolled in Atkinson courses, at whatever level, and at any stage of a particular course assignment, are welcome to make appointments at the Centre. Appointments are for fifty minutes and are available evenings Monday through Thursday. Daytime appointments are available on some weekdays and on Saturday. The Centre is located on the first floor of Atkinson. Appointments for individual and group sessions can be made at 118 Atkinson Building (Writing Programs/Essay Tutoring Centre) or by calling 416-736-5289.

York International

York International (YI) is the central international education office of York University. York International's three major areas of programming for students are: International Student Services and Programs; Student Mobility; and Internationalization Programming.

International Student Services and Programs (ISSP)

York International provides programs and services for international students such as international student orientation, as well as advising and workshops throughout the year on such topics as income tax and options for graduating students.

Student Mobility

York International administers the York Exchange Program, which allows students to earn some of their academic credits while studying overseas. The York International Internship Program also allows students the chance for growth through an international experience – in this case by working in another country. York International also provides information for students on where to start for other study, work, or volunteer abroad options.

Internationalization Programming

Through programming such as the Emerging Global Leaders Program (EGLP) and Kaleidoscope, a student-run radio show about international issues, York International helps all York students add an international component to their degree.

York International is located at 108 Vanier College, and can be reached via telephone at 416-736-5177, via e-mail at yiinfo@yorku.ca and on the Internet at <http://international.yorku.ca>.

Housing

Undergraduate Residences

Living on campus presents an affordable opportunity for undergraduate students to experience a diverse community and make lifelong friends while being conveniently situated at the centre of social, cultural and academic life, with a wide array of campus services at their doorstep.

York has approximately 2,280 beds available for undergraduate students across eight buildings on the Keele campus, and an additional 400 on the Glendon campus. Most residences are arranged in a traditional style with comfortably furnished double and single rooms, and shared common lounges and washrooms. With most rooms, students will purchase a mandatory meal plan that can be used at over 35 food outlets offering a wide selection of food types on the Keele campus and a main dining hall and fast food outlet at the Glendon campus. York's Keele campus also has some space available in suite-style units where groups of four to six students share a small kitchen, living area and in-suite washroom. The Pond Road Residence is York's Keele campus newest undergraduate residence and offers 428 spaces arranged in 2 bedroom suites, each with a separate washroom and kitchen. Residence costs will vary according to accommodation styles; however, students should estimate $7,000 for a typical arrangement of a double occupancy room with a meal plan.

Undergraduate students are welcome to apply for residence as long as they enrol in and plan to remain in a minimum of 24 credits or four full courses. Residence offers will be guaranteed to all first year students, if they apply by the deadline of June 1, 2008. Information about how to apply online to residence will be included with your offer of admission to York.

York Student Apartments

On the Keele campus only, accommodation is also available in the York apartments to eligible law, graduate and other mature students who are 21 years of age or over or who require family style accommodation.

A limited number of York apartments are available to students with physical disabilities.

The apartments consist of furnished and unfurnished bachelor, one-bedroom and two-bedroom units. The York apartments are not suitable for a couple with more than two children.

For more information about student housing on campus, contact:

Beverage Services

University regulations governing The Sale, Service and Use of Alcohol on Campus are at <http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies/document.php?document=36>.

Specific areas in the University are approved for the sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages under York's policies and licences granted to various independent campus caterers by the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (AGCO); these are available as appendix I to the above and at http://www.yorku.ca/univsec/policies/background_docs/Alcohol%20Procedures/040702%20Alcohol%20Procedures.revisedappendixI.pdf.

Enquiries regarding the University Liquor Policy should be directed to the manager of food services 416-736-5517 or ahussain@yorku.ca.

Off-Campus Housing

Students who require assistance finding off-campus accommodation can use the online off-campus housing service, Places4students. This service is available free to students who use the Places4students Web site to look for vacancies or advertise for a roommate. For more information, visit Places4Students.com and click on "Partner Schools".

Students can drop by the Centre for Student Community and Leadership Development for publications and guides that can assist them with their housing search. These publications are also available online by going to <http://www.yorku.ca/scld/offcampushousing/> and clicking on "Important Rental Information for Students".

IX. University Policies and Regulations

Student Conduct and Responsibilities (Academic and Non-Academic)

Students and instructors are expected to maintain a professional relationship characterized by courtesy and mutual respect and to refrain from actions disruptive to such a relationship. Moreover, it is the responsibility of the instructor to maintain an appropriate academic atmosphere in the classroom and the responsibility of the student to cooperate in that endeavour. Further, the instructor is the best person to decide, in the first instance, whether such an atmosphere is present in the class. A statement of the policy and procedures regarding disruptive and/or harassing behaviour by students in academic situations is available from the Deans' offices, the Vice-President Academic and the Vice-President Students, or on the Web site of the University Secretariat (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/>).

Students who violate University rules or public law may be disciplined by the University after an investigation which would include an opportunity to hear the student's interpretation of the events in question. Participation in these procedures is a fundamental obligation of any student and, in order to permit the University to act fairly and with sufficient information and understanding, students must be accessible to communication. A current and effective mailing address must be left with the University at all times. (Changes are to be submitted by students through Student Client Services.) Failure of a student to respond to communications from the University will not affect the University's right to conclude its investigation.

Rustication (expulsion from all University courses and activities) is the most serious sanction which may be imposed. For further information, see Student Code of Conduct under University Policies on the Web site of the University Secretariat (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies/>).

Convocation

What is the difference between graduation and convocation? Graduation is the term used to acknowledge that you have met your degree requirements and you have been approved by Senate to graduate from the program. Convocation refers to the ceremony where the Chancellor confers the degree.

Students from the Faculties of Arts, Atkinson, Education, Fine Arts, Health and Science and Engineering must apply to graduate online. Students from the Faculties of Environmental Studies, Glendon, Osgoode Hall Law School and Schulich School of Business are strongly encouraged to apply online. This can be done online by going to the Current Students Web site located at <http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>, clicking on My Student Records and under My Graduation Status, clicking on Apply to graduate with an undergraduate degree. The deadlines to apply are announced each year, and are usually four months prior to the ceremony. If not applying online, graduates from the Faculty of Environmental Studies should contact the Office of Student Programs of the Faculty of Environmental Studies. Graduates from the Osgoode Hall Law School should contact the Student Services Office of the Osgoode Hall Law School. Graduates from the Schulich School of Business should contact the Office of Student Programs of the Schulich School of Business.

Students must ensure that the University has the correct spelling of their full names on file so that diplomas are prepared accurately. Students may verify the name which will appear on their diploma through the Web at the Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>), clicking on My Student Records and under My Personal Info, selecting Verify my official name.

Ceremonies are scheduled for June, for those students who complete their course work in the fall or winter terms and in October for those who complete their course work in the summer term. Convocation ceremonies are scheduled by Faculty groupings.

Diplomas are normally distributed the day of the convocation ceremonies. For those students who are unable to attend, or who did not receive their diploma the day of the ceremony, diplomas may be picked up from Student Client Services on an official date after convocation has taken place. Students who are unable to attend and wish to have their diplomas mailed to them may do so by making these arrangements with the Registrar's Office. A fee will be charged for packaging and mailing. For more information, contact Student Client Services at 416-872-YORK (9675) or visit the convocation Web site at <http://www.yorku.ca/mygraduation/>. Diplomas that have not been picked up or mailed will be kept on file for approximately one year. As such, students are advised to pick up or arrange to have their diplomas mailed as soon as possible.

Some Faculties and colleges arrange composite photographs. Contact information for photographs can be found at http://www.yorku.ca/mygraduation/Convocation/contacts_photo.

Detailed information about the schedule of ceremonies, rsvps, robe rental, guests and receptions is available online at <http://www.yorku.ca/mygraduation/>.

A student obtains a diploma for satisfactory completion of his or her academic program on the condition that all of their University debts have been paid.

Academic Sanctions for Outstanding Debts to the University

Students who have debts to the University and are not in good standing with respect to those debts shall have grade reports and conferral of degrees withheld. Senate has declared that mechanisms must be in place in the event of an appeal. For more information, consult the applicable University office or the University Secretariat Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies/>).

Grading Scheme and Feedback

The grading scheme for each course (that is, the kinds and weights of assignments, essays, exams etc.) shall be announced, and be available in writing, within the first two weeks of class. Under normal circumstances, graded feedback worth at least 15 per cent of the final grade for fall, winter or summer term, and 30 per cent for 'full year' courses offered in the fall/winter session be received by students in all courses prior to the final withdrawal date from a course without receiving a grade, with the following exceptions graduate or senior undergraduate courses where course work typically, or at the instructor's discretion, consists of a single piece of work (for example, honours theses or graduate research papers not due by the drop date etc.)

- practicum courses
- ungraded courses
- courses in Faculties where the drop date occurs within the first three weeks of classes
- courses which run on a compressed schedule (a course which accomplishes its academic credits of work at a rate of one credit hour per two calendar weeks or faster).

Note: Under unusual and/or unforeseeable circumstances which disrupt the academic norm, instructors are expected to provide grading schemes and academic feedback in the spirit of these regulations, as soon as possible. Information on other policies related to grades is available from Faculties, departments and schools, and the University Secretariat (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies/>).

Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities

Policy

York University shall make reasonable and appropriate accommodations and adaptations in order to promote the ability of students with disabilities to fulfill the academic requirements of their programs.

The nature and extent of accommodations shall be consistent with and supportive of the integrity of the curriculum and of the academic standards of programs or courses.

Provided that students have given sufficient notice about their accommodation needs, instructors shall take reasonable steps to accommodate these needs in a manner consistent with the guidelines established hereunder.

'Disabilities' shall be defined as those conditions so designated under the Ontario Human Rights Code in force from time to time, and will in any event include physical, medical, learning and psychiatric disabilities.

Guidelines for this policy can be accessed on various University Web sites, including the University Secretariat (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies/>).

Computing and Information Technology Facilities

In order to promote the ethical and responsible use of computing and other information technology facilities, general guidelines have been established for all students by the Senate Committee on Academic Computing in consultation with an administrative task force on computing at York. York's Budget and Policy Committee has also approved the principles and guidelines set out below.

1. York University's computing and information technology facilities are made available to students in support of their academic objectives and requirements; to faculty in support of their teaching, research and administrative activities; to staff in support of their assigned responsibilities; and to other authorized users. Such facilities may include computers and associated peripherals, the communication infrastructure and related equipment, facsimile machines, scanners, copiers, telephone, video and other multimedia devices and forms of software.

2. Computing and information technology facilities may be used only in a manner which does not contravene York University's relevant policies, codes, agreements, network protocols and provincial and federal laws.

3. Access to computing and information technology facilities is a privilege. Users who contravene the relevant policies and laws may be subject to immediate withdrawal of the privilege and/or disciplinary procedures. Illegal acts involving computing and information technology facilities may also be subject to criminal prosecution or other legal action.

Information about guidelines associated with this policy can be obtained from the University Secretariat (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/>).

Student Code of Conduct

1. Introduction

York University is a place of research, teaching and learning where people value civility, diversity, equity and respect in their interactions with one another. Freedom of speech, freedom of association, freedom to study and to learn, freedom to engage in research, and the freedom to write and to publish are all recognized as central to the mission of the institution. It is acknowledged that these values can only be meaningful, and these freedoms fully realized, in an atmosphere of safety and security.

Since their inception, universities have been recognized as clearly distinguishable communities within the larger community and have dealt with issues of misconduct internally. Under the York University Act, 1965, 13(2)(c), the President has the power to formulate and implement regulations governing students and student activities. The President has assigned to the Vice-President Students, through the Office of Student Conduct and Dispute Resolution, the responsibility for the administration of this Code of Student Conduct.

This Code has been developed through extensive consultation with students, staff, and faculty, and affirms their stated values of equity and respect. It is based on a model that supports a progressive discipline approach that encourages appropriate conduct¹. The process the Code outlines for dealing with transgressions is designed to be perceptibly fair, easy to understand, and transparent. In addition, the sanctions it proposes have been developed through community consultation and are understood to be reasonable and suitable for a wide variety of misconduct. Wherever possible and appropriate, sanctions will be corrective rather than punitive.

2. The Reason for a Student Code of Conduct

This Student Code of Conduct identifies those behaviours which, if left unchallenged and unchecked, would disrupt the academic purposes of the University, make the campus² less safe, diminish the dignity of individuals and groups, or erode essential freedoms. It applies specifically to students because the behaviours of non-student members of the University community are held to comparable standards of account by other statutes, policies, and contracts.

Nothing in this Code is intended as a method or excuse to suppress peaceful protest, civil debate, or lawful conduct, so long as that conduct is not prohibited by this Code.

3. Application of this Code

This Code applies to non-academic student conduct. Academic student conduct is governed by University Senate policies and is beyond the scope of this Code.

This Code applies to students and student groups, and all references to "student" include "students" and "student groups." Student hosts are responsible for the conduct of their guests and the University expects and requires that they discourage inappropriate behaviour. For the purposes of this Code, "student" means a person who is registered and enrolled as a student at York University and who is therefore bound by University policies and regulations.

This Code applies to (a) conduct on University premises³, and (b) conduct not on University premises but which has a real and substantial link to the University. Examples of such a link would be events where students are acting as delegates or designated representatives of the University, events held off-campus by a recognized student group, or events held off-campus by an unrecognized student group that is readily identifiable with the University or any part of it.

There may be additional community standards required of persons choosing to live in University residences. A breach of residence rules is a breach of this Code and will be dealt with in the same manner and process as breaches of rules on the rest of the campus.

The University reserves the right to determine if a matter should be addressed under this Code regardless of the actions of external agencies, such as the police, and may use information provided by such agencies.

4. Standard of Student Conduct

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a way that supports research, teaching and learning, and that promotes an atmosphere of civility, diversity, equity and respect in their interactions with one another. They should strive to make the campus safe, to support the dignity of individuals and groups, and to uphold essential freedoms.

The following behaviours are prohibited. This list is not exhaustive but provides examples of breaches of the standard of conduct. This Code

1. In this Code, "progressive discipline" means an incremental and proportionate approach to applying sanctions.
2. In this Code, "campus" includes all York University campuses, namely, Keele, Glendon, and York Professional Centres.
3. In this Code, "University Premises" means buildings and/or land owned and/or occupied by the University.

deliberately does not place violations in a hierarchy. The University views all complaints made under the provisions of this Code as serious.

(a) Breaking federal, provincial or municipal law, such as: breaking into University premises; vandalism; trespassing; unauthorized use of keys to space on campus; unauthorized possession or use of firearms, explosives, or incendiary devices; possession or consumption of, or dealing in, illegal drugs; smoking of legal substances outside designated areas; cruelty to animals; theft of University or private property including intellectual property; unauthorized copying of documents; possession of stolen property.

(b) Threats of harm, or actual harm, to a person's physical or mental wellbeing, such as: assault; verbal and non-verbal aggression; physical abuse; verbal abuse; intimidation; sexual assault; harassment; stalking; hazing⁴.

(c) Disruption of, or interference with, University activities such as: causing a substantial disorder; bomb threats; creating dangerous situations; making or causing excessive noise; proffering false identification; setting off false fire alarms; blocking exit routes.

(d) Damage to the property of the University or its members such as: damaging or defacing University or another person's property including computer systems and intellectual property; tampering with University fire extinguishing or prevention equipment;

(e) Violation of University Policies, Procedures, or rules, such as: Temporary Use of University Space Policy; Policy on Computing and Information Technology Facilities; Policy on the Sale, Service and Use of Alcoholic Beverages on campus; Parking and Transportation Policy; unauthorized use of identification to obtain goods or services.

(f) Abuse of, or disrespect for, the processes of this Code, such as: bringing unfounded complaints with malicious, frivolous, or vexatious intent; failure to comply with the reasonable requests of a University official; failure to attend meetings or hearings regarding alleged breaches of this Code; failure to comply with Code sanctions.

As a general principle, impairment by alcohol or illegal drugs is not a defence for prohibited behaviours.

5. The Process for dealing with a Complaint

The University recognizes that many disputes can be resolved without resorting to the provisions of this Code. Wherever it is possible and proper to do so, members of the University community are encouraged to continue to use simple requests for corrective behaviour rather than invoking the following complaint process.

Initially every complaint made under this process will be directed to a Local Adjudicator in the relevant College, Faculty, Residence or Administrative Unit. For complaints that do not inherently belong in one of those areas, the Local Adjudicator will be a representative of the Office of Student Conduct. The Local Adjudicators will be appointed by the Vice-President Students.

The standard of proof required for a determination that there has been a breach of the Code will be "on a balance of probabilities," meaning that the person(s) deciding a case must find that it is more probable than not that a contested allegation is established as fact, or not.

The Complainant has the right to attend any hearing on the matter where evidence he or she has provided is being used. The Complainant also has the right to know the outcome of the complaint process, unless the Local Adjudicator or University Tribunal finds that there are grounds to order otherwise.

(a) Filing a Complaint

- i. Any person (a Complainant) may file a complaint (a Complaint) under this Code, alleging a violation of the standard of student conduct by a student.
- ii. The Complaint must be in writing with the Complainant's name attached to it; anonymous Complaints will not be taken forward.

4. In this Code, "hazing" means an act that endangers the mental or physical health and/or safety and/or dignity of a student, and done as a condition of membership.

- iii. The Complaint must be filed within three months of the alleged violation of the Code unless the Local Adjudicator or the University Tribunal, upon first addressing the Complaint, considers it reasonable to extend that time limit.
- iv. A Complaint must be filed with a Local Adjudicator.
- v. When a Local Adjudicator receives a Complaint, he or she will assess whether it should be dismissed, or whether an investigation is warranted. Where an investigation is warranted, the student against whom the Complaint is made (the Respondent) will be given a copy of this Code so that he or she may be informed of his or her rights and responsibilities. The Respondent will also be given a copy of the Complaint including the name of the Complainant. Contact information for the Complainant will be kept confidential.

(b) Investigation of a Complaint

The Local Adjudicator will gather the facts of the case by holding whatever meetings are appropriate.

The Respondent will be allowed a reasonable amount of time to consider the Complaint against him or her and to respond to it, and will be advised in advance, and given an opportunity to comment on, any sanctions that are being considered.

Both Complainant and Respondent are required to be present for meetings and hearings held under this Code when required. The Respondent must not retaliate against the Complainant.

If, after the investigation, the Local Adjudicator determines that there has been a breach of this Code, sanctions may be imposed. The Local Adjudicator will issue a written decision stating the reasons upon which it is based, within 10 days from the date on which the Respondent is advised orally of the decision.

The written decision of the Local Adjudicator will be provided to the Complainant and the Respondent and will be filed with the Office of Student Conduct.

If, at any time after receiving a Complaint, the Local Adjudicator is of the opinion that the nature of the Complaint makes resolution by the Local Adjudicator inappropriate, the Local Adjudicator will refer the Complaint to the University Tribunal for a hearing to be held.

(c) Request for a University Tribunal Hearing following a Local Adjudicator's Decision

- i. Following a decision of a Local Adjudicator, a Respondent may request a hearing before the University Tribunal on the grounds that:
 - 1) the Local Adjudicator had no power under this Code to reach the decision or impose the sanctions he or she did;
 - 2) the Local Adjudicator made a fundamental error in procedure prejudicial to the Respondent;
 - 3) the Respondent has new evidence to present that could not reasonably have been presented earlier; or
 - 4) the Respondent is entitled to relief on compassionate grounds not considered by the Local Adjudicator.

The request must include detailed reasons and be in writing delivered to the University Tribunal within 10 days after the date on which the Local Adjudicator's written decision was issued.

- ii. The request for hearing will be considered in written form only, and will either be granted or denied, by a single member of the University Tribunal, with written reasons.
- iii. All sanctions ordered by the Local Adjudicator will be suspended pending the decision of the University Tribunal as to whether a hearing will be granted. In cases which involve issues of safety and security of person or property, the Local Adjudicator may determine that the sanctions imposed will stay in effect from the time that the decision was made pending the completion of the University Tribunal proceedings.
- iv. If the University Tribunal denies the request for a hearing, the sanctions will immediately become enforceable as of the date of that decision.

6. University Tribunal

(a) University Tribunal Composition

The members of the Tribunal are students, faculty, and staff volunteers appointed by the Vice-President Students to serve for a two-year term, renewable once, unless terminated earlier by the Vice-President Students.

Each Tribunal Hearing panel will be comprised of three persons, one of whom will be a student. They will elect a Chair for the proceedings.

(b) University Tribunal Hearing Process

Tribunal Hearings provide an opportunity for a balanced airing of facts. The hearings are held in "private", i.e. restricted to persons who have a direct role or interest in the hearing, or persons who are acting as witnesses. At the discretion of the Chair other persons may be admitted to the hearing for training purposes, or other reasonable considerations.

The Tribunal Hearing panel is not bound to observe strict legal procedures, but in order to ensure that its procedures are as fair as possible in the context of University circumstances and traditions it shall comply with the following procedural guidelines.

- i. The Office of Student Conduct presents the Complaint and any supporting documentation and witnesses, including the Complainant, to the Tribunal Hearing panel.
- ii. The Respondent has the opportunity to ask questions of any witnesses. Members of the Tribunal will also have the opportunity to ask questions of the presenter and the witnesses.
- iii. After the Office of Student Conduct has presented the Complaint, the Respondent will have the opportunity to present his or her response to the Complaint, including any supporting documentation, and witnesses.
- iv. The Office of Student Conduct and the Tribunal panel will have the opportunity to ask questions of the Respondent and of any witnesses.
- v. Both the Office of Student Conduct and the Respondent then explain their respective interpretations of the evidence presented.
- vi. Both the Office of Student Conduct and the Respondent will have the opportunity to suggest what sanctions, if any, they believe are appropriate to the matter before the Tribunal.
- vii. Whenever possible, decisions of the Tribunal will be made orally immediately following the hearing. The decision will then be put in writing no more than 14 days from the end date of the hearing and delivered to the Respondent and the Complainant by regular mail, express post, or e-mail and filed with the Office of Student Conduct.

(c) Student Rights at a University Tribunal Hearing

Respondents have the following rights:

- i. The right to bring an advocate or adviser. This may be any person chosen by the Respondent to help present his or her case. Where possible, the name of the advocate or adviser should be provided to the Office of Student Conduct at least two days prior to a hearing.
- ii. The right to see all the evidence that the Office of Student Conduct will present and to know what sanctions, if any, the Office will request.
- iii. The right to challenge the suitability of any member of the Tribunal panel based on a reasonable apprehension of bias against the Respondent's case. The Tribunal panel will determine if a reasonable apprehension of bias is warranted. Its decision will be final. If it does find a reasonable apprehension of bias, it will direct the Office of Student Conduct to reschedule the hearing with a new panel.
- iv. The right to have his or her case heard in a timely manner, meaning that except in exceptional circumstances (such as University holiday closure) the Respondent will have a hearing within 20 business days⁵ of the determination that the Complaint will be heard by the University Tribunal.

- v. The right to prior notice of hearing of at least seven days, unless there are special circumstances (as determined by the Office of Student Conduct), in which case the matter may be heard before the seven-day notice period has elapsed.
- vi. The right to notice: hearing notice will be hand-delivered, or sent by e-mail or regular mail or Express Post. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that the University has his or her current contact information. If a student fails to receive any notice under this Code by reason of the student's own failure to meet this requirement, such notice will still be treated as valid and effective.
- vii. The right to a "private" hearing as explained in section 6(b).

7. Appeals of University Tribunal decisions

(a) The Respondent or the University may appeal a University Tribunal decision to the Appeal Panel only on the following grounds:

- i. that the University Tribunal had no power under this Code to reach the decision or impose the sanctions it did;
- ii. that the University Tribunal panel made a fundamental procedural error seriously prejudicial to the Respondent;
- iii. the Respondent has new evidence to present that could not reasonably have been presented earlier; or
- iv. that the Respondent is entitled to relief on compassionate grounds not considered by the University Tribunal panel.

(b) Appeals must be made in writing to the Director of Student Conduct within 14 days following the date on which the written decision of the University Tribunal was issued. The Respondent must provide a written statement setting forth the grounds upon which the Respondent intends to rely. It is the Respondent's responsibility to ensure that the University has his or her current contact information. Any notice not received because the Respondent has failed to meet this requirement will have no bearing on the proceedings.

(c) Non-monetary sanctions apply pending the outcome of any appeal (monetary sanctions are automatically suspended pending the outcome of the appeal). No compensation will be made if a non-monetary sanction is overturned on appeal. The Respondent may apply to the Appeal Panel to stay the operation of the sanctions pending the outcome of the appeal. The Appeal Panel will convene a hearing at the earliest possible date to deal with the request for a suspension of sanctions. Where some more immediate response is required, application may be made to the Director of Student Conduct.

(d) The Appeal Panel will be comprised of three members from the University Tribunal. They will not be any of the same members who heard the original case.

(e) The Appeal Panel will hear the appeal within 20 business days except in exceptional circumstances, and will give the Respondent, and the Office of Student Conduct notice of the time and place of the appeal hearing.

(f) The Appeal Panel will render a written decision no more than 14 days from the end of the Appeal Panel Hearing, disposing of the appeal by:

- i. allowing the appeal;
- ii. affirming or modifying the Tribunal decision;
- iii. affirming, reducing or increasing the sanctions appealed against; or
- iv. requiring that the Tribunal conduct a new hearing or reconsider some pertinent aspect of its decision.

(g) The written decision of the Appeal Panel will be delivered to the Respondent and the Complainant by regular mail, express post, or e-mail and filed with the Office of Student Conduct.

(h) The Appeal Panel decision is final and binding.

(i) Respondents have the following rights at an Appeal Panel Hearing:

5. In this Code, "business days" means Monday to Friday, except for the holidays stated in the University Calendar or unforeseen closures due to weather, emergencies, or work stoppages.

- i. The right to bring an advocate or adviser. This may be any person chosen by the Respondent to help present his or her case. Where possible, the name of the advocate or adviser should be provided to the Office of Student Conduct at least two days prior to a hearing.
- ii. The right to challenge the suitability of any member of the Appeal Panel based on a reasonable apprehension of bias against the Respondent's case. The Appeal Panel will determine if a reasonable apprehension of bias is warranted. Its decision will be final. If it does find a reasonable apprehension of bias, it will direct the Office of Student Conduct to reschedule the hearing with a new panel.
- iii. The right to have the appeal heard in a timely manner.
- iv. The right to a "private" hearing as explained in section 6(b).

8. Records

A record of final decisions made under this Code will remain in the Office of Student Conduct and Dispute Resolution.

9. Sanctions

The following sanctions may be imposed for a breach of the Code. More than one sanction may be imposed concurrently for a single breach. When imposing a sanction, prior breaches of the Code may be considered.

(a) Sanctions that may be imposed by Local Adjudicators

The following sanctions may be imposed by Local Adjudicators:

- i. reprimand,
- ii. an apology and/or statement of regret to the person making the complaint,
- iii. an apology and/or statement of regret to a larger community (e.g. team, classmates),
- iv. community service, reflective essay, or research on a specified topic,
- v. Behavioural undertaking which may be secured by a deposit of money up to $500,
- vi. restrictions on behaviour,
- vii. fines up to $250,
- viii. full restitution for damage up to $500,
- ix. withdrawal of non-essential Services⁶,
- x. relocation to other University housing.

(b) Additional Sanctions that may be imposed by the University Tribunal

In addition to the sanctions listed in 8(a) above, the University Tribunal may impose the following sanctions:

- i. fines up to $1000,
- ii. restitution,
- iii. campus restrictions,
- iv. removal from University residence,
- v. notation on student record,
- vi. suspension,
- vii. expulsion.

10. Emergency Suspension

If the Director of the Office of Student Conduct determines that the presence at the University of a Student poses a risk to safety and security, he/she may impose an immediate suspension of up to 10 days. The Student will be notified of the decision to invoke an emergency suspension.

6. In this Code, "non-essential services" means services that, if withdrawn, may restrict a student's full participation in campus life, but do not make it impossible for a student to complete their academic requirements.

If, after further investigation, it is determined that the Student continues to pose a risk to safety and security, the Director of the Office of Student Conduct can, with the agreement of the Vice-President Students, suspend a student for more than 10 days to a maximum of 60 days. A Tribunal hearing must be commenced within the 60 days.

11. Review of this Code

This Code will be reviewed after one year and thereafter every two years.

Senate Policy on Academic Honesty

1. Senate Policy on Academic Honesty

The Policy on Academic Honesty is an affirmation and clarification for members of the University of the general obligation to maintain the highest standards of academic honesty. As a clear sense of academic honesty and responsibility is fundamental to good scholarship, the policy recognizes the general responsibility of all faculty members to foster acceptable standards of academic conduct and of the student to be mindful of and abide by such standards.

Academic honesty requires that persons do not falsely claim credit for the ideas, writing or other intellectual property of others, either by presenting such works as their own or through impersonation. Similarly, academic honesty requires that persons do not cheat (attempt to gain an improper advantage in an academic evaluation), nor attempt or actually alter, suppress, falsify or fabricate any research data or results, official academic record, application or document.

Suspected breaches of academic honesty will be investigated and charges shall be laid if reasonable and probable grounds exist. A student who is charged with a breach of academic honesty shall be presumed innocent until, based upon clear and compelling evidence, a committee determines the student has violated the academic honesty standards of the university. A finding of academic misconduct will lead to the range of penalties described in the guidelines which accompany this policy. In some cases the University regulations on non-academic discipline may apply. A lack of familiarity with the Senate Policy and Guidelines on Academic Honesty on the part of a student does not constitute a defence against their application. Some academic offences constitute offences under the Criminal Code of Canada; a student charged under University regulations may also be subject to criminal charges. Charges may also be laid against York University students for matters which arise at other educational institutions.

Information about guidelines and procedures related to this policy can be obtained from the University Secretariat Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies/>).

Petitions and Grade Reappraisals

Guidelines for the Consideration of Petitions/ Appeals by Faculty Committees

These guidelines should inform the actions and decisions of Faculty committees and administrative personnel in responding to student petitions and appeals. They are not intended to direct the decisions of the Faculty in these matters; jurisdiction to waive academic regulations, extend deadlines and reappraise work clearly resides with Faculties in the first instance. These guidelines are to advise the relevant parties in their work to help foster equitable and consistent decisions across the University. It is recognized that the nature (performance, professional, graduate) and size of the various Faculties make it highly improbable to have uniform procedures and processes. There are areas in which greater consistency among the Faculties' processes can be achieved and it is to that end that these guidelines are proposed.

1. Structure

Faculties may, and are encouraged, to have a two-tiered structure for the consideration of petitions: a) a petitions committee/associate dean and b) an administratively approved process.

a) Petitions Committee/Associate Dean: As all Faculties have agreed to consider requests for exceptions from Faculty regulations, there shall be a committee or a senior academic administrator charged with the responsibility of reviewing the petitions and rendering decisions on the basis of the reasons and supporting documentation provided by the student.

b) Administratively Approved Petitions: To help offset large caseloads, petitions may be recommended for approval by the Petitions Officer (or equivalent) and confirmed by the Chair of the Petitions Committee (or designate)¹. In accordance with the general considerations for granting petitions (set out below), the Petitions Officer shall identify cases which clearly meet the considerations and present them as such to the Chair for confirmation. All cases which are not clear and require discretion are forwarded to the Petitions Committee for a decision. No petitions will be administratively refused on the basis of their merits. Students failing to provide the necessary documentation requested by the Faculty within a specific time frame will not have their petition considered, and the Petitions Officer shall inform the student in writing in such cases.

¹ With the exception of petitions to waive debarments which should be considered by a committee.

2. Principles

a) Procedures: Each Faculty shall have written procedural rules that are widely available to students (e.g. in the calendar, on the University Web site, at the Registrar's Office). Faculty petition/appeal procedures must be consistent with the Senate guidelines.

b) Deadlines: The Senate approved policy on the deadline for submitting a petition for late withdrawal is that "Normally petitions for late withdrawal from a course will only be considered if they are submitted within 30 days of the last day of classes [of the relevant course]. Such petitions may be considered for a period of up to one year if they are based on special circumstances." The Senate policy on the deadline for deferred standing requests is "Normally requests for deferred standing must be communicated within one week following a missed examination or the last day to submit course work." The period during which the University is officially closed for December holidays and on statutory holidays throughout the year is not counted in the determination of deadline days.

c) Representation: Appellants have the right to have a representative assist in the preparation of written submissions and, if granted an appearance before a committee, represent them at that meeting.

d) Jurisdiction: Students shall petition all matters to their home Faculty with the exception of grade reappraisals which are considered by the department/Faculty offering the course. Otherwise, Faculties shall consider requests for exceptions to all Faculty regulations.

e) Bias: Any member of a petitions/appeals committee or a person reviewing a petition who has a lack of neutrality on the issue to be decided shall excuse him/herself from the consideration of that case. An appearance of bias or a reasonable apprehension of bias is also sufficient for a party to disqualify her/himself from considering a petition.

f) Appearances: Students and/or their representatives may appear before a committee only at the discretion or invitation of the Committee.

g) Anonymity: Requests from students for anonymity in the petitions process should be honoured. Students provided the opportunity to appear before a committee, however, will have to decide whether they wish to forego anonymity. Confidentiality in this process shall always be maintained.

h) Decisions: To help fulfill the requirements for natural justice and fairness in adjudicative processes, petitions and appeals committees, administrators rendering decisions on petitions must give reasons in writing for the decision. Without reasons, a party may have to speculate why an adverse decision was made and may not be able to decide whether to appeal. Similarly, a subsequent committee or a reviewing court may have difficulty understanding the rationale for a decision without reasons and may draw inferences adverse to the initial committee from its failure to give reasons.

i) Appeals: The route of appeal for students shall be included in the written decision.

Principles Regarding Grade Reappraisals

1. Students may, with sufficient academic grounds, request that a final grade in a course be reappraised (which may mean the review of specific pieces of tangible work). Non-academic grounds are not relevant for grade reappraisals; in such cases, students are advised to petition to their home Faculty. Students are normally expected to first contact the course director to discuss the grade received and to request that their tangible work be reviewed. Tangible work may include written, graphic, digitized, modelled, video recording or audio recording formats, but not oral work.

Students need to be aware that a request for a grade reappraisal may result in the original grade being raised, lowered or confirmed.

2. In the event that students are still not satisfied with the final grade or the course director is not available to review the work, they may submit in writing a formal request for a grade reappraisal to the department or unit in which the course is offered*. The Senate approved deadline for submitting grade reappraisals is within three weeks of the release of final grade reports in any term. Exercising discretion about minor delays in meeting the deadline which result from slow mail delivery or extraordinary circumstances is reasonable.

*The exceptions are as follows:

- for Osgoode, Schulich, and the Faculty of Education the requests for reappraisal are submitted to the office of the relevant associate dean.

3. If the condition of sufficient academic grounds has been met, the relevant department committee, department Chair, associate dean or graduate/undergraduate program director will be responsible for ensuring that the work is reappraised by an appropriate faculty member, ensuring anonymity of both the student and the reappraiser, and for communicating the result of the reappraisal (including the reappraiser's comments) and the route of appeal to both the student and the course director. The reappraiser will be given the nature of the assignment and the rationale for the original grade. It is expected that every effort will be made to render the decision within 30 days of the reviewer having received the work.

4. Parties to the decision may appeal a negative decision on a request for a reappraisal, or the result of the reappraisal itself to a Faculty-level appeals committee in the Faculty in which the course is offered (or, in the case of the Faculty of Graduate Studies, to the dean) only on the ground of procedural irregularity. Procedural irregularity is defined as:

- actions taken or not taken by a department, Faculty, graduate program officers, committees, or members with respect to the previous disposition of the case which violate or nullify one or all of the following:

a) normal and written procedures of the University, Faculty, graduate program or department concerned;

b) consistency in the Faculty's, graduate program's or department's handling of cases substantially similar to that being appealed;

c) principles of equity, natural justice or fairness, whether or not such violation occurred in accord with written or customary procedures. Appeals based on allegations of these last procedural irregularities should allege and demonstrate obvious bias or other misbehaviour on the part of the officers or agents of the University and for which redress was not provided by an authority which considered the case prior to the appeal.

Appeals must be submitted within 21 days of notification of the decision. Faculty committees may waive that deadline when special circumstances are established by the appellant. No member of the Faculty committee shall consider an appeal if s/he considered the matter at an earlier level. At the discretion of the Faculty committee, the student and/or the faculty member may be invited to meet with the committee to present his/her case orally. The committee's decision will be taken in camera and it is expected that parties will be informed of the decision in writing within 30 days of the filing of the appeal.

5. Parties to the appeal at the Faculty-level may file an application for leave to appeal the decision to the Senate Appeals Committee (SAC) on the ground of procedural irregularity at the Faculty-level. Applications for leave to appeal must be submitted within 21 days of the notification of the Faculty decision. SAC may waive that deadline when special circumstances are established by the appellant. No member of SAC shall consider the application if s/he considered the matter at an earlier level. As explained in the SAC procedures, parties may appear before the committee if leave to appeal is granted to make oral submissions on the ground of procedural irregularity. The committee's decision will be taken in camera and it is expected that the parties will be informed of the decision in writing within 30 days of the filing of the application.

6. Parties to the decision of the Senate Appeals Committee may apply to the committee to have the matter reconsidered if there is evidence of procedural irregularity on the part of SAC. Applications must be submitted within 21 days of the posting of the decision. SAC reserves the right to waive this deadline in special circumstances. Requests for reconsideration of a SAC decision will be considered by a panel of SAC members who did not serve on the panel first hearing the matter; it is expected that a decision will be rendered within 30 days of its submission.

Deferred Standing Agreement

The Deferred Standing Agreement (DSA) is a process by which students who are either unable to write their final examination at the scheduled time or submit term work before the Faculty deadline to submit final grades reach an agreement with the course director about granting deferred standing in the course and setting a date for writing the exam or submitting the outstanding work. Using the standard DSA form, it is the responsibility of students to make arrangements with the course director to complete the course and file the DSA form with the appropriate departmental/unit office by the deadline specified on the form. Course directors have the option not to consider requests for deferred standing; in such cases students must file a petition with the relevant Faculty-level committee for consideration within the established deadline.

Students' Responsibilities in the Petition/Appeal Processes

The University has established regulations, procedures and deadlines through its legislative bodies to which students must adhere. Students are expected to monitor their progress in courses, taking into account their personal and academic circumstances, and to make the necessary adjustments to their workload to meet the requirements and deadlines. The University recognizes, however, that specific circumstances may justify waiving the regulations/requirements/deadlines on an individual basis. Requests for a waiver of a regulation/requirement/deadline are initiated by a petition.

Students opting to initiate a petition should be assured that confidentiality is a hallmark of this process and information submitted in support of their petition/appeal will not be used for any other purpose.

While it is the University's responsibility to provide students with proper information, guidance and advice, it is incumbent upon students to:

- be aware of and adhere to all Faculty and program regulations, requirements and published deadlines;
- familiarize themselves with their Faculty's written petition/appeal procedures and make requests in a timely fashion;
- provide all documentation to support their petition/appeal and to do so in a timely fashion;
- indicate and document all their relevant circumstances upon submitting their petition in the first instance.

University's Responsibilities in the Petition/Appeal Processes

Just as the students who submit petitions and appeals have responsibilities to meet the requirements of the process, the University has responsibilities in administering it.

Non-academic staff:

It is incumbent upon members of the non-academic staff to:

- make available to students advice and guidance regarding options, deadlines, required documentation, and appeal routes by way of written notification, the University Web site, personal appointments or communication over the telephone;
- direct students to the appropriate office for information on petitions/appeals;
- attend to petitions and appeals efficiently to prevent undue delay;
- maintain students' right to confidentiality.

Faculty members:

It is incumbent upon faculty members to:

- respond to requests for information from students and non-academic staff in a timely manner;
- help direct students to the appropriate office for information on petitions/appeals;
- maintain students' right to confidentiality.

Petition/Appeal officers/committees:

It is incumbent upon petition/appeal officers or committees to:

- ensure parties receive fair, consistent and ethical treatment;
- give thorough and serious attention to all requests;
- render decisions only after careful deliberation;
- supply parties with reasons for decisions;
- maintain students' right to confidentiality.

Religious Accommodations / Senate Policy on Women's Remembrance Day

Senate's policy governing the setting of sessional dates and examination schedules includes a statement on religious observances which has two parts:

"York University is committed to respecting the religious beliefs and practices of all members of the community, and making accommodations for observances of special significance to adherents."

"Every effort will be made to avoid scheduling in-class or formal examinations on days of special religious significance throughout the year. A schedule of dates for such days for various faiths will be compiled annually and distributed widely. Students will be informed of procedures for requesting and arranging accommodations."

In May 1998 Senate approved a policy to commemorate Women's Remembrance Day that encourages the planning and funding of activities appropriate to Women's Remembrance Day. The Senate policy also encourages faculty to highlight Women's Remembrance Day in their classes and to incorporate in their classes, as appropriate, some of the issues facing women, particularly violence against women. The administration is asked to support the development of workshops to assist faculty with their preparations.

Information about this policy is provided to students in publications such as the Undergraduate Calendar. The University community will also be informed in advance of activities associated with Women's Remembrance Day.

Senate Policy on the Academic Implications of Disruptions or Cessations of University Business Due to Labour Disputes or Other Causes

The University Senate has enacted a policy to apply in the event that academic activities are substantially interrupted or impeded as a result of strikes, lockouts, demonstrations, natural disasters or other like causes. The policy contains three governing principles, which are outlined below. Further information about the policy may be obtained from the University Secretariat (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies/>).

A. Academic Integrity

In the event of a disruption, the primary obligation of Senate is to ensure the academic integrity of all programs. No dilution of standards normally expected of students should be permitted and there should be as little diminution as possible in the instructional or supervisory support given to students.

B. Fairness to Students

Students who do not participate in academic activities because (a) they are unable to do so owing to a disruption or (b) they choose not to participate in academic activities owing to a strike or a lockout on campus, are entitled to immunity from penalty, to reasonable alternative access to materials covered in their absence, to reasonable extensions of deadlines and to such other remedy as Senate deems necessary and consistent with the principle of academic integrity. Such remedies shall not alter the academic standards associated with the missed activity nor shall it relieve the student of the responsibility for mastering materials covered. The availability of a remedy under this policy does not guarantee students the same learning experience that they would have received in the absence of a disruption.

C. Timely Information

Students, staff and faculty members have a right to be informed in a timely manner of changed requirements, rescheduled academic activities and procedures to be in effect at the conclusion of the disruption.

Lors d'une réunion conjointe, tenue le 14 janvier 1999, les comités exécutifs du Conseil d'administration et du Sénat se sont entendus pour recommander à leur collègues respectifs d'approuver le nouvel Énoncé de mandat de l'Université York. L'Énoncé de mandat a été approuvé par le Sénat lors de la séance du 28 janvier et par le Conseil d'administration à sa séance du 22 février 1999.

Cette homologation entérine une vision commune du mandat de l'Université et des valeurs qui sont les siennes au moment où elle se prépare à ouvrir de nouveaux horizons. L'Énoncé de mandat apporte à toutes les instances dirigeantes, à tous les membres, aux anciens et aux amis de York, une vision et des objectifs communs à tous.

X. Université York, Énoncé De Mandat

L'Université York a pour mandat d'accroître, de préserver et de diffuser le savoir. Nous nous engageons à ce que la recherche et l'enseignement, qu'ils soient purs, appliqués ou professionnels, se placent à un degré d'excellence élevé. Nous repoussons les limites et les structures du savoir. Nous cultivons le sens critique.

L'Université York partage avec la métropole de Toronto son caractère dynamique et multiculturel. L'Université York partage avec le Canada son encouragement aux études bilingues, son attachement à la tolérance et à la diversité. L'Université York s'ouvre sur le monde et s'interroge sur les grandes préoccupations internationales.

Composée d'enseignants, d'étudiants et de membres du personnel dévoués à la cause de la liberté, de la justice sociale, du libre accès à l'enseignement et de la direction démocratique, l'Université York a fait de l'innovation sa tradition.

Tentanda Via : Ouvrir des voies nouvelles.

XI. Remarques importantes et avis de non-responsabilité

Cet annuaire est publié pour aider ses lecteurs à connaître l'organisation des services et programmes universitaires, ainsi que les règlements. Il décrit également les différents programmes offerts par l'Université. Les renseignements contenus dans cet annuaire ont été soumis par les départements et unités universitaires concernés. Toutes les données et les références ont été vérifiées dans la mesure du possible. En s'inscrivant à un cours, un étudiant accepte de respecter les lois et règlements de l'Université York et de la faculté dans laquelle il est inscrit. Il appartient aux étudiants de prendre connaissance des renseignements d'ordre général contenus dans cet annuaire, ainsi que des renseignements concernant la faculté dans laquelle ils sont admis ou demandent à être admis. Il appartient également aux étudiants de prendre connaissance de tous les règlements particuliers concernant le diplôme ou certificat qu'ils préparent. Ils doivent s'assurer que les cours qu'ils choisissent de suivre répondent aux exigences de leur programme d'études.

L'Université se réserve le droit d'apporter des changements aux renseignements contenus dans cet annuaire sans préavis. Tous les cours indiqués dans cet annuaire ne sont pas nécessairement enseignés chaque année. L'Université se réserve le droit de limiter les inscriptions à n'importe quel programme. L'Université fera tout son possible pour offrir les cours et les classes exigés pour chaque programme. Cependant, les étudiants intéressés doivent savoir que le fait d'être admis dans un programme particulier ne garantit pas nécessairement l'admission à un cours ou une classe en particulier.

Dans le cas où il existerait une incompatibilité entre les lois et règlements universitaires généraux publiés dans les annuaires, et les lois et règlements similaires édictés par les facultés ou le Sénat de l'Université, c'est la version des règlements établis par la faculté et le Sénat de l'Université qui prévaut.

L'Université York décline toute responsabilité pour toute perte ou dommage subi par un étudiant ou par une tierce partie à la suite d'un retard ou de la cessation de services offerts, de cours ou de classes, causés par un cas de force majeure : incendie, inondation, émeute, guerre, grève, lock-out, dommage aux biens de l'Université, contrainte financière ou autre événement échappant au contrôle de l'Université.

L'Université York décline toute responsabilité pour tout dommage subi par suite d'erreurs, d'interruption ou de perturbation de ses activités directes ou indirectes, causés par une panne d'ordinateur ou l'incompatibilité de son système informatique.

XII. Renseignements d'ordre général

Quelques mots sur l'Université York

Depuis sa fondation en 1959, l'Université York a acquis une renommée mondiale pour son approche interdisciplinaire unique en matière d'enseignement et de recherche. Une éducation à l'Université York fournit une perspective globale et une méthode contemporaine pour analyser les vrais problèmes mondiaux sur tous les angles. À l'Université York, étudiants et professeurs de diverses disciplines se regroupent pour explorer à fond leurs domaines d'étude. Il en résulte une perspective dynamique et exhaustive qui procure une expérience d'apprentissage plus pertinente. Nos diplômés sont mieux préparés pour trouver des solutions avant-gardistes aux problèmes complexes et bénéficient d'un point de vue unique, à la fois souple et optimiste.

L'Université York est aussi reconnue pour son approche interdisciplinaire, à la fois dans son enseignement et dans ses recherches. Elle peut s'enorgueillir de ses 24 centres de recherche dans des domaines qui vont du développement durable à l'élaboration d'une vision, en passant par les sciences de la terre et de l'espace et les études sur les réfugiés.

L'Université York possède une population de plus de 60 000 personnes, dont plus de 7 300 professeurs et membres du personnel administratif et de soutien, 54 000 étudiants de premier, deuxième et troisième cycles, et plus de 200 000 Anciens. Plus de 7 000 étudiants, répartis entre les onze facultés : arts, études libérales et professionnelles Joseph E. Atkinson, sciences de l'éducation, études environnementales, beaux-arts, Collège universitaire Glendon, études supérieures, École de droit Osgoode Hall, santé, École Schulich des hautes études commerciales et sciences et de l'ingénierie, reçoivent leur diplôme chaque année.

Le 1er juillet 2009, les programmes de la faculté des études libérales et professionnelles Joseph E. Atkinson et de la faculté des arts – toutes les deux sur le campus de Keele – seront regroupées dans la faculté des arts libéraux et études professionnelles. Cette faculté comprendra la gamme la plus complète de programmes et recherches universitaires interdisciplinaires en sciences sociales, humanité et programmes professionnels connexes au Canada.

L'Université York offre, à Toronto, l'une des villes les plus cosmopolites du Canada, une expérience moderne de classe internationale. York est au cœur de l'innovation, avec une communauté vibrante regroupant professeurs, étudiants, personnel administratif et anciens; on y défie l'ordinaire et offre l'inattendu. Ensemble, nous redéfinissons le possible.

York, une université laïque

L'Université York a été fondée en 1959 en tant qu'institution laïque. Son énoncé de mission insiste sur sa nature multiculturelle et l'importance qu'elle accorde à la tolérance et à la diversité. Il souligne également son engagement à tester les frontières et structures du savoir et à cultiver une intelligence critique. C'est donc ainsi que l'université est gouvernée et que ses programmes d'études sont développés et présentés.

En pratique, cela signifie que ceux et celles qui ont de solides croyances religieuses ou idéologies politiques pourraient voir leurs valeurs remises en question par les autres ou trouver que la matière présentée dans le programme d'études critique ou offense certaines de leurs valeurs. Ce genre de situation est normal dans une société multiraciale. L'université est un reflet de notre société et un endroit où les connaissances et les croyances font l'objet d'une évaluation critique.

L'Université York est déterminée à fournir un environnement d'études et de travail qui prône les valeurs démocratiques et multiculturelles de la société canadienne. Les politiques et procédures de l'université, y compris ses règlements universitaires, respectent fidèlement toutes les exigences juridiques, particulièrement le Code des droits de la personne de l'Ontario, en permettant aux professeurs, employés et étudiants d'observer les fêtes religieuses importantes. Cette position se reflète dans la politique du sénat sur les dates de session, qui confirme que l'Université respecte de telles pratiques et qu'elle est déterminée à établir les horaires d'examen en conséquence. Les étudiants, employés et professeurs doivent respecter la politique du sénat lorsqu'ils demandent et accordent de tels accommodements. Pour tout complément d'information, rendez-vous au : <http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/regobs/>.

Inscription et droits à acquitter

Le Sénat, le Conseil d'administration et la direction de l'Université York se réservent le droit d'apporter, sans préavis, des changements aux règlements gouvernant l'inscription et aux droits à acquitter, indiqués dans cet annuaire.

Les étudiants, qu'ils soient nouvellement admis ou qu'ils reprennent ou continuent leurs études, sont tenus de s'inscrire officiellement à leurs cours.

Une fois que les étudiants ont sélectionné leurs cours et s'y sont inscrits, ils doivent finaliser leur inscription en payant les droits. L'inscription à l'Université permet aux étudiants d'avoir leur nom inscrit dans les dossiers officiels de l'Université.

Pour s'inscrire, les étudiants doivent : i) s'acquitter de toutes les obligations financières en souffrance vis-à-vis de l'Université; ii) s'inscrire à un programme d'études qui leur est ouvert et à des cours auxquels ils ont droit; iii) payer les droits pour la session en cours.

N.B. : Pour plus de renseignements concernant les inscriptions, consultez en ligne le guide d'inscription aux cours de premier cycle au <http://www.registrar.yorku.ca>.

Carte UY (carte d'étudiant)

Pour obtenir votre Carte UY, il vous suffit d'apporter votre numéro d'étudiant et une pièce d'identité valide avec photo émise par le gouvernement (p. ex. un passeport, un permis de conduire, une carte de citoyenneté etc.) au bureau de la Carte UY lorsque vous êtes sur le campus pour rencontrer votre conseiller pédagogique. Nous prendrons votre photo et vous remettrons votre carte tout de suite. Et ce n'est pas tout, votre première Carte UY est gratuite!

Pour plus de détails, visitez le <http://www.yorku.ca/yucard/>.

Identification lors des examens

Les étudiants doivent présenter une carte d'identité lors de chaque examen pendant la période d'examen officielle. Les documents suivants sont acceptés :

- une Carte UY avec photo;
- une Carte UY sans photo, plus un document d'identification avec photo, comme un permis de conduire ou un passeport.

Le système des collèges

Le système des collèges, propre à York, permet de lier des unités de taille moyenne au grand ensemble de l'Université et de ses diverses facultés afin de maintenir une relation plus étroite entre les professeurs et les étudiants. Les collèges de l'Université York sont de petites communautés pluridisciplinaires, distinctes les unes des autres par leurs caractéristiques et leur mission. Les étudiants y trouvent un environnement accueillant, novateur et convivial qui les aide à s'habituer à la vie universitaire et leur permet d'étudier dans des conditions optimales. Tous les étudiants de premier cycle qui entrent pour la première fois à l'Université York sont affectés à un collège. Les sept collèges existants – Calumet, Founders, McLaughlin, Norman Bethune, Stong, Vanier et Winters – offrent une grande variété d'activités universitaires et récréatives qui s'ajoutent aux programmes d'études des différentes facultés afin d'enrichir l'expérience des étudiants de York. Les collèges peuvent mettre à la disposition des étudiants des salles de réunion, des salles à manger, des cafés, des salles d'études, d'ordinateurs, de travaux pratiques et de petites salles de lecture en plus d'installations de loisirs. Chaque collège peut loger environ 260 étudiants venant de l'extérieur de Toronto, ce qui représente environ 10 p. 100 du nombre total d'étudiants inscrits par collège, dans des résidences bien équipées, adjacentes aux bâtiments des collèges. Pour de plus amples renseignements, veuillez consulter la partie « Services universitaires et services d'aide ».

Les collèges sont autogérés dans leurs activités quotidiennes par des professeurs et des étudiants. Chaque collège est dirigé par un directeur et conseiller aux études et par le coordonnateur de la vie en résidence et un don dans chaque résidence. Il compte un conseil de collège, élu par les étudiants, qui organise et finance toute une gamme d'activités sociales, culturelles et sportives. L'orientation pédagogique et les conseils entre étudiants, surtout ceux destinés aux étudiants de première année, sont coordonnés par le conseiller pédagogique du collège et par des étudiants de niveau supérieur dûment formés à cet effet. Les associés, membres estimés du collège et de la communauté de York, offrent une aide complémentaire conformément au mandat de chaque collège.

Le récent groupe de travail sur les collèges (2007) a recommandé un nouvel alignement des affiliations entre les collèges et facultés, et depuis le 1er juillet 2007, les directeurs des collèges relèvent des doyens de la faculté affiliée. Les collèges sont affiliés aux facultés pour soutenir les mandats pédagogiques et rehausser l'expérience des étudiants au sein des facultés. Les collèges continueront à favoriser une approche interdisciplinaire à la vie universitaire. Les nouvelles affiliations des collèges sont les suivantes :

- Collège Calumet – Faculté de la santé
- Collège Founders – Faculté des arts
- Collège McLaughlin – Faculté des arts
- Collège Norman Bethune – Faculté des sciences et de l'ingénierie et Faculté des études environnementales
- Collège Stong – Faculté de la santé
- Collège Vanier – Faculté des arts
- Collège Winters – Faculté des beaux-arts et Faculté des sciences de l'éducation

Le Collège universitaire Glendon est une faculté bilingue (français et anglais) de l'Université York, qui offre des programmes de jour de premier cycle sur son propre campus. Pour de plus amples renseignements, veuillez consulter la partie « Collège universitaire Glendon ».

Programmes des collèges

Les programmes des collèges fournissent différentes activités parallèles dans l'optique du mandat particulier de chaque collège et rehausse l'expérience des étudiants. Le Collège Norman Bethune offre les cours de formation fondamentale ainsi qu'une série de cours de première année (FYUS : First Year University Seminar) liés aux facultés des sciences et de l'ingénierie et des études environnementales. Le collège Winters offre des cours liés au programme d'études culturelles de la Faculté des beaux-arts. Les collèges sont situés sur deux complexes, tous les deux dotés d'une salle d'ordinateurs rénovée où les étudiants peuvent se détendre, effectuer leurs travaux scolaires ou utiliser les ordinateurs. Ces salles offrent aussi un environnement sans fil pour les étudiants qui apportent leur ordinateur portatif. Les activités proposées par les collèges sont affichées sur le site Web (voir ci-dessous) et sur le <http://www.yorku.ca/colleges/events/>.

Collège Calumet

Fondé en 1970, le Collège Calumet a été le sixième des sept collèges de premier cycle à voir le jour. Il a d'abord été abrité dans la bibliothèque Steacie et, plus tard, dans le bâtiment Atkinson. C'est durant les années où il était à Atkinson que le collège a acquis le caractère original de sa vie et de son organisation, lorsqu'il ne servait que des étudiants non résidents. C'est le directeur Eric Winter qui en a inauguré le premier laboratoire d'ordinateurs et les premiers cours d'informatique. En 1991, étaient ouverts, sous l'égide de la directrice Peggy Keall, le Collège Calumet et ses résidences. Calumet est affilié à la Faculté de la santé et de l'École Schulich des hautes études commerciales.

Le collège Calumet a pour mission d'offrir à ses étudiants tous les services relatifs aux nombreux aspects de la vie universitaire : études, convivialité, culture, loisirs. On encourage tous les membres de la communauté du collège - étudiants, professeurs, anciens étudiants, personnel administratif - à participer à ses activités.

En arrière-plan de toutes les activités de Calumet se trouve un point de vue fondamental, un thème qui célèbre l'individu. Nous apprécions parmi nous toutes les différences et nous cherchons à montrer l'importance de la concertation et du consensus pour susciter la tolérance et la compréhension. Le conseil du Collège Calumet (CCC) et le conseil de résidence de Calumet (CRC) sont là pour permettre une bonne intégration à la vie collégiale. Le CCC publie le journal du collège « The Pipe », dont le nom évoque son rôle dans la diffusion de l'information. Le CRC organise des ateliers, des symposiums, des séminaires, des rencontres sociales et des activités sportives de loisirs. Notre point de mire porte sur le thème de la technologie et des arts, lequel fait actuellement l'objet d'une révision à la lumière de notre nouvelle affiliation avec la Faculté de la santé. Plusieurs activités et événements parallèles enrichissent l'expérience des étudiants. Les étudiants peuvent se faire aider par l'Équipe d'aide du collège dans les domaines suivants : rédaction des essais et des travaux écrits, gestion du stress, aménagement personnel de son temps, choix des cours et politique universitaire.

Calumet dispose de laboratoires de micro-ordinateurs à la disposition des étudiants des collèges Bethune, Calumet et Stong. Le collège et ses résidences font partie d'un réseau d'interconnexion à fibres optiques avec le système informatique général de l'Université.

Le collège offre de très nombreuses activités récréatives. Les équipes de Calumet participent à un grand nombre de rencontres sportives internes : hockey, ballon-balai, water-polo, soft ball, football, pour n'en citer que quelques-unes. Certains sports comptent des équipes masculines et des équipes féminines; d'autres, des équipes mixtes. En général, les athlètes de haut niveau et les sportifs amateur appartiennent à des équipes différentes. Tous les étudiants désirant faire du sport sont encouragés à faire partie de ces équipes.

La résidence de Calumet est constituée de 43 appartements mixtes pour six personnes. Les appartements comprennent en général quatre chambres simples et une double, un salon, une cuisinette et deux salles de bain. Les appartements sont regroupés en sept maisons ayant chacune leur don. Une coordonnatrice de la vie en résidence supervise l'ensemble. Chaque appartement est géré par ses occupants qui sont responsables de l'entretien et de la propreté de leur unité ainsi que des parties communes, des couloirs et des escaliers. Toutes les chambres sont connectées au réseau informatique de Calumet et les résidents disposant d'un ordinateur personnel ont accès au courrier électronique, au catalogue de la bibliothèque et à l'Internet.

Les étudiants participent toute l'année à l'organisation et au bon déroulement des activités sociales telles des bals, soirées de cinéma, dîners de gala et autres. La plupart de ces activités découlent naturellement de l'intérêt des membres actifs.

Le gouvernement étudiant du collège (CCC) a la responsabilité des collectes d'argent effectuées auprès des étudiants ainsi que des dépenses faites pour les activités et les services qui leur sont destinés. Les élections au CCC ont lieu en mars et, peu de temps après, commence la planification des activités de l'année universitaire suivante. Le gouvernement étudiant a des réunions régulières ouvertes à tous (Calumet Open Forum) auxquelles peuvent assister les membres de la communauté.

Collège Founders

Le Collège Founders a été le premier collège fondé sur le campus Keele et il est fier du rôle que ses associés et ses étudiants ont joué dans le développement de l'Université York. L'identité spéciale du Collège Founders est centrée sur « la connaissance de soi, la culture et la société », thèmes qui montrent l'intérêt spécial du collège pour des disciplines telles que l'anthropologie, les études françaises et italiennes, l'histoire, la psychologie, ainsi que pour toutes les questions internationales et contemporaines. Le Collège Founders abrite également les programmes d'études africaines, d'études de l'Asie de l'Est, d'études de l'Amérique latine et des Caraïbes, d'études d'Asie du Sud et du développement international. Il est affilié tout particulièrement au programme de premier cycle de l'École des études des femmes et dispose de très importantes ressources pour les études des femmes.

Les associés du collège sont surtout des professeurs de différents départements qui se sont regroupés pour appuyer les objectifs du collège, mais on compte aussi parmi eux des administrateurs, des journalistes, écrivains et artistes. Plus de 40 associés ont un bureau au collège et sont disponibles pour discuter avec les étudiants. Ils sont un élément vital et participent activement à la vie du collège en dispensant leur enseignement dans un contexte interdisciplinaire, en organisant des séminaires et des conférences et en offrant aux étudiants du collège des conseils pédagogiques sous la direction d'un conseiller d'études qui dirige aussi un important réseau de conseil par des pairs au service de tous les étudiants de Founders.

Sont plus spécialement associées au programme du collège les organismes suivants : l'Association des étudiants d'histoire, l'Association des étudiants en études africaines, les Étudiants en études est-asiatiques à York et l'Association des étudiants de l'Amérique latine et des Caraïbes, l'Association des étudiants en anthropologie. Le Collège Founders abrite également la salle de lecture Jerome Ch'en, qui s'est récemment enrichie d'une belle collection de textes en langue chinoise, la bibliothèque des études féminines Nellie Langford Rowell (qui s'est elle aussi récemment enrichie d'une collection d'ouvrages internationaux), la Chaire Elia en études italo-canadiennes et le Centre de ressources Harriet Tubman sur la Diaspora africaine. Le collège organise, en outre, en collaboration avec le Programme d'études des femmes, une série de conférences faisant appel à des femmes célèbres. Le collège organise également et subventionne une grande variété d'activités artistiques, y compris des expositions dans la Galerie Arthur Haberman. La Galerie, le salon de lecture et de musique, ainsi que le ADDICTION CYBER CAFE font partie des installations et des ressources destinées aux études comme aux loisirs, gérées par le Conseil étudiant du Collège Founders et mises à la disposition des étudiants externes comme de ceux qui vivent dans la résidence universitaire. Le collège dispose d'une grande salle de réunion et d'un grand salon nouvellement rénové. Son pub historique, renommé le Bull Pub., Chaque année, un festival des arts, Poiesis, réunit associés et étudiants pour un concours de peinture, de sculpture, de photographie, de poésie et de musique. Des conférences et des colloques sont régulièrement organisés sur de nombreux sujets universitaires et artistiques liés aux intérêts du collège. Enfin, le Collège Founders abrite la revue féministe prestigieuse, à la fois revue savante et de vulgarisation, Canadian Woman Studies/Les cahiers de la femme.

Le collège est administré par une directrice, une conseillère d'études, un coordonnateur de la vie en résidence, assistés par du personnel et une adjointe administrative et différents comités formés d'associés et d'étudiants. Le conseil étudiant (FCSC) gère un important budget provenant de subventions annuelles, organise différentes activités et contrôle plusieurs services et entreprises dans le collège.

Une résidence de quatre étages (sans ascenseur), divisée en sept maisons, portant chacune le nom d'un membre du Groupe des sept, permet de loger 250 étudiants de premier cycle. Cinq maisons sur sept sont mixtes. Nous essayons de maintenir dans la résidence un environnement vivant tout en offrant une atmosphère propice aux études. La résidence est dirigée par le coordonnateur de la vie en résidence, les dons et les étudiants du conseil de résidence.

Pour encourager la participation active des étudiants et l'excellence universitaire, le collège accorde un programme de stages prestigieux qui place douze étudiants dans des programmes et des unités du collège financés par le service de bourses d'études de l'université. Le Collège

Founders tient à rester fidèle au meilleur de la tradition des collèges — études sérieuses, échanges stimulants entre les associés et les étudiants, vif esprit communautaire.

Collège McLaughlin

Fondé en 1968, le collège McLaughlin porte le nom du regretté colonel R.S. McLaughlin, homme d'affaires et philanthrope. La mission du collège est centrée sur la politique publique et le développement de l'esprit critique vis à vis de cette politique. L'un des objectifs du collège est d'inspirer chez ses étudiants le désir de l'analyse critique de la vie politique en vue d'améliorer notre société, la collectivité locale, la province, le Canada et le monde entier. Un ensemble d'activités universitaires et extra-universitaires font partie du programme d'activités publiques : tables rondes, conférences et séminaires du midi sur des questions d'actualité. Des symposiums proposent des discussions sur des questions de politique nationale et internationale.

Le collège participe au programme de cours de formation fondamentale de la Faculté des arts. Il offre des cours de première et deuxième années affiliés aux divisions des Humanités et des Sciences sociales. La plupart des professeurs des cours de formation fondamentale sont des associés du collège. Les cours de formation fondamentale de McLaughlin comportent chacun deux heures de travaux pratiques donnés dans le collège à des groupes de vingt-cinq étudiants au maximum. Ces cours traitent d'une grande diversité de sujets de politique publique et insistent sur l'apprentissage des compétences de base. Chaque année, les étudiants de McLaughlin, en collaboration avec les étudiants du collège Vanier, préparent et parrainent un symposium d'une journée, « Encounter Canada », sur un sujet important de l'actualité. Le collège propose également, chaque année, une allocution sur la politique publique faite par une personnalité du domaine. D'autres forums sur des questions importantes de la vie étudiante — le statut social de l'homme et de la femme, l'intégrité universitaire, les questions autochtones — enrichissent le programme extra-universitaire. Nous nous efforçons de perpétuer l'idéal du premier directeur du collège, George Tatham, en offrant un environnement propice au développement de « l'Être complet ». Le collège parraine un concours de poésie pan-universitaire qui se déroule durant la Nuit Burns, accueille des soirées de jazz dans son pub et encourage ses étudiants à participer à des compétitions sportives internes et inter-collégiales. Nous organisons également des expositions et des festivals de film dans notre galerie d'art-salle de spectacle.

Le conseil des étudiants du collège McLaughlin propose un programme complet d'activités sociales et culturelles, notamment des sorties soirées musicales ou théâtrales à Toronto. Le programme de sports cultive l'ambition de remporter le Flambeau de York. Les activités sociales sont nombreuses et variées - soirées des talents, soirée d'Halloween, bals de la Saint-Valentin, banquets de Noël et de fin d'année, et une sortie de ski annuelle. Une salle d'haltérophilie bien équipée, Dyna-Macs, est ouverte à tous les étudiants membres; des vestiaires avec douches y sont adjacents.

Par l'intermédiaire de l'affiliation du collège avec la Faculté des arts, les organismes étudiants représentant les étudiants qui se spécialisent en santé et société, droit et société, droit du travail, science politique, politique publique et administration, relations internationales et en sociologie sont invitées à organiser leurs activités au collège. Ces groupes travaillent en collaboration avec le directeur de McLaughlin et avec le conseil du collège pour mettre sur pied des programmes à l'intention des étudiants qui se spécialisent dans ces domaines, et pour la communauté tout entière.

Le collège abrite les bureaux des associés qui enseignent dans différentes facultés, départements et divisions de York et que les étudiants peuvent consulter pour avoir des conseils sur leurs cours et leur carrière future.

Le collège McLaughlin est au service de tous les étudiants, résidents ou non-résidents. La résidence de McLaughlin, le pavillon Tatham, comprend, sur treize étages, des chambres pour une personne et des chambres pour deux personnes. Elle est organisée en six maisons pour hommes et pour femmes. Chaque maison a une salle de loisirs commune. Le coordonnateur de la vie en résidence et les dons travaillent en étroite collaboration avec les présidents de maison et le conseil des résidences. Durant l'année, toutes sortes d'activités culturelles et sociales sont organisées par la résidence. Le directeur de McLaughlin, le conseiller d'études, et leur personnel administratif sont toujours prêts à recevoir les étudiants. Ils les encouragent à venir les voir pour des renseignements ou des conseils.

Collège Norman Bethune

Le collège Norman Bethune, du nom du célèbre médecin canadien, philanthrope dévoué, devenu héros national en Chine, a pour devise « Science et société ». Le collège est affilié aux facultés des sciences et de l'ingénierie et des études environnementales. Il accueille dans ses locaux et ses clubs, ses équipes de sports et son Conseil de collège, et ses salles de cours, non seulement les étudiants de ces disciplines mais aussi tout étudiant de York qui s'intéresse au thème Science et société.

Pour la vie sociale, le collège possède divers clubs d'étudiants comme l'Association des étudiants et universitaires chinois à York, (ACCSY), le Club d'astronomie, l'Association des étudiants en kinésiologie et sciences de la santé (KAHSSO), les Étudiants pour l'exploration et la découverte de l'espace (SEDS), l'Association Anime et Manga de l'Université York (YAMA), la Société de chimie de York (YCS), le Club Pre Med (YPMS), la société de physique, la société de recherche, Ingénieurs sans frontières, un club photo, Displaced Animals Re-Integration Program (DARP), Vet zoo et le Club des excursionnistes de l'Université York (YUOC). Le Conseil athlétique du Collège Bethune parraine un certain nombre d'équipes de sports qui rivalisent avec celles des autres collèges pour le Flambeau de York. Le Conseil du Collège Bethune est composé d'étudiants élus ou nommés, de représentants des Anciens du collège, d'associés et de représentants de la direction du collège. Le Conseil utilise une partie des droits payés par les étudiants pour la publication du journal collégial, Lexicon, pour faire venir des groupes de musique, pour organiser des concerts, des activités d'orientation, pour financer des activités sociales, le journal du collège, The Lexicon, des concerts, des séances d'orientation et toute une gamme d'activités auxquelles les étudiants peuvent participer.

Le Collège Bethune dispense aussi une aide amicale et efficace, par exemple, dans le cadre de programmes qui aident les étudiants à choisir une carrière. Il organise également une session d'orientation pour les nouveaux étudiants ainsi qu'une série de sessions d'orientation d'une journée offertes en été, et tous les étudiants de Bethune, nouveaux et anciens, ont recours un jour ou l'autre au S.O.S. (Student Ombuds Service), qui est un centre de ressources dont les employés sont des étudiants chevronnés qui reçoivent sans rendez-vous les étudiants qui désirent leur parler de questions de nature universitaire et personnelle. Le centre de rédaction, quant à lui, offre sans rendez-vous des séances de travail individuelles qui ont surtout pour but le développement des aptitudes critiques nécessaires à la rédaction de travaux universitaires. Les associés du Collège Bethune (professeurs et membres du personnel non enseignant et de la collectivité) constituent un groupe qui met à la disposition des étudiants un large éventail d'aptitudes, d'intérêts et de connaissances.

Le collège Bethune offre des cours à option comprenant un cours de première année en sciences et un cours de science de niveau plus avancé. Il propose également une riche diversité de séminaires, de conférences, de groupes de discussion et de programmes spéciaux, qui passionnent étudiants et professeurs.

La résidence du Collège Norman Bethune met à la disposition de ses locataires des chambres pour une personne et pour deux personnes et des appartements. La plupart des étages sont mixtes, mais l'un d'eux est réservé aux femmes. Il y a aussi une cafétéria qui offre des menus variés et équilibrés.

Collège Stong

Fondé en 1969, le collège Stong porte le nom d'une famille de pionniers qui arriva en 1800 de Pennsylvanie pour s'établir et cultiver les terres sur lesquelles se situe l'Université York aujourd'hui. C'est l'orgueil du collège d'avoir ainsi ses racines parmi les pionniers du pays, dont on retrouve l'esprit chez les immigrants d'aujourd'hui.

Quatre thèmes majeurs ont traditionnellement caractérisé le collège Stong, bien que, comme tous les autres collèges de l'Université York, il accueille volontiers la diversité de pensée, d'expérience et de spécialisation. Le premier thème couvre la langue et la littérature anglaise, d'hier et d'aujourd'hui, la pensée et l'écriture, et tout ce qui appartient au domaine général de l'art du discours. Le second centre d'intérêt du collège porte sur d'autres langues, littératures et cultures. C'est l'intérêt marqué pour ces cultures qui a donné à notre collège son identité multiculturelle. Notre passion pour la riche vie multiculturelle de notre collège, de l'Université York, de la ville de Toronto et du Canada se marie bien avec le troisième thème du collège, à savoir l'engagement social. Grâce à nos programmes offerts en collaboration avec les écoles de notre voisinage et à d'autres programmes, nous sommes heureux d'honorer le lien fondamental qui nous rattache à la société qui nous entoure et la dette que nous avons envers elle. Et, enfin, le collège Stong a toujours manifesté un engagement soutenu envers l'étude du sport en tant qu'institution sociale. Le collège a déjà eu l'occasion d'offrir plusieurs cours sur les sports et leur apport historique et culturel, et trois des programmes de certificat de l'École de kinésiologie et sciences de la santé y sont offerts. Ce sont « Entraînement sportif », « Administration des sports » et « Thérapie par le sport ». De plus, nos étudiants participent avec enthousiasme aux compétitions inter-collégiales. Le collège Stong a récemment épousé sa nouvelle affiliation avec la Faculté de la santé, laquelle se reflétera dans ses futures aspects thématiques.

Le collège s'intéresse à la vie étudiante et participe à tous ses aspects. Il organise dans ses murs même une grande variété d'activités et d'événements culturels et sociaux : la Galerie Samuel J. Zachs, spécialisée dans l'exposition d'œuvres d'art réalisées par des étudiants, expose des œuvres d'artistes divers, professionnels ou amateurs, parfois traditionnels, parfois d'avant-garde, du pays ou d'ailleurs. Les étudiants ont la possibilité de participer à de nombreux débats et discussions dans le pub-café Orange Snail et par le biais du journal étudiant du collège The Flying Walrus.

Depuis toujours, grâce à son important programme de bourses et d'aide financière, Stong fait tout pour aider ses étudiants qui en ont besoin. Financées principalement par la très active et très dévouée amicale des Anciens, les bourses offertes sont un témoignage permanent de l'intérêt et de l'engagement des membres du collège, qui continuent à se manifester longtemps après l'obtention de leur diplôme.

Le centre de documentation universitaire, dans le hall du collège, abrite le Programme d'entraide et est devenu le principal centre de ressources et d'aide aux étudiants du campus. De plus, le conseiller d'études, le coordonnateur de la vie en résidence, tout le personnel du bureau de la direction, ainsi qu'une longue liste d'associés appartenant à tout un éventail de disciplines sont prêts à mettre leurs connaissances et leur expertise variée à la disposition des étudiants pour les aider à tirer le plus grand profit de leur vie universitaire.

Le Collège Stong est un collège actif et plein de vie. Il encourage toutes les expériences éducatives et offre toutes les possibilités de réussite. Il vous convie à étudier, à vous développer et à participer à la vie communautaire de l'Université York, dans l'atmosphère studieuse d'une riche vie culturelle, sociale et sportive.

Collège Vanier

Le collège porte avec fierté le nom de Georges Vanier, cet ancien gouverneur général qui compte parmi les Canadiens du XXe siècle les plus célèbres et les plus dévoués au service du public et qui représentait les valeurs humanistes de cette institution. Il comprend les étudiants, les résidents, les associés et le personnel, tous contribuant à la vie universitaire et sociale.

Le collège Vanier est affilié à la Division des humanités (dont les bureaux sont situés dans le collège même), à la Faculté des sciences de l'éducation, aux départements de philosophie et de psychologie, de création littéraire, d'études classiques et d'études religieuses.

Les associés de Vanier viennent de tous les secteurs du campus et de la collectivité. Ce sont des scientifiques et des érudits de renom, des citoyens dévoués, des artistes, des hommes et des femmes qui veulent participer à la vie sociale et universitaire de la collectivité de Vanier.

Le collège Vanier compte des locaux et des organismes pour toutes sortes d'activités. On y organise par exemple une série de conférences publiques liées aux cours offerts par le collège. Les Productions du Collège Vanier commanditent durant toute l'année des spectacles musicaux et dramatiques. Les collèges Vanier et McLaughlin organisent conjointement « Encounter Canada », symposium annuel portant sur des sujets de morale et d'éthique touchant la société canadienne. En collaboration avec le programme de création littéraire, Vanier organise chaque année le « festival des écrivains » qui permet à des étudiants de rencontrer et d'écouter des écrivains canadiens et de lire et d'interpréter leurs propres poèmes et autres écrits.

Le personnel du collège Vanier, constitué de la directrice, du conseiller pédagogique, du personnel administratif et des associés du Collège, est là pour aider tous les étudiants du collège. De plus, des membres de diverses disciplines - études classiques, création littéraire, éducation, anglais, histoire, humanités, philosophie et psychologie ont leur bureau dans le collège. De nombreux étudiants de ces disciplines ont créé des clubs qui organisent leurs activités sociales et universitaires dans les locaux du collège. Ces mêmes locaux abritent également York International, le Centre des études juives, la Collection canadienne de la culture enfantine, le Wellness Centre at York University et différents clubs étudiants.

Des étudiants élus forment le Conseil du collège Vanier. Cette gestion étudiante est au cœur des activités du collège et les « élus » organisent des activités sociales et sportives qui permettent aux étudiants de profiter au maximum de leur expérience estudiantine. Le Conseil appuie également une revue littéraire, Existere et un journal, The Vandoo. Vanier dispose de locaux pour les étudiants, notamment un laboratoire informatique, le Théâtre Vanier, la bibliothèque Rosner-Siegel et la Junior Common Room, connue sous le nom de Renaissance, où les étudiants peuvent étudier, nouer des contacts et se détendre.

Par-dessus tout, le collège Vanier vise à offrir un chez-soi à tous les membres divers de la communauté qui le constitue, permettant de tisser des liens entre eux et avec l'université.

Collège Winters

Le collège Winters, fondé en 1967, porte le nom de feu Robert Winters, premier président du conseil d'administration de l'Université York. Il partage avec la Faculté des beaux-arts la stimulante mission d'offrir à tous les étudiants de toutes les facultés un milieu propice à l'expression de la créativité, ce qu'il considère essentiel. La Faculté des sciences de l'éducation a récemment été transférée dans l'édifice du Collège Winters et a établi une nouvelle relation et de nouvelles occasions pour servir les étudiants.

Par le biais du bureau de la directrice, sont organisées des activités dans le but d'offrir aux étudiants, résidents et non-résidents, la possibilité d'être stimulés, de trouver une inspiration et d'assister à des spectacles. Les étudiants peuvent ainsi participer à des ateliers, voir des spectacles, entendre des présentations et des conférences, visionner des films. Ils peuvent également se procurer des billets à prix réduit pour des spectacles de danse, des pièces de théâtre, des concerts et l'opéra.

Une promenade dans l'édifice du collège nouvellement rénové réjouit à la fois les yeux et les oreilles : ici une répétition musicale, là un récital de danse ou une séance de jonglerie. On peut également y voir les œuvres de nombreux artistes visuels de York, étudiants comme professeurs, sur les murs, dans les jardins ou la galerie Eleanor Winters. Musique, poésie, chœurs parlés y sont régulièrement présentés, dans les Junior et Senior Common Rooms et dans la salle à manger Winters. Des spectacles du même type ont lieu au café-pub Absinthe, âme du collège et scène privilégiée pour des orchestres locaux soucieux de se produire. L'Absinthe est tenu par les étudiants et géré par le Conseil du collège Winters, agréable mélange d'étudiants résidents et non résidents qui organisent également la semaine frosh, ainsi que les différentes activités, officielles ou non, tout au long de l'année. Le Conseil du collège et le bureau de la direction travaillent de concert et leur premier souci est la création d'un milieu social, culturel et universitaire florissant pour tous les étudiants de Winters. Nous accueillons volontiers idées et suggestions.

Pourtant, le collège Winters ne se cantonne pas aux disciplines artistiques. Nombre d'étudiants qui s'y inscrivent viennent d'autres disciplines très diverses, et cette diversité enrichit la communauté. Le collège abrite également l'Association portugaise de l'Université York, ainsi que d'autres clubs dont il bénéficie des activités. Les étudiants de la Faculté des sciences de l'éducation font maintenant partie de la communauté du Collège Winters.

Le collège est depuis longtemps connu pour sa vitalité et son esprit créatif; il compte aussi d'éminents chercheurs qui encouragent l'excellence au niveau des études. Nous avons un service de conseils entre étudiants et un kiosque de renseignements où les étudiants peuvent venir pour discuter de questions universitaires ou personnelles, parler avec des étudiants plus âgés ou à notre conseiller des études. Dans tout le collège, des espaces sont réservés à l'étude - la Junior Common Room, la salle à manger et, aux beaux jours, le jardin - et offrent aux étudiants des lieux pour échanger, lire un livre lové dans le coin d'un sofa ou tout simplement pour se retrouver un peu au calme. Des bourses Winters - études, entretien et livres - sont décernées chaque année.

XIV. Admission

Le Bureau d'admission de l'Université York s'assure que tous les dossiers des candidats qualifiés sont traités de façon juste et équitable. L'Université offre l'admission aux candidats les plus qualifiés.

Les pages qui suivent présentent les renseignements pour les programmes de premier cycle. Consultez le site <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/> pour des renseignements précis concernant les programmes de premier cycle. Pour obtenir de l'information détaillée sur les programmes de deuxième et troisième cycles, consultez le site <http://www.yorku.ca/graduatestudents/>.

Catégories d'admission

L'Université York offre aux étudiants plusieurs types de formation. On trouvera ci-dessous une brève description des différentes catégories d'admission. Pour être accepté au programme de votre choix, vous devez avoir la moyenne minimum et les préalables requis. Les exigences varient selon les programmes et l'admission n'est pas garantie. Pour de plus amples renseignements, consultez le site <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/>.

Diplôme de premier cycle

Toute personne ayant la préparation suffisante peut présenter sa candidature pour être admise à l'Université York dans un programme de premier cycle York admet directement des étudiants dans les programmes conduisant aux baccalauréats suivants : Baccalauréat en administration; Baccalauréat ès sciences appliquées, Baccalauréat ès arts; Baccalauréat en administration des affaires; Baccalauréat international en administration des affaires; Baccalauréat en graphisme; Baccalauréat ès études environnementales; Baccalauréat en beaux-arts, Baccalauréat ès arts international; Baccalauréat en sciences de la santé, Baccalauréat en gestion des ressources humaines; Baccalauréat ès sciences et Baccalauréat ès sciences International.

Une formation postsecondaire préalable est exigée pour le Baccalauréat en sciences de l'éducation et le Baccalauréat en droit.

L'Université York offre des programmes de Baccalauréat ès sciences en soins infirmiers et de Baccalauréat en service social aux étudiants qui entrent en première année et à ceux qui ont une formation postsecondaire préalable.

Programme conjoint Baccalauréat/Diplôme

Les étudiants de l'Université York peuvent préparer simultanément dans plusieurs domaines un diplôme universitaire et un programme menant à un certificat ou à un diplôme offert par les collèges d'arts appliqués et de technologie. Seuls les étudiants des dernières années sont admissibles et les places sont limitées.

Certificat de premier cycle

Les personnes ayant la préparation requise peuvent demander leur admission à un programme menant à un certificat du premier cycle. Ces programmes permettent d'acquérir une expertise professionnelle ou des compétences dans des domaines précis. En général, ces certificats s'obtiennent en même temps qu'un programme de baccalauréat., bien que certains certificats peuvent se préparer individuellement. Pour plus de détails, consultez le site <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/> et cliquez sur Courses & Programs.

Étudiant libre

L'Université York peut admettre des personnes qui désirent suivre des cours crédités mais qui n'ont pas l'intention de préparer un baccalauréat ou un certificat à York. Ce sont des « étudiants libres », c'est-à-dire des personnes qui sont déjà titulaires d'un baccalauréat ou qui sont inscrites concurrentement dans une autre université reconnue et qui désirent suivre des cours à York avec une lettre de permission de leur université, ou qui ne sont pas titulaires d'un baccalauréat mais désirent s'inscrire à des cours à York pour satisfaire aux exigences d'une désignation professionnelle en matière d'études, de recyclage ou de développement professionnel.

Étudiant provisoire

Dans des cas très exceptionnels, l'Université York admettra, pour une période ne dépassant pas une année universitaire (et ce, normalement, en prévision d'une admission dans un programme de baccalauréat) de façon provisoire. L'Université accorde cette admission provisoire à sa discrétion sur présentation de preuves montrant irréfutablement que la personne ainsi admise pourra satisfaire aux exigences d'un baccalauréat ou d'un certificat.

Exigences d'admission

L'Université York envisage l'admission de candidats du monde entier possédant déjà un diplôme décerné par un établissement reconnu ou accrédité. On trouvera, ci-dessous, des renseignements sur le type de formation que reconnaît York. L'Université exige également pour l'admission une moyenne minimum ainsi que des cours préalables. Pour certains programmes, les candidats doivent également fournir des renseignements supplémentaires. Pour plus de détails, consultez le site <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/>. Le fait de satisfaire aux exigences minimales ne garantit pas nécessairement l'admission à l'Université. Tout candidat qui estime que son dossier scolaire ne donne pas une juste image de ses capacités est invité à soumettre tous les documents qui donnent les raisons pour lesquelles ses résultats scolaires ne sont pas ce qu'ils devraient être. Tous les documents seront pris en considération.

Baccalauréat international : Diplôme du BI avec note de passage dans six matières y compris les cours exigés par la faculté ou le programme demandé.

- trois notes de passage au niveau standard et trois au niveau avancé ou
- deux notes de passage au niveau standard et quatre au niveau avancé.

Les diplômes sont également pris en compte avec une note d'au moins 24 points, mais nous recommandons 28 points ou plus. Le dossier des étudiants désirant préparer un certificat sera étudié individuellement et le diplôme d'études secondaires sera pris en compte.

York accorde des crédits d'équivalence - jusqu'à un maximum de 18 crédits selon la faculté choisie - pour les cours du BI de niveau avancé réussis avec une note minimum de cinq.

Baccalauréat français : Baccalauréat français avec une note minimum de 10 (passable) d'un lycée agréé par le Ministère Français de l'Éducation ou une agence compétente, Nous accorderons jusqu'à un maximum de 30 crédits d'équivalence pour des notes de 12 ou plus, selon le programme.

Test de classement de niveau avancé : Selon la faculté que vous choisissez, des équivalences universitaires peuvent être octroyées jusqu'à un maximum de 12 crédits si vous avez obtenu une note de 4 ou 5 dans certaines disciplines au Test de classement de niveau avancé de la Commission d'examen d'entrée au collège. Vous devez également répondre aux exigences d'admission habituelles de York.

Certificat Général d'Enseignement (GCE) : Réussite à deux niveaux avancés (Niveau-A) et trois niveaux ordinaires (Niveau-O) GCSE ou IGCSE. On peut remplacer un cours de niveau avancé par deux cours de niveau auxiliaire avancé (Niveau AA). Une note minimum de C est exigée pour l'admission aux niveaux avancé et ordinaire. Des équivalences universitaires peuvent être octroyées jusqu'à un maximum de 18 crédits pour les cours de niveau avancé ayant obtenu une note finale de C ou plus, selon le programme choisi. Vous devez également satisfaire aux exigences d'admission habituelles de York.

Caribbean Advanced Proficiency Examinations (CAPE) : Diplôme CAPE avec un total d'au moins six unités, incluant les cours préalables, et des notes de 1, 2 ou 3 dans chaque unité. Une moyenne générale d'au moins 3 sur 7 est exigée. Crédits accordés pour des cours réussis au niveau « 2-unit » pour lesquels le candidat a obtenu des notes de 1, 2 ou 3, selon le programme demandé (maximum de 18 crédits).

École secondaire internationale : Si vous venez d'un autre système éducatif, consultez le site <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/requirements/> pour obtenir des précisions.

Université

Les étudiants qui viennent d'une autre université et ont terminé un minimum de 4 cours complets ou une année d'études à temps plein menant à un diplôme ou l'équivalent dans un établissement reconnu et qui ont obtenu une moyenne générale de 2 sur une échelle de 4 (C/60 %) seront considérés comme candidats. De plus, pour être admissibles à tous les programmes spécialisés, les étudiants doivent avoir une moyenne générale de 2,3 sur une échelle de 4 (C+/65 % ou l'équivalent). Tous les cours suivis, y compris les cours auxquels l'étudiant a échoué seront inclus dans le calcul de la moyenne pour l'admission. Si le relevé indique que l'étudiant a repris un cours, la deuxième note sera utilisée pour calculer la moyenne générale. Le fait de satisfaire aux exigences minimales ne garantit pas l'admission à l'Université. Certaines facultés peuvent exiger des moyennes plus élevées. Vous devez également satisfaire aux critères de l'ensemble des programmes et facultés.

Les cours universitaires peuvent être évalués pour l'octroi de crédits d'équivalence. Pour que le Bureau d'admission puisse évaluer l'équivalence de vos crédits, vous devez soumettre la description officielle des cours que vous avez suivis dans des universités reconnues à l'extérieur du Canada et des États-Unis. Ces descriptions officielles doivent être rédigées par l'établissement que vous avez fréquenté ou être disponibles sur son site Web. Veuillez fournir l'adresse URL exacte ou imprimer les descriptions de cours affichées sur le site Web. Pour de plus amples renseignements, consultez la section « Obtention d'équivalences universitaires (crédits d'équivalence) ».

Les relevés de notes originaux rédigés dans une autre langue que le français ou l'anglais doivent être traduits par un traducteur certifié. Les descriptions de cours peuvent être traduites par le candidat et soumises avec le texte original de l'établissement.

Collège

- Les étudiants qui viennent d'un collège d'arts appliqués et de technologie ou d'un institut de technologie et d'enseignement supérieur (ITAL) de l'Ontario et qui ont terminé deux semestres complets d'études collégiales ou une année d'étude à temps plein dans le cadre d'un programme d'études avec une moyenne générale de 3 sur une échelle de 4 (B/70 %), calculée en incluant tous les cours suivis peuvent être considérés comme candidats; ou
- Les étudiants qui viennent d'un collège reconnu à l'extérieur de l'Ontario et qui ont terminé une année d'études à temps plein dans le cadre d'un programme d'études et qui ont obtenu une moyenne générale de 3 sur une échelle de 4 (B/70 %), calculée en incluant tous les cours suivis peuvent être considérés comme candidats.

Si un étudiant n'a pas obtenu un diplôme collégial et que son relevé indique qu'il a repris un cours, la deuxième note obtenu pour le(s) cour(s) sera utilisée dans le calcul de la moyenne générale. Certaines facultés peuvent exiger des moyennes plus élevées. Il importe de noter que même si un étudiant satisfait aux conditions minimums, son admission à l'Université n'est pas garantie. L'étudiant doit également satisfaire aux critères de l'ensemble des programmes et facultés.

Les cours collégiaux peuvent être évalués pour l'octroi de crédits d'équivalence. Pour que le Bureau d'admission puisse évaluer l'équivalence de vos crédits, vous devez soumettre la description officielle des cours que vous avez suivis dans des collèges reconnus à l'extérieur du Canada et des États-Unis. Ces descriptions officielles doivent être rédigées par l'établissement que vous avez fréquenté ou être disponibles sur son site Web. Veuillez fournir l'adresse URL exacte ou imprimer les descriptions de cours affichées sur le site Web. Pour de plus amples renseignements, consultez la section « Obtention d'équivalences universitaires (crédits d'équivalence) ».

Les relevés de notes originaux rédigés dans une autre langue que le français ou l'anglais doivent être traduits par un traducteur certifié. Les descriptions de cours peuvent être traduites par le candidat et soumises avec le texte original de l'établissement.

Étudiant adulte

Pour poser votre candidature dans la catégorie « étudiant adulte » vous devez :

- avoir 21 ans ou plus le jour où débute la session à laquelle vous êtes inscrit(e);
- avoir quitté l'école secondaire à temps plein depuis au moins deux ans (si vous avez suivi des cours après deux ans d'absence pour améliorer vos notes, vous pouvez déposer une demande d'admission);
- avoir été inscrit à moins de quatre cours dans une université ou un collège reconnu;
- ne pas avoir obtenu de mauvais résultats scolaires au cours d'une période récente; et
- avoir fait preuve, par vos activités scolaires, professionnelles, bénévoles ou autres, d'une bonne capacité d'entreprendre des études universitaires.

Vous pouvez aussi envisager de déposer une demande d'admission en tant qu'étudiant adulte si vous avez réussi un cours pré-universitaire de York offert par l'entremise du département de l'éducation permanente, ou un cours de transition pour femmes, avec une note minimum de B et si vous satisfaites aux exigences du programme et de compétence linguistique.

Personnes du troisième âge

Les personnes du troisième âge qui désirent être admises à l'Université (à un programme menant à un diplôme ou comme étudiants libres) sont considérées comme des candidats de la catégorie étudiant adulte à moins qu'elles n'aient déjà terminé des études postsecondaires. (Voir les sections pertinentes ci-dessus).

Pour avoir droit à une dispense des frais de scolarité, les étudiants doivent être citoyens canadiens ou résidents permanents et avoir atteint 60 ans le 1er mai pour la session d'été et le 1er septembre pour la session automne/hiver. La dispense des frais de scolarité accordée aux personnes du troisième âge est plafonnée au niveau des frais de scolarité applicables aux étudiants canadiens, non professionnels de premier cycle en arts, sciences et autres programmes, tel qu'il est spécifié dans les lignes directrices sur les frais de scolarité du ministère de la Formation et des Collèges et Universités. La dispense des frais de scolarité des personnes du troisième âge admissibles est limitée à un maximum d'un diplôme de premier, deuxième ou troisième cycle. Les personnes du troisième âge admissibles à la dispense des frais de scolarité doivent payer tous les autres frais relatifs à un cours ou un programme, ou exigibles lors du processus d'inscription (y compris les frais auxiliaires, les frais approuvés par référendum étudiant, les frais de matériel pédagogique et les pénalités financières).

Pour plus de précisions, contactez le Bureau des Services financiers étudiants.

Exigences de compétence linguistique

Si vous souhaitez vous inscrire à un programme de premier cycle à l'Université York, votre niveau linguistique doit être suffisant pour que vous puissiez faire vos travaux universitaires en anglais, si vous avez effectué avec succès, ou êtes sur le point de terminer avec succès, un des programmes suivants :

- Quatre années d'études au niveau secondaire en anglais ou en français au Canada.
- Quatre années d'études au niveau secondaire en anglais dans un pays où l'anglais est la première langue.
- Une année d'études postsecondaires en anglais dans un établissement postsecondaire reconnu dans un pays où l'anglais est la première langue.
- Deux années d'études collégiales en anglais dans un collège reconnu dans un pays où l'anglais est la première langue.

Remarque : Les périodes passées à suivre des cours ESL ne peuvent pas compter dans les exemptions indiquées ci-dessus. Un candidat ne peut être dispensé de satisfaire aux exigences de compétence linguistique en soumettant une lettre qu'il a rédigée lui-même ou en soumettant une preuve qu'il a suivi des cours d'anglais du niveau secondaire.

Les indications ci-dessus sont à titre indicatif seulement. L'Université York se réserve le droit de demander les résultats obtenus à des tests de compétence linguistique.

Si vous n'êtes pas sûr de satisfaire aux exigences de compétence linguistique, nous vous conseillons de soumettre les résultats obtenus à un test de compétence linguistique en anglais afin d'éviter tout retard éventuel dans le traitement de votre demande d'admission.

Les résultats des tests de langue et les diplômes obtenus sont examinés en même temps pour déterminer votre admissibilité à l'Université.

Candidats pour le Collège universitaire Glendon

Le Collège universitaire Glendon étant une faculté bilingue, vous pouvez choisir de faire preuve de vos compétences linguistiques soit en français soit en anglais. Vous pouvez choisir de subir un des tests d'anglais indiqués ci-dessous ou le test de langue française administré par le Collège universitaire Glendon. Contactez le Service de recrutement et liaison au 416-487-6710 ou liaison@glendon.yorku.ca.

Exemption des tests de compétence linguistique pour les étudiants qui ont terminé des cours à l'Institut de langue anglaise de l'Université York (YUELI)

L'Institut YUELI offre toute une gamme de cours de langue anglaise non sanctionnés par des crédits, à temps plein et à temps partiel, pour préparer les étudiants à des études universitaires.

La réussite à un cours ESL de niveau six, dans le programme intensif avec mention Très Bien, Bien ou Passable répond à l'exigence de compétence linguistique en anglais en vue de l'admission à presque tous les programmes de premier cycle. Les programmes d'ingénierie et de l'École Schulich des hautes études commerciales exigent la mention Très Bien.

Pour de plus amples renseignements, adressez-vous à l'Institut YUELI au 416-736-5353, ou visitez le site <http://yueli.yorku.ca>.

Candidatures

Modalités de candidature

- Les élèves des écoles secondaires de l'Ontario doivent soumettre leur demande d'admission en remplissant la demande d'admission 101 du Centre de réception des demandes d'admission aux universités de l'Ontario (OUAC). Pour plus de détails, adressez-vous au bureau d'orientation de votre établissement.
- Tous les autres candidats peuvent soumettre une demande en ligne ou remplir une demande qu'ils se procureront auprès du Centre de réception des demandes d'admission aux universités de l'Ontario (OUAC). Consultez le site <http://www.ouac.on.ca>.
- Si vous faites une demande pour vous inscrire à un programme menant à un certificat, ou si vous êtes un étudiant libre, remplissez la demande d'admission que vous vous procurerez sur le site <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/> ou en appelant le Bureau d'admission au 416-736-5000.

Évaluations, auditions et portfolios pour la Faculté des beaux-arts

La plupart des candidats pour la Faculté des beaux-arts doivent participer à une évaluation supplémentaire qui peut comprendre une audition, une entrevue, un exercice écrit ou l'évaluation de leur portfolio. Cette évaluation a lieu en général durant les mois d'hiver au campus Keele. Cependant, si, pour des raisons d'éloignement, cette évaluation ne peut se faire à ce campus, d'autres méthodes d'évaluation sont possibles. Rendez-vous sur le site <http://www.yorku.ca/finearts/> pour plus de détails.

Formulaire de renseignements supplémentaires pour l'École Schulich des hautes études commerciales.

Avant de soumettre le formulaire de renseignements supplémentaires, les candidats doivent faire une demande d'admission à l'Université York par l'entremise du Centre de réception des demandes d'admission aux universités de l'Ontario avant la date butoir. Renseignements sur le site : <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/requirements/deadlines.html>.

Formulaire de renseignements supplémentaires pour le Baccalauréat en service social

Les étudiants peuvent s'inscrire directement au Baccalauréat en service social (BSW) offert le jour à temps plein. Ce programme est également offert à temps partiel, principalement en soirée, pour les étudiants qui ont déjà un diplôme de premier cycle.

Les candidats pour les deux programmes de BSW de York qui ne viennent pas directement d'une école secondaire doivent présenter le formulaire de renseignements supplémentaires et toutes les pièces justificatives. Pour obtenir une copie de ce formulaire, visitez le site <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/forms.html>.

Pour plus de renseignements sur les programmes d'étude, visitez le site <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/> et cliquez sur Courses & Programs.

Admission spéciale pour les étudiants ayant des besoins spéciaux

L'Université York s'engage à aider et à tenir compte des besoins des étudiants qui souhaitent poursuivre leurs études mais qui ont des difficultés sur le plan physique ou de l'apprentissage ou qui ont des troubles psychiatriques.

Si vous avez un handicap physique, il est important que vous le signaliez durant le processus d'admission.

Si vous ne répondez pas à nos critères minimum d'admission, vous souhaitez peut-être faire une demande d'admission adaptée.

Si votre situation ne gêne pas votre admission à l'Université (en d'autres termes, si vous répondez à nos critères d'admission), nous voulons nous assurer que vous connaissez les services de soutien à votre disposition.

Le fait de signaler un handicap physique ne sera d'aucune façon à votre désavantage. Nous souhaitons seulement savoir qui vous êtes de façon à nous assurer que vous disposez de l'aide dont vous avez besoin durant le processus d'admission et par la suite. Même si vous n'avez pas actuellement besoin d'aide, il se peut que votre situation change.

York offre un certain nombre de services de soutien aux étudiants ayant des handicaps physiques, des difficultés d'apprentissage ou des troubles psychiatriques. Si vous êtes admis à l'Université York et que vous avez besoin d'aide ou d'adaptation, voyez un conseiller avant le début de l'année universitaire. L'adaptation peut toucher le style d'enseignement, les méthodes d'évaluation ou d'autres exigences dans tous les cours. Toute disposition doit être prise avant le début du trimestre universitaire, faute de quoi vous risquez de nuire à vos chances de disposer d'un logement universitaire.

Pour de plus amples renseignements, consultez le site <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/requirements/disabilities.html>.

Dates limites de dépôt des demandes

Consultez le site <http://www.yorku.ca/futurestudents/requirements/deadlines.asp> pour connaître les dates limites de dépôt des demandes. Si vous souhaitez recevoir une réponse en temps voulu pour le programme que vous avez choisi, le mieux est que vous déposiez votre demande, accompagnée de tous les documents officiels, bien avant les dates limites.

Faculté des sciences de l'éducation : consultez la section concernant cette faculté dans le présent annuaire pour connaître les démarches particulières.

Faculté de droit Osgoode Hall : consultez l'annuaire séparé de cette faculté.

Faculté des études de deuxième et troisième cycles : consultez l'annuaire séparé de cette faculté.

Obtention d'équivalences universitaires (crédits d'équivalence)

Toutes les informations concernant des études postsecondaires antérieurement terminées doivent être communiquées à l'Université York au moment du dépôt de la demande d'admission. Les candidats admis à York qui sont titulaires de diplômes d'études postsecondaires d'établissements reconnus peuvent avoir droit à recevoir des équivalences universitaires ou des crédits d'équivalence. Pour déterminer l'admissibilité à des équivalences universitaires, il sera tenu compte du dossier complet des études postsecondaires du candidat dans un établissement reconnu. Le nombre d'équivalences accordées dépend de la nature du programme suivi, des notes obtenues et du programme auquel la personne désire s'inscrire à York. Il n'est pas nécessaire de fournir une demande séparée d'équivalences universitaires. La réception du dossier complet de demande d'équivalences et l'évaluation de toutes les équivalences possibles au moment de l'admission doit se faire durant un trimestre universitaire à compter de la date d'admission à l'Université. (Ainsi, l'admission à la session d'automne et à la session d'automne/hiver doit être terminée avant la fin de la session d'automne/hiver; l'admission à la session d'hiver doit être terminée à la fin de la session d'été; l'admission à la session d'été doit être terminée à la fin de la session d'automne.) Les candidats admis à York qui n'étaient pas en règle avec leurs établissements postsecondaires antérieurs peuvent déposer une demande d'équivalences et les dossiers seront étudiés au cas par cas.

Une description détaillée des cours, préparée par l'établissement, est obligatoire pour tous les cours suivis dans des établissements postsecondaires en dehors du Canada et des États-Unis. Ces descriptions doivent être préparées par l'établissement reconnu ou être disponibles sur son site. Il convient donc de fournir l'adresse URL exacte ou d'imprimer les descriptions directement du site Web.

Les descriptions de cours rédigées dans une autre langue que le français ou l'anglais peuvent être traduites en français ou en anglais par le candidat et la traduction doit être présentée avec le document préparé par l'établissement. Nous exigeons également une traduction officielle en français ou en anglais (faite par un traducteur certifié) des relevés de notes originaux qui n'existent ni en français ni en anglais.

Il est recommandé que tous les étudiants remettent une description détaillée du travail postsecondaire terminé pour la majeure qu'ils envisagent afin de voir s'il est possible d'obtenir des équivalences dans le domaine de la majeure.

Les étudiants qui ont complété des cours en commerce (p. ex. comptabilité, fiscalité) doivent également fournir la description et le plan officiels du cours, y compris la liste de tous les manuels requis aux fins d'évaluation des études antérieures.

Programmes de préparation d'un diplôme universitaire de premier cycle

Un étudiant admis à York qui a fréquenté un établissement postsecondaire agréé et obtenu des crédits en vue de l'obtention d'un baccalauréat peut demander des équivalences. L'étude de son dossier tiendra compte des cours pour lesquels les notes obtenues sont celles normalement exigées d'un étudiant poursuivant ses études sans interruption. Les équivalences sont déterminées en fonction des exigences de la faculté à laquelle l'étudiant souhaite s'inscrire.

L'Université York reconnaît le Protocole pancanadien sur la réciprocité des crédits universitaires et entreprend de s'assurer que tous les cours suivis par un étudiant venant d'un autre établissement durant les deux premières années d'études universitaires au Canada (y compris les dernières années d'études menant à un diplôme d'études collégiales (DEC) au Québec, et les cours universitaires offerts par les collèges communautaires et les collèges universitaires en Colombie-britannique et en Alberta) seront reconnus et feront l'objet d'une équivalence totale pour l'obtention d'un diplôme pourvu que : 1. l'étudiant soit censé être admissible et ait reçu une offre d'admission; 2. l'étudiant ait obtenu une note de passage aux cours qu'il a suivis et ait le niveau normalement exigé d'un étudiant poursuivant ses études sans interruption; et que 3 : les crédits obtenus soient en lien avec le programme d'études auquel l'étudiant souhaite s'inscrire, ou que les crédits puissent être comptés comme facultatifs pour ledit programme.

Si un étudiant venant d'un autre établissement choisit un autre programme une fois admis à York, les équivalences obtenues à l'admission peuvent faire l'objet d'une réévaluation.

Si un étudiant qui quitte York pour poursuivre ses études dans un autre établissement postsecondaire décide d'y revenir, il devra faire une nouvelle demande à l'Université York et toutes les équivalences antérieures devront être réévaluées.

Selon la faculté à laquelle l'étudiant est admis, il se peut que les équivalences accordées ne soient pas toutes utilisées pour satisfaire aux exigences d'un programme d'études donné.

Programmes de préparation d'un diplôme collégial

Un étudiant admis à York qui a terminé au moins un an d'études à temps plein dans un programme d'un collège d'arts appliqués et de technologie (CAAT) ou dans un programme d'un institut de technologie et d'enseignement supérieur (ITAL) en Ontario ou dans un collège agréé en dehors de l'Ontario peut chercher à obtenir des équivalences. Le minimum requis est une moyenne générale de B/70, soit 3 sur une échelle de 4, pour tous les cours suivis, y compris les cours où il a échoué. Les équivalences sont déterminées en fonction des exigences de la faculté à laquelle l'étudiant souhaite s'inscrire. Les accords avec un collège d'arts appliqués et de technologie ou un collège assimilé peuvent entraîner des équivalences plus larges.

Si un étudiant venant d'un autre établissement choisit un autre programme une fois admis à York, les équivalences obtenues à l'admission peuvent faire l'objet d'une réévaluation.

Si un étudiant qui quitte York pour poursuivre ses études dans un autre établissement postsecondaire décide d'y revenir, il devra faire une nouvelle demande à l'Université York et toutes les équivalences antérieures devront être réévaluées.

Selon la faculté à laquelle l'étudiant est admis, il se peut que les équivalences accordées ne soient pas toutes utilisées pour satisfaire aux exigences d'un programme d'études donné.

Échec et renvoi

Les étudiants qui ont été renvoyés peuvent être réadmis dans une session ultérieure à condition de pouvoir prouver au comité des admissions qu'ils pourront tirer profit de nouvelles études universitaires. Aucune demande de réadmission ne sera considérée dans un délai de deux ans après la date du renvoi. En cas d'échec dans une autre université, ou lorsque les règlements d'une autre université sur le renvoi diffèrent de ceux de York, ou lorsque cette université calcule les années et les semestres d'une façon différente de York, ce sont en général les règlements de York qui s'appliquent.

XV. Renseignements universitaires

Renseignements généraux

Sessions universitaires

L'année universitaire comprend deux « sessions » : La session d'automne-hiver et la session d'été. La session d'automne/hiver commence en septembre et se termine en avril ou mai. En règle générale, les cours complets sont programmés durant la session d'automne-hiver. La session d'automne-hiver se divise en deux « trimestres », le trimestre d'automne qui commence en septembre et se termine en décembre, et le trimestre d'hiver qui commence en janvier et se termine en avril ou mai. Les trimestres d'automne et d'hiver comprennent en général 13 semaines chacun et la session d'automne-hiver environ 26 semaines.

La session d'été commence en mai et se termine en août. Cette session comprend différents « trimestres » qui durent de 6 à 13 semaines de cours. On trouvera tous les renseignements concernant les dates de sessions et de trimestres sur le site Current Students (<http://yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Numérotation des cours

Les cours décrits dans cet annuaire se présentent sous cette forme : GL/SOCI 2510 6.00 et se décomposent ainsi : GL désigne la faculté qui offre le cours (dans ce cas, le collège universitaire Glendon); SOCI désigne le département qui offre le cours (dans ce cas, le département de sociologie); 2510 est le numéro du cours. Le premier chiffre identifie le niveau du cours (dans ce cas, cours de deuxième année); et le suffixe 6.00 donne la « valeur en crédits » du cours.

Valeur en crédits des cours

Les facultés de York offrent des cours dont la valeur en crédits est variable. Chaque cours est désigné avec un suffixe qui en indique la valeur en crédits. Ainsi le cours GL/SOCI 2510 6.00 porte le suffixe « 6.00 », ce qui indique que le cours vaut six crédits. La valeur en crédits est en général liée à la durée totale du cours et au nombre d'heures de classe par semaine. Les cours de trois crédits, désignés par le suffixe « 3.00 » ont en général trois heures de cours par semaine durant un trimestre. Les cours de six crédits, désignés par le suffixe « 6.00 », ont en général trois heures de cours par semaine durant deux trimestres.

Le site des cours de York (<https://w2prod.sis.yorku.ca/Apps/WebObjects/cdm>) donne la liste des cours offerts, le trimestre, le jour de semaine, l'heure et la classe.

Cours interdépartementaux

Comme on l'a vu, le préfixe d'un cours désigne l'unité ou le programme qui offre le cours. De nombreux cours sont « interdépartementaux », c'est-à-dire qu'ils sont offerts conjointement par au moins deux unités d'enseignement (départements ou programmes). Dans certains cas, des cours peuvent être offerts conjointement par deux unités appartenant à deux facultés différentes. Les cours interdépartementaux ne peuvent pas être utilisés deux fois pour satisfaire à des exigences différentes. Ainsi, si AS/HUMA 4610 6.00 est jumelé à AS/PSYC 4120 6.00, il peut compter comme un cours d'humanités ou de psychologie, mais pas pour les deux à la fois.

Cours se chevauchant

Dans certains cours, le contenu et la pédagogie chevauchent de façon importante le contenu et la pédagogie d'autres cours. Il y a deux catégories de chevauchement : les cours non créditaux et les cours de substitution.

Cours de substitution : Il s'agit de cours appariés dont le contenu est suffisamment semblable pour que les cours soient substitués un à l'autre en vue de satisfaire aux exigences du programme. Il importe de noter que seulement un des cours appariés peut être crédité. Les cours de substitution sont indiqués à la section des Programmes d'études du calendrier.

Cours non créditaux : Il s'agit de cours appariés qui ne peuvent tous les deux être crédités puisque leur contenu est trop identique. Si les exigences du diplôme précisent qu'un des cours appariés est requis pour satisfaire aux exigences du programme, vous ne pouvez vous inscrire à l'autre cours, car il ne peut être utilisé pour satisfaire aux exigences du diplôme. Les cours non-créditaux sont indiqués sur le site des cours de York ou dans la section des descriptions de cours du calendrier.

Équivalence d'année d'études

La progression des étudiants dans leurs études est déterminée par le nombre de crédits obtenus plutôt que par le nombre d'années passées aux études. Voici un tableau d'équivalence qui pourra aider à déterminer le niveau atteint par les étudiants dans leurs études :

Crédits obtenus	Année d'études
Moins de 24 crédits obtenus	1 ^{re}
De 24 crédits à moins de 54	2 ^e
De 54 crédits à moins de 84	3 ^e
84 crédits et plus	4 ^e *

*La référence à la 4^e année ne s'applique qu'aux étudiants des programmes de spécialisation. Les cours de pédagogie suivis par les étudiants de la Faculté des sciences de l'éducation ne sont pas inclus dans le compte des cours de la faculté mère (c.-à-d. Arts, Glendon etc.) pour déterminer l'année d'études.

Inscription aux cours et paiement des droits

On ne doit pas confondre inscription aux cours et paiement des droits. Il s'agit de démarches différentes décrites ci-dessous.

a. Inscription aux cours : Les étudiants nouvellement admis et ceux qui poursuivent leurs études s'inscrivent aux cours choisis par l'entremise du système d'inscription de l'Université, selon les règlements de leur faculté et de ses unités d'enseignement.

b. Paiement des droits : En payant les droits unitaires correspondant aux cours auxquels ils sont inscrits, selon les règlements publiés par le Bureau du registraire, les étudiants confirment leur inscription aux cours. Les étudiants qui n'ont pas payé les droits des cours ne peuvent pas recevoir de notes.

Notes et système de notation

Les étudiants suivant des cours dans les facultés de 1^{er} cycle décrits dans cet annuaire sont notés selon le barème de notes présenté ci-dessous, à l'exception des cours évalués selon l'option réussite/échec. Les points attribués aux différentes notes sont utilisés pour calculer les moyennes. Pour tout renseignement concernant l'option réussite/échec, voir dans cet annuaire la section correspondant au système de notation dans la faculté pertinente.

Remarque : Seuls les cours suivis à l'Université York sont inclus dans le calcul de la moyenne générale. Les pourcentages indiqués ne font pas partie de la notation et sont donnés à titre indicatif seulement. La notation officielle pour l'évaluation des travaux dans tous les programmes de 1^{er} cycle de l'Université York repose sur l'échelle de lettres.

Lettre	Points	Pourcentage	Description
A+	9	90-100	Exceptionnel
A	8	80-89	Excellent
B+	7	75-79	Très bon
B	6	70-74	Bon
C+	5	65-69	Compétent

C	4	60-64	Assez compétent
D+	3	55-59	Passable
D	2	50-54	À peine passable
E	1	Légèrement inférieur à 50 %	Échec de peu
F	0	Inférieur à 50 %	Échec

Remarque : Les points indiqués ci-dessus servent à calculer les moyennes et l'octroi de crédits.

Définitions et explications des notes

A+ Exceptionnel. Connaissance approfondie des concepts ou des techniques, associée à une compétence exceptionnelle ou grande originalité dans leur utilisation.

A Excellent. Connaissance approfondie des concepts ou des techniques, associée à une très grande compétence ou une certaine originalité dans leur utilisation.

B+ Très bon. Connaissance approfondie des concepts ou des techniques et grande compétence dans leur utilisation.

B Bon. Bon niveau de connaissance des concepts ou des techniques et assez grande compétence dans leur utilisation.

C+ Compétent. Niveau acceptable de connaissance des concepts ou des techniques et compétence acceptable dans leur utilisation.

C Assez compétent. Niveau acceptable de connaissance des concepts ou des techniques et certaine compétence dans leur utilisation.

D+ Passable. Niveau de connaissance des concepts ou des techniques légèrement supérieur au niveau minimum exigé et certaine aptitude dans leur utilisation.

D À peine passable. Niveau minimum de connaissance des concepts ou des techniques exigé.

E Échec de peu.

F Échec.

Calcul des moyennes

Les étudiants reçoivent deux moyennes différentes : la moyenne pour la session et la moyenne cumulative. Les moyennes permettent de déterminer si un étudiant peut poursuivre ses études et obtenir son diplôme. Elles sont calculées dans le but de déterminer si l'étudiant est autorisé à poursuivre et elles sont pondérées par rapport au nombre de crédits.

Moyenne de la session : moyenne obtenue à tous les cours suivis durant une session universitaire, Ex. : Automne-hiver 2008-2009.

Moyenne cumulative : moyenne obtenue au cours de l'ensemble des études de premier cycle dans un programme particulier.

Définition de « Réussite » et d'« Échec »

Réussite aux cours

Pour réussir à un cours, il faut obtenir au minimum D.

Échec aux cours :

Il y a deux notes d'échec aux cours : E signifie « Échec de peu » et F « Échec ».

Dates de remise des notes (Relevés de notes)

Les révisions de notes se font avant la remise des relevés de notes. Les notes soumises par les enseignants peuvent être révisées par l'unité d'enseignement responsable du cours et par le Conseil de la faculté ou le comité de direction et de planification du Conseil. Les notes des cours finaux peuvent être ajustées conformément aux profils de distribution des notes du programme ou de la faculté. Les notes sont remises par le bureau du registraire après toute révision.

Abandon

Abandon de la session

On considère qu'un étudiant a abandonné la session à partir du moment où il a abandonné son dernier cours par le biais du système d'inscription. Son dossier indique alors qu'il a officiellement abandonné ses études durant le trimestre ou la session.

Pour les règlements universitaires et les remboursements de frais d'inscription, le fait d'arrêter ses études et de venir néanmoins aux cours ne constitue pas un abandon officiel.

Le fait d'ignorer ce règlement ou la preuve apportée d'une autre activité ne constitue pas un argument permettant d'obtenir un abandon rétroactif.

En cas d'abandon, le Bureau des affaires étudiantes utilise la date à laquelle il a reçu avis de l'abandon de la session ou au cours comme date officielle pour calculer les frais qui demeurent dus ou à rembourser.

Réadmission après l'abandon d'une session

Normalement, les étudiants qui ont abandonné une session et qui désirent s'inscrire à une session ultérieure peuvent demander que leur dossier soit réactivé en s'adressant au Bureau du registraire. Les étudiants qui suivent des cours dans un autre établissement sans premièrement avoir obtenu de lettre de permission doivent demander leur réadmission et fournir les documents nécessaires. Les étudiants qui abandonnent durant leur première session à York sans avoir terminé aucun cours, peuvent demander la réactivation de leur dossier seulement dans l'année qui suit leur inscription initiale. S'ils attendent plus longtemps, ils devront demander une nouvelle admission.

Remboursement des droits à la suite d'un abandon

Tous les renseignements sur le remboursement des droits sont indiqués dans la table de remboursement que l'on peut consulter dans l'horaire des cours de premier cycle et sur le site Current Students (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Remarque : Un étudiant ne peut abandonner un cours dans lequel pèse contre lui une accusation d'atteinte à l'honneur universitaire ou dans lequel il a été accusé d'un tel délit. Si l'étudiant est reconnu innocent d'une accusation de ce type portée contre lui, il peut alors continuer de suivre le cours et demander qu'un autre enseignant évalue son travail. Il peut aussi abandonner le cours en question sans subir de sanction universitaire. Il doit alors informer de son intention, par écrit, le bureau du doyen.

Annulation de l'inscription

Le registraire de l'Université a le droit d'annuler l'inscription d'étudiants qui :

- ne répondent pas aux exigences d'admission de l'université ou aux conditions d'admission imposées par le Service des admissions;
- ne sont pas admissibles à un programme d'étude et ne sont pas autorisés par ailleurs par la faculté à s'inscrire à ce programme;
- ne sont pas en règle avec les lois d'immigration et de citoyenneté du pays;
- contreviennent aux règlements contenus dans la Loi sur l'Université York (sur les instructions de la présidente).

Les étudiants dont l'inscription aura été ainsi annulée seront censés ne pas avoir été inscrits à la session universitaire. Aucune mention de leur inscription ni de leurs activités universitaires ne sera conservée. On remboursera aux étudiants la totalité de leurs droits payés, moins toute somme due à l'Université.

Le registraire ou tout autre employé habilité informera les étudiants ainsi que les programmes et services concernés.

Les étudiants qui s'inscrivent à des cours et qui sont en attente d'une décision concernant leur statut universitaire à la fin de la session précédente ou en attente du résultat d'une pétition portant sur leur statut à l'université peuvent voir leur inscription annulée si, à cause de leur statut, leur abandon, leur renvoi ou leur suspension s'impose.

Classification des étudiants

D'un point de vue général, les étudiants sont considérés par l'Université comme étudiants à temps plein s'ils sont inscrits à l'équivalent d'au moins trois cours (18 crédits) dans une session de deux trimestres. Pour plus de précision, consultez le Service clients.

Politique sur l'accès aux dossiers des étudiants et la protection de la vie privée

L'accès aux dossiers des étudiants est régi par la politique sur l'accès à l'information et la protection de la vie privée de l'Université York et respecte la Loi sur l'accès à l'information et la protection de la vie privée. L'Université collecte et consigne des renseignements personnels de ses étudiants conformément aux lignes directrices ci-dessous.

Lignes directrices sur l'accès aux dossiers des étudiants

En présentant une demande d'admission à l'Université York et en vous inscrivant à un programme d'études à l'Université, les étudiants consentent à la collecte de leurs renseignements personnels par l'Université York pour des fins éducatives, administratives et statistiques. L'Université a besoin de ces renseignements pour traiter les admissions et les inscriptions aux programmes d'études; consigner et suivre les progrès universitaires des étudiants; fournir des renseignements de base pour les prix et le financement gouvernemental et pour d'autres besoins administratifs connexes. Les étudiants conviennent que les renseignements et documents soumis à l'Université en faveur d'une demande d'admission, de counseling, de services pour invalides, d'hébergement en résidence, d'un prix financier ou de toute requête ou tout appel devient la propriété de l'Université.

L'Université York peut être tenue de dévoiler les renseignements personnels d'étudiants :

- pour se conformer à la loi;
- dans le cadre d'une enquête policière ou d'une poursuite judiciaire;
- si la santé ou la sécurité d'un étudiant est compromise; ou
- dans des circonstances de compassion.

L'Université conserve de façon permanente les dossiers électroniques des réalisations des étudiants, mais détruit tous les autres documents versés dans les dossiers des étudiants conformément à ses politiques de conservation des dossiers.

Accès aux dossiers confidentiels des étudiants et divulgation de renseignements

Accès public

L'Université a pour politique de rendre les renseignements suivants habituellement accessibles :

- état d'inscription des étudiants à temps plein et à temps partiel dans un collège, une école, faculté ou division;
- domaine d'études courant (p. ex. majeure, mineure, programme menant à un certificat, domaine d'études);
- si un étudiant a reçu une distinction, un prix ou un honneur universitaire particulier de York ou d'un tiers; et
- les diplômes et crédits accordés par l'Université aux dates indiquées.

Sauf tel qu'il est indiqué précédemment, les autres renseignements contenus dans le dossier ne seront divulgués que sur consentement écrit des étudiants. Cette restriction s'applique aux demandes de tous les tiers y compris les parents, conjoints et bureaux de crédit.

Les étudiants actuellement inscrits à un programme/cours à l'Université peuvent soumettre une demande écrite au bureau du registraire s'ils refusent que soient divulgués leur état d'inscription active, leur domaine d'études courant, les renseignements sur tout prix, honneur ou distinction universitaire qu'ils ont reçu ou s'ils n'ont pas obtenu leur diplôme.

Accès des étudiants à leur dossier

Les étudiants peuvent inspecter tous les documents contenus dans leur dossier, à l'exception des évaluations et lettres de référence fournies à l'Université sous le sceau de la confidentialité.

Les étudiants peuvent demander que tout renseignement erroné dans leur dossier soit corrigé et que tous les récipiendaires de ce renseignement qui s'est avéré faux soient avisés de la correction.

Les étudiants qui désirent inspecter leur dossier doivent prendre rendez-vous avec le registraire adjoint, Services aux étudiants.

Sur réception d'une demande écrite au bureau du registraire, l'Université envoie à un tiers un relevé de notes du dossier d'études de l'étudiant, dans la mesure où son compte n'est pas en souffrance.

Les documents que l'Université reçoit sur les réalisations des étudiants dans d'autres institutions ne sont ni divulgués ni redirigés.

Accès des employés aux dossiers des étudiants

Les employés de l'Université peuvent avoir accès aux renseignements contenus dans les dossiers des étudiants s'ils ont besoin de ces renseignements pour s'acquitter de leurs fonctions officielles. En règle générale, les employés chargés de l'administration universitaire ou des affaires étudiantes ont accès aux dossiers des étudiants. Le niveau et la nature de l'accès sont fonction de leurs responsabilités administratives particulières. Les agents de supervision et le registraire ont le pouvoir de révoquer l'accès d'un employé aux dossiers des étudiants.

Accès des tierces parties ou organisations d'étudiants aux dossiers des étudiants

Toutes les organisations de tierces parties et organisations d'étudiants doivent signer des ententes de confidentialité conformes à la Loi sur l'accès à l'information et la protection de la vie privée avec un représentant autorisé de l'Université avant d'avoir accès aux dossiers des étudiants. Les renseignements des étudiants ne peuvent être utilisés ou divulgués que conformément aux dispositions de confidentialité des ententes.

Toutes les demandes d'organisations d'étudiants doivent être approuvées par le Office of Student Community and Leadership Development de la division des étudiants visés. La liste des membres est offerte sur demande écrite auprès du Office of Student Community and Leadership Development et signée par un dirigeant autorisé de cette organisation.

Toutes les autres demandes de tierces organisations doivent être approuvées par le bureau du registraire.

Accès prescrit par la loi

Certains dossiers ou parties de dossiers peuvent être fournis aux personnes ou organismes en vertu d'une ordonnance enjoignant l'Université à divulguer des renseignements; à Statistique Canada; et au ministère de Formation et des Collèges et Universités.

Relevés de notes

La signature de l'étudiant ou le code d'utilisateur du Passeport de York est requis pour la distribution des relevés de notes. Les relevés de notes remis directement aux étudiants portent l'estampille « Issued to Student » (remis à l'étudiant). L'Université York ne peut être tenue responsable des relevés de notes perdus pour retardés lors du transit postal.

Conformément à la politique de l'Université, les relevés de notes et les diplômes ne seront pas remis aux étudiants qui ont des dettes envers l'Université.

Changement de nom

Les étudiants doivent fournir lors de leur demande d'admission ou inscription, leur nom légal complet. Toute demande de changement de nom, que ce soit par altération, substitution, suppression ou ajout, doit être accompagnée de la documentation justificative appropriée. Les étudiants qui présentent une demande d'obtention de diplôme pourraient devoir présenter une preuve de nom. Les étudiants peuvent vérifier le nom officiel consigné à leur dossier via Internet sur le site Web des étudiants au <http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>.

Changement d'adresse

Il incombe aux étudiants de s'assurer que les dossiers de l'Université contiennent toujours leur adresse permanente et adresse postale courantes afin de recevoir les documents pertinents.

Vous pouvez effectuer votre changement d'adresse sur Internet au site Web des étudiants (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Situations d'urgence nécessitant l'accès au dossier d'un étudiant

Il peut arriver qu'une situation d'urgence exige qu'un étudiant soit contacté rapidement. Dans des situations d'urgence où la santé ou la sécurité d'une personne peut être compromise ou dans des situations de compassion, le registraire de l'Université ou la personne désignée peut, s'il est considéré dans l'intérêt de l'étudiant, autoriser la divulgation de renseignements personnels sur l'étudiant. Dans un tel cas, l'Université informe l'étudiant de la divulgation.

Nous encourageons les étudiants à fournir aux personnes pouvant devoir les joindre en cas d'urgence une copie à jour de leur horaire de classe précisant les jours, heures et emplacements. En outre, les étudiants doivent actualiser les renseignements sur leur plus proche parent et personne à contacter en cas d'urgence via Internet sur le site Web des étudiants au <http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>.

Avis de divulgation de renseignements personnels à Statistique Canada

À titre d'organisme statistique national, Statistique Canada mène des centaines de sondages chaque année sur une foule de sujets dont l'éducation.

Il est essentiel de pouvoir suivre les étudiants et les institutions au fil du temps pour comprendre, par exemple, les facteurs qui affectent les demandes d'inscription auprès des institutions postsecondaires. Et vu l'obligation de rendre des comptes sur les investissements publics, il faut aussi comprendre les résultats. Afin de mener ces études, Statistique Canada demande à tous les collèges et universités de fournir des données sur les étudiants et diplômés. Les institutions collectent des étudiants des renseignements identificateurs (nom, numéro d'étudiant, numéro d'assurance sociale), leurs coordonnées (adresse et numéro de téléphone), leurs caractéristiques démographiques, les renseignements sur l'inscription et leurs antécédents en matière d'éducation et d'emploi qu'elles fournissent à Statistique Canada.

La loi fédérale sur la statistique confère à Statistique Canada l'autorité nécessaire pour accéder aux renseignements personnels que détiennent les institutions d'enseignement. Ces renseignements peuvent être utilisés à des fins statistiques; toutefois, la disposition de confidentialité de la Loi sur la statistique interdit qu'ils soient rendus publics de façon à pouvoir identifier les étudiants.

Les étudiants qui refusent que leurs renseignements soient utilisés peuvent demander à Statistique Canada de retirer leurs renseignements identificateurs de la base de données nationale.

Pour en savoir plus sur l'utilisation de ces renseignements, rendez-vous sur le site Web de Statistique Canada au http://www.statcan.ca/francais/concepts/ESIS/index_f.htm, écrivez à la Section postsecondaire, Centre des statistiques sur l'éducation, 17e étage, R.H. Bâtiment Coats, Tunney's Pasture, Ottawa, K1A 0T6 ou composez le 1 613 951-1666.

XVI. Services financiers, bourses et prix

Le Bureau des services financiers étudiants est chargé de :

- gérer les programmes de bourses pour les étudiants des trois cycles;
- servir de relais principal pour les étudiants qui font une demande auprès de OSAP;
- fournir de l'aide aux étudiants qui ont des difficultés financières;
- gérer tous les aspects des comptes financiers des étudiants vis-à-vis de l'Université;
- gérer les programmes de Travail-études, Recherches à York et Bourse de service; et
- fournir aux étudiants les reçus en ligne (Web) pour fins d'impôts (T2202A et T4A) en ligne.

Nous servons nos étudiants en affichant des renseignements sur Internet (<http://www.yorku.ca/osfs/>), par téléphone au 416-872-9675, ou en personne au bureau des Services aux étudiants, situé au Centre Bennett de services aux étudiants.

Droits universitaires

Les droits universitaires des étudiants de premier cycle sont calculés soit en fonction du nombre de crédits, soit en fonction du programme (voir les sections Frais de scolarité ci-dessous). À chaque session, les droits et tableaux des remboursements sont affichés sur Internet. Il appartient aux étudiants de se tenir au courant des droits à payer et des pénalités financières entraînées par l'abandon de cours.

Les étudiants peuvent consulter le tableau à jour des droits universitaires dans le site <http://www.yorku.ca/osfs/fees/>.

Frais supplémentaires

Le ministère de l'Éducation, de la Formation et des Collèges et Universités de l'Ontario autorise les universités à imposer des frais supplémentaires qui s'ajoutent aux droits universitaires. À York, il y a trois catégories de frais supplémentaires: a) les frais perçus par l'administration et faisant partie des droits universitaires, b) les frais approuvés par référendum étudiant et c) les frais supplémentaires associés à des cours. Les procédures et politiques qui régissent les frais associés aux cours diffèrent de celles qui régissent les frais de scolarité et les frais supplémentaires.

a) Frais perçus par l'administration. Les frais supplémentaires couvrant les services d'orientation et les activités sportives et récréatives ainsi que les services culturels et spéciaux sont inclus dans les droits universitaires.

b) Frais approuvés par référendum. Les frais supplémentaires approuvés par référendum sont inclus dans les droits universitaires par crédit.

c) Frais supplémentaires associés à des cours. Ces frais comprennent par exemple les frais de test de classement, de matériel pédagogique, de vêtements spéciaux conservés par les étudiants, de matériel de production conservé par les étudiants. Ces frais peuvent être inscrits sur votre relevé de compte étudiant, ou sont encaissés séparément. Les étudiants qui veulent savoir si certains frais supplémentaires entrent dans une des catégories énumérées ci-dessus et peuvent être exigés en plus de leurs frais de scolarité devraient s'adresser d'abord à la direction du département ou du service qui exige ces frais particuliers. Si, après cette démarche, ils désirent poursuivre la question ils devraient alors s'adresser au Bureau des services étudiants. Vérifiez sa nouvelle adresse en ligne à l'adresse <http://www.yorku.ca/scsweb/>.

Tarifs et catégories de droits d'inscription

Il y a deux catégories différentes de droits d'inscription à l'Université York: a) le tarif national pour les étudiants qui sont expressément exemptés par les règlements gouvernementaux ontariens du supplément imposé aux étudiants internationaux et b) le tarif international imposé aux étudiants qui ne bénéficient pas de cette exemption ou à ceux qui ne veulent ou ne peuvent pas donner au Bureau du registraire la preuve de leur statut d'exempté.

Les renseignements sur l'interprétation d'admissibilité à l'exemption, la réévaluation du tarif, les échéances de soumission des documents ou les changements au statut de l'étudiant au Canada doivent être confirmés par le Bureau du registraire.

Les frais peuvent aussi varier en fonction de la faculté, du programme, des cours sélectionnés, ou de l'année de début d'un programme d'études en particulier.

A) Tarif national

Vous êtes admissibles à ce tarif si vous vous classez dans l'une des catégories exemptées indiquées ci-dessous et pouvez fournir au Bureau du registraire des preuves suffisantes de votre statut avant les dates limites indiquées ci-dessous.

Remarque : Si vous voulez apporter un changement ou une correction au tarif indiqué sur votre dossier, vous devez le faire dans les délais prescrits ci-dessous. Les changements ou corrections apportés après ces dates ne s'appliqueront qu'à la prochaine session ou au prochain trimestre et non rétroactivement aux trimestres ou aux sessions écoulés.

Session automne/hiver

31 octobre - date limite de demande de révision de statut au tarif ordinaire national pour la session complète automne/hiver.

31 janvier - date limite de demande de révision de statut au tarif ordinaire national pour le trimestre d'hiver seulement de la session automne/hiver.

30 juin - date limite de demande de révision de statut au tarif ordinaire national pour la session complète d'été.

16 juillet - date limite de demande de révision de statut au tarif régulier national pour certains cours de la session d'été qui commencent plus tard dans la session (le 2 juillet). Toute question pour connaître quels sont les cours concernés doit être adressée au Bureau du registraire.

Les étudiants qui désirent bénéficier d'une exemption au titre d'une des catégories approuvées doivent s'adresser au Bureau du registraire pour se renseigner sur les pièces justificatives à fournir avec leur demande d'exemption. Ils doivent présenter les documents originaux. Aucune photocopie n'est acceptée. Tous les documents fournis par les étudiants, à l'appui d'une demande d'exemption, ou le cas échéant, comme preuve de leur statut, devront être présentés au Bureau du registraire, avant le règlement des droits universitaires.

Les étudiants qui ne peuvent fournir les documents nécessaires avant de payer leurs droits universitaires doivent acquitter le tarif pour étudiant international.

Pour conserver le bénéfice de l'exemption pour des sessions ultérieures, les étudiants qui ont obtenu une exemption peuvent avoir à présenter ultérieurement des documents supplémentaires afin de prouver que leur statut n'a pas changé.

Si des étudiants fournissent des documents valables pour l'exemption du tarif pour étudiant international et que ces documents portent une date d'expiration, il est de leur responsabilité de présenter les documents mis à jour au Bureau du registraire au plus tard dans les dix jours suivant la date d'expiration indiquée sur les documents originaux, et ce, afin de leur permettre de conserver leur statut d'exemption.

Certaines catégories d'exemption précisent que la personne qui a le statut d'exempté, ainsi que les personnes à sa charge, ont droit à l'exemption du tarif pour étudiant international. Le terme de personne à charge inclut les personnes suivantes :

- a) le conjoint ou la conjointe,

- b) le fils ou la fille célibataire de cette personne,
- c) le fils ou la fille célibataire du conjoint de cette personne.

Le statut de personne à charge doit être pleinement authentifié, avoir été acquis au moins trois ans avant la présentation de la demande d'exemption par l'étudiant et être encore valable à la date de la demande d'exemption.

Remarque : Les catégories visées par l'exemption sont sujettes à changement sur décision du gouvernement de l'Ontario, et sur approbation du Conseil d'administration de l'Université York.

Catégories d'étudiants exemptés des droits internationaux :

- (i) les citoyens canadiens au sens de la Loi sur la citoyenneté canadienne ou toute personne inscrite à titre d'Indien au sens de la Loi sur les Indiens;
 - (ii) les étudiants étrangers légalement à la charge d'un citoyen canadien peuvent bénéficier d'une d'exemption des droits internationaux. Ils doivent fournir des documents attestant qu'ils ont obtenu leur statut de personne à charge, par mariage ou par adoption, au moins trois ans avant les dates limites et qu'ils l'ont conservé sans interruption jusqu'au moment de la demande d'exemption;
 - (iii) les personnes officiellement reconnues comme résidentes permanentes par Citoyenneté et Immigration Canada;
 - (iv) les étudiants étrangers à la charge d'une personne ayant obtenu le statut de résident permanent peuvent bénéficier d'une exemption des droits internationaux. Ils doivent fournir des documents attestant qu'ils ont acquis leur statut de personne à charge, par mariage ou par adoption, au moins trois ans avant les dates limites et qu'ils l'ont conservé sans interruption jusqu'au moment de la demande d'exemption;
 - (v) les personnes ayant demandé le statut de résident permanent, à condition qu'elles répondent à toutes les exigences pour l'attribution du statut et qu'elles obtiennent de Citoyenneté et Immigration Canada une déclaration officielle le confirmant;
 - (vi) les étudiants étrangers à la charge d'une personne ayant demandé le statut de résident permanent (voir paragraphe v précédent) peuvent bénéficier d'une exemption du tarif pour étudiants internationaux. Ils doivent fournir des documents attestant qu'ils ont acquis leur statut de personne à charge, par mariage ou par adoption, au moins trois ans avant les dates limites et qu'ils l'ont conservé sans interruption jusqu'au moment de la demande d'exemption;
 - (vii) les visiteurs admis au Canada et y demeurant qui ont obtenu une accréditation officielle du gouvernement canadien pour y occuper un poste officiel de diplomate ou d'agent consulaire ou un poste de représentant accrédité du gouvernement canadien ou de dignitaire d'un pays autre que le Canada, des Nations Unies ou d'une de ses agences, ou de tout organisme intergouvernemental dont le Canada est membre, ou les personnes à charge ou les membres du personnel de ces diplomates ou agents consulaires, ou en tant que représentant officiel accrédité au Canada par le gouvernement Canadien ou en tant que membre de Forces Armées d'un pays autre que le Canada ou en tant que civil admis au Canada en vertu de la Loi sur les Forces étrangères présentes au Canada ou en tant que personne à charge de ces derniers.
- Remarque : Un étudiant inscrit sous cette catégorie d'exemption, dont le statut change pour des raisons qui échappent à son contrôle au cours de la session universitaire à laquelle il est inscrit, conserve son statut d'exempté du tarif international pendant toute la durée de la session à laquelle il était inscrit au moment où est survenu le changement. Prière de contacter le Bureau du registraire pour connaître les documents officiels exigés;*
- (viii) les personnes officiellement reconnues par Citoyenneté et Immigration Canada comme ayant été admises au Canada et y demeurant dans le but d'occuper un emploi et les personnes à leur charge;
 - (ix) les personnes admises au Canada et y demeurant officiellement reconnues par Citoyenneté et Immigration Canada comme réfugiées aux sens de la Convention, ainsi que les personnes à leur charge;
 - (x) les personnes demandant le statut de réfugié au Canada et les personnes à leur charge. La demande de statut de réfugié doit avoir été soumise à Citoyenneté et Immigration Canada avant le 1er janvier 1989;
 - (xi) les personnes participant à un échange parrainé par le gouvernement de l'Ontario.

B) Tarif international

À la suite d'une décision rendue par le gouvernement de l'Ontario, tous les étudiants étrangers non visés par l'exemption et inscrits dans un programme de premier cycle, doivent payer le tarif international.

Remarque : Si vous voulez apporter un changement ou une correction au tarif indiqué sur votre dossier, vous devez le faire dans les délais prescrits ci-dessous. Les changements ou corrections apportés après ces dates ne s'appliqueront qu'à la prochaine session ou au prochain trimestre et non rétroactivement aux trimestres ou sessions écoulés.

Session automne/hiver

31 octobre - date limite de demande de révision de statut au tarif ordinaire national pour la session complète automne/hiver.

31 janvier - date limite de demande de révision de statut au tarif ordinaire national pour le trimestre d'hiver seulement de la session automne/hiver.

30 juin - date limite de demande de révision de statut au tarif ordinaire national pour la session complète d'été.

16 juillet - date limite de demande de révision de statut au tarif régulier national pour certains cours de la session d'été qui commencent plus tard dans la session (le 2 juillet). Toute question pour connaître quels sont les cours concernés doit être adressée au Bureau du registraire.

Les étudiants étrangers et le Régime d'assurance-maladie universitaire (RAMU)

Les étudiants étrangers qui s'inscrivent à des cours à l'Université York sont automatiquement inscrits au Régime d'assurance-maladie universitaire (RAMU). Les étudiants peuvent s'abstenir de participer à ce régime à condition d'être couverts par certains régimes préapprouvés. Ils doivent alors en informer directement York International avant de souscrire à un autre régime. Le RAMU offre une protection générale aux étudiants internationaux et aux membres admissibles de leur famille qui les accompagnent en Ontario.

Le coût de ce régime varie en fonction de la durée de la protection et du nombre de personnes à charge. Les primes s'ajoutent aux droits universitaires et sont portées directement au compte des étudiants. Pour obtenir une attestation de leur protection, les étudiants doivent en faire la demande à York International, local 108, Collège Vanier, au début de l'année universitaire. Pour obtenir plus de renseignements, veuillez consulter le site <http://www.yorku.ca/yorkint/uhip/>, appeler le 416-736-5028 ou envoyer un courriel à uhip@yorku.ca.

Modalités de paiement

Les étudiants sont encouragés à acquitter leurs droits et tout autre frais (résidence et plan de repas) par voie électronique, notamment par Internet ou par service bancaire téléphonique. Pour de plus amples renseignements, veuillez consulter le site <http://www.yorku.ca/osfs/howtopay/>.

Dettes universitaires

Les règlements du Sénat de l'Université York stipulent que l'inscription, la remise des diplômes, les relevés de notes etc. seront suspendus pour tout étudiant ayant une dette envers l'Université.

Les étudiants de premier cycle qui ont une dette impayée de 75 $ ou plus ne pourront s'inscrire aux cours à l'université. De plus, certaines sanctions sont prévues tout au long de l'année, de sorte que les services pédagogiques et administratifs peuvent être suspendus jusqu'au règlement satisfaisant d'une dette en cours. Pour de plus amples renseignements, prière de consulter le site Web <http://www.yorku.ca/osfs/>.

Certificats de frais de scolarité et de déduction relative aux études

Conformément aux règlements de Revenu Canada, l'Université émet en ligne tous les ans à la fin février les reçus pour frais de scolarité et pour frais relatifs aux études. Les formulaires sont affichés sur le site Web et les étudiants peuvent imprimer le nombre de copies dont ils ont besoin. Ces formulaires ne sont plus envoyés par la poste aux étudiants. Les reçus sont basés sur l'année civile et non l'année universitaire. Pour tout renseignement complémentaire, consultez le site <http://www.yorku.ca/osfs/taxforms/>.

Droits universitaires admissibles

Seuls les droits universitaires directs peuvent donner droit à des crédits d'impôts. Les frais supplémentaires et les frais de matériel ne donnent pas droit à des crédits et ne seront donc pas inclus dans le reçu.

Frais relatifs aux études : mois de cours

Pour avoir droit, quel que soit le mois, au crédit d'impôt pour les frais relatifs aux études, les étudiants doivent être inscrits à un cours pendant au moins une partie du mois.

Pour tout renseignement concernant les modalités complètes d'application de ce règlement financier, consultez le site Web de Revenu Canada ou adressez-vous au bureau de Revenu Canada de votre localité.

Résidents du Québec : Normalement, York ne délivre pas le Certificat d'exemption pour les études postsecondaires à temps plein (TP-697V) exigé par Revenu Québec. Les résidents du Québec inscrits à York qui ont besoin de ce formulaire pour remplir leur déclaration d'impôt doivent s'adresser au Bureau des services financiers étudiants de Glendon au 416-487-6701.

Frais d'administration

Les frais de retard sont calculés mensuellement et portés au solde du compte des étudiants. Pour de plus amples renseignements, consulter le site <http://www.yorku.ca/osfs/othercharges/>.

Bourses et prix

Renseignements généraux

Les étudiants de premier cycle peuvent obtenir une aide financière de diverses sources telles les régimes gouvernementaux d'aide financière et les prix décernés par l'Université York et certaines organisations externes. L'Université York offre aux étudiants de premier cycle des bourses d'entrée et d'excellence, des prix et médailles pour récompenser les excellents résultats scolaires. De nombreux autres prix et bourses sont également offerts en reconnaissance de l'engagement communautaire ou du leadership, ou aux étudiants qui ont besoin d'une aide financière grâce aux fonds de l'Université et à des dons de compagnies, associations ou particuliers. Toutes les bourses mentionnées ici peuvent être modifiées sans préavis. Les étudiants trouveront une base de données consultable sur les bourses sur le site Web des services financiers étudiants. Étudiants de deuxième et de troisième cycles

Les étudiants de deuxième et de troisième cycles peuvent obtenir des renseignements concernant les bourses d'études, les prix, l'aide financière gouvernementale et les emplois d'assistant en s'adressant à la faculté des études de deuxième et de troisième cycles.

Étudiants étrangers

Au Canada, les étudiants étrangers sont soumis à la Loi canadienne sur l'immigration règlement 15, qui stipule que les étudiants doivent disposer de ressources suffisantes pour eux-mêmes et pour leurs dépendants durant la période couverte par leur visa d'étudiant. Toutefois, certaines bourses sont offertes aux étudiants étrangers. Pour de plus amples renseignements, s'adressez au Service York International, 108 Collège Vanier, tél. : 416-736-5177.

Bourses de prestige de la Gouverneure générale

Les bourses de prestige de la Gouverneure générale sont les bourses d'entrée de premier cycle les plus prestigieuses de l'Université York. Ces bourses ont été créées pour récompenser l'excellence des résultats obtenus à l'école secondaire et dans d'autres domaines par les étudiants entrant au premier cycle universitaire. Pour être admissible, le candidat doit être dans sa dernière année d'études secondaires et demander l'admission en première année d'études de premier cycle à l'Université York, dans n'importe quelle discipline. Les candidats doivent avoir un dossier scolaire exemplaire et s'être distingués dans d'autres domaines tels que les activités communautaires, les arts, le sport, ou encore avoir fait preuve d'excellentes qualités personnelles. Les formulaires de candidature sont disponibles dans les bureaux des conseillers d'orientation des écoles secondaires, au service des bourses et prix du Bureau des services financiers étudiants, ainsi que sur le site des admissions à York : <http://www.yorku.ca/web/futurestudents/>.

Bourse de prestige de la Gouverneure générale : Bourses de prestige des Anciens

Offerte par l'Association des anciens de l'Université York

L'Association des Anciens de l'Université York s'efforce de procurer à tous les diplômés de York des produits, des services et des programmes qui les aident à acquérir des connaissances utiles et à développer leur personnalité tout au long de leur vie. L'Association est également désireuse de promouvoir les intérêts de l'Université York elle-même. Que ce soit sous la forme de plaidoyer, de conseil, de philanthropie ou de toute autre forme d'aide bénévole, les diplômés de York ont un rôle précieux et essentiel à tenir dans la promotion de l'excellence et du prestige de l'Université. Deux bourses de prestige des Anciens sont offertes chaque année.

Bourse de prestige de la Gouverneure générale : bourse d'entrée Betty Jean et John M. Bankes

Offerte par John M. Bankes et famille

Bourse créée grâce à la générosité de John Bankes, membre du Conseil d'administration de l'Université, et de sa famille pour honorer leurs parents et le soutien indéfectible qu'ils ont apporté à l'éducation universitaire de leur famille et des autres personnes. La bourse d'entrée Betty Jean et John M. Bankes est offerte tous les quatre ans.

Bourse de prestige de la Gouverneure générale : bourse d'entrée Bruce Bryden

Offerte par les collègues du Conseil d'administration, la famille et les amis du regretté Bruce Bryden

Bruce Bryden (1942-1992) faisait partie des premiers étudiants de l'Université York, en 1960. Il fut diplômé de Glendon avec la promotion de 1964. Il était un infatigable leader dont on se rappelle avec émotion le dévouement et les grandes qualités personnelles. En 1965, il fut le président-fondateur de l'Association des anciens étudiants de l'Université York et, plus tard, le premier diplômé de York à siéger au Sénat de l'Université. Ensuite, en 1971, il entra au Conseil d'administration où il servit pendant vingt ans et fut, de 1982 jusqu'à son décès, un président exceptionnel. D'un dévouement sans limite à la cause de l'Université, Bruce Bryden était fier des résultats de premier ordre que York obtenait dans de nombreux domaines. Comme la plupart des diplômés de Glendon, il chérissait non seulement ses souvenirs d'étudiants mais aussi l'histoire et la beauté de ce chaleureux campus. La bourse d'entrée Bruce Bryden est attribuée tous les quatre ans.

Bourse de prestige de la Gouverneure générale : bourse d'entrée John S. Proctor

Offerte par les amis et collègues de John S. Proctor

Cette bourse a été créée grâce à la générosité des membres actuels et passés du Conseil d'administration en l'honneur de John S. Proctor, ancien chancelier et président du Conseil d'administration. Elle commémore aussi le 25e anniversaire de l'Université York. John S. Proctor était un banquier, un champion de tennis et un philanthrope qui servit de nombreuses années au sein du Conseil d'administration de l'Université York et qui devint chancelier de l'Université York en 1982. John S. Proctor se dévoua sans compter pour l'Université. Il s'imposa à tous comme un modèle d'excellence par sa grande intégrité, ses conseils avisés et son leadership éclairé. La bourse d'entrée John S. Proctor est attribuée chaque année.

Bourse de prestige de la Gouverneure générale : bourse d'entrée Murray Ross

Offerte par Murray Ross

Murray G. Ross est né en Nouvelle-Écosse et a fait ses études universitaires à l'Université Acadia, puis aux universités de Toronto, de Chicago et à l'Université Columbia. Membre du personnel enseignant de l'Université de Toronto, il est devenu son vice-président de 1957 à 1960. En 1960, Murray G. Ross devint le président de l'Université York qui doit énormément à sa clairvoyance, à son leadership et à son dévouement. Cette bourse honore les étudiants qui partagent ses qualités. La Bourse d'entrée Murray Ross est offerte tous les deux ans.

Bourses de prestige attribuées au mérite

Ces bourses sont attribuées aux candidats admissibles pour des bourses de prestige. Consulter les critères d'attribution ci-dessus.

Bourse Ray et Joe Abramson en mathématiques et statistiques

Offerte par Blanca Abramson et le professeur Morton Z. Abramson

Cette bourse est décernée chaque année à un étudiant qui entre en première année dans une majeure au Département de mathématiques et de statistiques. Cet étudiant devra être citoyen canadien ou résident permanent ou une personne protégée, résider en Ontario et avoir besoin d'une aide financière. Les candidats doivent avoir participé à des activités extracurriculaires en mathématiques, dans le cadre d'un club ou autrement. Cette bourse a été créée en l'honneur des parents du professeur Morton Abramson qui a pris sa retraite en 2004 après avoir travaillé pendant 37 ans à l'Université York. Elle souligne ses nombreuses contributions à la vie étudiante et professorale au Département de mathématiques et de statistiques de l'Université York ainsi qu'au sein de la communauté en général.

Bourse Alexander Lithographers

Offerte par Alexander Lithographers

Alexander Lithographers a apporté son amitié et son appui à l'Université York depuis sa création et il a suivi l'évolution de l'Université depuis ses modestes débuts sur le campus Glendon, en 1959, jusqu'à l'université de renom qui existe aujourd'hui. La bourse est offerte chaque année à un élève exceptionnel de l'école secondaire qui entre en première année dans un programme de l'Université York. Le bénéficiaire doit avoir une moyenne minimum de 85 % au moment de l'admission à York, avoir besoin d'une aide financière, être citoyen canadien résident permanent ou personne protégée et résident de l'Ontario.

Bourse d'entrés Tom Arnold CPMEA

Offerte par CPMEA

Cette bourse sera décernée à un élève du secondaire qui entre en première année d'un programme d'entrée directe à l'Université York d'une école secondaire de la région de York, ce qui inclut les municipalités d'Aurora, East Gwillimbury, Georgina, King, Markham, Newmarket, Richmond Hill, Vaughan et Whitchurch-Stouffville, qui est citoyen Canadien, résident permanent ou personne protégée et résident de l'Ontario, a besoin d'une aide financière et a obtenu une moyenne minimum de 80 % (ou l'équivalent).

Bourse d'entrée Harry W. Arthurs offerte par les Anciens

Offerte par l'Association des anciens de l'Université York

L'Association des Anciens de l'Université York a créé la bourse d'entrée Harry W. Arthurs, en l'honneur de Harry W. Arthurs, président de l'Université York de 1985 à 1992. Cette bourse commémore également le trentième anniversaire de l'Université. La volonté du Président Arthurs de développer l'excellence de l'Université dans les domaines universitaire, social et culturel, ainsi qu'architectural ne s'est jamais démentie. Cette bourse est accordée à un candidat à la première année d'un programme de premier cycle. Pour faire une demande, les candidats doivent être les enfants ou les petits-enfants d'anciens étudiants titulaires d'un diplôme de l'Université York; être admissibles à une bourse d'entrée de l'Université York; témoigner d'une participation active à la vie de leur école et y avoir joué un rôle de leadership.

Bourse d'entrée de la Faculté Atkinson des études libérales et professionnelles

Chaque année, le Conseil des anciens de l'Université York offre à Atkinson des bourses d'entrée destinées à des étudiants de 21 ans ou plus nouvellement inscrits à Atkinson dans un programme de premier cycle en provenance d'un autre collège ou université ou encore à des étudiants de moins de 21 ans qui ne sont pas admissibles à d'autres bourses d'entrée de York (bourse du prévôt), notamment à des étudiants qui ont obtenu leur diplôme d'études secondaires au moins deux ans avant leur admission à Atkinson et qui n'ont pas fréquenté d'établissement d'études postsecondaires depuis. Cette bourse s'adresse également aux étudiants qui ont démontré un potentiel académique élevé dans un contexte académique, professionnel ou communautaire et dans leur expérience de vie.

Bourses Avie Bennett

Offerte par Avie Bennett

Ces bourses sont offertes aux étudiants inscrits à temps plein en première année d'un programme de l'université. Ils doivent être des résidents permanents de la municipalité de Brampton (Ontario), être citoyens canadiens, résidents permanents ou personnes protégées, avoir besoin d'une aide financière et avoir une moyenne d'au moins 75 % au moment de leur admission à l'université.

Bourse de leadership visionnaire Avie Bennett

Offerte par Avie Bennett

Cette bourse sera remise aux étudiants qui entrent en première année d'un programme d'études de premier cycle à temps plein à l'Université, soumettent une demande d'une résidence permanente dans la ville de Brampton, sont citoyens canadiens, résidents permanents, ont besoin d'une aide financière et ont obtenu une moyenne d'au moins 80 pour cent au moment de leur admission à l'Université. Les étudiants doivent aussi avoir démontré un engagement envers le service et la société et avoir l'intention de continuer d'assumer un rôle de leader pendant qu'ils sont à York. Cette bourse est renouvelable annuellement pendant un maximum de quatre ans dans la mesure où les bénéficiaires ont maintenu une moyenne générale d'au moins 7,8, continuent d'avoir besoin d'une aide financière et ont une évaluation annuelle satisfaisante de leur nouveau projet de leadership à York. Une Bourse de leadership visionnaire à York est un des prix les plus éminents et remarquables que York remet aux nouveaux étudiants méritants. L'objectif clé des leaders visionnaires de York consistera à « trouver ce qui influence vraiment le cours des choses » pendant leurs études universitaires à York. Ils feront cela en articulant et en promouvant une vision prospective du service de leadership à titre d'étudiants à temps plein à York. Les projets des étudiants miseront sur les divers styles de service de leadership et peuvent porter sur des domaines aussi variés que l'amélioration de la qualité de vie des étudiants de York, en se fondant sur leur discipline d'études pour servir la communauté de York ou répondre aux besoins des populations ou communautés devant relever des défis particuliers. Les projets peuvent porter entre autres sur :

- Un projet de communication pour promouvoir la tolérance et le respect de la diversité sur le campus.
- Un service de conseils financiers pour les nouveaux étudiants.
- Un projet d'art d'interprétation pour collecter des fonds afin d'acheter des instruments de musique et d'offrir des leçons gratuites à la communauté de York.
- Un programme de mentorat pour travailler avec des élèves autochtones des réserves des Premières Nations dans le but de les aider à acquérir une expérience et à avoir droit à une aide financière pour faire des études universitaires.
- Un projet d'écrivains en herbe en vue d'organiser un concours national de poésie pour les étudiants universitaires et de trouver des commanditaires.
- Un projet de promotion de la santé visant à mettre sur pied un programme anti-tabac pour aider les étudiants de York à cesser de fumer.

Les leaders visionnaires de York bénéficieront du soutien d'une équipe de mentors et passeront la première ou les deux premières années à l'élaboration de leur vision et à la planification de leur projet de leadership, et les deux ou trois dernières années à la concrétisation de leur projet.

Valeur de la bourse :

Chaque bourse de leadership visionnaire représente une valeur totale de 38 000 $ sur une période de quatre ans. Chaque boursier recevra :

- un soutien financier pour payer ses droits de scolarité et frais de subsistance (9 000 $ par année pendant quatre ans).
- un remboursement des coûts associés au projet approuvé (jusqu'à concurrence de 500 $ par année, suivant les besoins du projet et une révision du budget qu'ils soumettent au vice-président étudiantes, selon un maximum de 2 000 $).

Bourses d'entrée du chancelier Bennett pour le Westview Partnership

Cette bourse est offerte aux étudiants des écoles secondaires Westview Centennial Secondary School, C.W. Jeffreys Collegiate Institute, Emery Collegiate Institute, James Cardinal McGuigan et North Albion Collegiate qui entreprennent un programme de premier cycle et qui ont contribué à la vie étudiante de leur école secondaire ou à la vie de leur collectivité. Les étudiants doivent avoir obtenu une moyenne d'au moins 75 pour cent, être citoyens canadiens, résidents permanents ou personnes protégées, résidents de l'Ontario et avoir besoin d'une aide financière. Cette bourse est renouvelable pendant un maximum de quatre ans. Prix commémoratif Tammy Emerton

Offert par le Conseil du Collège McLaughlin et BACCHUS York

Tammy Emerton était une personne extraordinaire. Elle a perdu tragiquement la vie dans un accident d'automobile, tuée par un chauffeur en état d'ivresse. Ses amis à Tatham Hall se souviennent d'elle comme d'une chercheuse et d'une athlète tout à la fois. Elle donnait beaucoup d'elle-même et demandait peu en retour. Même dans les moments les plus difficiles, son éternel sourire, sa chaleur humaine et sa compassion ont enrichi la vie de bien des gens au collège McLaughlin. Les candidats doivent être des étudiants jouant un rôle actif au collège McLaughlin, les notes étant d'une importance secondaire. Pour de plus amples renseignements, prière de s'adresser à la direction du collège McLaughlin.

La Bourse David Wurfel procure une aide financière à un étudiant de premier cycle inscrit à un programme spécialisé ou à un étudiant à la maîtrise qui désire faire une thèse de recherche sur l'histoire, la culture ou la société philippine. Cette bourse est destinée aux étudiants inscrits à un programme de sciences sociales ou d'humanités à l'Université York (y compris la Faculté du droit et la Faculté des études environnementales) qui sont citoyens canadiens, résidents permanents ou personnes protégées, résident en Ontario, ont une moyenne d'au moins 6,0 et ont besoin d'une aide financière. La préférence ira aux candidats d'origine philippine qui démontrent des aptitudes de leadership au sein de la communauté philippine du Canada.

Bourse de l'Alliance commerciale et professionnelle de York

Offerte par les amis de l'Alliance commerciale et professionnelle de York

L'objectif premier de l'Alliance commerciale et professionnelle de York est d'offrir un lien utile entre l'Université et la communauté commerciale de la grande région de Toronto. Créée grâce à la contribution de petites et moyennes entreprises, la bourse est décernée à un étudiant de premier cycle qui a besoin de soutien financier. L'étudiant doit être citoyen canadien, résident permanent ou personne protégée, être résident de l'Ontario et avoir besoin d'une aide financière.

Bourse York pour un stage international

Cette bourse (YIIA) est automatiquement offerte aux étudiants admis au programme de stages internationaux de l'Université York dans le but de les aider à payer une partie de leurs dépenses pendant leurs stages à l'étranger. Le Programme de stages internationaux de l'Université York a été établi par le Bureau du vice-président adjoint des études internationales dans le but de donner aux étudiants de premier cycle de York et, dans certains cas, à des étudiants de deuxième cycle, la possibilité d'appliquer leurs connaissances académiques à un milieu de travail international et de développer leurs compétences professionnelles dans un contexte international et interculturel.

Bourse de mobilité internationale York

En vertu de la Stratégie d'internationalisation York, la Bourse de mobilité internationale York a été créée pour faire avancer et pour encourager l'internationalisation de l'Université York par l'entremise de soutien financier pour les étudiants qui y sont inscrits et qui prouvent que leurs besoins financiers les empêchent de participer à un programme d'éducation internationale. Les étudiants peuvent en faire la demande lorsqu'ils sont admis à un des programmes approuvés. Les étudiants peuvent communiquer avec le bureau York International pour de plus amples renseignements.

Bourses d'échange entre York et la Suède

La bourse d'échange entre York et la Suède est accordée à un étudiant dûment inscrit à temps plein, préparant un diplôme, qui a été proposé pour l'un des programmes d'échange universitaires avec un étudiant suédois et pour qui le manque d'argent constitue un obstacle à sa participation. On considérera d'abord un étudiant choisi pour l'échange avec l'Université de Umea (Suède). Les étudiants sélectionnés pour les autres programmes d'échange avec la Suède seront pris en considération s'il n'y a personne pour Umea ou si l'étudiant sélectionné pour Umea n'a pas de problèmes financiers.

Fonds de bourse de l'Association des Anciens de l'Université York

Offert par l'Association des Anciens de l'Université York

Les intérêts que rapporte un fonds créé par cette association permettent d'aider des étudiants de premier cycle, qui ont une bonne moyenne scolaire et des difficultés financières. Quoique les bénéficiaires de cette aide ne soient pas dans l'obligation légale ou morale de rembourser, on espère qu'ils contribueront tous au fonds quand ils seront en mesure de le faire.

Bourse de l'Alliance des étudiants noirs de l'Université York

Offerte par l'Alliance des étudiants noirs de l'Université York

Créée grâce aux fonds recueillis par l'Alliance des étudiants noirs de l'Université York, cette bourse est destinée à un étudiant de premier cycle qui a obtenu une moyenne cumulative minimum de 7,0 (B+). L'étudiant doit appartenir à la minorité visible d'origine africaine, avoir aidé activement pendant au moins un an l'Alliance des étudiants noirs de l'Université York et avoir besoin d'une aide financière.

Bourses de l'Association de professeurs de l'Université York

Offertes par la Fondation YUFA

L'Association des professeurs de l'Université York a créé ces bourses pour aider les étudiants qui ont des difficultés financières pour terminer leurs études de premier cycle dans les facultés des arts, d'Atkinson, des sciences de l'éducation, des études environnementales, des beaux-arts, de Glendon, d'Osgoode Hall, des sciences et de l'ingénierie, des hautes études commerciales. L'étudiant doit être citoyen canadien, résident permanent ou personne protégée, être résident de l'Ontario et avoir besoin d'une aide financière.

Bourses de service de l'Université York

De nombreux étudiants aiment donner de leur temps et participer à des activités sur le campus mais sont empêchés de le faire par leurs obligations financières. Ils ne peuvent se permettre de consacrer les heures où ils doivent travailler pour gagner de l'argent à des activités bénévoles, qui leur apporteraient pourtant une expérience utile pour leur avenir. Pour corriger cette situation, York a créé le programme de bourses de service. Les étudiants peuvent recevoir une somme d'argent pour participer à ce programme à raison d'un minimum de cinq heures par semaine durant la session d'automne/hiver. Les candidats doivent être citoyens canadiens, résidents permanents ou personnes protégées, résidents de l'Ontario et avoir besoin d'une aide financière.

Offertes par l'École de kinésiologie et sciences de la santé

Bourses renouvelables offertes à des étudiants qui poursuivent leurs études, qui ont obtenu une moyenne cumulative minimum de 6,0 (B) au cours de leur précédente année d'études et sont membres d'une des équipes sportives inter-universitaires suivantes : pour les hommes : basketball, hockey sur glace, athlétisme, volleyball, ski de fond, football européen, natation; pour les femmes : basketball, hockey sur gazon, athlétisme, volleyball, ski de fond, football européen, natation, rugby. L'étudiant doit être citoyen canadien, résident permanent ou personne protégée, résider en Ontario et avoir besoin d'une aide financière; avoir fait preuve d'excellence sportive en tant que membre d'une des équipes inter-universitaires mentionnées ci-dessus pendant au moins un an. Les critères établis permettant d'évaluer l'excellence sont disponibles auprès du bureau du directeur de l'École de kinésiologie et sciences de la santé. Ces bourses sont administrées par le service des bourses, du Bureau des services financiers étudiants, en accord avec le comité des bourses de l'École de kinésiologie et sciences de la santé.

Librairie (campus Keele)

La librairie de l'Université York est commodément située dans York Lanes. Elle dispose dans son stock de plus de 50 000 titres d'intérêt général (y compris des revues, des livres soldés, des livres sonores et des CDs, ainsi que des manuels neufs et d'occasion prescrits pour les cours. Les livres y sont vendus au prix suggéré par les maisons d'édition ou de distribution canadiennes. Des rabais et des prix promotionnels y sont fréquemment proposés.

À la boutique de York (située tout près de la librairie), on trouve des vêtements, des cadeaux et de nombreux accessoires (chapeaux, écharpes etc.) portant l'emblème de l'Université pour tous les âges.

La librairie est ouverte du lundi au jeudi, de 9 h à 19 h; le vendredi, de 9 h à 17 h; le samedi de 11 h à 16 h et fermée le dimanche. La boutique de York est ouverte du lundi au jeudi, de 10 h à 18 h 30h; le vendredi et samedi de 10 h à 17 h et fermée le dimanche. Pendant la période très occupée des mois de septembre, de janvier et de mai, les deux magasins sont ouverts plus longtemps et leurs heures d'ouverture sont annoncées sur le site Web.

Les deux magasins acceptent les espèces, les cartes de débit, la Carte UY et les cartes de crédit Visa, MasterCard et American Express; ils n'acceptent pas les chèques.

Notre site Web propose aux étudiants de York différents services : consultation des textes des cours, achat et vente de manuels, avertissement de rachat de manuels, informations sur des événements particuliers et sur des soldes, ainsi que des soldes de livres d'intérêt général, de vêtements, d'articles de bureau, d'articles électroniques, de cadeaux et autres accessoires.

Prenez contact avec la librairie par téléphone au 416-736-5024, par courriel à bookstor@yorku.ca ou visitez son site à <http://www.bookstore.yorku.ca>.

- Laboratoires informatiques
- Terminaux interactifs répartis
- Site York Computing
- Téléchargement de logiciels
- Documentation
- Service de dépannage et conseils
- Matériel d'impression et de balayage
- Service téléphonique dans les résidences
- Accès à l'Internet depuis le campus et l'extérieur

Pour plus de renseignements sur ces services, consultez le site du CNS <http://www.yorku.ca/computing/students/>.

Institut d'anglais

L'Institut d'anglais de l'Université York (YUELI) offre une grande variété de cours de langue anglaise à temps plein et à temps partiel qui ne sont pas sanctionnés par des crédits universitaires. Ces cours sont principalement destinés aux étudiants qui désirent améliorer leur compétence en langue anglaise pour pouvoir être admis à l'Université ou pour favoriser leur avancement dans leur carrière. Les programmes de cours comprennent :

Le programme universitaire YUELI – Programme de 6 niveaux offert durant toute l'année pour enseigner la langue anglaise, la pensée critique, la recherche documentaire à l'aide de la technologie et les méthodes de travail nécessaires pour réussir dans les études universitaires de premier ou de deuxième et troisième cycles dans une université de langue anglaise. La réussite au niveau 6 avec mention Très Bien, Bien ou Passable (selon la faculté ou le programme recherché) satisfait à l'exigence en langue anglaise pour la plupart des programmes de premier, deuxième et troisième cycles.

Le programme Pré-MBA – Ce programme de 8 semaines, offert deux fois par an, prépare les étudiants qui ont déjà obtenu un diplôme de premier cycle à bien réussir dans un programme de MBA d'une université de langue anglaise d'Amérique du Nord.

Les programmes YUELI à temps partiel – Ces programmes (généralement sur deux soirs par semaine pendant huit semaines) sont orientés principalement sur des aspects précis de la langue anglaise tels que le parler, la prononciation et la rédaction commerciale.

Le programme d'été de langue anglaise – Un programme intensif spécial de quatre semaines, offert en juillet et en août, orienté vers le parler et l'écoute de la langue anglaise. Chaque cours comporte des visites et des voyages culturels.

Des programmes à la carte – Ces programmes sont adaptés aux besoins de groupes précis avec des objectifs professionnels ou d'apprentissage particuliers. Ils sont préparés en collaboration avec un professeur de l'Université. Ils peuvent être offerts sur le campus de l'Université ou ailleurs au Canada et à l'étranger, ou par téléenseignement. Il existe également des cours particuliers.

Institut de recherches sociales (IRS)

Les étudiants de premier cycle peuvent s'adresser à l'Institut de recherches sociales pour obtenir des conseils et de l'aide, le plus souvent gratuitement, principalement pour leurs recherches en sciences sociales, mais également en sciences physiques et biologiques.

L'Institut abrite la plus grande unité de recherches par enquêtes dans les universités canadiennes, et le personnel de son centre de recherches par enquêtes effectue toutes les étapes d'une recherche avec enquête, depuis la conception d'un questionnaire et de l'échantillonnage, à la collecte et préparation des données pour enregistrement automatique, jusqu'à l'analyse des statistiques et la rédaction des rapports. Le service d'aide pour les statistiques de l'Institut (SCS) aide ses clients dans la conception de leurs recherches, la préparation de leur échantillonnage, la conception de questionnaires, le traitement informatique des données et l'analyse des statistiques. Le service organise également des mini-cours d'analyse statistique, de méthodologie de la recherche, de formation aux logiciels pour les statistiques (notamment SAS et SPSS). Ces cours sont offerts durant les sessions d'automne, hiver et printemps, chaque année.

Les ateliers offerts par l'Institut chaque printemps sur les méthodes de recherche sociales présentent une formation courte sur la conception de questionnaires, l'échantillonnage, l'utilisation de groupes types pour les recherches sociales, l'analyse qualitative des données, les sondages en ligne et l'analyse des données d'enquête.

Les données conservées par l'IRS permettent d'avoir accès aux résultats d'études effectuées par l'Institut lui-même, ainsi qu'aux résultats des plus grandes enquêtes canadiennes. Les archives permettent également d'accéder aux statistiques officielles telles que les données globales du recensement et données publiques tirées de Recensement du Canada.

Les étudiants de York sont invités à communiquer avec l'Institut pour obtenir de l'aide dans n'importe lequel de ces domaines ou pour se renseigner sur les cours prévus.

Programmes d'aide aux études

Centre de perfectionnement en rédaction

Le Centre de perfectionnement en rédaction aide les étudiants à apprendre à rédiger de façon indépendante et efficace leurs travaux universitaires ou professionnels. Pour atteindre cet objectif, le centre offre des séances de tutorat individuel. Tous les étudiants de la Faculté des arts peuvent s'inscrire aux séances du centre et recevoir de l'aide individuelle pour leurs travaux écrits dispensée par des instructeurs chevronnés. Le centre offre également des mini-cours sur différents sujets touchant la rédaction de travaux universitaires.

De plus, le centre offre des cours de rédaction, sanctionnés par des crédits, pour les humanités et les sciences sociales. Ces cours permettent aux étudiants de profiter des recherches les plus récentes dans le domaine de l'apprentissage de la rédaction, et d'ainsi mieux maîtriser les différentes étapes de la rédaction de devoirs universitaires, soit, la recherche, l'écriture du premier jet et la révision. Consultez la section des cours offerts dans cet annuaire pour de plus amples renseignements.

Centre de langues multimédia

Le Centre de langues multimédia de la Faculté des arts est principalement destiné aux étudiants du Département de français et du Département de langues, littératures et linguistique. Pour tout renseignement, contactez le laboratoire de langues, S117 Ross, 416-736-5197.

Méthodes d'apprentissage

Le programme de méthodes d'apprentissage du Centre d'orientation et de consultation aide les étudiants à améliorer leurs capacités d'étude et propose des ateliers réguliers conçus pour améliorer les habitudes d'études, les compétences organisationnelles et les stratégies d'apprentissage. Pour de plus amples renseignements, veuillez voir la section « Services aux étudiants » ci-dessous.

Bibliothèques

Les cinq bibliothèques de York procurent une aide essentielle pour les activités d'enseignement, d'apprentissage et de recherche de York. La plus grande de nos bibliothèques est la bibliothèque Scott qui compte les principales collections dans le domaine des humanités, des sciences sociales et des beaux-arts. Elle abrite aussi les collections spéciales des archives de Clara Thomas, la cartothèque ainsi que la sonothèque-cinéma. En outre, la bibliothèque commerciale Peter F. Bronfman, la bibliothèque Steacie de sciences et de génie, et la bibliothèque de droit sont toutes sur le campus Keele. La bibliothèque Leslie Frost offre, au campus Glendon, les services de soutien des programmes d'études et de la recherche en français et en anglais. Ces bibliothèques renferment en tout plus de six millions et demi de documents, livres, périodiques imprimés, thèses, documents d'archives, microformes, cartes, films, vidéos, CDs et DVDs, et même un squelette.

Des bibliothécaires professionnels sont à la disposition des étudiants pour les aider dans leurs recherches. Cette aide peut se faire sur place, par courriel, par téléphone ou en direct par conversation en temps réel. Des bibliothécaires proposent une formation pour savoir comment utiliser les bibliothèques dans le cadre de certains cours et une aide plus ponctuelle dans des ateliers occasionnels pour les étudiants qui souhaitent s'informer. Ces cours introduisent les étudiants à la façon de faire une recherche par sujet, de trouver des ouvrages et des articles de revues scientifiques ou spécialisées et du matériel sur l'Internet et d'évaluer les renseignements et de les utiliser de façon éthique. Les étudiants qui ont la possibilité de participer à l'un de ces ateliers sur la culture de l'information sont mieux équipés pour obtenir de meilleures notes et, ce qui est plus important, deviennent des apprenants plus actifs dans les cours qu'ils suivent et au-delà.

Les bibliothèques ont rendu leurs collections et leurs services accessibles par Internet. Le site des bibliothèques est disponible 24 heures sur 24 à <http://www.library.yorku.ca>. Outre les services classiques en ligne, tels que les demandes de renouvellement, de réservation et de transfert, notre site ouvre la porte à plus de 37 000 revues spécialisées intégrales en version électronique ainsi qu'à d'autres ressources électroniques, dont des livres électroniques, encyclopédies, dictionnaires, système de découverte d'un sujet, documents gouvernementaux, bases de données et collections d'images. La bibliothèque offre également RefWorks®, le premier programme de gestion de citations en ligne. Étudiants et chercheurs peuvent utiliser des ressources électroniques en ligne avec leur Carte UY (ou autres cartes valides de bibliothèque), de chez eux ou de n'importe quel point à l'extérieur de la bibliothèque. Pour obtenir de plus amples renseignements sur la façon d'accéder à distance aux ressources électroniques, consulter <http://www.library.yorku.ca/ccm/Home/eResources/RemoteAccess.htm>.

Même dans l'environnement de recherche plus en plus informatisé, nos collections imprimées restent une composante importante des ressources auxquelles nous permettons l'accès. Étant donné que les bibliothèques sont là pour répondre aux besoins en information et en recherche de toute l'Université York, les règlements concernant le prêt sont essentiels pour assurer un juste accès aux collections, aux services et aux installations. Ces règlements touchent la durée des prêts, les restrictions sur le prêt de certains documents, les droits et les responsabilités de l'emprunteur, et les conditions d'accès aux bibliothèques et à leurs services. Pour continuer à utiliser ces services, l'emprunteur se doit de respecter les règlements de la bibliothèque. Pour de plus amples renseignements, consulter <http://www.library.yorku.ca/Home/About/Policies/LendingCode.htm>.

Les bibliothèques incluent divers espaces d'études. Les aires meublées, dont des salles d'études pour 30 personnes, peuvent accueillir des groupes d'étudiants. Les étudiants de premier, deuxième et troisième cycles peuvent également utiliser des salles d'études silencieuses. En plus des ressources disponibles en divers formats pour les étudiants souffrant d'une invalidité, nous avons un laboratoire sans rendez-vous doté d'un équipement adapté. Les étudiants peuvent emprunter des ordinateurs portables aux fins d'utilisation dans la bibliothèque ou utiliser un des quelque 350 ordinateurs de bureau, dont la plupart sont équipés de logiciels de traitement de texte, tableur et diaporama. Nos bibliothèques ouvrent tôt le matin et ferment en fin de soirée la plupart des jours et la Bibliothèque Scott reste ouverte pour l'étude jusqu'à une heure du matin la plupart des jours de fin de semaine (vérifiez les heures précises d'ouverture au <http://www.library.yorku.ca/ccm/Home/Hours/index.htm>).

Nous vous invitons aux bibliothèques et vous encourageons à vous y rendre souvent, que ce soit pour aller lire dans un isolet, pour discuter avec des camarades de classe dans une salle d'études ou pour interroger la base de données de notre site Web. Les bibliothécaires et autres membres du personnel de la bibliothèque sont là pour aider les étudiants (et tous ceux qui font des recherches) à tirer le plus grand parti possible des bibliothèques. Alors, n'hésitez pas à demander de l'aide!

Services aux étudiants

Galerie d'art de l'Université York (GAUY)

La Galerie d'art de l'Université York est une galerie recevant une subvention publique, spécialisée dans l'exposition d'œuvres professionnelles et contemporaines, d'art canadien et international. Située sur le campus Keele, la galerie offre des expositions, un studio pour les artistes de l'université et des programmes hors site et éducatifs.

En tant que galerie d'art universitaire de premier plan, la GAUY a pour mission d'enrichir l'environnement culturel et intellectuel de l'Université York. Pour remplir ce mandat, elle organise des stages de recherche et des programmes travail-études pour les étudiants de York, et publie, les catalogues de différentes expositions offerts à la galerie.

La galerie est ouverte de septembre à juin, les lundi, mardi, jeudi et vendredi de 10 h à 16 h; le mercredi de 10 h à 20 h; le dimanche de 12 h à 17 h. Elle est maintenant située au 83 York Boulevard, Accolade Est.

Centre de placement et d'orientation professionnelle

Vous vous demandez comment tirer profit de votre diplôme? Le Centre de placement propose des programmes et services pour vous aider tout au long de vos études universitaires à découvrir des perspectives de carrière; à dénicher l'emploi que vous convoitez, à acquérir l'expérience et les compétences requises pour un poste et à explorer des occasions de perfectionnement. Le Centre de placement a votre succès à cœur. Que vous soyez un étudiant de première année, un récent diplômé ou quelque part entre les deux, vous pouvez acquérir la confiance et les compétences pour assurer votre avenir. Visitez-nous au bureau 202, Collège McLaughlin ou en ligne au <http://www.yorku.ca/careers/> ou communiquez avec nous par téléphone au 416-736-5351, ou par courriel à career@yorku.ca.

Clubs, organismes et organisations

De nombreux clubs, organismes et organisations offrent des activités aux communautés du campus Keele. Il est dans l'intérêt de ces organisations et organismes de s'inscrire au Centre for Student Community and Leadership Development (SC&LD). Les groupes inscrits peuvent demander l'utilisation des locaux ou des installations de l'Université dans les limites des disponibilités et demander une aide financière auprès de la Fédération des étudiants de York et auprès de différents services de l'Université. Les formulaires d'inscription et divers renseignements sur les clubs et autres organismes ou organisations sont disponibles au SC&LD N200, Centre Bennett de services aux étudiants, tél. : 416-736-5144. Les clubs et organisations à Glendon peuvent s'inscrire auprès de l'Association des étudiant(e)s du collège Glendon, <http://www.gcsu-aecg.ca>, 416-736-2100, poste 88230.

Site : <http://www.yorku.ca/scld/organizations/>.

Garderie coopérative

La Garderie coopérative de l'Université York, située dans la résidence Atkinson au campus Keele, est au service de la communauté de York depuis 39 ans. Elle a un permis pour accueillir 119 enfants, de 6 semaines à 10 ans.

Les tarifs vont de 445 $ à 1 073 $ par mois, et une heure de participation par semaine et par enfant est demandée. La garderie a conclu une entente d'achat de services avec la ville de Toronto lui permettant d'accepter des enfants subventionnés. La priorité va aux enfants des étudiants et des employés et professeurs de l'université, puis aux enfants de la communauté avoisinante.

Un personnel qualifié s'occupe des enfants qui bénéficient de terrains de jeux, de délicieux repas préparés sur place et d'un programme facultatif d'arts martiaux.

Pour de plus amples renseignements, contactez la garderie par téléphone au 416-736-5190, par courriel à daycare@yorku.ca, ou par la poste à 90 Atkinson Road, App. 128, Toronto, Ontario M3J 2S5. Vous pouvez télécharger le formulaire de demande de notre site Web : <http://www.yorku.ca/daycare/>.

Centre d'orientation et de consultation

Le Centre d'orientation et de consultation a pour mission d'aider les étudiants à se réaliser pleinement dans leurs études et dans leur vie personnelle. Il propose de nombreux programmes et activités.

Service de consultation personnelle

Les étudiants de York sont invités à discuter de leurs préoccupations personnelles avec un conseiller. Pour fixer un rendez-vous, passez au Centre de services aux étudiants Bennett, bureau N110, entre 9 h et 14 h 30 h, du lundi au vendredi, ou téléphonez au 416-736-5297. Toutes les entrevues sont confidentielles.

Programmes de groupe

Le Centre d'orientation et de consultation offre des ateliers sur une grande variété de thèmes. On y enseigne, entre autres, des techniques d'entraînement à l'affirmation de soi, l'art de faire des présentations et de parler en public, l'alimentation, l'image corporelle, la maîtrise de la colère, la réalisation des objectifs, la gestion du stress, la prise de conscience, le développement de l'estime de soi et de la confiance en soi ainsi que des techniques pour apprendre à ne plus procrastiner. Ces ateliers sont offerts pendant les sessions d'automne et d'hiver en fonction des demandes.

Aide à l'apprentissage

Dans le cadre de consultations individuelles ou d'ateliers, les étudiants pourront améliorer leurs compétences dans les domaines suivants : lecture, écoute, prise de notes, mémorisation, gestion du temps, préparation aux examens, rédaction de dissertations et gestion du stress.

Programme pour les troubles d'apprentissage

Ce programme est spécialement conçu pour répondre aux besoins des étudiants qui ont des troubles d'apprentissage. On pourra y obtenir des conseils sur les cours et les programmes scolaires, des accommodations scolaires, une orientation vers les services du campus, une analyse des aptitudes psychopédagogiques, une orientation professionnelle individualisée, des conseils et ateliers sur les méthodes d'étude, des services de tutorat entre pairs, ainsi qu'une consultation et la défense des droits en cas de préoccupations d'ordre scolaire.

Programme pour les troubles mentaux

Ce service offre une aide pédagogique aux personnes aux prises avec des problèmes de santé mentale comme la dépression, le stress post-traumatique le trouble bipolaire, l'anxiété et la schizophrénie. Les services offerts comprennent une orientation annuelle sur le campus, un soutien pédagogique individualisé, un accès à une technologie adaptée, des ateliers de techniques d'apprentissage, des séances et ateliers avec des groupes de pairs, des séances de mentorat avec des pairs, la revendication des droits, l'autonomie sociale et l'intégration aux ressources communautaires.

Centre de consultation communautaire de santé mentale

Les membres de la communauté universitaire peuvent s'adresser au personnel du Centre d'orientation et de consultation pour toute question concernant la vie sociale du campus. Le Centre sera heureux de mettre sur pied de nouveaux programmes pour répondre aux besoins de la communauté.

La réception du Centre d'orientation et de consultation est située au Centre de services aux étudiants Bennett, bureau N110; elle est ouverte de 9 h à 16 h 30, du lundi au vendredi. Le numéro de téléphone est le 416-736-5297, site Web : <http://www.yorku.ca/cdc/>.

Centre de consultation psychologique d'Atkinson

Le centre de consultation psychologique d'Atkinson se dévoue pour favoriser le bien-être affectif, social et scolaire de la communauté étudiante d'Atkinson en proposant divers services de counselling et des services pour les étudiants souffrant d'une déficience.

Consultation psychologique individuelle

Les étudiants à temps plein ou à temps partiel font souvent face à un certain nombre de difficultés et à certaines conditions de vie qui risquent d'empêcher leur progression sur le plan universitaire. Il peut être utile de parler de ces problèmes avec un professionnel dûment formé pour acquérir de nouvelles aptitudes, et connaître de nouvelles ressources et méthodes. Le centre de consultation psychologique d'Atkinson propose des consultations individuelles à court terme aux étudiants d'Atkinson. Il suffit d'un simple appel téléphonique pour prendre rendez-vous. Le centre est attentif aux questions des personnes gay, lesbiennes, non conformistes sur le plan sexuel et bisexuelles, ainsi qu'aux différences culturelles.

Besoins particuliers

Les problèmes rencontrés par les étudiants, à temps plein ou à temps partiel, peuvent avoir différentes sources. Des cours de perfectionnement et des ateliers sur les techniques d'étude peuvent s'avérer utiles pour répondre à de nombreux besoins de ces étudiants. Pour certains, cependant, les problèmes peuvent être liés à des handicaps divers (difficultés d'apprentissage, handicap physique ou psychiatrique). Le centre de consultation psychologique d'Atkinson veut aider les étudiants ayant des besoins particuliers à réussir dans un contexte universitaire. Des conseillers dûment formés sont à la disposition de ces étudiants pour faire des évaluations, des adaptations au niveau des études, une instruction personnalisée pour l'acquisition des techniques d'étude, ainsi que pour défendre leurs droits.

Ateliers et programmes de groupe

Entrer à l'université comme étudiant à temps plein ou à temps partiel, reprendre des études interrompues et suivre des cours tout en travaillant ne sont que quelques exemples des circonstances particulières que rencontrent certains étudiants d'Atkinson. Le centre de consultation psychologique propose des ateliers sur l'acquisition de techniques ou de compétences et sur le développement de la personne pour répondre aux besoins des étudiants. Les techniques d'étude, prise de notes, gestion du temps, comprendre l'anxiété et la gestion du stress sont des exemples des sujets abordés au cours des ateliers. Le centre est prêt à organiser des ateliers sur un sujet pertinent aux membres du collège Atkinson; nous serons donc heureux d'avoir vos suggestions.

Analyse des carrières

Les étudiants à temps plein ou à temps partiel sont, par définition, engagés dans une préparation ou un développement de carrière. Dans de nombreux cas, Atkinson est un élément dans un plan global menant à une nouvelle carrière, à un enrichissement des tâches ou tout simplement à un changement d'orientation. De la documentation est à disposition au centre sur l'analyse des carrières possibles, la planification et le développement de celle qu'on exerce.

Le Centre de consultation psychologique est ouvert de 8 h 30 à 19 h, du lundi au jeudi, et de 9 h à 16 h, le vendredi. Le Centre est également ouvert le samedi, de 9 h à 15 h, sur rendez-vous seulement.

Santé et bien-être

Le Centre de santé et bien-être de l'Université est situé au Centre for Student Community and Leadership Development. Les étudiants peuvent prendre rendez-vous avec l'éducateur qui peut les aiguiller vers des services de soins de santé et répondre à leurs questions sur les relations sexuelles saines, les relations humaines saines, la contraception, la désaccoutumance du tabac, l'abus d'alcool et de drogues ou tout autre aspect de la santé. Tous les services sont gratuits et confidentiels. En outre, une équipe d'étudiants en éducation de la santé fait des présentations, planifie des événements de sensibilisation et organise des programmes comme Wellness Wednesday et Mellow Mondays. Pour de plus amples renseignements sur les services de santé offerts par York, consultez le site <http://www.yorku.ca/healthed/>, envoyez un courriel à healthed@yorku.ca ou appelez le 416-736-5196.

Programme d'aide de vie indépendante/Marche des dix sous de l'Ontario

La Marche des dix sous/Programme d'aide de vie indépendante de York offre une aide non médicale aux étudiants et au personnel enseignant et administratif de l'Université York qui ont une déficience physique permanente. Des services auxiliaires sont disponibles sur réservation. De l'aide, sur demande, est offerte dans les situations d'urgence, 24 heures sur 24, chaque jour de l'année scolaire. Un service complet est fourni de 6 h à 1 h. Les services d'urgence sont disponibles de 1 h à 6 h. Le service comprend de l'aide pour des tâches quotidiennes comme l'hygiène personnelle, les repas, l'entretien ménager, les déplacements, le coucher et le lever ainsi que toutes autres tâches générales.

Le service est offert à la population étudiante, aux membres du personnel et au corps enseignant du campus Keele qui ont une déficience physique permanente. Les personnes qui font une demande d'aide devront accepter d'organiser et de diriger elles-mêmes les services qui leur seront prodigués. Toutes les demandes sont étudiées par le comité consultatif de La Marche des dix sous de York.

Pour de plus amples renseignements, communiquez avec le Bureau de la Marche des dix sous de l'Ontario/aide de vie indépendante au N112, Immeuble Ross, tél. 416-736-5167, ou avec le Bureau des services aux personnes handicapées, tél. 416-736-5140, courriel omodyu@yorku.ca.

Bureau de l'ombudsman et Centre des droits de la personne

Bienvenue au Bureau de l'ombudsman et au Centre des droits de la personne de l'université York. En suédois. Le Bureau a pour mission de fournir aux étudiants inscrits et aux employés de l'université York une ressource indépendante, impartiale et confidentielle pour les aider à résoudre de façon juste et équitable toute question ou plainte relative à l'université, par exemple :

- des allégations d'injustice concernant un processus universitaire, l'application d'un processus ou l'absence de processus, conformément aux politiques, procédures, règlements ou directives de l'université;
- des allégations de discrimination ou de harcèlement tel que définis dans le Code ontarien des droits de la personne ou dans les politiques des droits de la personne de l'Université York.

Le Bureau fournit des renseignements et des conseils impartiaux, des services d'orientation vers d'autres ressources, de résolution de problèmes et d'intervention. Nous prêtons une oreille attentive aux inquiétudes, aux problèmes et aux plaintes; nous apportons des précisions sur les politiques et les procédures universitaires; nous explorons des solutions de rechange non officielles pour la résolution des conflits et nous aidons les gens à trouver la personne ou le département capable de répondre à leurs questions. Il peut arriver que nous menions une enquête, mais notre but est de faire de la médiation pour aider les gens à résoudre leurs problèmes entre eux. Nous collaborons avec d'autres bureaux de l'université de York afin de résoudre les problèmes et les malentendus qui peuvent se présenter.

Le Bureau de l'ombudsman peut être une solution de « dernier recours » et vous venir en aide lorsque les autres voies, processus et procédures n'ont pas réussi à régler le problème. Nous pourrions aussi vous diriger vers les ressources appropriées si vous ne savez pas où vous adresser.

En ce qui a trait aux droits de la personne, le Bureau aide les individus et les groupes à répondre aux allégations de discrimination et de harcèlement telles que définies par le Code ontarien des droits de la personne et à résoudre les conflits. Si vous êtes visé par une plainte ou victime de harcèlement sexuel ou de discrimination raciale, par exemple, notre Bureau est prêt à vous aider en tout temps.

Le Bureau joue un rôle important pour promouvoir les droits de la personne en distribuant de l'information et en offrant des programmes éducatifs. En plus, le Bureau possède une collection importante et croissante de matériel imprimé et audio-visuel qu'il met à la disposition de la communauté universitaire.

L'ombudsman et directrice du Centre des droits de la personne de l'université rend compte au président de l'université, mais n'a aucun lien de dépendance avec les structures administratives. Son rôle est de fournir à tous les groupes universitaires une ressource accessible, impartiale, non antagoniste et confidentielle qui favorise la résolution rapide et juste des problèmes. L'ombudsman agit indépendamment et objectivement pour aider la médiation et la résolution de malentendus et de différends. Les caractéristiques universellement reconnues de la fonction d'ombudsman sont l'indépendance, la souplesse, l'accessibilité et la crédibilité.

Le Bureau de l'ombudsman et le Centre des droits de la personne sont situés dans l'édifice Ross Sud, salle S327. Il est ouvert tous les jours de 9 h à 17 h ou sur rendez-vous. Vous pouvez nous joindre par téléphone au 416-736-5682, TTY 416-660-8023 ou par courriel à ombuds@yorku.ca.

Bureau des services aux personnes handicapées

Le Bureau des services aux personnes handicapées a été créé pour informer, aider et représenter la population étudiante et les membres du personnel qui ont une déficience physique ou sensorielle ou des troubles médicaux.

Parmi les services offerts, on retrouve les conseils financiers et l'orientation universitaire, l'aiguillage vers des services de consultation et d'autres services de l'Université et de la collectivité, tel que le Programme d'aide à la vie autonome.

Si vous avez été admis à l'Université, il est dans votre intérêt de communiquer avec le Bureau le plus rapidement possible.

Bien que le Bureau offre une courte séance d'orientation, nous conseillons à tous de participer aux journées d'orientation de votre collège ou faculté, qui vous apportent beaucoup de renseignements utiles et vous permettent de faire connaissance avec vos pairs.

Le Bureau des services aux personnes handicapées, situé au N108 Immeuble Ross, est ouvert du lundi au vendredi de 9 h à 16, tél. 416-736-5140, 416-736-5263 (TTY), télécopie : 416-650-8068, courriel : opd@yorku.ca ou Internet : <http://www.yorku.ca/opd/>.

Activités religieuses

L'Université York offre un environnement inter-religieux unique sur le campus. Le Conseil inter-religieux fournit un forum où l'harmonie et la bonne volonté permettent aux diverses communautés religieuses de York d'aborder leurs préoccupations communes et de s'entraider.

Le Conseil inter-religieux de York est administré et soutenu par le Centre for Student Community and Leadership Development (SC&LD), qui consacre du personnel et des ressources pour assurer l'exploitation efficace et harmonieuse du Conseil inter-religieux, en vue de rehausser l'expérience spirituelle des étudiants de York. La personne qui dirige le Conseil inter-religieux ainsi que les autres membres peuvent être contactés par l'intermédiaire du SC&LD, N200, Centre Bennett de services aux étudiants, 416-736-5144.

Le Centre religieux Scott a une chapelle confortable pour tenir des services religieux et une salle de méditation paisible et favorable à l'introspection ou à la prière. Il met aussi un bureau à la disposition des divers clubs religieux des étudiants.

Pour réserver la chapelle sur une base régulière ou pour une manifestation spéciale, prière de s'adresser au SC&LD (416-736-5144) du premier septembre au 30 avril et au Centre des conférences de York (416-736-5020) du premier mai au 31 août. On accède au Centre Scott par le rez-de-chaussée de Central Square et, à l'extérieur, par le premier étage, entre la Bibliothèque Scott et l'Édifice Ross.

Services de sécurité, de stationnement et de transport

Service de sécurité de l'Université York

Le Service de sécurité de l'Université York est situé au Centre William Small, bureau 228, sur le campus Keele, et dans la serre du campus Glendon. Il est doté d'un personnel de sécurité dévoué, qui se concentre sur la prestation de services de sécurité de qualité à l'ensemble de notre communauté. Il s'agit d'un service communautaire, ce qui signifie que nous cherchons à former des partenariats avec des intervenants de la collectivité et fournissons des solutions globales aux problèmes de sécurité sur nos campus, de façon à répondre aux besoins de la communauté vaste et diversifiée que nous servons. Le Service de sécurité est engagé à fournir des services rapides, professionnels et attentifs, en traitant tout le monde avec respect, dignité et équité.

Le Service de sécurité de l'Université York est composé de quatre groupes : la patrouille, la surveillance dans les édifices, les relations inter-campus et les enquêtes. Chaque groupe fait équipe avec divers groupes communautaires ou agences externes pour répondre à un besoin précis de la communauté, comme la patrouille proactive, le service réactif, les interventions d'urgence, la planification proactive d'événements, la prévention du crime, les programmes de sécurité, les analyses statistiques, les relations externes/la liaison et les enquêtes sur les plaintes et activités criminelles. Le Service de sécurité a conclu des partenariats avec la communauté universitaire, ainsi qu'avec des agences et organisations externes afin de fournir un service plus efficace et efficient à notre communauté.

La sécurité et la sûreté du campus nécessitent la coopération et le soutien de toute la communauté. Aussi, le Service de sécurité encourage la communauté à faire preuve de prudence et à signaler immédiatement toute activité suspecte.

Le Centre de contrôle de la sécurité est ouvert 24 heures sur 24, 365 jours par année. Pour tout renseignement relatif à la sécurité, veuillez communiquer avec le Service de sécurité au 416-650-8000, ou le poste 58000. En cas d'urgence, composez le 416-736-5333, ou le poste 33333.

Urgences

Composez le 416-736-5333, ou poste 33333 :

- si vous remarquez des personnes ou situations suspectes
- pour obtenir les premiers soins lors d'incidents ne constituant pas un danger de mort
- lorsqu'un crime, tel un vol, a été commis
- en présence d'un danger potentiel
- en cas de crimes haineux

Situations non urgentes et demandes de renseignements

Composez le 416-650-8000, ou poste 58000 :

- accès à un édifice ou à une salle
- inondations et renversements mineurs
- renseignements d'ordre général sur la sécurité
- clés perdues ou volées
- fenêtre cassée, mur endommagé ou graffiti

Appelez le 911 :Lors d'une situation urgente constituant un danger de mort, appelez directement le 911

Lorsqu'une situation met la vie d'une personne en danger ou porte atteinte à la propriété, qu'il s'agisse d'une urgence médicale, d'un incendie ou d'un acte criminel, veuillez composer le 911 puis aviser le Service de sécurité au 416-736-5333, ou poste 33333. Le Service de sécurité de York accueille les véhicules d'urgence et les dirige directement sur les lieux de l'incident afin d'éviter que les préposés ne perdent leur temps à chercher un immeuble ou un emplacement.

Centre de contrôle de la sécurité

Situé au Centre William Small, bureau 228, le Centre de contrôle de la sécurité est ouvert 24 heures sur 24, 365 jours par année. Il est doté d'un centre de déploiement, d'un système de télévision en circuit fermé (CCTV), d'un système de surveillance d'alarme et d'une station de premiers soins. Ce centre assure que les services de sécurité et d'intervention d'urgence appropriés sont disponibles en tout temps pour les communautés étudiantes des campus de Keele et Glendon.

Agents de sécurité

Les agents de sécurité sont des professionnels en service à la clientèle formés en techniques d'intervention d'urgence non violente, de prévention du crime, d'intervention d'urgence, de premiers soins, de réanimation cardio-respiratoire ou à l'aide d'un défibrillateur automatique externe, ainsi que plusieurs autres techniques de sécurité pertinentes. Tout en maintenant d'étroites relations de travail avec les Services de police de Toronto, ils jouent un rôle différent. Leurs principales responsabilités consistent à fournir des services de sécurité communautaire, de surveillance visuelle proactive, d'intervention médicale, ainsi qu'une foule d'autres services tels qu'assister les membres de la communauté universitaire, intervenir en cas d'alarme ou de déclaration de crime, rédiger des rapports et mener des enquêtes. Des agents en uniforme patrouillent les lieux à pied, à bord de véhicules et sur des vélos de montagne. Ils connaissent très bien les règlements, terrains, départements et services de l'Université York.

Relations inter-campus

Les agents de relation inter-campus forment un service de soutien au sein des Services de sécurité. Ils initient et entretiennent des liens de communication proactifs en matière de sécurité et de sûreté avec les groupes communautaires, organisateurs d'activités, employés administratifs et agents de liaison universitaires. Ils assurent la sécurité des événements, interviennent en cas d'incidents et agissent à titre d'agents de liaison communautaire pour gérer les questions de sécurité des événements. Leur objectif consiste à fournir un service de prévention, d'intervention d'urgence non violente, d'allègement des conflits, d'information et de préparation. Ces agents informent les membres de la communauté universitaire sur les politiques, activités et réalisations des départements, et proposent des conseils de sécurité personnelle.

Services de sécurité de l'Université York – Dans les coulissesEnquêtes

Prévention du crime

Une partie du mandat des Services de sécurité consiste à compiler et à analyser les données statistiques afin de déployer proactivement les patrouilles sur les campus et d'élaborer des programmes et services de prévention du crime, dans le but d'éduquer les membres de la communauté universitaire. Car l'éducation rend les gens plus intolérants aux situations pouvant provoquer et susciter des comportements criminels. Ce service favorise également la prévention du crime par l'aménagement du milieu (PCAM) afin de rendre les crimes plus difficiles à commettre, plus risqués et moins lucratifs. Le programme PCAM propose des façons de dissuader les criminels en modifiant l'aménagement des édifices et places publiques.

Préparatifs d'urgence

Les Services de sécurité de York perfectionnent constamment son plan d'intervention en cas d'urgence, afin de protéger la vie et la propriété de la communauté universitaire, de prévenir les blessures et réduire l'impact négatif que les situations d'urgence peuvent avoir sur la communauté.

Assistance médicale

Les Services de sécurité de York fournissent une assistance médicale 24 heures sur 24 aux personnes malades ou blessées. Le centre de déploiement du contrôle de la sécurité, à la fine pointe de la technologie, permet d'assurer que les services d'urgence appropriés sont dépêchés et escortés sur les lieux afin de garantir une intervention rapide et efficace en cas d'urgence.

Pour de plus amples renseignements, visitez notre site Web au <http://www.yorku.ca/security/>.

goSAFE

L'objectif principal du programme goSAFE consiste à permettre aux étudiants, professeurs et employés de se déplacer en toute sécurité lorsqu'il fait noir. Des agents de sécurité rencontrent les gens aux arrêts d'autobus, sur les stationnements, aux portes des édifices et résidences situés sur le campus, et les accompagnent en toute sécurité à leur destination ou à une des stations goSAFE du campus. Les deux routes du campus, la route nord et la route sud, présentent onze points d'embarquement et de débarquement. Ce service de sécurité gratuit est offert à la communauté de York par les Services de sécurité, de stationnement et de transport, SSST. Le service est offert tous les jours pendant l'année universitaire (septembre à avril) de 18 h à 2 h, et pendant les mois d'été (mai à août) de 20 h à 2 h.

Pour plus de renseignements, appelez le Service d'escorte de sécurité étudiante de York au 416-736-5454 ou le poste 55454 ou consultez notre site <http://www.yorku.ca/gosafe/>.

Objets perdus

Le Bureau des objets perdus est situé au N107 Ross, sur le campus Keele, et est ouvert de 11 h à 15 h du lundi au vendredi et de 17 h à 19 h les mercredis et jeudis. Vous pouvez aussi nous joindre par courriel au lost@yorku.ca. Si vous communiquez avec nous par téléphone ou courriel, veuillez décrire l'objet perdu, donner la date et l'heure où vous l'avez vu la dernière fois, votre nom et un numéro de téléphone ou une adresse électronique où l'on peut vous joindre. Nous gardons les articles rapportés pendant 30 jours seulement. Sur le campus Glendon, il faut s'adresser au Service de sécurité et de stationnement, situé dans l'immeuble Greenhouse, ou appeler le 416-487-6808.

Nous regrettons de ne pouvoir accepter aucune responsabilité pour les objets personnels laissés sans surveillance sur les campus et dans les édifices.

Pour de plus amples renseignements, consultez notre site au <http://www.yorku.ca/gosafe/lostfound.html>, ou appelez le 416-736-2100, poste 33369.

Services de stationnement

Un nombre limité de permis de stationnement est offert à tous les membres de la communauté universitaire. Les premiers arrivés seront les premiers servis et nous vous conseillons d'acheter le vôtre rapidement pour vous assurer d'en obtenir un et pour éviter les attentes.

Assurez-vous que votre formulaire de demande est dûment rempli. Les demandes incomplètes entraîneront des retards de traitement. Pour acheter un permis de stationnement, vous devez fournir une preuve de propriété ou d'enregistrement du véhicule (une photocopie recto-verso du certificat suffira pour les demandes soumises par la poste, par télécopieur et en personne.) Si le conducteur n'est pas le propriétaire du véhicule, le propriétaire du véhicule doit également signer le formulaire.

Nous ne pouvons émettre de permis aux personnes qui n'ont pas acquitté leurs contraventions. Pour obtenir des renseignements sur des contraventions non réglées, appelez le 416-736-5705, si vous êtes sur le campus Keele, ou le 416-487-6788 si vous êtes sur le campus Glendon et demandez le préposé aux contraventions.

Vous pouvez payer votre permis en espèces, par chèque, avec une carte de débit ou une carte de crédit Visa, MasterCard ou AMEX. Pour éviter les files d'attente, vous pouvez l'envoyer par la poste ou par télécopieur.

Les demandes de renouvellement peuvent être traitées en ligne. Consultez notre site au <http://www.yorku.ca/parking/> pour obtenir plus de renseignements.

Services de transport

Covoiturage

Le covoiturage est un moyen simple qui permet aux étudiants et aux employés d'économiser des milliers de dollars sur le coût de l'essence, de l'entretien et du stationnement et une solution intéressante pour ceux qui habitent loin de l'université et n'ont pas facilement accès aux transports en commun. Pour obtenir plus de renseignements sur le covoiturage ou vous inscrire à un service gratuit de covoiturage, consultez le site Web de Smart Commute North York, Vaughan, au <http://www.smartcommuteNTV.ca>. Posséder et conduire un véhicule coûte en moyenne 9 000 $ par an. Le covoiturage peut vous faire économiser beaucoup d'argent et vous aider à réduire la densité de la circulation, à améliorer la qualité de l'air et à conserver de l'énergie.

VAN GO

VAN GO est un service de transport des personnes handicapées offert conjointement par le Service des transports, le Bureau des étudiants ayant des besoins spéciaux et ABLE York. Les services sont offerts de 8 h à 22 h du lundi au vendredi pendant l'année universitaire.

Le service de navette Glendon-Keele

Le Service de sécurité, de stationnement et de transport offre un service de navette Glendon-Keele gratuit. Pour obtenir plus de renseignements et connaître l'horaire, appelez le 416-736-2100, poste 22546 (ou le 416-736-5454 de 6 h à 12 h) ou consultez le site <http://www.yorku.ca/transportation/shuttle.htm>.

Le service de navette GO Train

Le Service de sécurité, de stationnement et de transport offre un service de navette gratuit entre l'université York et la gare GO. Pour obtenir plus de renseignements et connaître l'horaire, appelez au 416-736-2100, poste 22546, ou visitez notre site Web au <http://www.yorku.ca/transportation/shuttle.htm>.

Le service Viva s'étend le long de la rue Yonge de Bernard jusqu'au terminal de Newmarket (ligne bleue). Les jours de semaine, le service des heures de pointe commence entre l'Université York et Martin Grove (ligne mauve), et la station Unionville et McCowan (ligne mauve).

Le nouvel ajout à la ligne rose de Viva, un service d'heures de pointe en semaine, allant de la station Finch à la station Unionville, en passant par le Centre Richmond Hill. Viva longe la rue Yonge et l'autoroute 7 de 5 h 45 à 9 h 10, et de 15 h 10 à 18 h 20, et les véhicules se succèdent à raison de plus ou moins dix minutes d'intervalle.

Viva fait partie du système de transport public de la Région du Grand Toronto. Il est relié au système de transport public de la région de York (YRT), au système de métro de la CTT et au GO Transit, pour permettre aux étudiants de se déplacer sans voiture.

Lorsque vous achetez un billet Viva ou YRT, vous avez jusqu'à deux heures pour monter et descendre du bus afin de manger un morceau, d'acheter un livre ou de rendre visite à un ami, tout cela pour le prix d'un seul billet.

Visitez le site Web <http://www.vivayork.com> pour recevoir les dernières nouvelles par courriel, poser des questions ou nous faire part de vos commentaires.

Greyhound Canada

Le service de Greyhound représente un excellent moyen de transport pour les étudiants qui désirent rentrer chez eux ou partir pour la fin de semaine. Des autocars de la compagnie Greyhound partent de l'Université York les vendredis vers les destinations suivantes : Barrie; London et Windsor; Guelph et Kitchener; Peterborough et Ottawa. Les billets du service de transport Greyhound sont en vente au Bureau du stationnement et des transports, situé au 222, Centre William Small. Pour consulter la grille horaire, visitez notre site Web au <http://www.yorku.ca/transportation/>.

Sports et loisirs

L'Université York, par l'entremise de son département de kinésiologie et des sciences de la santé, propose aux étudiants des activités sportives et récréatives qui couvrent une vaste gamme d'activités physiques. Chacun peut choisir le programme d'activité physique, de développement personnel, d'encadrement qui lui convient en fonction de sa préparation, de ses compétences et de ses aspirations.

Les étudiants peuvent non seulement participer à des activités sportives ou récréatives organisées par l'Université mais également partager des responsabilités dans l'organisation et le déroulement de programmes, soit à titre bénévole, soit dans le cadre d'un stage travail-études ou d'un emploi à temps partiel. L'Université encourage également les étudiants à participer aux activités organisées sur les campus au cours de l'année par les départements de sports et loisirs.

Rencontres sportives inter-universitaires

Le programme de rencontres sportives inter-universitaires s'inscrit pleinement dans la mission éducative de l'Université York en encourageant l'épanouissement individuel qui est au cœur de sa mission universitaire. Tous les étudiants à temps plein sont encouragés à participer aux 23 équipes de sports inter-universitaires que possède le service des sports à York. Les programmes de sports développent les compétences des athlètes étudiants grâce à un encadrement de qualité et un entraînement rigoureux.

Une tradition prestigieuse et en plein essor – depuis plus de 36 ans. Les étudiants-athlètes de l'Université York, ont marqué la scène du sport au Canada. Ces équipes, dont de nombreux membres, athlètes et entraîneurs, ont également appartenu à des équipes canadiennes de niveau national, ont remporté des titres provinciaux et nationaux et portent haut le flambeau de l'Université York.

Entraîneurs – les entraîneurs de York sont des professionnels hautement qualifiés et dévoués et la plupart d'entre eux font partie du personnel permanent de l'Université. Nombreux sont ceux qui, experts reconnus dans leur profession, occupent également des postes dans des organismes sportifs nationaux. À York, ils ont à cœur d'aider les athlètes étudiants à atteindre leur plein potentiel dans les compétitions comme dans les salles de cours.

Équipes universitaires – les équipes sportives de l'Université York participent à des compétitions universitaires du plus haut niveau. En Ontario, toutes les universités concourent entre elles dans tous les sports pour les championnats universitaires ontariens de « l'Ontario University Athletics – (OUA) ». Sur le plan national, les équipes de York concourent dans la « Canadian Interuniversity Sport (CIS) ».

Équipes masculines – badminton, basketball, cross-country, football, hockey sur glace, soccer, natation, ski de fond, tennis, athlétisme, volleyball et water polo.

Équipes féminines – badminton, basketball, cross-country, hockey sur gazon, hockey sur glace, rugby, soccer, natation, tennis, athlétisme, volleyball et water polo.

Loisirs

Aucune formation ne serait complète sans une participation active à des activités physiques. Le programme d'activités de loisirs de York permet à tous les membres de la collectivité de participer à une vaste gamme d'activités, dont des tournois internes, des cours de conditionnement physique, des clubs de sport et autres activités amicales. On recherche avant tout à répondre aux besoins et préférences des individus, chacun selon ses capacités. Les étudiants réguliers de York peuvent participer sans aucun frais – dans la mesure des places disponibles - à la plupart des programmes proposés.

Tournois internes – Un grand nombre d'activités sportives individuelles et d'équipes sont proposées, soit pour le simple plaisir, soit dans le cadre de tournois. 44 tournois et ligues sportives incluant un tournoi de basketball trois-sur-trois et un tournoi de Volleyball de nuit. Participez à une équipe de votre collège ou formez votre équipe avec un groupe d'amis de l'Université.

Cours de conditionnement physique et de style de vie – Les enthousiastes du conditionnement physique ont plus de 50 classes par semaine à leur disposition. On offre notamment différents niveaux de cours de « step », de conditionnement physique complet, de boxe cardio, de Hi/lo etc. Ceux qui préfèrent d'autres types d'exercices peuvent suivre des cours d'arts martiaux, de danse, de natation, de relaxation, de tennis, de patinage et d'escrime (avec un supplément financier).

Clubs sportifs – Ceux et celles qui aimeraient participer, avec d'autres membres de la collectivité de York, à des activités ou à des sports qui ne font pas partie des sports inter-universitaires ou intra-muros, peuvent adhérer à un club de sport pour pratiquer par exemple le squash, le ping-pong, le curling et bien d'autres sports encore.

Loisirs à la carte – Ceux et celles qui aiment nager, courir, patiner, jouer au tennis ou au squash, lever des poids et haltères etc. peuvent profiter des nombreuses installations et possibilités qu'offre l'Université. Le Centre de conditionnement physique du Pavillon Tait McKenzie, avec son équipement à la fine pointe du progrès, met par exemple à la disposition des usagers des équipements et des machines ultra modernes, et un personnel qualifié est là pour conseiller et guider les usagers. Des périodes spécifiques sont également réservées dans le gymnase et la patinoire pour des matchs par équipes libres de hockey, pour du patinage, du badminton, du basketball, du volleyball, du football (soccer) sur parquet, du ping-pong, du tennis et du squash.

Installations sportives

L'Université York met à la disposition de sa communauté des installations sportives et récréatives de dernier cri. Au campus Keele, le Centre d'éducation physique Tait McKenzie offre un très grand ensemble d'équipements de sports. Pour les sports d'extérieur, le grand terrain de sport de York est le principal lieu de rendez-vous. L'Université York accueille également sur son campus Keele le Centre d'athlétisme de Toronto, le Centre Rexall (tennis) et l'aréna Canlan Ice Sports - York. Le Pavillon des sports Proctor, à Glendon, offre lui aussi toute une gamme d'installations et d'équipements dernier cri, dont un gymnase rénové ainsi que des sentiers pour la marche ou la course, reliés à tout un ensemble de parcs publics.

Campus Keele – Un grand stade, 4 gymnases, 5 studios de danse, 5 courts de squash, 5 terrains de sport, 3 terrains de balle molle, 9 courts de tennis extérieurs, une patinoire intérieure, une piscine, un terrain de cricket, un centre de conditionnement physique de 12 000 pieds carrés équipé de 45 machines cardio-vasculaires et de poids et haltères, et une clinique pour les blessures d'origine sportive.

Également – L'arena Canlan Ice Sports de l'Université York (6 patinoires), le Centre d'athlétisme de Toronto à l'Université York (équipements intérieurs et extérieurs), le Centre Rexall (tennis) (courts de tennis extérieurs et 8 courts intérieurs).

Campus Glendon – Deux gymnases, 5 courts de squash, piscine, studio de conditionnement physique, salle d'haltérophilie, salle d'entraînement au golf, 3 courts de tennis extérieur, terrain pour jeu de balle molle, terrain de sport, sentiers de marche ou de course.

Le Centre for Student Community and Leadership Development (SC&LD)

Sous l'égide du vice-président adjoint, Student Community Development, le Centre for Student Community and Leadership Development est voué à améliorer de manière constante la qualité de vie des étudiants de l'Université York.

Grâce aux efforts d'une équipe d'employés dévoués et soucieux de la vie des étudiants, le centre coordonne tout un éventail de services et d'activités qui enrichissent la vie communautaire et cocurriculaire sur le campus de l'université York : développement du leadership, liaison avec la gestion étudiante, aide aux élections et aux référendums, gestion de clubs étudiants, liste de logements hors campus, coordination des activités d'initiation de première année, journées d'information et visite des parents, information sur la santé et la vie en résidence et York is U. Grâce à des méthodes d'évaluation et de planification et à des programmes bien pensés, nous sommes en mesure de favoriser l'excellence universitaire et le développement personnel.

Le Centre de développement de la communauté étudiante et du leadership enrichit la vie des étudiants en faisant la promotion de l'éducation, de la prise de conscience et de la croissance, en célébrant la diversité en encourageant la coopération et en développant le concept de citoyenneté.

Le Centre de développement de la communauté étudiante et du leadership est situé au N200 Centre Bennett de services aux étudiants. 416-736-5144. ATS 416-736-5940. Courriel : scld@yorku.ca. Site Web : <http://www.yorku.ca/scld/>.

Comportement des étudiants et résolution des conflits

L'Office of Student Conduct and Dispute Resolution administre le code de conduite parascolaire des étudiants de York. Conformément à ce code, les étudiants doivent se comporter de façon à favoriser une atmosphère de civilité, de diversité, d'équité et de respect. Tous les membres de la communauté de York peuvent déposer une plainte à l'encontre d'un étudiant ou d'un groupe d'étudiants en vertu de ce code. Les étudiants qui désirent déposer une plainte à l'égard du comportement d'un autre étudiant doivent remplir un formulaire de plainte et le soumettre à l'Office of Student Conduct and Dispute Resolution. L'Office évaluera la plainte et prendra les mesures appropriées, et fournit également des conseils, des orientations et des services en matière de résolution de conflits et de disputes. Pour en savoir plus sur le code de conduite, le dépôt de plainte ou pour obtenir des conseils, visitez le <http://www.yorku.ca/scdr/> ou composez le 416-736-5231.

Gestion étudiante

Fédération des étudiant(e)s de York (FÉY)

La Fédération des étudiant(e)s de York représente et soutient le mouvement étudiant de l'Université York. C'est un organisme de service, démocratique, sans but lucratif, dont la mission est de favoriser pour tous les étudiants (de premier cycle) la recherche de l'excellence universitaire, ainsi que le développement personnel et social, dans un milieu exempt de discrimination et de harcèlement.

La FÉY est déterminée à promouvoir l'accessibilité universelle à l'éducation postsecondaire et rejette tous les obstacles qui entravent l'accès à l'éducation dont, entre autres, les obstacles financiers découlant des frais de scolarité et de résidence et la discrimination fondée sur le sexe, la race, l'orientation sexuelle, la classe sociale, la religion, la couleur de la peau, l'origine ethnique ou géographique, la nationalité, l'état de santé ou l'âge.

La FÉY s'efforce constamment de promouvoir la plus haute qualité possible d'éducation postsecondaire. Elle soutient les organismes étudiants, internes et externes, qui défendent les mêmes principes.

La Fédération offre divers services, notamment un plan d'assurance santé, un agenda étudiant, un poste téléphonique, une photocopieuse à 0,05 $ la copie ainsi que, gratuitement, des cartes internationales d'étudiant et des cartes de rabais pour étudiants.

La FÉY est située au bureau 336 dans le Pavillon des étudiants, tél. : 416-736-5324. Nous vous invitons à vous y rendre pour obtenir d'autres renseignements.

Organismes étudiants des collèges et facultés

Les organismes étudiants ou collégiaux prennent diverses formes selon les collèges mais partagent le même but : se mettre au service des étudiants en utilisant les fonds mis à leur disposition chaque année et représenter leurs intérêts dans les négociations avec les facultés, les services et les départements de l'Université, sur le plan universitaire comme sur le plan administratif.

Organismes des étudiants de deuxième et troisième cycles

En outre, au niveau des études de deuxième et troisième cycles, les organismes étudiants sont l'Association des étudiants de deuxième et troisième cycles, le Conseil des étudiants de deuxième et troisième cycles de l'école de commerce et l'Association des étudiants de deuxième et troisième cycles en études environnementales. Chacun de ces organismes perçoit une cotisation annuelle de ses membres pour financer ses activités. Les associations étudiantes reçoivent sous cette forme plus de 1 000 000 $. Des élections annuelles à l'intérieur de chacune d'entre elles désignent le directoire responsable de l'administration et de la gestion financière. La plupart de ces organismes publient des journaux et des bulletins pour informer leurs membres de leurs services et de leurs programmes.

Autres organismes étudiants

Onze organismes étudiants perçoivent une cotisation annuelle auprès de leurs membres : Excalibur, CHRY radio communautaire de North York, le Programme de service d'aide juridique et communautaire, ProTem, le Théâtre Glendon, Groupe de recherche d'intérêt public de l'Ontario (GRIPO) (remboursable), le Centre des femmes de Glendon, le Centre des femmes de York (remboursable) et le Service de rédaction d'Atkinson (à l'usage exclusif des étudiants de cette faculté), Sexual Assault Survivor's, Support Line (SASSL) (Ligne de soutien pour les victimes d'agression sexuelle) (remboursable) et Entraide universitaire mondiale du Canada (EUMC) (remboursable). Ces organisations doivent soumettre leurs rapports financiers au même titre que les organismes étudiants. Les rapports financiers et les statuts de ces organismes étudiants sont des documents publics ouverts à tous, qui peuvent être consultés au Centre for Student Community and Leadership Development ou au bureau de chaque organisation.

Représentation étudiante aux comités de l'Université

La participation des étudiants au gouvernement de l'Université est un élément important dans les structures de prise de décision et d'élaboration des règlements à l'Université York. Les étudiants participent pleinement comme membres votants au Conseil d'administration, au Sénat, aux conseils de faculté et à d'autres comités. Le système de gouvernement établi par la Charte de l'Université York est un système à deux chambres. Il existe donc deux centres de décision : le Conseil d'administration et le Sénat. Le pouvoir de décision est divisé et partagé entre le chancelier, la présidente, le Conseil d'administration et le Sénat qui peuvent déléguer à leur tour une partie de leur pouvoir à des comités ou à des organismes.

Le conseil d'administration. La Charte de York confie au conseil d'administration la charge de « gouverner, diriger, gérer et contrôler l'Université, ses biens, ses revenus, ses dépenses et ses activités ». Le conseil comprend 30 membres, en plus de la présidente et du chancelier.

Deux sièges sont réservés pour des étudiants. Selon un accord passé entre le conseil et le Caucus des sénateurs étudiants, chaque année, un étudiant est élu dans un vote général parmi les étudiants inscrits à l'Université York. Après l'élection, la nomination de l'étudiant élu doit être confirmée par le Caucus des sénateurs étudiants qui recommande sa nomination au conseil. La durée du mandat est de deux ans. Le conseil a créé divers comités chargés de responsabilités spécifiques. Il y a le comité financier et de vérification, le comité des ressources pédagogiques, le comité du terrain et de la propriété, le comité des relations étudiantes, le comité d'investissement et le comité des affaires communautaires.

Le Sénat. Le Sénat est chargé de la politique universitaire de l'Université. C'est lui qui recommande la création de nouvelles facultés ou de nouveaux collèges, qui établit les normes d'admission, qui fixe l'aide financière aux étudiants, qui autorise la création de diplômes et de certificats ainsi que la structure des programmes universitaires. Il est composé du chancelier, de la présidente, du président et de représentants du conseil d'administration, des vice-présidents, des doyens, de directeurs de département et de représentants élus des diverses facultés, auxquels s'ajoutent quelques représentants d'autres groupes intérieurs ou extérieurs à l'Université. Les membres étudiants sont élus au Sénat par leurs condisciples de faculté. Les étudiants représentent 15 % de l'ensemble des membres du Sénat et les élections se déroulent chaque année en mars. Les étudiants sont représentés dans la plupart des comités du Sénat, tel que le comité exécutif, le comité de promotion et de permanence, le comité d'appel, le comité de direction et de planification universitaire, le comité des programmes et des normes académiques, le comité de bibliothèque et de la technologie de l'information, le comité des admissions, le comité de recrutement et d'aide aux étudiants, le comité de la recherche.

Les conseils des facultés. L'Université York compte onze facultés qui ont chacune leur conseil de faculté. Celui-ci est responsable de toutes les décisions universitaires concernant les programmes et les règlements universitaires de la faculté. Chaque conseil de faculté est un comité du Sénat et établit à son tour un certain nombre de comités dans lesquels les étudiants peuvent jouer un rôle. Pour plus de détails sur la structure spécifique des conseils des facultés et la participation étudiante à ces derniers, prière de s'adresser au secrétariat du conseil de la faculté à laquelle vous êtes affilié.

Les étudiants sont également membres de divers organismes de consultation et de prises de décisions au sein de l'Université. Vous pouvez vous renseigner sur ces postes, en communiquant avec les unités d'enseignement ou bureaux administratifs. Pour les questions concernant la participation étudiante au gouvernement de l'Université, prière de s'adresser au Secrétariat de l'Université (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/>)

Centre des femmes et des transgenres

Le Centre des femmes et des transgenres (le « Centre ») est une organisation bénévole, financée et collectivement gérée par les étudiants de York. Il s'agit d'une organisation progressiste, pro-choix, antiraciste, anti-homophobe, trans-positive et féministe, déterminée à :

- mettre fin à l'isolation sociale des femmes et transgenres sur le campus par le biais de programmes et d'activités sociales et de réseautage;
- assurer l'autonomisation individuelle et collective en misant sur l'estime de soi, l'éducation et la décolonisation;
- fournir des services d'intervention entre pairs dans les moments de crise, d'entraide, de défense des droits et d'aiguillage, dans une atmosphère féministe et libérale;
- agir en tant que ressource pour la compréhension, la dénonciation et l'organisation en ce qui a trait aux questions de violence basée sur le sexe et de justice sociale;
- développer des relations professionnelles entre les étudiants et l'administration de l'Université, afin que les étudiants participent concrètement à l'élaboration de programmes et de politiques visant à accroître la sécurité de tout le monde sur le campus;
- développer une culture de résilience et de célébration en soutenant les initiatives d'artistes locaux.

Nous avons un salon confortable avec des sofas et des fauteuils, un téléphone gratuit, un ordinateur branché sur Internet, un réfrigérateur, un four à micro-ondes et des gens chaleureux! Que vous désiriez raconter votre journée à quelqu'un, avoir un endroit où vous détendre, casser la croûte ou lire, ou nous donner un coup de main – n'hésitez pas à venir nous rencontrer!

Programme de rédaction d'Atkinson

Dans le cadre des programmes de rédaction, les étudiants se voient offrir des cours pour acquérir des techniques de recherche et de rédaction. Le programme offre également des cours d'anglais langue seconde (ESL) pour les professeurs et il comprend le Centre de tutorat pour la rédaction des essais. Il est possible de suivre des cours de rédaction pour un crédit facultatif. Les cours d'ESL comptent comme cours d'enseignement général pour les humanités.

Cours de rédaction (description des cours complets dans la partie Courses of Instruction) :

AK/ENSL 1450 6.00 Thinking about Contemporary Canada*

AK/WRIT 1400 6.00 Critical Thinking, Reading and Writing

AK/WRIT 2000 3.00 Writing and Research About Business

AK/WRIT 3900 3.00 Professional Writing for Nurses

AK/WRIT 3988 3.00 Effective Writing and Research

AK/WRIT 3989 3.00 Writing in the Workplace

Centre de tutorat pour la rédaction d'essais

Le Centre de tutorat pour la rédaction des essais du collège Atkinson donne aux étudiants des possibilités d'enseignement individuel ou collectif pour la rédaction des essais. Tout l'enseignement, qu'il soit individuel ou collectif, se base sur le travail des étudiants, habituellement un premier brouillon, ou un autre essai en cours. Les instructeurs ne fourniront cependant pas d'aide éditoriale. On encourage tous les étudiants d'Atkinson inscrits à des cours du collège, quel que soit le niveau et à quelle qu'étape de l'essai que ce soit, à prendre des rendez-vous au Centre. Les étudiants peuvent prendre un rendez-vous d'une durée de cinquante minutes, du lundi au jeudi soir. Ils peuvent également prendre un rendez-vous pendant la journée certains jours de semaine et le samedi. Le Centre est situé au premier étage d'Atkinson. Les rendez-vous pour les enseignements individuels ou collectifs se prennent au bureau 118 Atkinson (Programmes de rédaction/Centre de tutorat pour la rédaction des essais) ou en appelant le 416-736-5289.

York International

Le Service international de l'Université York, appelé York International (YI) est le bureau international central d'éducation de l'Université York. Il offre des services dans trois domaines principaux : programmes et services pour les étudiants étrangers; programmes de mobilité étudiante et programmes internationaux.

Programmes et services pour les étudiants étrangers (ISSP)

York International offre des programmes et des services aux étudiants étrangers, notamment des services d'orientation, des conseils et des ateliers tout au cours de l'année sur des sujets comme l'impôt sur le revenu et les options offertes aux diplômés.

Programme de mobilité étudiante

York International gère le programme d'échange de York qui permet à des étudiants d'obtenir des crédits académiques tout en étudiant à l'étranger. Le programme de stage de York International permet également aux étudiants d'acquérir une expérience internationale en travaillant dans un autre pays. York International renseigne également les étudiants sur d'autres possibilités d'étude, de travail ou de bénévolat à l'étranger.

Programmation internationale

Dans le cadre de programmes comme Emerging Global Leaders Program (EGLP) et Kaleidoscope et d'une émission de radio sur des enjeux internationaux, York International aide tous les étudiants de York à ajouter un volet international à leur diplôme.

York International est situé au bureau 108 du Collège Vanier. Vous pouvez communiquer avec le bureau par téléphone au 416-736-5177, par courriel à yinfo@yorku.ca et par internet à <http://international.yorku.ca>.

Logement

Résidences pour les étudiants de premier cycle

Vivre sur le campus présente plusieurs avantages pour les étudiants de premier cycle et notamment celui de vivre au sein d'une collectivité riche et variée, de se faire des amis pour la vie et de demeurer au cœur d'une riche vie sociale, culturelle et universitaire. Vivre sur le campus, c'est disposer, à sa porte même, de toute la gamme des services du campus.

L'Université York dispose d'environ 2 280 lits pour des étudiants de premier cycle, répartis dans huit bâtiments sur le campus Keele, et de 400 autres lits sur le campus Glendon. La plupart des résidences disposent, de façon traditionnelle, de chambres confortablement meublées pour une ou deux personnes, de salles communes et salles de bain. Les étudiants doivent acquérir, avec la plupart des chambres, un Plan repas qu'ils peuvent utiliser dans plus de 35 points de restauration, servant une vaste gamme de nourritures de différente nature sur le campus de Keele, ainsi qu'une cafétéria et un restaurant-minute sur le campus de Glendon. Le campus Keele de York dispose également de quelques places dans des appartements pour 4 à 6 personnes qui partagent une cuisine, un salon et une salle de bain. La résidence du chemin Pond est la plus nouvelle résidence pour étudiants de premier cycle du campus de Keele et offre 428 appartements de deux chambres, chacun ayant une salle de bains et une cuisine séparées. Le prix pour demeurer en résidence varie selon le type de chambre. D'une façon générale, un étudiant doit compter environ 6 000 $ pour une place, avec le plan repas, dans une chambre pour deux personnes.

Tous les étudiants de premier cycle peuvent présenter leur demande pour une place en résidence à condition d'être inscrits à au moins 24 crédits, soit 4 cours complets. Tous les étudiants de première année sont assurés d'avoir une place en résidence s'ils présentent leur demande avant la date limite du 1er juin 2008. Les renseignements sur la façon de déposer une demande en ligne pour un logement en résidence accompagneront votre offre d'admission à York.

Appartements d'étudiants de York

Sur le campus Keele seulement, existent des appartements pour les étudiants admissibles de deuxième et troisième cycles, les étudiants en droit et autres étudiants adultes de 21 ans et plus ou qui ont besoin d'un logement de type familial.

Un nombre limité d'appartements est réservé aux des étudiants qui ont une déficience physique.

Ces appartements, meublés ou non, comprennent des studios et des appartements de une ou deux chambres à coucher. Ils ne conviennent pas aux familles de plus de deux enfants.

Pour de plus amples renseignements sur le logement des étudiants, s'adresser au :

Services de boisson

Vous trouverez le règlement de l'université sur la vente, le service et la consommation d'alcool sur le site <http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies/document.php?document=36>.

L'Université a désigné des lieux où la vente et la consommation d'alcool sont autorisées, conformément aux politiques de York et aux permis octroyés aux différents traiteurs indépendants et autres organismes de l'Université par la Commission des alcools et des jeux de l'Ontario. Vous trouverez ce règlement et une liste des permis à l'annexe 1 du règlement susmentionné sur le site http://www.yorku.ca/univsec/policies/background_docs/Alcohol%20Procedures/040702%20Alcohol%20Procedures.revisedappendixl.pdf.

Pour toute information sur le Règlement de l'Université sur l'alcool, s'adresser au directeur du centre des services de restauration au 416-736-5517 ou hussain@yorku.ca.

Logement hors-campus

Les étudiants qui ont besoin d'aide pour se trouver un logement hors-campus peuvent se prévaloir du service de logement hors campus, Places4students. Ce service est offert gratuitement aux étudiants qui utilisent le site Web Places4students pour vérifier les logements disponibles ou annoncer la recherche d'un colocataire. Pour en savoir plus, rendez-vous au Places4students.com et cliquez sur « Partner Schools ».

Les étudiants sont invités à se rendre au Centre for Student Community and Leadership Development pour obtenir des publications et des guides susceptibles de les aider à trouver un logement. Ces publications sont également disponibles en ligne en allant sur le site <http://www.yorku.ca/scld/offcampushousing/> et en cliquant sur « Important Rentals Information for Students ».

XVIII. Politique et règlements de l'Université

Conduite et responsabilités (universitaires et non universitaires) des étudiants

Étudiants et professeurs doivent maintenir entre eux des relations professionnelles courtoises, faire preuve de respect les uns envers les autres et éviter tout geste ou toute parole préjudiciables à ces relations. Les professeurs doivent s'efforcer de maintenir dans la salle de classe une atmosphère propre aux échanges universitaires et les étudiants doivent collaborer à cet effort. Ce sont les professeurs qui sont le mieux placés pour décider, en première instance, si une telle atmosphère règne bien dans la salle de classe. Un exposé des lois et règlements concernant le comportement perturbateur ou le harcèlement de la part des étudiants dans le contexte universitaire est disponible dans le Bureau des doyens, le Bureau de la vice-présidente aux études, le Bureau du vice-président aux services étudiants, ou sur le site Web du Secrétariat de l'Université (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies/>).

Les étudiants qui enfreignent les règlements de l'Université ou la loi seront soumis par l'Université à des mesures disciplinaires après une enquête au cours de laquelle ils auront la possibilité de présenter leur version des événements en litige. Les étudiants ont l'obligation fondamentale de participer à cette procédure et, pour pouvoir agir en toute justice et en bonne connaissance de cause, l'Université doit pouvoir entrer en communication avec les étudiants. Il est essentiel que l'Université dispose, en tout temps, de l'adresse postale à jour de tous les étudiants. (Tout changement d'adresse doit être signalé au Service clients). Le droit de l'Université de conclure son enquête ne pourra pas être affecté par l'absence de réponse d'un étudiant à une demande de l'Université.

L'exclusion (expulsion de tous les cours et de toutes les activités de l'Université) constitue la plus grave sanction qui puisse être imposée. Pour plus de renseignements, se reporter au code de conduite des étudiants.

Remise des diplômes

Quelle est la différence entre l'obtention d'un diplôme et la remise des diplômes? L'obtention d'un diplôme signifie que l'étudiant a satisfait à toutes les exigences du diplôme et qu'il a été approuvé par le sénat pour obtenir son diplôme. La remise des diplômes se rapporte à la cérémonie lors de laquelle le chancelier remet les diplômes.

Les étudiants de la Faculté des arts, d'Atkinson, des sciences de l'éducation, des beaux-arts, de la santé et des sciences et de l'ingénierie doivent faire leur demande de diplôme en ligne. Nous encourageons aussi vivement les étudiants de la faculté des études environnementales, de Glendon, de la faculté de droit Osgoode Hall et de l'École des hautes études commerciales Schulich de faire leur demande de diplôme en ligne. Il suffit de se rendre sur le site Web des étudiants au <http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>, de cliquer sur « My Student Records », puis sur « Apply to graduate with an undergraduate degree », sous « My Graduation Status ». Les dates limites de demande sont publiées chaque année et sont habituellement quatre mois avant la cérémonie. Les étudiants de la faculté des études environnementales qui ne présentent pas leur demande en ligne doivent s'adresser au service des programmes étudiants de leur faculté. Les étudiants de la faculté de droit Osgoode Hall doivent communiquer avec service des programmes étudiants de la faculté de droit Osgoode Hall. Les étudiants de l'École Schulich des hautes études commerciales doivent communiquer avec le bureau des programmes étudiants de leur faculté.

Les étudiants doivent s'assurer que l'Université possède l'orthographe exact de leur nom, tel qu'il doit apparaître sur leur diplôme. Ils peuvent vérifier l'exactitude du libellé sur le site <http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm> en cliquant sur « My Student Records », sur « My Personal Info », et en sélectionnant « Verify my official name ».

Les cérémonies de remise des diplômes auront lieu en juin pour les étudiants qui terminent durant les trimestres d'automne et d'hiver et en octobre pour ceux qui finissent pendant la session d'été. Les finissants de chaque faculté seront regroupés pour la remise des diplômes.

Les diplômes sont normalement remis le jour de la collation des grades. Les étudiants qui ne peuvent être présents ou qui n'ont pas reçu leur diplôme le jour de la cérémonie peuvent l'obtenir auprès des Services aux étudiants à une date ultérieure préétablie. Les étudiants qui ne peuvent être présents ou préfèrent recevoir leur diplôme par la poste doivent communiquer avec le bureau du registraire. Des frais de manutention et d'affranchissement s'appliqueront. Pour plus de renseignements, veuillez communiquer avec les Services aux étudiants au 416-872-YORK (9675) ou visitez le <http://www.yorku.ca/mygraduation/>. Les diplômes qui ne sont pas cueillis ou postés seront conservés environ un an. Nous conseillons fortement aux étudiants de passer le prendre leur diplôme ou de le faire poster le plus tôt possible.

Certaines facultés et certains collèges organisent des séances de photo pour les diplômés. Pour en savoir plus, rendez-vous au http://www.yorku.ca/mygraduation/Convocation/contacts_photo.

Des renseignements détaillés sur le programme, le rvsp, la location de toges, les invités et les réceptions sont affichés sur le site <http://www.yorku.ca/mygraduation/>.

Un étudiant obtient son diplôme après avoir complété de façon satisfaisante son programme d'études et payé toutes ses dettes envers l'Université.

Sanctions universitaires concernant les dettes non payées envers l'Université

Aucun diplôme ni relevé de notes ne sera décerné à un étudiant dont les dettes n'ont pas été réglées ou sont en souffrance. Le Sénat a déclaré qu'il était nécessaire d'élaborer des mécanismes d'appel. Pour tout autre renseignement, communiquez avec le bureau concerné de l'Université ou visitez le site Web du Secrétariat de l'Université (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies/>).

Règlement concernant la notation

Les critères de notation pour chaque cours (c.-à-d., le type et la valeur des travaux, des dissertations, des examens etc.) doivent être annoncés et disponibles par écrit, dans les deux premières semaines de classe. Dans des circonstances normales, les étudiants ont droit à une note d'une valeur d'au moins 15 % de la note finale pour tous les cours des sessions d'automne, d'hiver ou d'été ou 30 % des cours d'une année complète offert à la session automne/hivers abandonnés avant la date d'abandon finale sans se voir attribuer une note, sauf dans les cas suivants, les cours de dernière année du premier cycle ou les cours du troisième cycle, lorsque l'évaluation est faite généralement, ou à la discrétion du professeur, à partir d'un seul travail (par exemple, la thèse d'une spécialisation ou la recherche du niveau de la maîtrise qui ne sont pas dûs avant la date d'abandon etc.)

- les cours de stages
- les cours libres
- les cours dans les facultés pour lesquels la date d'abandon est prévue dans les trois premières semaines de classe
- les cours comprimés (pour lesquels les crédits sont octroyés à raison d'un crédit par heure sur une période de deux semaines ou moins).

Remarque : Dans des circonstances inhabituelles ou imprévisibles qui perturbent le cours universitaire normal, les professeurs doivent, dès que possible, faire connaître les critères de notation en tenant compte du présent règlement. Vous pouvez vous procurer les renseignements des autres politiques associées à la notation auprès des facultés, départements et écoles ou du Secrétaire de l'Université (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies/>).

Politique concernant les étudiants ayant des besoins spéciaux

Politique

L'Université s'efforce de prendre des mesures raisonnables d'adaptation afin d'aider les étudiants ayant des besoins spéciaux à réussir leurs études.

Ces mesures et leur envergure ont pour but de soutenir l'intégrité des programmes d'études et des normes de réussite et elles seront en tout temps compatibles avec ces programmes et ces normes.

Si les étudiants ont fait part de leurs besoins spéciaux dans les délais prévus, les enseignants prendront des mesures raisonnables d'adaptation compatibles avec le guide ci-dessous.

L'expression « besoins spéciaux » désigne les conditions décrites dans le Code ontarien des Droits de la personne, telles les handicaps physiques, les problèmes médicaux, les difficultés d'apprentissage et les troubles d'ordre psychiatrique.

Les directives de cette politique sont accessibles sur divers site Web de l'Université, notamment le site du Secrétariat de l'Université (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies/>).

Directives pour une conduite responsable dans l'utilisation des ordinateurs

Afin de promouvoir une utilisation éthique et responsable de l'informatique et autres technologies d'information, des directives générales ont été établies, pour tous les étudiants, par le comité du Sénat sur l'informatique à l'Université, en consultation avec une commission administrative sur l'informatique à York. Le comité du budget et de la planification de York a aussi approuvé les principes et directives présentés ci-dessous.

1. L'équipement informatique de l'Université York est à la disposition des étudiants pour les aider à atteindre leurs objectifs universitaires; du corps professoral pour l'enseignement, la recherche et les activités administratives; des membres du personnel pour les responsabilités qui leur sont assignées; et des autres utilisateurs autorisés. Cet équipement peut comprendre des ordinateurs, l'infrastructure de communication et son équipement, les télécopieurs, les scanners, les machines à photocopier, les téléphones, les appareils vidéo, les systèmes multimédia et les différents types de logiciels.

2. L'équipement informatique doit être uniquement utilisé d'une manière qui ne contrevient ni aux règlements, codes, accords, protocoles de réseaux de l'Université York, ni aux lois provinciales et fédérales.

L'accès à l'équipement informatique est un privilège. Les utilisateurs qui enfreignent les règlements et les lois s'y rapportant peuvent perdre immédiatement ce privilège ou être soumis à des procédures disciplinaires. Les actes illégaux liés à l'utilisation de l'équipement informatique peuvent également faire l'objet de poursuites ou d'autres mesures pénales.

Vous pouvez obtenir des renseignements sur les directives associées à cette politique auprès du Secrétariat de l'Université (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/>).

Code de conduite des étudiants

1. Introduction

L'Université York est un lieu de recherche, d'enseignement et d'apprentissage où l'on apprécie les valeurs de courtoisie, de diversité, d'équité et de respect dans les relations des uns avec les autres. La liberté d'expression, la liberté d'association, la liberté d'étudier et d'apprendre, la liberté de se livrer à des recherches, et la liberté d'écriture et de publication sont toutes au cœur de la mission de l'établissement. On s'accorde à reconnaître que ces valeurs ne peuvent avoir de sens, et ces libertés se réaliser complètement que dans une atmosphère de sécurité.

Depuis leur création, les universités constituent des communautés clairement distinctes dans le cadre d'une plus grande communauté et elles ont réglé à l'interne les problèmes d'inconduite. D'après la Charte de l'Université York, 1965, 13(2)(c), la présidente a le pouvoir d'édicter et de faire respecter des règlements contrôlant les activités des étudiants. La présidente a délégué au vice-président aux affaires étudiantes la responsabilité de l'administration de ce Code de conduite des étudiants, par l'intermédiaire du Bureau de la conduite étudiante et de la résolution de conflits.

Ce code a été élaboré dans le cadre d'une vaste consultation auprès des étudiants, du personnel, et du corps professoral et il reflète leurs valeurs d'équité et de respect. Il est basé sur une approche disciplinaire progressive qui encourage une conduite appropriée.⁷ Le processus présenté dans ce code pour traiter des transgressions est conçu pour être visiblement équitable, facile à comprendre, et transparent. De plus, les sanctions proposées ont été mises au point à l'aide d'une consultation communautaire et sont considérées raisonnables et pouvant s'adapter à de nombreux aspects d'inconduite. Chaque fois que ce sera possible et approprié, les sanctions devront être correctives plutôt que punitives.

2. Pourquoi avoir un code de conduite des étudiants ?

Ce code de conduite des étudiants identifie les comportements qui, laissés sans opposition ni contrôle, pourraient bouleverser les buts académiques de l'Université, restreindre la sécurité du campus⁸, diminuer la dignité des personnes et des groupes, ou saper les libertés fondamentales. Il s'applique principalement aux étudiants car les comportements des autres membres de la communauté universitaire sont tenus à des normes comparables par d'autres statuts, directives et contrats.

Il n'y a rien dans ce code qui puisse constituer une méthode ou une excuse pour supprimer la protestation pacifique, les débats civils, ou toute conduite licite aussi longtemps que cette conduite n'est pas interdite par le code.

3. Application du code

Ce code s'applique à la conduite non académique des étudiants. La conduite concernant les études des étudiants est régie par les politiques du Sénat de l'Université et est hors de la portée du code.

Ce code s'applique aux étudiants et aux groupes d'étudiants, et toutes les références aux « étudiants » comprennent les « étudiants » et les « groupes d'étudiants ». Les étudiants qui ont des invités sont responsables de leur conduite et l'Université s'attend à ce qu'ils découragent les comportements inappropriés. Pour les besoins de ce code, « un étudiant » signifie une personne qui est inscrite en tant qu'étudiante à l'Université York et donc tenue de respecter les politiques et règlements de l'Université.

Ce code s'applique (a) au comportement sur les lieux de l'Université⁹, et (b) à la conduite hors de l'Université mais qui a un lien réel et important avec celle-ci. On pourrait donner comme exemples des événements où les étudiants agissent en tant que délégués ou représentants de l'Université, des événements organisés hors campus par un groupe d'étudiants reconnu comme appartenant à l'Université, ou des événements organisés hors campus par un groupe d'étudiants non reconnu mais facilement identifiable avec l'Université ou toute partie de cette dernière.

À cela peut s'ajouter des normes communautaires exigées des personnes qui ont choisi d'habiter dans les résidences de l'Université. Un manquement aux règles de résidence est un manquement à ce code et sera traité de la même façon et sujet au même processus que les manquements aux règles sur le reste du campus.

L'Université se réserve le droit de décider si une question doit être examinée dans le cadre de ce code quelles que soient les actions des

7. Dans ce code, la « discipline progressive » signifie une approche progressive et proportionnelle aux sanctions.

8. Dans ce code, le « campus » inclut tous les campus de l'Université York, c'est-à-dire Keele, Glendon, et les Centres professionnels de York.

9. Dans ce code, les « lieux de l'Université » signifient les bâtiments, et/ou la terre en propriété et/ou le terrain occupé par l'Université.

organismes externes, telle que la police, et pourrait utiliser les renseignements fournis par ces organismes.

4. Norme de la conduite étudiante

On s'attend à ce que les étudiants se conduisent de façon à soutenir la recherche, l'enseignement et l'apprentissage et à promouvoir une atmosphère de courtoisie, de diversité, d'équité et de respect dans leurs relations les uns avec les autres. Ils doivent s'efforcer d'assurer la sécurité du campus, de soutenir la dignité des personnes et des groupes, et de faire respecter les libertés fondamentales.

Les comportements suivants sont interdits. La liste n'est pas complète mais donne quelques exemples de manquement aux normes de conduite. C'est délibérément que le code ne place pas les violations dans un ordre hiérarchique. L'Université prend au sérieux toutes les plaintes présentées dans le cadre des dispositions de ce code.

(a) Infractions à la loi fédérale, provinciale ou municipale telles que : entrer de force dans les locaux de l'Université; le vandalisme; l'intrusion; l'utilisation illicite de clés pour pénétrer dans les locaux du campus; la possession illicite d'armes à feu, d'explosifs, ou de dispositifs incendiaires; la possession, consommation ou le trafic de drogues illégales; fumer des substances légales en dehors des endroits désignés; la cruauté envers les animaux; le vol des biens universitaires ou privés y compris la propriété intellectuelle; la copie de documents sans autorisation; la possession de biens volés.

(b) Menaces de préjudices ou préjudices réels contre le bien-être physique ou mental d'une personne tels que : assaut; agression verbale et non verbale; violence physique; violence verbale; intimidation; agression sexuelle; harcèlement; poursuite criminelle; initiation¹⁰.

(c) Perturbation des activités universitaires ou interférences, telles que : causer un désordre important; proférer des menaces de bombes; créer des situations dangereuses; faire ou occasionner un bruit excessif; présenter une fausse identification; déclencher de fausses alertes d'incendie; bloquer les voies de sorties.

(d) Dommages à la propriété de l'Université ou de ses membres tels que : endommager ou dégrader la propriété de l'Université ou celle d'autres personnes, y compris les systèmes informatiques et la propriété intellectuelle; tenter d'altérer l'équipement d'extinction ou de prévention des incendies.

(e) Violations des politiques, procédures ou règlements de l'Université tels que : utilisation temporaire de la politique de l'Université concernant l'espace; Directives sur les aménagements informatiques et la technologie de l'information; Politique sur la vente, le service et l'utilisation des boissons alcooliques au campus; Règlements concernant le stationnement et les transports; l'utilisation illicite d'une identification pour obtenir des biens ou des services.

(f) Abus ou manque de respect pour les processus de ce code tels que : déposer une plainte sans fondement avec une intention nuisible, frivole ou vexatoire; ne pas obéir aux demandes raisonnables d'une personne autorisée par l'Université; ne pas assister aux réunions ou audiences relatives aux violations présumées de ce code; ne pas tenir compte des sanctions du code. De façon générale, les problèmes provoqués par l'alcool ou les drogues illégales ne constituent pas une défense contre les comportements interdits.

5. Procédure des plaintes

L'Université reconnaît que bien des disputes peuvent être résolues sans avoir recours aux dispositions de ce code. Dans la mesure du possible, et lorsque c'est approprié, on encourage les membres de la communauté universitaire à demander un simple changement de comportement plutôt que de se tourner vers la procédure de plainte suivante.

Au départ, toute plainte relevant de cette procédure sera adressée à un arbitre local appartenant au collège, à la faculté, la résidence ou l'unité administrative concernée. Pour les plaintes qui ne sont pas naturellement du ressort de ces secteurs, l'agent local sera un représentant du Bureau de la conduite étudiante. Les agents locaux d'audiences seront nommés par le vice-président aux affaires étudiantes.

La norme de preuve exigée pour déterminer s'il y a eu violation du code sera basée sur la « prépondérance des probabilités », c'est-à-dire que la personne décidant le cas doit trouver si c'est plus probable que le contraire qu'une allégation contestée soit admise comme un fait ou non.

Le plaignant a le droit d'assister à toutes les audiences où l'on présente les preuves qu'il a soumises. Il a aussi le droit de connaître les résultats de la procédure de plainte, à moins que l'agent local ou le tribunal universitaire ne trouve des raisons pour en décider autrement.

(a) Pour déposer une plainte

- i. Toute personne (le plaignant) peut déposer une plainte (la plainte) dans le cadre de ce code, concernant une violation par un étudiant de la norme de la conduite étudiante.
- ii. La plainte doit être présentée par écrit et comporter le nom du plaignant; les plaintes anonymes ne seront pas prises en considération.
- iii. La plainte doit être déposée dans les trois mois suivant la présumée violation du code à moins que l'arbitre local ou le tribunal universitaire, au cours du premier examen, considère qu'il est raisonnable de prolonger la limite de temps.
- iv. Une plainte doit être déposée auprès de l'arbitre local.
- v. Quand un arbitre local reçoit une plainte, il doit déterminer si celle-ci doit être rejetée ou si une enquête est justifiée. Si une enquête est justifiée, l'étudiant contre lequel la plainte a été faite (le répondant) recevra une copie du code afin d'être informé de ses droits et responsabilités. Le répondant recevra également une copie de la plainte avec le nom du plaignant. Les renseignements pour contacter le plaignant resteront confidentiels.

(b) Instruction d'une plainte

L'arbitre local va recueillir les faits concernant le cas en tenant autant de réunions que nécessaire.

On accordera au répondant une période de temps raisonnable pour examiner la plainte déposée contre lui et y répondre. Il sera prévenu à l'avance, et aura la possibilité de donner son avis sur les sanctions possibles.

Le plaignant et le répondant doivent tous les deux assister aux réunions et aux audiences tenues en fonction de ce code lorsque leur présence est requise. Le répondant ne doit pas user de représailles envers le plaignant.

Si, après enquête, l'arbitre local décide qu'il y a eu manquement au code, des sanctions pourront être imposées. L'arbitre local présentera sa décision par écrit en donnant les raisons sur lesquelles il s'est basé, dans les 10 jours de la date à laquelle le répondant a été prévenu oralement de cette décision.

Le plaignant et le répondant recevront par écrit la décision de l'arbitre local, décision qui sera également envoyée au Bureau de la conduite étudiante.

Si, à tout moment après réception d'une plainte, l'arbitre local est d'avis que la nature de la plainte est telle qu'elle ne peut être résolue par son intermédiaire, il référera cette plainte au tribunal universitaire pour une audience.

(c) Demande d'audience au tribunal universitaire à la suite de la décision d'un arbitre local

- i. À la suite de la décision d'un arbitre local, un répondant peut demander une audience devant le tribunal universitaire pour les raisons suivantes :
 - 1) l'arbitre local n'avait pas l'autorité, dans le cadre de ce code, de prendre la décision qu'il a prise ou d'imposer des sanctions;
 - 2) l'arbitre local a fait une erreur de procédure fondamentale au détriment du répondant;
 - 3) le répondant va présenter de nouvelles preuves qui, raisonnablement, ne pouvaient pas être présentées plus tôt; ou

10. Dans ce code, « initiation » signifie un acte qui met en danger la santé et/ou la sécurité d'un étudiant, et/ou sa dignité, et qui est une condition d'appartenance.

- 4) le répondant a droit à un redressement pour des motifs de compassion qui n'ont pas été considérés par l'arbitre local.

La demande doit inclure le détail des raisons invoquées et être présentée par écrit au tribunal universitaire dans les 10 jours après la date d'issue de la décision écrite de l'arbitre local.

- ii. La demande d'audience doit être obligatoirement présentée par écrit, et sera accordée ou refusée par un seul membre du tribunal universitaire, les raisons en étant données par écrit.
- iii. Toutes les sanctions ordonnées par l'arbitre local seront suspendues en attendant la décision du tribunal universitaire relative à la demande d'audience. Dans les cas mettant en jeu des questions de sécurité de la personne ou de la propriété, l'arbitre local peut décider que les sanctions imposées resteront en effet à partir du moment où la décision a été prise jusqu'à la fin de la procédure du tribunal universitaire.
- iv. Si la demande est refusée par le tribunal universitaire, les sanctions deviendront exécutoires dès la date de cette décision.

6. Le Tribunal universitaire

(a) Composition du tribunal universitaire

Le Tribunal est composé d'étudiants, de membres du corps professoral et du personnel, bénévoles nommés par le vice-président aux affaires étudiantes pour siéger pendant un terme de deux ans, renouvelable une fois, sauf s'il y a décision de résiliation à une date antérieure par le vice-président aux affaires étudiantes.

Chaque jury d'audience du tribunal comprend trois personnes, incluant un étudiant. Ces personnes éliront un président pour la procédure.

(b) Procédure d'audiences du tribunal universitaire

Les audiences devant le tribunal universitaire donnent l'occasion d'aborder objectivement les faits présentés. Elles se tiennent en privé, c'est-à-dire que l'on permet seulement la présence des personnes qui ont un rôle ou un intérêt direct dans l'audience, ou les personnes qui sont là comme témoins. Le président a la discrétion d'admettre d'autres personnes pour une formation ou toute autre considération raisonnable.

Le jury d'audiences du tribunal n'est pas lié par une procédure légale stricte, mais pour s'assurer qu'il respecte des procédures aussi justes que possible dans le contexte des circonstances et traditions universitaires, il doit respecter les lignes directrices suivantes.

- i. Le Bureau de la conduite étudiante présente la plainte et toutes les pièces justificatives et les témoins, y compris le plaignant, au jury d'audiences du tribunal.
- ii. Le répondant a la possibilité de poser des questions à chacun des témoins. Les membres du tribunal peuvent aussi poser des questions à la personne qui présente et aux témoins.
- iii. Après que le Bureau de la conduite étudiante aura déposé la plainte, le répondant aura la possibilité de présenter sa réponse avec documents et témoins à l'appui.
- iv. Le Bureau de la conduite étudiante et le jury d'audiences du tribunal auront l'occasion de poser des questions au répondant et à tous les témoins.
- v. Le Bureau de la conduite étudiante et le répondant donnent alors leur propre interprétation de l'évidence présentée.
- vi. Le Bureau de la conduite étudiante et le répondant pourront suggérer quelles sanctions, le cas échéant, ils trouvent appropriées au cas devant le tribunal.
- vii. Dans la mesure du possible, les décisions du tribunal seront données verbalement immédiatement après l'audience. La décision sera alors mise par écrit pas plus de 14 jours après la fin de l'audience et envoyée au répondant et au plaignant par la poste, ou par courriel, et déposée au Bureau de la conduite étudiante.

(c) Les droits des étudiants devant un jury d'audiences

Les répondants ont les droits suivants :

- i. Le droit d'amener un avocat ou un conseiller qui peut être toute personne choisie par le répondant pour l'aider à présenter son

cas. Dans la mesure du possible, le Bureau de la conduite étudiante devrait recevoir le nom de cet avocat ou conseiller au moins deux jours avant l'audience.

- ii. Le droit de voir toutes les preuves que le Bureau de la conduite étudiante va présenter et de connaître quelles sanctions, s'il y en a, le Bureau va proposer.
- iii. Le droit de contester l'admissibilité de tout membre du jury sur la base d'une crainte raisonnable de partialité contre le répondant. Le jury déterminera si cette crainte est justifiée. Sa décision sera définitive. S'il trouve qu'il y a crainte raisonnable de partialité, il demandera au Bureau de la conduite étudiante d'organiser une nouvelle audience à une autre date avec un nouveau jury.
- iv. Le droit que son cas soit entendu à temps, c'est-à-dire que sauf circonstances exceptionnelles, comme les vacances universitaires par exemple, le répondant aura droit à une audience dans les 20 jours ouvrables¹¹ après que le tribunal universitaire a accepté d'instruire la plainte.
- v. Le droit à un préavis de convocation à l'audience d'au moins sept jours, à moins de circonstances particulières déterminées par le Bureau de la conduite étudiante, en quel cas l'affaire peut être entendue avant que la période de sept jours ne soit écoulée.
- vi. Le droit à un avis de convocation : cet avis sera remis en main propre, ou envoyé par courriel, par la poste ou Xpresspost. C'est la responsabilité de l'étudiant de s'assurer que l'Université a tous les renseignements nécessaires pour le contacter. Si un étudiant ne reçoit aucun avis dans le cadre de ce code parce qu'il n'a pas rempli cette exigence, cet avis sera considéré comme étant valide et applicable.
- vii. Le droit à une audience privée, telle qu'expliquée dans la section 6 (b).

7. Appels des décisions du tribunal universitaire

(a) Le répondant ou l'Université peuvent faire appel d'une décision du tribunal universitaire uniquement pour les raisons suivantes :

- i. le tribunal universitaire n'avait pas le pouvoir dans le cadre de ce code d'arriver à la décision ou d'imposer les sanctions en cause;
- ii. le jury d'audiences du tribunal universitaire a commis une erreur de procédure fondamentale qui a gravement porté préjudice au répondant;
- iii. le répondant a de nouvelles preuves à présenter qui ne pouvaient raisonnablement pas être présentées plus tôt; ou
- iv. le répondant a droit à un redressement pour des raisons de compassion qui n'ont pas été prises en considération par le jury.

(c) Les sanctions non monétaires s'appliquent en attendant l'issue de tout appel. Les sanctions monétaires sont automatiquement interrompues en attendant l'issue de l'appel. Aucune compensation ne sera accordée si une sanction non monétaire est annulée en appel. Le répondant peut demander au jury d'appel de surseoir à l'exécution des sanctions en attendant l'issue de l'appel. Le jury d'appel doit organiser le plus rapidement possible une audience pour traiter de la demande de sursis d'exécution des sanctions. Si une réponse plus immédiate est exigée, il est possible d'adresser une demande au directeur de la conduite étudiante.

11. Dans ce code, « jours ouvrables » signifie de lundi à vendredi, sauf pendant les vacances stipulées dans l'annuaire de l'Université ou les fermetures imprévues dues au climat, aux urgences, ou aux arrêts de travail.

(d) Le jury d'appel comprendra trois membres du tribunal universitaire qui ne seront pas les mêmes que ceux qui ont entendu la cause en première instance.

(e) Le jury d'appel doit instruire l'appel dans les 20 jours ouvrables, sauf en cas de circonstances exceptionnelles, et informer le répondant et le Bureau de la conduite étudiante, de la date et du lieu de l'audience d'appel.

(f) Le jury d'appel rendra sa décision par écrit pas plus tard que 14 jours après la fin de l'audience d'appel, décision qui peut :

- i. faire droits à l'appel;
- ii. confirmer ou modifier la décision du tribunal;
- iii. confirmer, réduire ou aggraver les sanctions qui ont fait l'objet de l'appel; ou
- iv. demander que le tribunal préside une nouvelle audience ou réexamine certains aspects pertinents de sa décision.

(g) La décision écrite du jury d'appel doit être transmise au répondant et au plaignant par la poste, Xpresspost, ou courriel, et conservée au Bureau de la conduite étudiante.

(h) La décision du jury d'appel est définitive et exécutoire.

(i) Les répondants ont les droits suivants devant le jury d'appel:

- i. Le droit d'amener un avocat ou un conseiller qui peut être toute personne choisie par le répondant pour l'aider à présenter son cas. Dans la mesure du possible, le Bureau de la conduite étudiante devrait recevoir le nom de cet avocat ou conseiller au moins deux jours avant l'audience.
- ii. Le droit de contester l'admissibilité de tout membre du jury sur la base d'une crainte raisonnable de partialité contre le répondant. Le jury déterminera si cette crainte est justifiée. Sa décision sera définitive. S'il trouve qu'il y a crainte raisonnable de partialité, il demandera au Bureau de la conduite étudiante d'organiser une nouvelle audience à une autre date avec un nouveau jury.
- iii. Le droit que l'appel soit entendu à temps.
- iv. Le droit à une audience privée telle qu'expliquée dans la section 6 (b).

8. Procès-verbal

Le procès-verbal des décisions définitives prises dans le cadre de ce code restera dans les dossiers du Bureau de la conduite étudiante et de la résolution de conflits.

9. Sanctions

Les sanctions suivantes peuvent être imposées pour manquement au code. Plus d'une sanction peut être imposée simultanément pour une seule violation. En imposant une sanction, on pourra prendre en considération les infractions antérieures.

(a) Sanctions qui peuvent être imposées par les agents locaux d'audiences

Les sanctions suivantes peuvent être imposées par les agents locaux d'audiences :

- i. réprimande,
- ii. excuses et/ou expression de regrets auprès du plaignant,
- iii. excuses et/ou expression de regrets auprès d'une plus grande communauté, p. ex. une équipe ou des camarades de classe,
- iv. service communautaire, réflexion écrite, ou recherche sur un sujet précis,
- v. promesse de bon comportement qui peut être garantie par une caution ne dépassant pas 500$,
- vi. restrictions du comportement,
- vii. amendes ne dépassant pas 250$,
- viii. restitution financière pour des dommages ne dépassant pas 500$,

- ix. retrait des services non essentiels¹²,
- x. changement de logement universitaire.

(b) Sanctions supplémentaires qui peuvent être imposées par le tribunal universitaire

En plus des sanctions énumérées en 8(a) ci-dessus, le Tribunal universitaire peut imposer les sanctions suivantes :

- i. amendes ne dépassant pas 1000$,
- ii. restitution,
- iii. restrictions sur le campus,
- iv. renvoi d'une résidence universitaire,
- v. note dans le dossier de l'étudiant,
- vi. suspension,
- vii. expulsion.

10. Mesure de suspension d'urgence

Si le directeur du Bureau de la conduite étudiante estime que la présence d'un étudiant à l'Université pose un risque de sécurité, il peut imposer une suspension immédiate de 10 jours au plus. L'étudiant sera averti de cette suspension d'urgence.

Si, après enquête, on décide que l'étudiant continue à poser un risque de sécurité, le directeur du Bureau de la conduite étudiante peut, en accord avec le vice-président aux affaires étudiantes, suspendre un étudiant pour plus de 10 jours jusqu'à un maximum de 60 jours. Une audience du tribunal universitaire doit être tenue dans les 60 jours.

11. Révision du code

Ce code fera l'objet d'une révision après une année, puis tous les deux ans.

Politique du Sénat sur l'intégrité universitaire

1. Politique du Sénat sur l'intégrité universitaire

La politique sur l'intégrité universitaire réaffirme et précise l'obligation qu'ont les membres de l'Université de maintenir les normes les plus strictes d'intégrité universitaire. Une notion claire et nette de ce que sont l'intégrité et la responsabilité universitaires est le fondement d'un enseignement de qualité. Cette politique stipule la responsabilité qui incombe aux professeurs de favoriser des normes acceptables d'intégrité universitaire et aux étudiants de connaître et de respecter ces normes.

Pour se conformer aux normes d'intégrité universitaire, tous doivent éviter de s'arroger les idées les écrits ou la propriété intellectuelle d'autrui soit en s'en attribuant la paternité, soit en usurpant l'identité de l'auteur. Ils doivent aussi s'abstenir de tricher (tenter d'obtenir un avantage illicite lors d'une évaluation universitaire), de modifier, supprimer ou inventer les données et les résultats de recherche ainsi que les dossiers scolaires, les demandes et documents.

Toute atteinte présumée à l'intégrité fera l'objet d'une enquête et des accusations seront portées s'il existe des motifs raisonnables et probables. Un étudiant accusé d'atteinte à l'intégrité universitaire sera présumé innocent jusqu'à ce que le comité estime avoir obtenu des preuves incontestables que l'étudiant a enfreint les normes d'intégrité de l'Université. Dans un tel cas, l'étudiant sera passible des sanctions décrites dans le guide qui accompagne cette politique. Dans certains cas, le règlement universitaire touchant les questions non universitaires peut prévaloir. L'ignorance de la politique du Sénat sur l'intégrité universitaire ne constitue pas une défense à l'accusation. Certaines infractions universitaires constituent aussi des infractions au Code criminel du Canada et il est possible qu'un étudiant accusé d'une infraction universitaire doive aussi faire face à des accusations criminelles. Les étudiants de York qui sont inculpés pour des infractions commises dans d'autres établissements peuvent également faire face à des accusations.

12. Dans ce code, les « services non essentiels » signifie les services qui, s'ils sont retirés, peuvent réduire la participation complète de l'étudiant à la vie du campus, mais qui ne lui rendent pas impossible de terminer ses études universitaires.

Vous pouvez vous renseigner sur les directives et procédures associées à la présente politique sur le site Web du Secrétariat de l'Université (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies>).

Pétitions et révision des notes

Directives pour l'examen des pétitions et appels par les comités de la faculté

Ces directives doivent sous-tendre les actions et les décisions des comités de la faculté et celles du personnel administratif concernant les pétitions et appels des étudiants. Elles ne sont pas là pour régir les décisions de la faculté en ces matières; la juridiction relative à la dispense des règlements universitaires, l'extension des dates limites et la révision d'un travail est clairement du ressort des facultés en tout premier lieu. Ces directives servent à conseiller les parties en cause dans leur travail afin de les aider à en arriver à des décisions équitables et uniformes dans toute l'Université. Il est clair que la nature (performance, professionnelle, supérieure) et la taille des diverses facultés rendent hautement improbable d'avoir des procédures et des démarches uniformes. Il y a cependant des domaines où l'on peut obtenir une plus grande cohérence dans les démarches des différentes facultés et c'est à cette fin que ces directives sont proposées.

1. Structure

Les facultés peuvent, et on les y encourage, avoir une structure en deux volets pour l'examen des pétitions : a) un comité des pétitions/vice-doyen et b) un processus administratif approuvé.

a) Comité des pétitions/vice-doyen : Comme toutes les facultés ont accepté d'examiner les demandes pour exception aux règlements universitaires, il y aura un comité ou un cadre supérieur de l'administration qui sera responsable d'examiner les pétitions et de prendre une décision sur la base des raisons et des documents justificatifs fournis par l'étudiant.

b) Pétitions approuvées par l'administration : Pour aider à contrebalancer le grand nombre de cas, les pétitions peuvent être soumises pour approbation par le préposé aux pétitions (ou son équivalent) et confirmées par le président du comité des pétitions (ou son désigné)¹. En accord avec les règles générales pour accorder une pétition (décrites ci-dessous), le préposé aux pétitions identifiera les cas qui entrent clairement dans ces règles et les présentera comme telles au président pour confirmation. Tous les cas qui ne sont pas clairs et qui exigent de la discrétion seront envoyés pour décision au comité des pétitions.

Aucune pétition ne sera refusée par l'administration sur la base de ses mérites. La pétition des étudiants qui ne fournissent pas la documentation nécessaire requise par la faculté dans un délai spécifique ne sera pas examinée, et le préposé aux pétitions en informera l'étudiant par écrit.

2. Principes

a) Procédures : Chaque faculté devra avoir des règles de procédure écrites mises largement à la disposition des étudiants (p. ex., dans l'annuaire, sur le site de l'Université, au Bureau du registraire). Les procédures de la faculté relatives aux pétitions et appels doivent être compatibles avec les directives du Sénat.

b) Dates limites : La politique approuvée par le Sénat sur la date limite pour soumettre une pétition pour abandon tardif stipule que « Normalement, les pétitions pour abandon tardif d'un cours seront seulement examinées si elles sont soumises dans les 30 jours après la dernière journée des classes (du cours en question). Ces pétitions peuvent être examinées pendant une période d'une année au plus si elles sont basées sur des circonstances spéciales. » La politique du Sénat sur la date limite pour les demandes de cote différée est que « Normalement, les demandes de cote différée doivent être communiquées dans la semaine qui suit un examen manqué ou le dernier jour pour soumettre le travail du cours. » La période où l'Université est officiellement fermée pour les vacances de décembre ou les jours fériés pendant l'année ne compte pas dans la détermination des dates limites.

c) Représentation : Les appelants ont le droit d'avoir un représentant qui aide à préparer les soumissions écrites et, s'ils ont le droit d'apparaître devant un comité, peut les représenter à la séance.

d) Juridiction : Les étudiants peuvent pétitionner tous les sujets à leur faculté d'origine à l'exception des révisions de notes qui sont examinées par le département/la faculté offrant le cours. Autrement, les facultés examineront les demandes d'exception à tous les règlements universitaires.

e) Partialité : Tout membre d'un comité de pétitions ou d'appel ou toute personne examinant une pétition qui manque de neutralité sur la question à décider doit se retirer du cas. Une apparence de partialité ou une crainte de partialité est aussi suffisante pour disqualifier une telle personne.

f) Apparences : Les étudiants et/ou leurs représentants ne peuvent apparaître devant un comité qu'à la discrétion ou sur invitation du comité.

g) Anonymat : Les demandes d'anonymat par les étudiants dans le processus de pétition doivent être respectées. Cependant, les étudiants ayant la possibilité d'apparaître devant un comité devront décider s'ils désirent renoncer à l'anonymat. Dans ce processus, la confidentialité sera toujours maintenue.

h) Décisions : Pour aider à remplir les exigences de la justice naturelle et de l'équité dans les processus juridictionnels, les comités de pétitions et appels et les administrateurs qui rendent une décision sur les pétitions doivent donner par écrit les raisons de leur décision. Sans ces raisons, la partie en cause peut se demander pourquoi une décision négative a été prise et ne pas être capable de décider de faire appel ou non. De la même façon, un comité suivant ou une cour de révision peut avoir de la difficulté à comprendre la justification d'une décision rendue sans en donner les raisons et tirer des inférences négatives à l'encontre du comité initial pour les avoir omises.

i) Appels : La voie d'appel pour les étudiants devra être incluse dans la décision écrite.

Principes touchant à la révision des notes

1. Les étudiants peuvent, s'ils ont des motifs suffisants sur le plan scolaire, demander la révision d'une dernière note dans un cours (ce qui peut signifier de revoir des parties spécifiques du travail accompli). Les motifs autres que scolaires ne sont pas valables pour la révision des notes; dans ces cas-là, on conseille aux étudiants de présenter leur pétition à leur faculté d'origine. Normalement, on s'attend à ce que les étudiants contactent en premier le professeur du cours pour discuter de la note reçue et demander que le travail effectué soit revu. Le travail effectué peut inclure du travail écrit, graphique, numérisé, sous forme de maquette, d'enregistrement vidéo ou audio, but pas de travail oral.

Les étudiants doivent être conscients qu'une demande de révision de note peut avoir comme résultat que la note originale soit augmentée, diminuée ou confirmée.

2. Dans le cas où les étudiants ne sont toujours pas satisfaits de leur dernière note OU si le chargé de cours n'est pas disponible pour revoir le travail, ils peuvent soumettre, par écrit, une demande officielle de révision de note au département ou à l'unité où le cours est offert*. La date limite approuvée par le Sénat pour soumettre une demande de révision des notes est dans les trois semaines qui suivent la diffusion des derniers relevés de notes de chaque trimestre. Une certaine discrétion est allouée pour les retards mineurs à respecter la date limite provoqués par la lenteur du système postal ou des circonstances extraordinaires.

* Les exceptions sont les suivantes :

- pour Osgoode, Schulich, et la Faculté d'éducation les demandes de révision sont soumises au bureau du vice-doyen approprié.

3. Si les conditions sont satisfaites sur le plan des motifs scolaires, le comité du département en question, le directeur du département, le vice-doyen ou le directeur du programme de troisième cycle ou de premier cycle aura la responsabilité de s'assurer que le travail est révisé par un membre approprié du corps professoral, que l'anonymat de l'étudiant et celui du réviseur est respecté, et que le résultat de la révision (y compris les commentaires du réviseur) et la voie d'appel soient communiqués à l'étudiant et au chargé de cours. Le réviseur devra obtenir la nature du travail demandé et la justification de la note originale. On s'attend à ce que tous les efforts soient faits pour rendre la décision dans les 30 jours après réception du travail par le réviseur.

4. Les participants peuvent faire appel d'une décision négative sur une demande de révision des notes, ou le résultat de la révision elle-même à un comité d'appel au niveau de la faculté où le cours est offert (ou, dans le cas de la Faculté des études supérieures, au doyen) seulement sur la base d'un vice de procédure. Les vices de procédure sont définis comme tels :

- actions prises ou non par un département, une faculté, le programme d'études supérieures, ses administrateurs, comités, ou ses membres à l'égard de la disposition du cas qui viole ou annule un ou tous les aspects suivants :
 - a) les procédures normales et écrites de l'Université, de la faculté, du programme d'études supérieures ou du département concerné;
 - b) l'uniformité dans le traitement des cas largement semblables au cas en appel de la part de la faculté, du programme d'études supérieures ou du département;
 - c) les principes d'équité, de justice naturelle ou d'impartialité, qu'un manquement ait eu lieu ou non en accord avec les procédures écrites ou habituelles. Les appels basés sur l'allégation de ces derniers vices de procédure devraient alléguer et démontrer les préjugés évidents ou autre inconduite de la part des administrateurs ou agents de l'Université et pour lesquels des mesures de réparation n'ont pas été prises par une autorité ayant examiné le cas avant l'appel.

Les appels doivent être soumis dans les 21 jours suivant l'annonce de la décision. Les comités de la faculté peuvent renoncer à cette date limite quand l'appelant établit que des circonstances spéciales existent. Aucun membre de comité de la faculté ne peut considérer un appel s'il a déjà examiné la question précédemment. À la discrétion du comité, l'étudiant et/ou le membre de la faculté peut être invité à rencontrer le comité pour présenter son cas oralement. La décision du comité sera prise à huis clos et on s'attend à ce que les parties soient informées de la décision par écrit dans les 30 jours suivant le dépôt de l'appel.

Entente sur la cote différée

L'Entente sur la cote différée est un processus par lequel les étudiants qui ne sont pas capables d'écrire leur dernier examen à la date fixée ou de soumettre le travail du trimestre avant la date limite fixée par la faculté pour donner les dernières notes parviennent à un accord avec le chargé de cours pour obtenir la cote différée dans le cours et fixer une date pour l'examen ou la soumission du travail en suspens. C'est la responsabilité de l'étudiant, utilisant le formulaire prévu à cet effet, de faire le nécessaire auprès du chargé de cours pour terminer le cours et faire parvenir le formulaire au bureau de l'unité ou du département approprié à la date limite mentionnée sur le formulaire. Les chargés de cours peuvent refuser d'examiner les demandes de cote différée; dans ce cas, les étudiants doivent soumettre, dans la date limite établie, une pétition auprès du comité de la faculté approprié pour examen.

Les responsabilités des étudiants dans les processus de pétition et d'appel

Par l'intermédiaire de ses corps législatifs, l'Université a établi des règlements, procédures et dates limites auxquels les étudiants doivent adhérer. Les étudiants doivent surveiller leurs progrès dans les cours, en tenant compte de leurs circonstances personnelles et scolaires, et faire les changements nécessaires pour remettre le travail et respecter les dates limites. L'Université reconnaît cependant que des circonstances particulières peuvent justifier une dispense aux règlements, exigences, dates limites sur une base individuelle. Les demandes pour dispenser d'un règlement, d'une exigence ou d'une date limite sont initiées par une pétition.

Les étudiants optant pour lancer une pétition sont assurés que la confidentialité est une caractéristique de ce processus et que les renseignements fournis pour appuyer leur pétition ou appel ne seront utilisés pour aucun autre motif.

Alors que c'est la responsabilité de l'Université de fournir aux étudiants les renseignements, l'orientation et les conseils nécessaires, il est de la responsabilité des étudiants de :

- connaître et respecter tous les règlements, exigences et dates limites publiées de la faculté ou du programme;
- se familiariser avec les procédures écrites de pétition ou d'appel de leur faculté et faire leur demande en temps voulu;
- fournir toute la documentation nécessaire pour appuyer leur pétition ou leur appel et le faire en temps voulu;
- indiquer et documenter toutes les circonstances pertinentes lorsqu'ils soumettent leur pétition en premier lieu.

Les responsabilités de l'Université dans les processus de pétition et d'appel

Juste comme les étudiants soumettant des pétitions ou appels ont la responsabilité de satisfaire aux exigences du processus, l'Université a la responsabilité de l'administrer.

Personnel non enseignant :

Il est de la responsabilité des membres du personnel non enseignant de :

- conseiller et guider les étudiants en ce qui concerne les options, les dates limites, la documentation nécessaire et les voies d'appel par le moyen d'une annonce écrite, du site Web de l'Université, des rendez-vous personnels ou de la communication par téléphone;
- diriger les étudiants vers le bureau approprié pour des renseignements sur les pétitions et appels;
- s'occuper des pétitions et appels de façon efficace pour éviter les retards injustifiés;
- maintenir le droit des étudiants à la confidentialité.

Membres du corps enseignant :

Il est de la responsabilité du corps enseignant de :

- répondre aux demandes de renseignements des étudiants et du personnel non-enseignant en temps voulu;
- aider à diriger les étudiants vers le bureau approprié pour des renseignements sur les pétitions et appels;
- maintenir le droit des étudiants à la confidentialité.

Comités et préposés aux pétitions et appels :

Il est de la responsabilité des comités et préposés aux pétitions et appels de :

- s'assurer que les parties reçoivent un traitement équitable, uniforme et respectueux de l'éthique;
- accorder une attention approfondie et sérieuse à toutes les demandes;
- rendre les décisions seulement après un examen consciencieux;
- fournir aux parties les raisons des décisions prises;
- maintenir le droit des étudiants à la confidentialité.

Adaptations religieuses / Directive du Sénat sur le Jour du souvenir pour les femmes

La politique du sénat régissant les dates de session et les horaires d'examens inclut un énoncé en deux parties sur l'observation des pratiques religieuses :

Tous les efforts possibles seront déployés afin d'éviter de programmer des examens en salle de classe ou des examens officiels les jours de fêtes religieuses spéciales tout au long de l'année. Un horaire des dates de fêtes religieuses de diverses religions sera compilé annuellement et largement distribué. On informera les étudiants des procédures à suivre pour demander et arranger des dispositions.

Le sénat a approuvé, en mai 1998, une directive pour la commémoration du Jour du souvenir pour les femmes qui encourage la préparation et le financement d'activités reliées au Jour du souvenir pour les femmes. La directive du Sénat encourage également les professeurs à marquer dans leurs cours le Jour du souvenir pour les femmes en présentant à leurs étudiants certaines questions auxquelles font face les femmes et notamment les questions de violence faites aux femmes. L'administration est invitée à soutenir l'organisation d'ateliers destinés à aider les professeurs à se préparer pour cette journée.

D'autres renseignements sur cette directive sont publiés dans les annuaires de cours. Les diverses activités organisées dans le cadre de cette Journée du souvenir pour les femmes seront annoncées à l'avance dans l'Université.

Règlement du Sénat concernant les conséquences pour les études des perturbations ou interruptions des activités de l'Université par des conflits de travail ou par d'autres causes

Le Sénat de l'Université a adopté des règlements qui s'appliquent dans le cas où les activités universitaires seraient sérieusement perturbées ou arrêtées à la suite de grèves, lock-out, manifestations, désastres naturels ou d'autres causes. Ces règlements comprennent trois grands principes, présentés ci-dessous. Pour tout renseignement supplémentaire, s'adresser au Secrétariat de l'Université (<http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/policies/>).

A. Intégrité des études

Dans tous les cas de perturbations, il incombe au Sénat de maintenir l'intégrité de tous les programmes d'études. Il convient de ne pas abaisser ni modifier les normes de travail normalement appliquées aux étudiants et de réduire aussi peu que possible le soutien pédagogique qui leur est normalement offert.

B. Équité envers les étudiants

Les étudiants qui ne participent pas aux activités d'études parce que (a) ils sont dans l'impossibilité de le faire en raison de toute perturbation des cours ou parce que (b) ils choisissent de ne pas y participer en raison d'une grève ou d'un lock-out sur le campus, ne peuvent pas être pénalisés. Ils devront pouvoir avoir accès, dans la mesure du possible, aux matières étudiées en leur absence, bénéficier d'un délai suffisant pour la remise d'un travail et de toute autre mesure jugée raisonnable par le Sénat et qui respecte les principes fondamentaux de l'intégrité des études. Ces mesures prises en raison des perturbations des activités d'études ne doivent pas abaisser les normes universitaires et les étudiants ne sont pas pour autant dispensés de l'obligation d'acquiescer les connaissances prévues. Les mesures spéciales prévues par ce règlement ne permettent pas de garantir aux étudiants le même type d'apprentissage qu'ils auraient reçu s'il n'y avait pas eu de perturbation des études.

C. Accès aux renseignements

Tous les membres de l'Université, étudiants, membres du personnel et professeurs ont le droit d'être informés rapidement des changements apportés aux exigences et dates limites, du report des cours et autres activités, qui entreront en vigueur à la fin des perturbations.

Bachelor of Arts Degree

The Faculty of Arts offers programs of study leading to the Honours BA degree (120 credits) and the BA degree (90 credits). Students may proceed toward a degree at their own pace, and select courses from a wide variety of areas within the Faculty of Arts as well as from the offerings of other Faculties.

The Faculty of Arts also offers programs of study leading to the Honours International BA (iBA) degree (120 credits). The Honours iBA degree provides international experience and a global perspective through courses in language study, internationally-oriented courses, and study abroad.

The curriculum is designed to provide an education in the liberal arts; to foster students' abilities to read, write, speak and think critically; and to prepare students for post-graduate studies. To these ends, the curriculum includes both a general education component and more specialized fields of concentration, both disciplinary and interdisciplinary.

Fields of Concentration

The liberal arts have traditionally been organized into clearly defined disciplines, each with its own specialized subject matter and techniques, and each taught by a single department. The Faculty of Arts has developed undergraduate programs in a wide range of these disciplines, most of which can later be pursued in York's Faculty of Graduate Studies. The Faculty also recognizes the need for cooperation and cross-fertilization among different subjects and methods, and accordingly offers a number of programs in interdisciplinary studies, which draw on the resources of several departments. Interdisciplinary programs are available in a range of degree structures, some offering independent degrees, others linked to major programs in disciplines. For details on disciplinary and interdisciplinary programs, consult the Programs of Study section.

Academic Advising and Student Responsibility

The information contained in this calendar and other publications is designed to be self-explanatory. The Faculty recognizes, however, there may be specific questions about regulations which are not answered here. Those questions should be addressed to one of the following sources of information listed below.

Student Client Services (the Registrar's Office)

The office which administers most of the academic regulations contained in the Faculty of Arts section of this calendar is the Registrar's Office, 416-872-YORK (9675), <http://www.registrar.yorku.ca>. This office provides a wide range of administrative services to students, staff and faculty members. Among its functions are:

- performing general registrarial functions relating to enrolment and record keeping;
- applying the Faculty's rules on academic standing, including eligibility to graduate;
- reporting final grades to students; producing official University transcripts;
- advising students about petitions and receiving petitions for exemptions from academic regulations.

Advising

The Faculty of Arts considers academic advising an important responsibility. The term academic advising covers a number of complementary functions related to assisting students:

- select majors and courses;
- ascertain whether they are meeting the Faculty's academic regulations;
- plan for their academic future both before and after graduation;
- and generally make the most of their talents and interests.

These functions may vary in their significance to students at different times of the academic year and at different points in a student's academic career. Other kinds of advising and counselling services are offered by offices such as the Career Centre, the Counselling and Development Centre, and the Centre for Student Community and Leadership Development.

Advising students is a shared responsibility of the departments, divisions and programs of the Faculty, the Faculty-affiliated colleges, and the Student Academic Centre. Students should contact these offices throughout the year for advice and information related to their academic career including academic performance, degree programs and requirements.

Student Responsibilities

Every effort is made to ensure that students in the Faculty of Arts have access to sound information and individual advice and guidance. Within this context, and within the framework of Faculty and program regulations, students are responsible for making their own choices regarding courses and programs. Students should take special care to:

- ensure the courses they choose meet all requirements for graduation;
- ensure the courses they choose meet prerequisites and are not course credit exclusions of other courses already taken;
- ensure the times of the courses they choose do not conflict;
- ensure the accuracy of their registration records, including all changes;
- note and observe deadlines and procedures, especially deadlines for adding and dropping courses;
- ensure full documentation is provided in support of petitions and other requests for special consideration;
- keep themselves informed about their academic progress, including their performance in individual courses. It is incumbent on faculty members to make available to their students assessments of their work and, if requested, to discuss students' progress with them. By the first week of classes in the second term, in each six- and nine-credit course, all first year students must receive back at least one piece of letter-graded work. Instructors in six- and nine-credit courses are required to supply, on request and on reasonable notice, a mid-year letter grade to any first-year student before the end of January, based on the whole of the first term gradable work.

Policy on Personal Relationships Between Instructors and Students

It is the policy of York University to endeavour to create and maintain a learning environment characterized by equitable conditions for all students. In order to further that goal and to ensure the continuing integrity of academic standards, it is expected that instructors who have a close personal relationship with a student who desires to enrol in their course will, in consultation with their Chair and/or dean (or designate), make appropriate alternative arrangements for the evaluation of that student. If no appropriate alternative arrangements for evaluation can be agreed upon, the student may not enrol in the course.

Without limiting the generality of the relationships in question, these include the following: (a) where the instructor is the parent (or child) of the student; (b) where the instructor is the spouse or spousal equivalent of the student. Should a relationship such as the one described in (b) arise during the course and before completion of evaluation of the student, the instructor shall consult with the Chair and/or dean (or designate) as to an appropriate evaluation procedure.

It is incumbent upon the instructor to exercise professional responsibility and to declare a potential or apparent conflict of interest where it exists. If the instructor fails to do so, the Chair and/or dean (or designate) shall make the appropriate alternative arrangements for the evaluation of the student.

Students Pursuing a Bachelor of Arts (BA) Degree in the Faculty of Arts

Candidates for a First Degree

Most students in the Faculty are studying for their first undergraduate degree, an Honours bachelor of arts (BA) degree or a bachelor of arts (BA) degree.

Candidates for Reclassifying a BA Degree as an Honours BA Degree

Students who have graduated with a BA degree from the Faculty of Arts and have maintained the minimum Honours standing in 90 credits, may take additional courses in order to obtain an Honours BA degree in the same subject. The same subject may be combined with a second major or minor. If they are successful, their BA degree is reclassified as an Honours BA degree. Applications may be obtained from Student Client Services or from the Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Candidates for Second and Subsequent Degrees

Students who hold a first bachelor of arts (BA) degree from an accredited institution, and who are admissible according to Faculty and University policies, may pursue a second (or subsequent) degree program in the Faculty of Arts.

Eligibility for admission and standing will be assessed according to performance in the first degree. Students will be assessed as eligible for an Honours BA if they have graduated with Honours standing in their first degree. Students who are eligible for an Honours BA program will be enrolled in Honours, but may elect to graduate with a BA degree. Students admitted to an Honours BA or BA program will be granted transfer credit in accordance with the University's residence/in-Faculty requirement. Under certain circumstances, students admitted to a BA degree program may qualify to proceed in an Honours BA, however, the transfer credit granted upon admission will not be amended.

All second (and subsequent) degree candidates must meet the residence/in-Faculty requirements for their program, and must satisfy all upper-level requirements and requirements in the major/minor subject(s). Grade point averages are calculated for students in second (or subsequent) degree programs only on the courses taken for that degree, and not on courses taken to satisfy requirements for the first degree.

For further details, students should consult the Faculty of Arts Student Academic Centre or the Admissions Office, <http://www.yorku.ca/web/futurestudents/>.

Students Not Pursuing a Bachelor of Arts (BA) Degree in the Faculty of Arts

Visiting Students

Academic Standing Requirements for Visiting Students

Individuals who wish to enrol in undergraduate credit courses, but who do not intend to complete a degree or a certificate may be admitted to York as a Visiting Student (see the Admissions section of this calendar for more information). There are three categories of visiting students:

- those who hold an undergraduate degree (three-year bachelor's degree minimum) from an accredited university/university-level institution;
- those who do not hold an undergraduate degree but wish to enrol in York courses to fulfill the academic, upgrading or professional development requirements of a professional designation;
- those who are currently attending another recognized university and wish to take York courses on a letter of permission issued by their home institution.

Grade Point Average (GPA) Requirement

Students in categories a) and b) whose overall cumulative grade point average (OCGPA) falls below 4.00 on at least 24 credits attempted will not be allowed to enrol in any subsequent session as visiting students. Students who are not permitted to re-enrol must apply for re-admission through the Admissions Office.

Note: Repeated course legislation does not apply to visiting students but only to academic degrees and certificates. Therefore, all courses attempted or taken will count in the OCGPA.

Credit Limits

Students in category b) who have maintained an OCGPA of 4.00 throughout their studies and who have completed 30 credits will not be allowed to enrol in subsequent sessions and must either reactivate to proceed as visiting students or may choose to apply for admission to a degree or certificate program.

Auditors

Auditors attend classes and participate in a course in the same way as other students, but do not submit assignments or write tests or examinations. Students registered for a degree at York University may audit a course in the Faculty of Arts provided they obtain the permission of the course director. Persons from outside the University may request permission to audit up to 18 credits. Further information about admissibility, application procedures, available courses and fees may be obtained from Student Client Services.

Course Loads

The following course loads apply to students in the Faculty of Arts. In certain circumstances the Faculty may set other limits.

Fall/Winter Session

The normal course load for students in the fall/winter session is 30 credits. Students with substantial familial or financial responsibilities outside the University are advised to consider taking fewer courses in a session. Students may take a maximum of 36 credits overall (and 18 credits per term) without petitioning.

Summer Session

During the summer session, students may take a maximum of 15 credits. Within this limit, it is recommended that no more than six credits may be taken during one six-week term. Students with substantial familial or financial responsibilities outside the University are advised to consider taking fewer courses in a session.

Residence Requirement and In-Faculty Courses

While allowing students to take a certain number of courses at other universities and in other Faculties of York University, in order to meet the residence requirement, the Faculty of Arts requires that students complete a portion of their courses as follows:

- At least 30 credits must be taken at York University;
- At least half (50 per cent) of the requirements in each arts major/minor must be taken in the Faculty of Arts.

In addition, any departmental/divisional requirements for the major/minor must be satisfied.

Note: Courses taken to satisfy (b) will also satisfy (a). In some cases, satisfying (b) will automatically satisfy (a). In-Faculty courses are defined as those with an "AS" prefix.

Coregistration in the Faculty of Education:

Students enrolled in the Faculty of Arts may apply for admission to the Pre-Service program of the Faculty of Education. If they are accepted, they may coregister in the Faculty of Education and upon successful completion of the separate degree requirements of both Faculties will be awarded two degrees: Honours bachelor of arts (BA) and a bachelor of education (BEd) or bachelor of arts (BA) and bachelor of education (BEd).

Although the arts and education courses are taken concurrently, they are counted separately by each Faculty. Grade point averages for courses in the two Faculties are also calculated separately. Thus, the 30 credits required for the BEd are independent of the 120 credits required for the Honours BA, or the 90 credits required for the BA. Therefore, a student completing the requirements for both degrees would complete a total of 150 credits for the Honours BA/BEd or 120 credits for the BA/BEd.

Credit for Education Courses:

Faculty of Arts students who are coregistered in the Faculty of Education may count education courses taken beyond the requirements for the BEd for credit towards the Honours BA or BA as out-of-Faculty courses.

Faculty of Arts students who are not coregistered in the Faculty of Education may receive arts degree credit for academic courses offered by the Faculty of Education in accordance with the Faculty of Arts regulations on residence requirement/in-Faculty courses.

Honours Programs Jointly with the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies:

Students in the Faculty of Arts may pursue an Honours Double Major BA program or Honours Major/Minor BA program with the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies.

Note: This does not apply to students pursuing interdisciplinary Honours Double Major BA degree programs.

Atkinson Honours majors which may be pursued with any Honours Double Major BA program in the Faculty of Arts:

- Canadian studies
- culture and expression
- information technology
- race, ethnicity and indigeneity

Atkinson Honours minors which may be pursued with any Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts:

- Canadian studies
- culture and expression
- information technology
- race, ethnicity and indigeneity

Note: The Atkinson BAS degree program does not offer a double major or major/minor degree option.

Faculty of Arts degree requirements and program regulations apply. Students should consult the Faculty of Arts Programs of Study section of this calendar for the requirements of specific majors. Atkinson courses taken by arts students as part of these programs are considered out-of-Faculty courses. Students in these programs must complete the Atkinson in-Faculty requirements for the second major or minor and take at least half (50 per cent) of the requirements for the Atkinson major or minor in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies. Students who complete such a program receive an Honours BA degree from the Faculty of Arts. Students pursuing an Honours Double Major program should note that, in some cases, it may be necessary to successfully complete more than 120 credits in order to satisfy requirements. For further details, consult the Student Academic Centre, Faculty of Arts.

Students in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies may also pursue an Honours Double Major or Honours Minor program with the Faculty of Arts. For more information, contact the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies.

Honours Programs Jointly with the Faculty of Environmental Studies:

Students in the Faculty of Arts may combine any Honours Double Major BA program or Honours Major/Minor BA program with the Faculty of Environmental Studies, subject to the following regulations:

- Students must maintain Honours standing, a cumulative grade point average of 5.00 (C+) or above over all courses including those in environmental studies. Students whose cumulative grade point average falls below 5.00 (C+) during the course of their studies may proceed in an Honours program, on warning, provided they meet the year level progression requirements described in the Academic Standing section of this calendar.
- Faculty of Arts degree requirements and program regulations apply.

Major in Environmental Studies

- 42 credits in environmental studies, including: ES/ENVS 1000 6.00, 12 credits in the environmental studies foundations series at the 2000 level chosen from ES/ENVS 2100 6.00, ES/ENVS 2200 6.00, ES/ENVS 2300 6.00, or ES/ENVS 2400 6.00, ES/ENVS 3009 3.00 or ES/ENVS 3010 3.00, nine additional credits at the 3000 level, and 12 credits at the 4000 level.

Minor in Environmental Studies

- 30 credits in environmental studies, including: ES/ENVS 1000 6.00, 12 credits in the environmental studies foundation series at the 2000 level chosen from ES/ENVS 2100 6.00, ES/ENVS 2200 6.00, ES/ENVS 2300 6.00, or ES/ENVS 2400 6.00, six credits at the 3000 level or higher, and six credits at the 4000 level.

For details about degree requirements in environmental studies, students should consult the Faculty of Environmental Studies.

For both the major or minor in environmental studies, students must also complete the requirements of an Honours BA in the Faculty of Arts. Students successfully completing this program will receive an Honours BA degree. Consult the Student Academic Centre, Faculty of Arts for more information.

Students should note that in order to complete the requirements of the Honours Double Major or Honours Minor programs, it may be necessary to successfully complete more than 120 credits.

Students in the Faculty of Environmental Studies may also pursue an Honours Double Major or Honours Minor program with the Faculty of Arts. For more information, contact the Faculty of Environmental Studies.

Honours Programs Jointly with the Faculty of Fine Arts:

Students in the Faculty of Arts may pursue an Honours Double Major BA program or Honours Major/Minor BA program with the Faculty of Fine Arts.

Fine arts Honours majors which may be pursued with any Honours Double Major BA program in the Faculty of Arts:

- dance
- fine arts cultural studies
- film and video (film studies)
- music
- theatre (theatre studies)
- visual arts (studio)
- visual arts (art history)

Fine arts Honours interdisciplinary majors which may only be pursued with a communication studies interdisciplinary major in the Faculty of Arts:

- fine arts cultural studies
- film and video (film studies)

Fine arts Honours minors which may be pursued with any Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts:

- dance
- fine arts cultural studies
- film and video (film studies)
- music
- theatre (production or theatre studies)
- visual arts (art history)
- visual arts (studio)

Faculty of Arts degree requirements and program regulations apply. Students should consult the Faculty of Arts Programs of Study section of this calendar for the requirements of specific majors. Fine arts courses taken by arts students as part of these programs are considered out-of-Faculty courses. Students who complete such a program receive an Honours BA degree from the Faculty of Arts. Students pursuing an Honours Double Major program should note that, in some cases, it may be necessary to successfully complete more than 120 credits in order to satisfy requirements. For further details, consult the Student Academic Centre, Faculty of Arts.

All fine arts majors or minors require an evaluation. Depending on the department, this may include a personal interview, an audition, a written exercise, or portfolio evaluation. For information on admission requirements in fine arts areas, students should consult the Fine Arts Office of Student and Academic Services.

Students in the Faculty of Fine Arts may also pursue an Honours Double Major or Honours Minor program with the Faculty of Arts. For more information, contact the Faculty of Fine Arts.

Honours Programs Jointly with the Faculty of Health:

Students in the Faculty of Arts may pursue an Honours Double Major BA program or Honours Major/Minor BA program with the Faculty of Health.

Faculty of Health majors which may be pursued with any Honours Double Major BA program in the Faculty of Arts include:

- kinesiology and health science
- psychology

The Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs in African studies, communication studies, European studies, Latin American and Caribbean studies, social and political thought, or South Asian studies may be pursued as an Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program with either kinesiology and health science or psychology in the Faculty of Health.

Faculty of Health minors which may be pursued with any Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts include:

- kinesiology and health science
- psychology

Students in an Honours Double Major program in Kinesiology and Health Science or Psychology in the Faculty of Health may combine their major with any Honours Double Major program offered through the Faculty of Arts, or with any one of the following Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs offered through the Faculty of Arts: African studies, communication studies, European studies, Latin American and Caribbean studies, social and political thought, or South Asian studies.

Students in an Honours Major/Minor program in kinesiology and health science or psychology in the Faculty of Health may combine their major with any Honours Minor program offered through the Faculty of Arts.

Consistent with existing inter-Faculty arrangements, students interested in a Faculty of Arts/Faculty of Health inter-Faculty Honours Double Major program will have a choice of home Faculty, which will be designated as major 1. In Major/Minor combinations, a student's home Faculty will always be determined by their major. Students will follow the academic standing regulations and degree requirements of their home Faculty, and will receive their degree from their home Faculty.

Honours Programs Jointly with the Faculty of Science and Engineering:

Students in the Faculty of Arts may pursue an Honours Double Major BA program or Honours Major/Minor BA program with the Faculty of Science and Engineering.

Honours majors in science and engineering which may be pursued with an Honours Double Major BA program in the Faculty of Arts* (see Note below):

- earth and atmospheric science (Atmospheric Science Stream or Earth Science Stream)
- mathematics for education
- physics and astronomy (Physics Stream or Astronomy Stream)

Note: The following Faculty of Arts Honours Major programs of study may not be pursued jointly as an Honours Double Major with the Faculty of Science and Engineering—computer science, geography, and science and technology studies.*

Honours minors in science and engineering which may be pursued with any Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts:

- biology
- chemistry
- mathematics for education
- physics and astronomy (Physics Stream or Astronomy Stream)

Faculty of Arts degree requirements and program regulations apply. Students should consult the Faculty of Arts Programs of Study section of this calendar for the requirements of specific majors. Students who complete such a program receive an Honours BA degree from the Faculty of Arts. Students pursuing an Honours Double Major or an Honours Minor program should note that, in some cases, it may be necessary to successfully complete more than 120 credits in order to satisfy requirements. For further details, consult the Student Academic Centre, Faculty of Arts.

Students in the Faculty of Science and Engineering may also pursue an Honours Double Major or Honours Minor program with the Faculty of Arts. For more information, contact the Faculty of Science and Engineering.

Letters of Permission

Letters of permission allow Faculty of Arts students to receive credit at York for courses taken at other universities. In order to receive credit for such courses, a letter of permission must be obtained prior to enrolling. Application forms for letters of permission are available at Student Client Services or from the Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Courses which students propose to take on a letter of permission must be acceptable to the Faculty of Arts teaching unit best able to judge their academic merit. The Faculty is under no obligation to accept courses taken without its permission.

Students must be in good academic standing to be eligible for a letter of permission; students under academic warning, debarment warning, or academic probation are not eligible.

In order to receive credit for courses taken on a letter of permission, students must arrange for the host institution to submit an official transcript to the Registrar's Office. A minimum grade of C as understood in the Faculty of Arts is required for credit to be granted. Grades earned in courses taken at other postsecondary institutions are not part of the student's York transcript and are not incorporated into the student's grade point average in the Faculty of Arts.

Several formal programs exist for students to pursue study at universities in other countries. Where formal programs do not exist, and academic and personal circumstances warrant, individual arrangements may be made. For further information contact York International.

Should a student leave York University to pursue study at another postsecondary institution without a letter of permission, upon return to York, a new application to York is required and all previous transfer credit will be reassessed.

Summer Courses

Courses Taken at York University:

The Faculty of Arts offers a limited number of courses in the summer. Courses are also offered in Italy by the Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics. In addition, independent study, directed reading and thesis courses are offered by some departments. Students interested in arranging such courses should inquire at the relevant department/division.

Atkinson offers courses which may be taken for degree and major credit by Faculty of Arts students. Individual programs may place restrictions on the number and nature of summer courses taken for program credit. Students are responsible for ensuring that any summer courses taken conform to the Faculty of Arts regulations on residence requirement/in-Faculty courses; and that they fulfill major, minor and Faculty-wide requirements; and do not violate regulations relating to prerequisites, corequisites and course exclusions.

Courses Taken at Other Universities:

Faculty of Arts students who wish to receive credit for courses taken at other universities must obtain a letter of permission from Student Client Services or the Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>), prior to enrolling in these courses.

Should a student leave York University to pursue study at another postsecondary institution without a letter of permission, upon return to York, a new application to York is required and all previous transfer credit will be re-assessed.

Independent Reading Courses

Students may wish to pursue intensive work with a particular faculty member on a topic of study not offered in a particular academic session. The Faculty of Arts provides for such independent reading courses which are subject to the guidelines of the departments and divisions, and to the following regulations:

- Students may take independent reading courses only after having successfully completed 24 credits in the Faculty of Arts.
- The maximum permissible number of independent reading courses depends on a student's program type. Students in Honours BA programs may take 24 such credits; students in a BA program may take 18 such credits.
- Within their last 30 credits, students may take a maximum of 12 credits in independent reading courses.
- Students may take a maximum of 12 credits of independent reading courses with the same faculty member.
- The student and the faculty member must agree on a written description of the course, its content, and its method of evaluation at the time of enrolment in the course, and submit this description for approval according to the requirements of the unit teaching the course. Copies must be deposited with that unit, and the student and faculty member should each retain a copy.

Degree Requirements

Degree requirements in the Faculty of Arts refer to the following categories of courses.

General Education Courses

The Faculty believes that students will benefit from taking courses which provide a broad interdisciplinary perspective, in addition to courses which focus on a specific subject. The required interdisciplinary courses, called general education courses, are offered by three academic units, the divisions of Humanities, Natural Science and Social Science.

The Faculty of Arts foundations courses are part of the general education requirement. These courses emphasize critical skills, especially writing, and provide a supportive learning environment.

Faculty of Arts foundations courses are 1000- and 2000-level nine-credit courses offered by the Division of Humanities and Division of Social Science. Students may complete a maximum of three nine-credit foundations courses for degree credit. Students who need to complete more than three foundations courses in order to fulfill program (major or minor) course requirements may do so with permission of the relevant program coordinator or undergraduate director.

Major and Minor Courses

In addition to taking courses which contribute to their broad knowledge, students are required to specialize in a specific subject or combination of subjects. The area of primary concentration is known as the major; an area of secondary concentration (if any) is known as the minor. In a double major program, a course may count for major credit towards only one major. In a major/minor program, a course may count only for major credit or for minor credit.

Students may choose to major or minor in a specific subject when they enter the University; or they may wait until they have completed up to 24 credits. At this point, students must choose a major and possibly a minor, but subsequent changes are possible. In selecting courses, students who are undecided should try to take introductory courses in a number of potential major subjects. This will allow them to proceed in their subject(s) of choice without the possibility of a delay.

Elective Courses

Electives are courses which are intended to broaden the educational experience of students beyond their area of specialization. Electives include most courses which are not used to fulfill the general education requirements or major/minor requirements.

Courses not considered to be electives are:

- Major/minor courses taken above the required number;
- Non-major/minor courses taken within the major/minor subject (e.g. AS/FR 1020 6.00 is a non-major French course);
- Courses outside the major/minor taken to fulfill major/minor requirements (e.g. AS/CSE 1520 3.00 and AS/CSE 1530 3.00 are mathematics for commerce requirements);

- Courses which are cross-listed or designated as course substitutes to courses offered by the major/minor program (e.g. AS/MATH 1530 3.00 is cross-listed to AS/ECON 1530 3.00).

Upper-Level Courses

The Faculty also considers it good educational practice to ensure that students take a number of courses at the 3000 level and/or 4000 level. (A course's level is indicated by the first digit of its number.)

In-Faculty Courses

In-Faculty courses are courses offered by the Faculty of Arts as indicated by the Faculty prefix "AS."

Program Types

The Faculty of Arts offers the following types of programs:

Honours BA Programs

These are 120 credit programs. They require more specialization, a higher minimum performance, and in some cases, different courses than the BA program. There are six kinds of Honours BA programs.

Specialized Honours BA Program

This is the most highly specialized program type in the Faculty of Arts. Students in a Specialized Honours program must complete a minimum of 54 credits in their major subject. Some programs require more than 54 credits in the major subject for the Specialized Honours BA. For details of individual programs, see the Programs of Study section.

Honours BA Program

Students in an Honours single major program have one major subject in which they must complete a minimum of 42 credits. Some programs require more than 42 credits in the major subject for the Honours single major BA. For details of individual programs, see the Programs of Study section.

Honours iBA Program

Students in an Honours single major iBA program have one major subject in which they must complete a minimum of 42 credits; at least 18 credits in a modern language offered by York University, including the Advanced I university-level course in the chosen language; at least 12 credits of internationally-oriented courses chosen outside the major; and at least one full term abroad as a full-time student at one of York University's exchange partners. Some programs require more than 42 credits in the major subject for the Honours single major iBA. For details of individual programs, see the Programs of Study section.

Honours Double Major BA Program

Honours Double Major programs involve two areas of primary specialization. There are two types of Honours Double Major programs:

- Unlinked: Most double major programs involve two independent subjects of concentration such as history and English. The two majors are considered to be unlinked. Students must usually complete a minimum of 42 credits in each major. Some programs require more than 42 credits in each major subject for the Honours Double Major BA. In a double major program, a course may count for major credit towards only one major. For details of individual programs, see the Programs of Study section.
- Linked: Certain interdisciplinary majors (for example, African studies) must be taken in conjunction with other specified majors. The two majors, in these cases, are considered to be linked. Students must complete a minimum of 36 credits in each major. Some programs require more than 36 credits in each major subject for the Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA. In a double major interdisciplinary program, a course may count for major credit towards only one major. For details of individual programs, see the Programs of Study section.

Students in an Honours Double Major BA program in the Faculty of Arts may also pursue an Honours Double Major with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Environmental Studies or Fine Arts, or with a major in Canadian studies, culture and expression, or information technology in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, or with a major in kinesiology and health science or psychology in the Faculty of Health, or with a major in earth and atmospheric science, mathematics for education, or physics and astronomy in the Faculty of Science and Engineering.

Note: The following Faculty of Arts Honours Major programs of study may not be pursued jointly as an Honours Double Major with the Faculty of Science and Engineering—computer science, geography, and science and technology studies.

Students taking an Honours Major in anthropology in the Faculty of Arts may pursue an Honours Double Major program with music (ethnomusicology) in the Faculty of Fine Arts.

Students in an Honours Double Major program in the Faculties of Atkinson, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, Health, or Science and Engineering may be eligible to combine their major with an Honours Double Major program offered through the Faculty of Arts. For more information, including details regarding possible Honours Double Major combinations, contact the Faculty of Atkinson, Faculty of Environmental Studies, Faculty of Fine Arts, Faculty of Health, or Faculty of Science and Engineering.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

Students in this type of program have one major subject in which they must complete a minimum of 42 credits. In addition to the major, they have an area of secondary specialization, known as a minor, in which they must complete a minimum of 30 credits. Some programs require more than 30 credits in the minor subject for the Honours Major/Minor BA. In a major/minor program, a course may count only for major credit or for minor credit. For details of individual programs, see the Programs of Study section.

Students in an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts may also pursue an Honours Minor with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Environmental Studies or Fine Arts, or with a minor in Canadian studies, culture and expression or information technology in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, or with a minor in kinesiology and health science or psychology in the Faculty of Health, or with a minor in biology, chemistry, mathematics for education, or physics and astronomy in the Faculty of Science and Engineering.

Students in an Honours Major/Minor program in the Faculties of Atkinson, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, Health, or Science and Engineering may be eligible to combine their Major with an Honours Minor program offered through the Faculty of Arts. For more information, including details regarding possible Honours Major/Minor combinations, contact the Faculty of Atkinson, Faculty of Environmental Studies, Faculty of Fine Arts, Faculty of Health, or Faculty of Science and Engineering.

Honours Major/Minor iBA Program

Students in an Honours Major/Minor iBA program have one major subject in which they must complete a minimum of 42 credits. In addition to the major, they have an area of secondary specialization, known as a minor, in which they must complete a minimum of 30 credits. Some programs require more than 30 credits in the minor subject for the Honours Major/Minor iBA. Students in this type of program must also include at least 18 credits in a modern language offered by York University, including the Advanced I university-level course in the chosen language; at least 12 credits of internationally-oriented courses chosen outside the major; and at least one full term abroad as a full-time student at one of York University's exchange partners. In a major/minor program, a course may count only for major credit or for minor credit. For details of individual programs, see the Programs of Study section.

BA Program

This is a 90-credit program which requires some specialization, a minimum of 30 credits, in a single area of concentration (major), as well as more general courses. Some programs require more than 30 credits in the major subject for the BA. For details of individual programs, see the Programs of Study section.

Designation of Honours BA or BA Program

Automatic Honours BA Designation

Students are automatically considered to be in an Honours BA program provided they achieve and maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00 (C+).

Automatic BA Designation

Students are automatically considered to be in a BA program if they fail to achieve or maintain the cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00 (C+) required for an Honours BA program.

Option to Graduate with a BA Degree

Students registered in an Honours BA degree may opt to graduate with a BA degree if they fulfill program requirements. Students who wish to take advantage of this option should complete the relevant form at Student Client Services by January 31 for graduation the following June, or by July 31 for graduation the following October.

General Education Requirements

Students will select their general education requirements in accordance with the following:

1. One 1000-level nine-credit foundations course, in either the Division of Humanities or the Division of Social Science—to be successfully completed within the first 24 credits;
2. One 1000-level six-credit course in the Division of Natural Science or in the Department of Biology, Chemistry, Earth and Atmospheric Science, or Physics—to be successfully completed prior to graduation, and preferably within the first 42 credits;

One 2000-level nine-credit foundations course, in either the Division of Humanities or the Division of Social Science. If the 1000-level nine-credit foundations course is taken in the Division of Humanities, then the 2000-level nine-credit foundations course must be taken in the Division of Social Science (and vice versa)—to be successfully completed within the first 48 credits.

Students may complete a maximum of three nine-credit foundations courses for degree credit. Students who need to complete more than three foundations courses in order to fulfill program (major or minor) course requirements may do so with permission of the relevant program coordinator or undergraduate director.

Breadth Requirement

The breadth requirement will be satisfied by successfully completing the general education/foundations courses described above (breadth requirement is described below).

The breadth requirement must be successfully completed before graduation and requires at least six credits from each of the following two areas:

Area I: English, French studies, history, humanities, languages, literatures and linguistics, philosophy, writing.

Area II: Anthropology, criminology, economics, geography, political science, social science, sociology.

Note: Computer science and mathematics courses will satisfy neither requirement, unless they are cross-listed with a unit listed above.

Requirements by Program Type

The following requirements apply to all Faculty of Arts students. Each program of study (major or minor) may stipulate additional requirements. For details of individual programs, see the Programs of Study section. Also consult the section on Academic Standing.

Honours BA Programs

In order to graduate with an Honours BA degree, students must successfully complete a minimum of 120 credits which fulfill all of the following requirements.

Specialized Honours BA

- General education: See General Education Requirements;
- Major courses: As defined by the specific program; usually a minimum of 54 credits, at least 12 or 18 credits of which must be at the 4000 level;
- Elective courses: At least 18 credits;
- Upper-level courses: (a) 3000-level and 4000-level courses: at least 36 credits at the 3000 level or 4000 level; (b) 4000-level courses: at least 18 credits of these upper-level courses (including at least 12 credits - in the major) must be at the 4000 level;
- In-Faculty courses: See Residence Requirement and In-Faculty Courses;
- Standing requirements: In addition to fulfilling the requirements described above, students in this program must achieve satisfactory academic standing to enter, proceed and graduate.

Honours BA

- General education: See General Education Requirements;
- Major courses: As defined by the specific program; usually a minimum of 42 credits, at least 12 credits of which must be at the 4000 level;
- Elective courses: At least 18 credits;
- Upper-Level courses: (a) 3000-level and 4000-level courses: at least 36 credits at the 3000 level or 4000 level; (b) 4000-level courses: at least 18 credits of these upper-level courses (including at least 12 credits - in the major) must be at the 4000 level;
- In-Faculty courses: See Residence Requirement and In-Faculty Courses;
- Standing requirements: In addition to fulfilling the requirements described above, students in this program must achieve satisfactory academic standing to enter, proceed and graduate.

Honours iBA

- General education: See General Education Requirements;
- Major courses: As defined by the specific program; usually a minimum of 42 credits, at least 12 credits of which must be at the 4000 level;
- Language study courses: At least 18 credits in a modern language offered by York University, including the Advanced I university-level course in the chosen language;
- Internationally-oriented courses: At least 12 credits of internationally-oriented courses chosen outside the major;
- International exchange: At least one full term abroad as a full-time student at one of York University's exchange partners;
- Elective courses: At least 18 credits; (Note: For the Honours iBA, courses taken outside the major to satisfy the language study requirement and/or the internationally-oriented courses requirement can also be used to satisfy the elective courses requirement.)
- Upper-level courses: (a) 3000-level and 4000-level courses: at least 36 credits at the 3000 level or 4000 level; (b) 4000-level courses: at least 18 credits of these upper-level courses [including at least 12 credits - in the major] must be at the 4000 level;
- In-Faculty courses: See Residence Requirement and In-Faculty Courses;
- Standing requirements: In addition to fulfilling the requirements described above, students in this program must achieve satisfactory academic standing to enter, proceed, and graduate.

Honours Double Major BA (Unlinked)

- General education: See General Education Requirements;
- Major courses: As defined by the specific programs; usually a minimum of 42 credits in each of the majors, at least 12 credits of which must be at the 4000 level in each of the major programs. In a double major program, a course may count for major credit towards only one major;
- Elective courses: Students who graduate in this program are deemed to fulfill the elective requirement;
- Upper-level courses: (a) 3000-level and 4000-level courses: at least 36 credits at the 3000 level or 4000 level; (b) 4000-level courses: at least 12 credits in each major program;
- In-Faculty courses: See Residence Requirement and In-Faculty Courses;

- Standing requirements: In addition to fulfilling the requirements described above, students in this program must achieve satisfactory academic standing to enter, proceed and graduate.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA (Linked)

- General education: See General Education Requirements;
- Major courses: As defined by the specific programs; usually a minimum of 36 credits in each of the majors, at least six credits of which must be at the 4000 level in each of the major programs. In a double major interdisciplinary program, a course may count for major credit towards only one major;
- Elective courses: Students who graduate in this program are deemed to fulfill the elective course requirement;
- Upper-level courses: (a) 3000-level and 4000-level courses: at least 36 credits at the 3000 level or 4000 level; (b) 4000-level courses: at least 18 credits of these upper-level courses (including at least six credits in each major) must be at the 4000 level; many disciplines require 12 credits at the 4000 level in the first major subject;
- In-Faculty courses: See Residence Requirement and In-Faculty Courses;
- Standing requirements: In addition to fulfilling the requirements described above, students in this program must achieve satisfactory academic standing to enter, proceed and graduate.

Honours Major/Minor BA

- General education: See General Education Requirements;
- Major/minor courses: As defined by the specific programs; (a) major: usually a minimum of 42 credits in the major, at least 12 credits of which must be at the 4000 level; and (b) minor: usually a minimum of 30 credits in the minor, at least six credits of which must normally be at the 4000 level. In a major/minor program, a course may count only for major credit or for minor credit;
- Elective courses: Students who graduate in this program are deemed to fulfill the elective course requirement;
- Upper-level courses: (a) 3000-level and 4000-level courses: at least 36 credits at the 3000 level or 4000 level; (b) 4000-level courses: at least 18 credits of these upper-level courses (usually including 12 credits - in the major and six credits - in the minor) must be at the 4000 level;
- In-Faculty courses: See Residence Requirement and In-Faculty Courses;
- Standing requirements: In addition to fulfilling the requirements described above, students in this program must achieve satisfactory academic standing to enter, proceed and graduate.

Honours Major/Minor iBA

- General education: See General Education Requirements;
- Major/Minor Courses: as defined by the specific programs; (a) major: usually a minimum of 42 credits in the major, at least 12 credits of which must be at the 4000 level; and (b) minor: usually a minimum of 30 credits in the minor, at least six credits of which must normally be at the 4000 level. In a major/minor program, a course may count only for major credit or for minor credit;
- Language study courses: At least 18 credits in a modern language offered by York University, including the Advanced I university-level course in the chosen language;
- Internationally-oriented courses: At least 12 credits of internationally-oriented courses chosen outside the major;
- International exchange: At least one full term abroad as a full-time student at one of York University's exchange partners;
- Elective courses: Students who graduate in this program are deemed to fulfill the elective course requirement;
- Upper-level courses: (a) 3000-level and 4000-level courses: at least 36 credits at the 3000 level or 4000 level; (b) 4000-level courses: at least 18 credits of these upper-level courses [usually including 12 credits in the major and six credits in the minor] must be at the 4000 level;
- In-Faculty courses: See Residence Requirement and In-Faculty Courses;

- Standing requirements: In addition to fulfilling the requirements described above, students in this program must achieve satisfactory academic standing to enter, proceed, and graduate.

BA Program

In order to graduate with a BA degree, a student must successfully complete a 90 credit program as follows:

- General education: See General Education Requirements;
- Major courses: As defined by the specific program; usually a minimum of 30 credits, at least 12 credits of which must be at the 3000 level or 4000 level;
- Elective courses: At least 18 credits;
- Upper-level courses: At least 18 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level and at least 12 credits of which must be in the major subject;
- In-Faculty courses: See Residence Requirement and In-Faculty Courses;
- Standing requirements: In addition to fulfilling the requirements described above, students in this program must achieve satisfactory academic standing to enter, proceed and graduate.

Diploma

Canadian Operational Research Society (CORS)—information is available from the Mathematics and Statistics Department.

Certificates

In addition to degree programs, a number of certificates are offered through units of the Faculty of Arts. Students should consult the unit(s) where the certificates are housed for further information about entry and requirements.

- Advanced Certificate in Hebrew and Jewish Studies (Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics)
- Certificate of Advanced French Language Proficiency (Department of French Studies)
- Certificate of Basic French Language Proficiency (Department of French Studies)
- Certificate in Business Fundamentals (coordinator, Business and Society Program)
- Certificate in Geographic Information Systems and Remote Sensing (Department of Geography)
- Certificate of Intermediate French Language Proficiency (Department of French Studies)
- Certificate in Non-Profit Management (coordinator, Business and Society Program)
- Certificate of Proficiency in Chinese Language (Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics)
- Certificate of Proficiency in German Language (Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics)
- Certificate of Proficiency in Italian Language (Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics)
- Certificate of Proficiency in Japanese Language (Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics)
- Certificate of Proficiency in Modern Greek Language (Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics)
- Certificate of Proficiency in Portuguese Language (Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics)
- Certificate of Proficiency in Russian Language (Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics)
- Certificate of Proficiency in Spanish Language (Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics)
- Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics)

- Cross-Disciplinary Certificate in Aboriginal Studies (Division of Social Science)
- Cross-Disciplinary Certificate in Sexuality Studies (Sexuality Studies Program)
- General Certificate in Law and Society (Law and Society Program)
- General Certificate in Practical Ethics (Department of Philosophy)
- General Certificate in Refugee and Migration Studies (Division of Social Science with the Centre for Refugee Studies)
- General Certificate in Urban Studies (Urban Studies Program)

Grading System

Refer to Grades and Grading Schemes within the Academic Information section of this calendar.

Repeating Passed or Failed Courses for Academic Credit

Students are allowed to repeat a passed or a failed course once for degree or certificate credit. Students should note that course availability and space considerations may preclude the possibility of repeating a course in the session they choose. When a student is allowed to repeat a course for degree or certificate credit, the second grade will be the grade of record and the only grade calculated in the student's grade point average (major, cumulative, sessional and overall). A course can be credited only once towards satisfaction of degree or certificate credit requirements. The record of both the first and second time the course was taken will appear on the student's transcript, with the first course designated as "No Credit Retained" (NCR). The restrictions regarding repeating a passed or failed course also apply to cross-listed courses and course exclusions.

Grades from Other Universities

Grades for courses taken at other universities either prior to admission to York or on a York letter of permission are not listed on the York transcript and are not included in the calculation of grade point averages in the Faculty of Arts. Where it is necessary for the Faculty to take into consideration a student's grades from another institution, this Faculty's definitions of grades apply.

Alternative Grading Option

Pass/Fail

The Faculty wants capable upper-year students to feel free to enrol in elective/free-choice courses without fear of jeopardizing their grade point average. For this reason, students may take a limited number of such courses for full degree credit on an ungraded basis. Courses taken on this basis are listed on the transcript as Pass or as Fail. Neither of these two grades is calculated into the student's grade point averages. The course director forwards a written evaluation of the student's work in the course to the student and to the Registrar's Office. The following regulations apply to courses taken as a pass/fail alternative grading option.

- Only students who are not under academic warning, debarment warning, or academic probation may take such courses.
- Students may apply to take such courses only after they have successfully completed 24 credits.
- Courses taken on a pass/fail alternative grading option may not be used for courses taken to satisfy major, minor, general education, certificate requirements, or 1000-level science courses.
- Students registered in an Honours BA program may take a maximum of 12 credits as a pass/fail alternative grading option.
- Students registered in a BA program may take a maximum of six credits as a pass/fail alternative grading option.
- Students who wish to designate a course as pass/fail alternative grading option must do so within the first two weeks of the term in which the course begins; they must first obtain the signature of the course director on the form available for this purpose from Student Client Services. The completed form should then be returned to Student Client Services.

- Students who elect to complete a course as a pass/fail alternative grading option can switch back to a graded basis until the last date to drop a course without academic penalty.

Credit/No Credit

The notations "Credit" and "No Credit" will be used when an entire course is being offered on an ungraded basis. No credit will count as an earned failing grade of F in the grade point average.

Grades in Courses

Marking Scheme

The means of determining the final grade in a course must be announced in writing in each course within the first two weeks of classes. Such information must include the kinds of assignments, essays, examinations and other components which make up the grade; their relative weights; and any other procedures which enter into the determination of the final grade.

In exceptional circumstances, a previously announced marking scheme for a course may be changed, but only with the consent of all students. The new marking scheme must also be distributed in written form.

Instructors are obligated to provide a mechanism by which students can be appraised of their progress in a course; in particular, students must be able to make an informed decision on whether to withdraw from a course. This will normally mean that before the deadline for withdrawing from courses, students will receive graded feedback on work worth at least 15 per cent of the final grade for fall (F Term), winter (W Term), or summer term courses, and 30 per cent for Y Term courses offered in the fall/winter session. Instructors are urged to provide more feedback where possible. More information is available at <http://www.yorku.ca/univsec/policies/>.

In courses where percentages are used as a means of reporting grades on individual pieces of work, the following conversion table is to be used in converting percentage grades to letter grades, unless alternative provisions for scaling and/or conversion are announced to students in writing within the first two weeks of classes.

From Percentage	To Letter Grade
90-100	A+
80-89	A
75-79	B+
70-74	B
65-69	C+
60-64	C
55-59	D+
50-54	D
40-49	E
0-39	F

Requests for Reappraisal of Final Grades

Students may, with sufficient grounds, request that a final grade in a course be reappraised. Further information may be obtained from the department/division offering the course. Students applying to have a grade reappraised in a Faculty of Arts course should note the following:

- Requests for reappraisal must be filed with the unit offering the course within 21 calendar days of the release of the final grade in the course, or February 15 for the fall term, June 15 for the fall/winter and winter term and September 30 for the summer term, whichever is later.
- Students may question the marking of specific pieces of work, or the overall course grade. Normally, however, only written work can be reassessed.

- When a student asks for a reappraisal, an original grade may be raised, lowered or confirmed.
- Students wishing to request the reappraisal of a final grade should fill out the appropriate form available from the department/division offering the course and submit it to the same office.
- The decision of the department/division may be appealed to the Faculty of Arts Student Relations and Experience Committee only on grounds of procedural irregularity or new evidence.

Deferred Standing and Aegrotat Standing

In some cases, students may be eligible for deferred standing or aegrotat standing on the grounds of illness, accident, or family misfortune.

Deferred Standing

Deferred standing (an extension) allows a student additional time to write a test or final examination, or to complete an assignment after the Faculty's deadline for submission of term work.

In the Faculty of Arts, deferred standing is arranged by means of a form called a Final Examination/Assignment Deferred Standing Agreement. The deadlines for submitting this form are January 15 (fall term one, three and four credit courses), and May 15 (six and nine credit courses, and winter term one, three and four credit courses). A petition for deferred standing may be submitted if the course director indicates on a Final Examination/Assignment Deferred Standing Agreement form that she or he refuses to approve deferred standing, or if the deadline for agreements has passed. The form and guidelines are available on the Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Aegrotat Standing

In cases where a student cannot be expected to complete the work for a course, the phrase "aegrotat standing" (from the Latin for "she/he is ill") is substituted for a grade on the transcript. Aegrotat standing is seldom granted, and only in exceptional circumstances where deferred standing or late withdrawal from the course is inappropriate.

Petitions for Deferred Standing and Aegrotat Standing

Petitions for deferred standing or aegrotat standing are expected to be submitted to the Petitions Committee within 48 hours of the Final Examination/Assignment Deferred Standing Agreement application deadline, and will not be accepted more than one month after the last day of examinations for the term in question without evidence of circumstances which account for the delay. It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that full documentation (medical or other) is provided in support of petitions for deferred or aegrotat standing. Appropriate forms and guidelines are available from Student Client Services or at the Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Term Work, Tests and Examinations

Term Work

Term work includes reports, assignments, essays, tests and other written work assigned in a course with the exception of final examinations.

Deadline for Submission

Term work must be submitted by the first day of the official examination period of the term in which the course ends. Instructors, departments and divisions may, however, set earlier deadlines for the submission of term work.

Tests and Examinations

Tests and examinations are important parts of the educational process. They must be conducted under fair conditions which allow students to demonstrate what they have learned. Disruptions or attempts to obtain an unfair advantage are offences against academic process and carry severe penalties. (See Senate Policy on Academic Honesty and Student Code of Conduct at <http://www.yorku.ca/univsec/policies/>.) The following regulations apply to tests and examinations.

Identification

Students who are being tested or examined are required to present their YU-card with a photo or their YU-card without a photo plus a photo-bearing form of identification such as a driver's licence or passport.

Answer Booklets

Answer booklets are the property of the University. Test papers, examination booklets and other answer forms remain the property of the University unless they are released by an instructor. Students may not remove them from the test or examination room without permission; nor may they possess blank examination booklets.

Students' Right to Review

Students may always have the opportunity, under properly controlled conditions, to review and discuss their graded test and examination answers, but final examination answer booklets (and at the discretion of the course director, other answer booklets) remain the property of the University, and are retained by the teaching unit for a certain period of time before they are destroyed.

Tests and Examinations During the Term

Restriction at End of Term

In the fall/winter session, the total value of any test(s) or examination(s) given in the last two weeks of classes in a term must be no more than 20 per cent of the final mark for the course.

Scheduling of Tests

Except where testing is conducted during individual appointments which accommodate the schedules of students (for example: individual oral interviews in language courses, individually scheduled make-up tests), tests or examinations given during the term must be held within the hours regularly scheduled for the course in question.

Students' Right of Refusal

Students who are asked to write tests or examinations in contravention of the preceding two regulations may refuse to do so without academic penalty; they also have the right to raise the matter with the Chair of the department or the division in which the course is offered, or with the dean.

Formally Scheduled Examinations

Final Examination Period

There is a final examination period at the end of each term.

Examination Schedules

The dates and times of formally scheduled examinations are listed on the Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>). Examinations may last two or three hours.

Missed Examinations

A student who misses an examination should contact the Registrar's Office within 48 hours of the examination. A student who wishes to write a make-up examination must petition for deferred standing in the course.

Rewriting of Examinations

The Faculty of Arts has no provision for the rewriting of a final examination to improve a mark.

Academic Standing

Academic standing depends on several factors, including the number of courses a student has passed, the grade point average achieved during a particular session (sessional grade point average), and the overall grade point average (cumulative grade point average).

Honours BA Degree

Qualifying for Honours

Students with no Previous Postsecondary Education

Students who enter the Faculty of Arts with no prior experience at a postsecondary educational institution (such as a university or college) are automatically enrolled in an Honours program.

Transfer Students

Students who enter with prior experience at a postsecondary educational institution are enrolled in an Honours program if their prior cumulative grade point average (including failed courses) is at least the equivalent of 5.00 (C+) on the York scale. (Note: Courses taken at other postsecondary institutions are not calculated as part of the student's grade point average at York, nor do they appear on the York transcript.)

Continuing in Honours

To continue in an Honours program, students must maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00 (C+). Students whose cumulative grade point average falls below 5.00 (C+) during the course of their studies may proceed in an Honours program, on warning, provided they meet the year level progression requirements set out below:

Year Level	Credits Completed	Cumulative Grade Point Average
1	Fewer than 24 credits	4.00
2	24 to 53 credits	4.25
3	54 to 83 credits	4.80

Ineligibility to Continue in Honours

Students who do not meet the conditions outlined above may continue their studies only in a BA degree program.

Re-entering Honours

Students who are ineligible to continue in Honours may re-enter Honours if they raise their cumulative grade point average to 5.00 (C+) or above by the time they have successfully completed their 90th credit.

Graduating in Honours

To graduate in an Honours program, students must successfully complete (pass) at least 120 credits which meet Faculty of Arts and program requirements. The cumulative grade point average must be at least 5.00 (C+).

Courses taken Beyond the Normal Maximum

Students in an Honours BA program who successfully complete more than 120 credits and whose cumulative grade point average is at least 5.00 (C+) will have all credits counted towards their Honours BA and their cumulative grade point average.

Opting to Graduate in a BA Program

Students who are eligible for Honours may opt to graduate in a BA program in the session in which they have completed their final course(s).

Graduating with a BA Degree

Students registered in an Honours program whose cumulative grade point average after completion of 90 credits falls below 5.00 (C+), but remains 4.00 (C) or above, may request to graduate with a BA degree if they fulfill the BA degree requirements, or may continue in a BA program until those requirements are fulfilled. They may not continue in an Honours program and they may not take extra courses in a subsequent session in an effort to raise their cumulative average.

BA Degree

Graduating with a BA Degree

Students must successfully complete (pass) at least 90 credits which meet Faculty of Arts and program requirements. The cumulative grade point average must be at least 4.00 (C).

Courses taken Beyond the Normal Maximum—in Order to Raise Cumulative Grade Point Average

Students in a BA program who have passed 90 credits in accordance with Faculty and program requirements, but whose cumulative grade point average is below 4.00 (C) may attempt to raise their average to 4.00 (C) by taking up to 12 additional credits, to a maximum of 102 credits. These courses must be above the 1000 level and must be taken at York; regulations on equivalent and excluded courses apply.

Courses taken Beyond the Normal Maximum

Students in a BA program who successfully complete more than 90 credits and whose cumulative grade point average is at least 4.00 (C) and less than 5.00 (C+) will have all credits counted towards their BA and their cumulative grade point average.

Academic Honours

The Faculty recognizes the academic excellence of its students in appropriate ways. The following honours are recorded on a student's transcript.

Scholarships and Merit Awards

These include Merit Awards, Entrance Scholarships, Renewable Scholarships and In-Course Scholarships.

Faculty of Arts Sessional Academic Achievement List

The Faculty of Arts Sessional Academic Achievement List recognizes outstanding academic achievement in the following ways:

- Students taking 12-15 credits in a given session who have attained a sessional grade point average of 8.00 (A) or higher;
- Students taking 18 or more credits in a given session who have attained a sessional grade point average of 7.50 or higher.

Graduating Honours

Students with high grade point averages are eligible for the following honours upon graduation from the Faculty:

Honours BA Degree

Summa cum laude: 8.00 or above cumulative grade point average.

Magna cum laude: 7.80-7.99 cumulative grade point average.

Cum laude: 7.50-7.79 cumulative grade point average.

Dean's Honour Roll: 7.00 cumulative grade point average.

BA Degree

With distinction: 8.00 or above cumulative grade point average.

With merit: 7.50-7.99 cumulative grade point average.

Dean's Honour Roll: 7.00 cumulative grade point average.

Academic Penalties

Students whose academic record does not meet Faculty or program standards are subject to the academic penalties of academic warning, required withdrawal, debarment warning, debarment and academic probation.

Academic Warning

Students whose cumulative grade point average falls below 4.00 (C) at the end of any session, or who enter the Faculty with a grade point average equivalent to less than 4.00 (C) on the York scale, receive an academic warning. Students on academic warning must achieve a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.00 (C) within the next 24 credits taken, or earn a sessional grade point average of at least 5.00 (C+) in the session in which that 24th credit is completed and in each subsequent session until the cumulative grade point average reaches 4.00 (C), or be required to withdraw. Students whose cumulative grade point average on at least 24 credits is below 2.50 will be required to withdraw.

Required Withdrawal

Students whose academic record shows marked weakness may be required to withdraw from their studies for one year, during which they are encouraged to identify and remedy any problems which may have contributed materially to their failure to perform up to their potential, and to reflect on their reasons for pursuing a university education. The following regulations apply to required withdrawals.

Grade Point Average Below 2.50

Students whose cumulative grade point average on at least 24 credits is below 2.50 must withdraw for 12 months.

Grade Point Average Below 4.00 and Equal to or Greater Than 2.50

Students who have received an academic warning for a cumulative grade point average below 4.00 (C) must achieve a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.00 (C) within their next 24 credits taken or earn a sessional grade point average of at least 5.00 (C+) in the session in which that 24th credit is completed and in each subsequent session until the cumulative grade point average reaches 4.00 (C); otherwise, they must withdraw for 12 months. Should the student's cumulative grade point average fall below 2.50 at any time after completion of 24 credits, they will be required to withdraw for 12 months.

Petition to Continue Without Interruption

Students who have been required to withdraw may submit a petition to the Faculty of Arts Petitions Committee requesting permission to continue their studies without interruption. Students granted such a petition will be allowed to continue their studies on debarment warning. For further information, see the section on Petitions or go to the Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Reactivation After Required Withdrawal

Students who have been required to withdraw may apply for reactivation after the requisite period of absence by submitting a form obtainable from Student Client Services or the Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>). Students who return to their studies after such a required withdrawal (as well as those who have been allowed to continue their studies by virtue of a petition to the Petitions Committee) receive a debarment warning.

Debarment Warning

Students who have been required to withdraw from the Faculty of Arts, or from another Faculty at York, or elsewhere receive a debarment warning upon continuing their studies in the Faculty. Students on debarment warning must achieve a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.00 (C) within the next 24 credits taken or earn a sessional grade point average of at least 5.00 (C+) in the session in which that 24th credit is completed and in each subsequent session until the cumulative grade point average reaches 4.00 (C), and must then maintain this average. Students who do not fulfill these conditions will be debarred from the University.

Debarment

Students who fail to meet the debarment warning conditions outlined above will be debarred from the University. Debarment, the minimum period for which is normally two years, means that the student is no longer a student at York University.

Petition to Continue Without Interruption

Students who have been debarred may submit a petition to the Faculty of Arts Petitions Committee requesting permission to continue their studies without interruption. Students granted such a petition will be allowed to continue their studies on academic probation. For further information, see the section on Petitions or go to the Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Reapplying After Debarment

Students who have been debarred and who wish to resume their studies must apply for admission through the Admissions Office (<http://www.yorku.ca/web/futurestudents/>), and must provide persuasive evidence that they are ready and able to complete a degree program. Students who are readmitted (as well as those who have been allowed to continue their studies by virtue of a petition to the Petitions Committee) receive an academic probation.

Academic Probation

Students who have been debarred and who subsequently resume their studies in the Faculty of Arts, whether by petitioning to continue without interruption or by reapplying for admission, receive an academic probation. Students on Academic Probation must meet the debarment warning conditions outlined above; otherwise, they will be debarred.

Policy on Academic Honesty

A central purpose of the University is to teach students to think independently and critically. Cheating and other forms of academic dishonesty run counter to this purpose and violate the ethical and intellectual principles of the University; they are therefore subject to severe penalties. For more information, refer to the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty (see University Policies and Regulations section of this calendar or <http://www.yorku.ca/univsec/policies/>).

Petitions for Exemptions from the Regulations

The purpose of academic regulations is to allow students to develop their interests and talents to the fullest in ways consistent with the philosophy and standards of the Faculty. In establishing academic regulations, the Faculty also recognizes that instances will arise where it makes sense, in the context of a student's academic career, to waive regulations which would otherwise apply.

Petitions Committee

The Petitions Committee considers requests for exceptions to all Faculty regulations, including petitions to continue their studies without interruption from students who have been required to withdraw or debarred.

Note on Grade Reappraisals

Requests for the reappraisal of final grades are not petitions in the formal sense. Such requests should be directed to the undergraduate program director in the teaching unit offering the course in question.

Right to Petition

Students in the Faculty of Arts have the right to petition for special consideration. It should be noted, however, that a petition is a request for the waiver of a regulation; it cannot be used to create legislation (for example: a degree program) that does not exist. Normally, petitions will not be considered by the Petitions Committee more than one year beyond the date of the release of grades for the session to which the petition relates.

Petitions Procedures

Petitions are held in the strictest confidence, and brought anonymously to the committee. The committee considers the petition itself, any supporting documents (from professors or medical practitioners), and other relevant information contained in the student's record. Students may not appear in person.

Initiating a Petition

To initiate a petition, students should obtain an instruction sheet and, where appropriate, an Attending Physician's Statement Form from Student Client Services, 416-872-YORK (9675) or the Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>). Advice on petitioning is available from Student Client Services; from the Office of the Dean, South 928 Ross Building, 416-736-5260; or from the Student Academic Centre, 103 Central Square, 416-736-5022. Petitions should be brought or mailed to the appropriate committee in care of Student Client Services.

Faculty of Arts – Programs of Study

Cross-Disciplinary Certificate in Aboriginal Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

York University students may earn a Certificate in Aboriginal Studies in addition to fulfilling the requirements for an undergraduate degree. This certificate is open to students in all undergraduate Faculties.

To qualify for the Certificate in Aboriginal Studies, students must complete 24 credits from a list of approved courses, with a cumulative grade point average in these 24 credits of at least 5.00.

Students are expected to register their entry to the certificate program with the unit administering the program, normally prior to completion of 36 credits of their undergraduate degree program. This procedure is intended to help keep students abreast of program related events and to ensure that students complete the program requirements in a timely fashion. Students are also expected to submit an application to graduate from the program.

Course requirements, and application and admission requirements for the Certificate in Aboriginal Studies, are as follows:

- AS/SOSC 1030 9.00 or AK/SOSC 2050 6.00;
- at least 12 credits chosen from: AS/ANTH 3510 3.00, AS/ANTH 3420 3.00, AK/EN 3535 3.00, AK/EN 3536 3.00, AK/EN 3858 6.00, AK/EN 3839 3.00, FA/FACS 3900M 3.00, FA/FILM 4710 3.00, AS/GEOG 4095 3.00, AS/HIST 4508 6.00, AS/POLS 4102 3.00, AK/SOSC 4750 6.00, AK/SOSC 4780 6.00, AS/SOSC 4351 6.00, GL/CDNS 2630 6.00, AK/SOWK 4270 3.00, FA/VISA 3350C 3.00, FA/VISA 3350D 3.00;
- AS/SOSC 4030 6.00.

Note: Students may take courses through Atkinson or Glendon (subject to course credit exclusion(s) and in-Faculty regulations).

Further information about the Cross-Disciplinary Certificate in Aboriginal Studies is available from the coordinator of the certificate in the Division of Social Science.

African Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Program

The African Studies program is an Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program. African studies majors must take a second major (co-major) in another department/discipline in the Faculty of Arts, or with kinesiology and health science or psychology in the Faculty of Health. Students must take at least 36 credits in the African Studies program and at least 36 credits in the co-major according to the requirements and regulations specified by each department/discipline for an Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program. Courses taken to meet African studies requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the departmental/divisional major. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least six credits in African studies and six credits in the departmental/divisional major. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

The 36 credits in African studies must include the following:

- AS/SOSC 2480 9.00;
- 24 credits chosen from the list of African studies courses;
- six credits in African studies at the 4000 level.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in African studies comprises at least 30 credits including the following:

- AS/SOSC 2480 9.00;
- 18 credits chosen from the list of African studies courses;
- AS/SOSC 4510 6.00.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

African Studies Courses

Not all of the courses listed below will necessarily be offered in any given year.

With the approval of the program coordinator, and subject to course exclusion and in-Faculty regulations, students may complete other courses for program credit in African studies.

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

The Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics does not offer a degree program or certificate but does offer courses in Arabic. See Arabic in the Courses of Instruction section.

Business and Society

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major.

Honours BA Program

- The program core;
- 18 credits from each of two of the streams;
- AS/SOSC 4040 6.00;
- 12 additional credits at the 4000 level including at least six credits at the 4000 level in each of the two streams.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level.

Note: With permission of the program coordinator, students can replace AS/SOSC 4040 6.00 with AS/SOSC 4041 6.00, AS/SOSC 4042 6.00, AS/SOSC 4043 6.00 or AS/SOSC 4044 6.00.

BA Program

- The program core;
- 18 credits from each of the two streams including at least six credits at the 3000 level in each of the two streams.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that in order to obtain a BA (90 credits degree), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 3000 level.

Note: The Faculty of Arts residence requirement will be met by successfully completing at least 50 per cent of the major requirements of each of the two streams (with the exception of The Environment) in the Faculty of Arts.

Program Core

All business and society majors must complete the program core, as follows:

- AS/ECON 1000 3.00;
- AS/ECON 1010 3.00;
- AS/CSE 1520 3.00 or AS/MATH 1581 3.00;
- AS/SOSC 1340 3.00;
- AS/SOSC 2340 9.00.

Statistics Requirement

All business and society majors must complete at least three credits in an approved statistics course. Students normally complete the approved statistics course as part of their stream requirement. However, not all of the streams require or include as a course option an approved statistics course. Students who combine two streams which do not include an approved statistics course must complete at least three credits in an approved statistics course in addition to their stream requirements.

Note: Statistics courses are offered in many of the streams and many of these courses have course credit exclusions. Check course descriptions carefully for course exclusions to avoid duplicating course work.

Business and Society Streams

Students must choose two of the streams listed below.

Business Ethics and Corporate Social Responsibility

- AS/PHIL 2070 3.00;
- six credits chosen from: AK/AS/POLS 2900 6.00, AS/SOSC 2571 9.00 or AS/SOSC 2570 9.00;

Certificate in Business Fundamentals

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting certificate requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits.

York University students may earn a Certificate in Business Fundamentals concurrent with fulfillment of the requirements for an Honours undergraduate BA degree. This certificate is open to students in all undergraduate Faculties except for students enrolled in the Schulich School of Business bachelor of business administration program or the Atkinson bachelor of administrative studies program. Students may not earn both a Certificate in Business Fundamentals and a Certificate in Non-Profit Management.

To qualify for possible admission to the Certificate in Business Fundamentals, students must complete 30 credits from a list of approved courses, and the cumulative grade point average in these 30 credits must be 5.00 (C+). There are a limited number of spaces available in the Certificate in Business Fundamentals, and therefore meeting the minimum requirements for application will not guarantee admission to the certificate program. In order to be granted the Certificate in Business Fundamentals upon graduation, students must be qualified to graduate with an Honours BA (120 credits) and must therefore maintain an overall grade point average of 5.00 (C+) on all courses completed.

Application to the Certificate in Business Fundamentals may be made only after successfully completing at least 54 credits, and the successful completion of the following requirements with a minimum overall grade point average of 5.00 (C+).

Course requirements and application/admission requirements for the Certificate in Business Fundamentals are as follows:

- AS/ECON 1000 3.00;
- AS/ECON 1010 3.00;

- At least three credits chosen from: AS/MATH 1300 3.00 or AS/MATH 1530 3.00 or AS/MATH 1550 6.00;
- At least three credits chosen from: AS/MATH 2560 3.00 or AS/ECON 2500 3.00 or AS/POLS 3300 6.00 or HH/PSYC 2020 6.00 or HH/PSYC 2021 3.00 or AS/SOCI 3030 6.00;
- At least six credits chosen from: AK/AS/POLS 2910 6.00 or AS/ECON 2300 3.00 or AS/ECON 2350 3.00 or AS/ECON 2400 3.00 or AS/ECON 2450 3.00 or AS/MATH 2580 6.00 or AS/PHIL 2070 3.00 or AS/PHIL 2075 3.00 or AS/SOSC 2210 9.00 or AS/SOSC 2340 9.00.

Note: Students may take courses through Atkinson or Glendon, subject to course credit exclusion(s) and in-Faculty regulations.

Students in an Honours undergraduate BA program who have successfully completed at least 54 credits with an overall grade point average of 5.00 (C+), and who will also have successfully completed the requirements listed above by June 1 may apply to the Certificate in Business Fundamentals by March 30 of the year these requirements will be completed. The minimum acceptable overall grade point average for application and possible admission is 5.00 (C+). Since there are a limited number of spaces available, successful admission will be based primarily on the applicant's overall grade point average.

If admitted, students must successfully complete the following courses offered by the Schulich School of Business in the following sequence and over two academic sessions:

- SB/BFND 3100 3.00;
- SB/BFND 3200 3.00;
- SB/BFND 4100 3.00;
- and SB/BFND 4200 3.00.

In order to be granted the Certificate in Business Fundamentals upon graduation, students must be qualified to graduate with an Honours BA (120 credits) and must therefore maintain an overall grade point average of 5.00 (C+) on all courses completed.

Further information about the Certificate in Business Fundamentals is available from the coordinator of the Business and Society program.

Course Substitutes

Subject to course exclusions, certificate requirements/restrictions, and residence requirements, the following courses are acceptable substitutes for the purpose of meeting Certificate in Business Fundamentals requirements:

Certificate Course	Course Substitutes
SB/BFND 3200 3.00	AS/ECON 3580 3.00 and AS/ECON 3590 3.00 with a minimum grade of C+ in each course

Certificate in Non-Profit Management

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting certificate requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits.

York University students may earn a Certificate in Non-Profit Management concurrent with fulfillment of the requirements for a bachelor's degree. This certificate is open to students in all undergraduate Faculties except for students enrolled in the Schulich School of Business bachelor of business administration program or the Atkinson bachelor of administrative studies program. Students may not earn both a Certificate in Business Fundamentals and a Certificate in Non-Profit Management.

To qualify for the Certificate in Non-Profit Management, students must complete 24 credits from a list of approved courses, with a cumulative grade point average in these 24 credits of at least 5.00 (C+).

Application to the Certificate in Non-Profit Management may be made only after successfully completing at least 54 credits, and the successful completion of the following course requirements with a minimum overall grade point average of 5.00 (C+).

Course requirements, and application and admission requirements for the Certificate in Non-Profit Management, are as follows:

- at least three credits in economics chosen from: AS/ECON 1000 3.00, AS/ECON 1010 3.00 or AS/ECON 1900 3.00;
- at least three credits in statistics or research methods chosen from: AS/ECON 2500 3.00, AS/MATH 2560 3.00, AS/POLS 3300 6.00, HH/PSYC 2020 6.00, HH/PSYC 2021 3.00, AS/SOCI 3030 6.00, AS/SOSC 3800 6.00, AS/SOSC 3991 6.00 or AS/SOSC 3993 3.00;
- at least six credits chosen from: AS/ANTH 1110 6.00, AS/POLS 1000 6.00, AS/POLS 3190 6.00, AS/SOSC 1185 9.00, AS/SOSC 1310 9.00, AS/SOSC 1430 9.00, AS/SOSC 2110 6.00, AS/SOSC 2210 9.00, AS/SOSC 2340 9.00, AS/SOSC 2435 6.00, AS/SOSC 2460 9.00, AS/SOSC 2470 6.00, AS/SOSC 2480 9.00, AS/SOSC 2710 9.00 or AS/SOCI 1010 6.00.

Note: Students may take courses through Atkinson or Glendon, subject to course credit exclusion(s) and in-Faculty regulations.

Students in an undergraduate program who have successfully completed at least 54 credits with an overall grade point average of 5.00 (C+), and who will also have successfully completed the requirements listed above by June 1, may apply to the Certificate in Non-Profit Management by May 31 of the year these requirements will be completed.

The minimum acceptable overall grade point average for application and possible admission is 5.00 (C+). Since there are a limited number of spaces available, successful admission will be based primarily on the applicant's overall grade point average.

If admitted, students must successfully complete the following courses offered by the Schulich School of Business in the following sequence and over two academic sessions:

- SB/NPMG 3000 3.00;
- SB/NPMG 3200 3.00;
- SB/NPMG 4100 3.00;
- SB/NPMG 4300 3.00.

In order to graduate with the Certificate in Non-Profit Management, students must maintain an overall grade point average of 5.00 (C+) in certificate courses.

Course Substitutes

Subject to course exclusions, certificate requirements/restrictions, and residence requirements, the following courses are acceptable substitutes for the purpose of meeting Certificate in Non-Profit Management requirements:

Certificate Course	Course Substitutes
SB/NPMG 3200 3.00	AS/ECON 3580 3.00 and AS/ECON 3590 3.00 with a minimum grade of C+ in each course

Centre for Academic Writing

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

The Centre for Academic Writing assists students to become effective independent writers, within both their academic life and elsewhere. The primary means of achieving this objective is through the centre's individualized tutoring program. All Faculty of Arts students are eligible to enrol in this program and take advantage of the opportunity to work on their writing with one of the centre's experienced faculty. The centre also regularly offers mini-courses on various issues related to writing effectively in university.

In addition, students can enrol in one of the centre's credit courses on writing in the humanities or the social sciences. These courses provide the opportunity for students to develop their writing in all phases: research, composing, drafting and revising by learning to integrate the latest research on the writing process into these activities.

Chinese

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

The Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics does not offer a degree program but does offer a certificate of proficiency, language courses in Chinese and courses on Chinese literature and culture. See Chinese in the Courses of Instruction section.

Certificate of Proficiency in Chinese Language

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

York University students may earn a Certificate of Proficiency in Chinese Language concurrent with fulfillment of the requirements for a bachelor's degree. This certificate is also open to students who already hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution, and who are admissible according to Faculty and University policies. This certificate is not, however, open to students who are pursuing or who already hold a degree in Chinese.

To apply for the certificate, students must have successfully completed at least 12 credits in Chinese language in the Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics as follows:

- AS/CH 3000 6.00, with a minimum grade of B, or AS/CH 3010 6.00, with a minimum grade of B;
- and six credits chosen from the following: AS/CH 2000 6.00, AS/CH 2030 6.00, or a Chinese literature course taught in Chinese.

Note: Students who are exempted from an intermediate level language course must take another course taught in Chinese.

Children's Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Note: Students must achieve at least a grade of B (6.00) in AS/HUMA 1970 9.00 and AS/HUMA 2690 9.00 and AS/HUMA 3695 6.00 in order to be permitted to continue as a major in children's studies. Students must achieve at least a grade of B (6.00) in AS/HUMA 1970 9.00 and AS/HUMA 2690 9.00 in order to be permitted to continue in a minor in children's studies.

Honours BA Program

Students must complete at least 42 credits in children's studies, including:

- AS/HUMA 1970 9.00;
- AS/HUMA 2690 9.00;
- AS/HUMA 3695 6.00;
- AS/HUMA 4142 6.00;
- 18 additional credits chosen from the children's studies list of courses, including at least six credits at the 4000 level.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

The Honours BA program described above may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take the 42 required credits in children's studies and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet children's studies requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits in children's studies and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in children's studies comprises at least 30 credits including:

- AS/HUMA 1970 9.00;
- AS/HUMA 2690 9.00;
- at least six credits chosen from: AS/HUMA 4142 6.00, AS/HUMA 4140 6.00 or AS/HUMA 4145 6.00;
- 12 additional credits chosen from the children's studies list of courses.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

Children's Studies Courses

Not all of the courses listed below will necessarily be offered in any given year. For more information, please consult the relevant supplemental calendars.

With the approval of the program coordinator, students may complete other courses for credit in children's studies. Subject to course exclusion and in-Faculty regulations, students may complete courses offered outside of the Faculty of Arts for credit in children's studies.

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Recommendation – 1000-level general education/foundations courses

It is strongly recommended that students choose from the following courses to meet the 1000-level general education/foundations requirement.

- AS/SOSC 1140 9.00 or AS/SOSC 1440 9.00, and
- SC/NATS 1690 6.00 or SC/NATS 1675 6.00 or SC/NATS 1710 6.00 or SC/NATS 1730 6.00, and
- AS/HUMA 2915 9.00.

Specialized Honours BA Program

Students must complete the following:

- AS/LING 1000 6.00;
- HH/PSYC 1010 6.00;
- AS/COGS 3750 3.00 (cross-listed to: AS/PHIL 3750 3.00);
- AS/PHIL 3635 3.00;
- AS/PHIL 3265 3.00;
- HH/PSYC 3260 3.00;
- AS/COGS 4750 6.00 (cross-listed to: AS/PHIL 4750 6.00) or AS/COGS 4900 6.00;
- six credits chosen from the following: AS/CSE 1020 3.00, AS/CSE 1030 3.00, AS/CSE 2001 3.00, AK/ITEC 1000 3.00, AK/ITEC 1010 3.00, AS/LING 2120 3.00, AS/LING 2140 3.00, AS/PHIL 2100 3.00, AS/PHIL 3100 3.00, AS/PHIL 3105 3.00, HH/PSYC 2020 6.00 or HH/PSYC 2021 3.00 or HH/PSYC 2030 3.00;
- nine credits chosen from the following, and including at least two different disciplines (departments): AS/CSE 2011 3.00, AS/CSE 3401 3.00, AS/CSE 3402 3.00, AK/ITEC 3230 3.00, AS/LING 3120 3.00, AS/LING 3140 3.00, AS/LING 3210 3.00, AS/LING 3220 3.00, HH/PSYC 2110 3.00, HH/PSYC 2120 3.00, HH/PSYC 2220 3.00, HH/PSYC 2240 3.00, HH/PSYC 3250 3.00, HH/PSYC 3265 3.00, HH/PSYC 3280 3.00 or HH/PSYC 3290 3.00;
- three credits chosen from the following: AS/PHIL 2160 3.00, AS/PHIL 2240 3.00 or AK/PHIL 3260 3.00;
- six credits chosen from the following, and including at least two different disciplines (departments): AS/CSE 4401 3.00, AS/CSE 4421 3.00, AS/CSE 4422 3.00, AS/CSE 4441 3.00, AS/LING 4120 3.00, AS/LING 4220 3.00, AS/LING 4230 3.00, AS/LING 4140 3.00, AS/LING 4250 3.00, AS/PHIL 4080 3.00, AS/PHIL 4081 3.00, AS/PHIL 4082 3.00, AS/PHIL 4083 3.00, AS/PHIL 4084 3.00, HH/PSYC 4010 6.00, HH/PSYC 4020 3.00/HH/PSYC 4020 6.00, HH/PSYC 4080 6.00, HH/PSYC 4180 3.00, HH/PSYC 4230 3.00, HH/PSYC 4260 3.00, HH/PSYC 4270 3.00.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies or Fine Arts, or with or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

The program described above may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Courses taken to meet cognitive science requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Communication Arts – Joint Program With Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Students in the Faculty of Arts may study concurrently towards an Honours BA or BA degree at York and a diploma or certificate in one of four areas of study in communication arts at Centennial or Seneca College. The following areas are available through the Community Colleges:

- book and magazine publishing (Centennial - certificate)
- corporate communications (Centennial - diploma)
- creative advertising (Seneca - diploma)
- radio and television broadcasting (Seneca - diploma)

Faculty of Arts students in an Honours BA program are eligible for entry to the joint program after the successful completion of a minimum of 90 credits at York, and students in a BA program are eligible for entry after the successful completion of 60 credits at York. All students must complete the requirements for an Honours BA or BA degree in the Faculty of Arts. The joint program normally takes one year longer to complete because some advanced standing credit is given by York and the college, if conditions of eligibility for advanced standing are met. For further information, contact the Student Academic Centre, Faculty of Arts, 103 Central Square, 416-736-5022.

Communication Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Program

The Communication Studies program offers an Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program. Communication studies majors must co-major in another department/discipline in the Faculty of Arts, or with a major in fine arts cultural studies or film and video (film studies) in the Faculty of Fine Arts, or with a major in kinesiology and health science or psychology in the Faculty of Health. Students must take at least 42 credits in the Communication Studies program and at least 36 credits in the co-major according to the requirements and regulations specified by each department/discipline for an Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program. Courses taken to meet communication studies requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the departmental/divisional major. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least six credits in communication studies and six credits in the departmental/divisional major. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

The 42 credits in communication studies must include the following:

- AS/SOSC 1310 9.00;
- 12 credits chosen from: AS/SOSC 2311 6.00, AS/SOSC 2312 6.00/ AS/SOSC 2312 9.00, AS/SOSC 2313 6.00 or AS/SOSC 2314 6.00/ AS/SOSC 2314 9.00;
- six credits at the 3000 level from category B;
- six credits at the 4000 level from category C;
- 12 additional credits from category B, C or D.

Students must arrange their program of study in consultation with an adviser in the program and with the department/division.

Students interested in co-majoring in fine arts cultural studies or film and video (film studies) must consult with the appropriate department in the Faculty of Fine Arts and with an adviser in the Communication Studies program.

Specialized Honours BA Program

The Communication Studies program offers a limited enrolment Specialized Honours BA program. Admission to the program requires that students achieve a 6.00 (B) average in AS/SOSC 1310 9.00 and at least six other communication studies credits, and a cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00 (C+). Continuation in, and graduation from, the program requires that students maintain a cumulative grade point average of 5.00 (C+) as well as at least a 6.00 (B) average on all 54 communication studies credits.

Because of limited space, admission is not guaranteed for all students who meet the minimum requirements. For more information regarding application information, please contact the Communication Studies program office.

Students majoring in the program must complete at least 54 credits in communication studies, as outlined below:

- AS/SOSC 1310 9.00;
- 12 credits chosen from: AS/SOSC 2311 6.00, AS/SOSC 2312 6.00/ AS/SOSC 2312 9.00, AS/SOSC 2313 6.00 or AS/SOSC 2314 6.00/ AS/SOSC 2314 9.00;
- AS/SOSC 3320 6.00;
- AS/SOSC 3991 6.00;
- six additional credits at the 3000 level from category B;
- 12 credits at the 4000 level from category C;
- six additional credits from category B, C or D.

Communication Studies Courses

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major.

Courses in the Communication Studies program are organized into four categories as described below. Not all of the courses listed below will necessarily be offered in any given year.

With the approval of the program coordinator, and subject to course exclusion and in-Faculty regulations, students may complete other courses for program credit in communication studies.

With the approval of the program coordinator, students may take AK/SOSC 2410 6.00 or AK/SOSC 2410 9.00 for major credit in communication studies in place of AS/SOSC 1310 9.00. Check with the Communication Studies Office, 3004 TEL Building for further details.

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major.

Computer Science

Note: As a result of the restructuring at the University, this program will be moved to the Faculty of Science and Engineering (pending Senate approval) as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students currently in this program in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

General Prerequisites

All 2000-level computer science courses require the following general prerequisite, in addition to or including other course specific prerequisites:

- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1030 3.00 with a grade of at least C+.

Most 3000 and 4000 level computer science courses require the following general prerequisites, in addition to or including other course specific prerequisites:

- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2011 3.00;
- a cumulative grade point average of 4.50 or better over all completed major computer science courses and AK/AS/SC/CSE 1019 3.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/SC/MATH 1019 3.00).

Note: All Computer Science Honours BA degree programs, except the Honours Minor BA program, require the successful completion of at least 30 credits which are neither computer science nor mathematics courses.

Specialized Honours BA Program

Students must complete at least 57 credits in computer science, including:

- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1019 3.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/SC/MATH 1019 3.00);
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1020 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1030 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2001 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2011 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2021 4.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2031 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3000 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3101 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3221 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3311 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3401 3.00;
- three additional credits at the 3000 level;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4101 3.00 or AK/AS/SC/CSE 4111 3.00 or AK/AS/SC/CSE 4115 3.00;
- nine additional credits at the 4000 level;
- six additional credits at the 3000 level or 4000 level.

In addition, students must complete AS/MATH 1025 3.00, AS/MATH 1090 3.00, AS/MATH 1300 3.00, AS/MATH 1310 3.00 and AS/MATH 2030 3.00.

Specialized Honours BA Program (Communication Networks Stream)

Students must complete at least 59 credits in computer science, including:

- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1019 3.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/SC/MATH 1019 3.00);
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1020 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1030 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2001 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2011 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2021 4.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2031 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3000 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3101 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3213 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3221 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3311 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3401 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3451 4.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4084 6.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4101 3.00 or AK/AS/SC/CSE 4111 3.00 or AK/AS/SC/CSE 4115 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4213 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4214 3.00;

In addition, students must complete AS/MATH 1025 3.00, AS/MATH 1090 3.00, AS/MATH 1300 3.00, AS/MATH 1310 3.00 and AS/MATH 2030 3.00.

Specialized Honours BA Program (Intelligent Systems Stream)

Students must complete at least 58 credits in computer science, including:

- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1019 3.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/SC/MATH 1019 3.00);
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1020 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1030 3.00;

- six credits chosen from: AK/AS/SC/CSE 4431 3.00, AK/AS/SC/CSE 4441 3.00, AK/AS/SC/CSE 4461 3.00 or AK/AS/SC/CSE 4471 3.00.
- In addition, students must complete AS/MATH 1025 3.00, AS/MATH 1090 3.00, AS/MATH 1300 3.00, AS/MATH 1310 3.00 and AS/MATH 2030 3.00.

Specialized Honours Program (Software Development Stream)

Students must complete at least 61 credits in computer science, including:

- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1019 3.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/SC/MATH 1019 3.00);
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1020 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1030 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2001 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2011 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2021 4.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2031 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3101 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3221 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3311 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3000 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3401 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3341 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3421 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3461 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4090 6.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4101 3.00 or AK/AS/SC/CSE 4111 3.00 or AK/AS/SC/CSE 4115 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4312 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4313 3.00.

In addition, students must complete AK/AS/SC/MATH 1025 3.00; AK/AS/SC/MATH 1090 3.00; AK/AS/SC/MATH 1300 3.00; AK/AS/SC/MATH 1310 3.00; and AK/AS/SC/MATH 2030 3.00.

Honours BA Program

Students must complete at least 49 credits in computer science, including:

- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1019 3.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/SC/MATH 1019 3.00);
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1020 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1030 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2001 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2011 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2021 4.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2031 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3000 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3101 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3221 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3311 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3401 3.00;
- 12 credits at the 4000 level.

In addition, students must complete AS/MATH 1090 3.00, AS/MATH 1300 3.00, AS/MATH 1310 3.00 and AS/MATH 2030 3.00.

Note: AS/MATH 1025 3.00 or equivalent linear algebra course recommended.

Honours BA Program (Communication Networks Stream)

Students must complete at least 56 credits in computer science, including:

- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1019 3.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/SC/MATH 1019 3.00);
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1020 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1030 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2001 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2011 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2021 4.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2031 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3000 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3101 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3213 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3221 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3311 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3401 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3451 4.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4084 6.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4213 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4214 3.00.

In addition, students must complete AS/MATH 1090 3.00, AS/MATH 1300 3.00, AS/MATH 1310 3.00 and AS/MATH 2030 3.00.

Note: AS/MATH 1025 3.00 or equivalent linear algebra course recommended.

Honours BA Program (Intelligent Systems Stream)

Students must complete at least 52 credits in computer science, including:

- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1019 3.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/SC/MATH 1019 3.00);
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1020 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1030 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2001 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2011 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2021 4.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2031 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3000 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3101 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3221 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3311 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3401 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3402 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4081 6.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4401 3.00 or AK/AS/SC/CSE 4402 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4421 3.00 or AK/AS/SC/CSE 4422 3.00.

In addition, students must complete AS/MATH 1090 3.00, AS/MATH 1300 3.00, AS/MATH 1310 3.00 and AS/MATH 2030 3.00.

Note: AS/MATH 1025 3.00 or equivalent linear algebra course recommended.

Honours BA Program (Interactive Systems Stream)

Students must complete at least 55 credits in computer science, including:

- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1019 3.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/SC/MATH 1019 3.00);
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1020 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1030 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2001 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2011 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2021 4.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2031 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3000 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3101 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3221 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3311 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3401 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3431 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3461 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4082 6.00;
- six credits chosen from: AK/AS/SC/CSE 4431 3.00, AK/AS/SC/CSE 4441 3.00, AK/AS/SC/CSE 4461 3.00 or AK/AS/SC/CSE 4471 3.00.

In addition, students must complete AS/MATH 1090 3.00, AS/MATH 1300 3.00, AS/MATH 1310 3.00 and AS/MATH 2030 3.00.

Note: AS/MATH 1025 3.00 or equivalent linear algebra course recommended.

Honours iBA Program

Students must complete at least 49 credits in computer science, including:

- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1019 3.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/SC/MATH 1019 3.00);
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1020 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1030 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2001 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2011 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2021 4.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2031 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3000 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3101 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3221 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3311 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3401 3.00;
- 12 credits at the 4000 level.

In addition, students must complete AS/MATH 1090 3.00, AS/MATH 1300 3.00, AS/MATH 1310 3.00 and AS/MATH 2030 3.00.

Note: AS/MATH 1025 3.00 or equivalent linear algebra course recommended.

In addition, students in the Honours iBA program must fulfill the following requirements:

- at least 18 credits of language study in one of the modern languages offered by York University, including the Advanced I university-level course in the chosen language;
- at least 12 credits of internationally-oriented courses chosen outside the major;
- at least one full term abroad as a full-time student at one of York University's exchange partners.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA programs described above, including any one of the three streams, may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies or Faculty of Health. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

The Honours BA program in Computer Science described above (not including any one of the three streams) may be linked with an Honours Double Major program with the interdisciplinary program in Communication Studies. Students must take at least 44 credits in computer science and at least 42 credits in the Communication Studies program. Courses taken to meet computer science requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the Communication Studies program. Students in this interdisciplinary program must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits in computer science and six credits in the Communication Studies program. For further details of requirements, see the listing for the Communication Studies Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA programs described above, including any one of the three streams, may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Major/Minor iBA Program

The Honours iBA program in Computer Science described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in computer science comprises at least 31 credits in computer science including:

- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1019 3.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/SC/MATH 1019 3.00);
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1020 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1030 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2001 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2011 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2021 4.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2031 3.00;
- At least nine credits in computer science at the 3000 or 4000 level.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

Students must complete at least 40 credits in computer science, including:

- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1019 3.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/SC/MATH 1019 3.00);
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1020 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1030 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2001 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2011 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2021 4.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2031 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3101 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3221 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3311 3.00;
- three credits at the 3000 level from courses with second digit 4 (i.e. applications);
- six additional credits at the 3000 level.

In addition, students must complete AS/MATH 1090 3.00, AS/MATH 1300 3.00 and AS/MATH 1310 3.00.

Course Substitutes

Subject to course exclusions, program requirements/restrictions, and residence requirements, the following courses are acceptable substitutes for the purpose of meeting computer science program requirements:

Program Course	Course Substitutes
AS/SC/MATH 1025 3.00	AK/AS/SC/MATH 1021 3.00, AK/AS/SC/MATH 2221 3.00
AK/AS/SC/MATH 1300 3.00	AS/SC/MATH 1000 3.00, AS/SC/MATH 1013 3.00
AK/AS/SC/MATH 1310 3.00	AS/SC/MATH 1010 3.00, AS/SC/MATH 1014 3.00

Computer Security

Note: As a result of the restructuring at the University, this program will be moved to the Faculty of Science and Engineering (pending Senate approval) as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students currently in this program in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Specialized Honours BA Program

Students must complete the following:

- Either AK/AS/SC/CSE 1020 3.00 and AK/AS/SC/CSE 1030 3.00 or AK/ITEC 1620 3.00 and AK/ITEC 1630 3.00 and AK/ITEC 2620 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 1019 3.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/SC/MATH 1019 3.00);
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2001 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2011 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2021 4.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 2031 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/MATH 1025 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/MATH 1090 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/MATH 1131 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/MATH 1300 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/MATH 1310 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/MATH 2030 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3000 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3101 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3221 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3213 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3311 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3421 3.00 or AK/ITEC 3220 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 3481 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4161 3.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/SC/MATH 4161 3.00);
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4213 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4413 3.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4481 4.00;
- AK/AS/SC/CSE 4482 3.00;
- AK/AS/PHIL 2075 3.00 or SC/STS 3500 3.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 3500 3.00).

Note: AK/AS/SC/MATH 1190 3.00 must be taken if the student has not passed 12U Geometry and Discrete Math.

Note: Students must choose to take either AK/AS/SC/CSE 1020 3.00 and AK/AS/SC/CSE 1030 3.00 or AK/ITEC 1620 3.00 and AK/ITEC 1630 3.00 and AK/ITEC 2620 3.00; either combination of courses meets prerequisites for 2000-level computer science courses, with a grade of C+ in either AK/AS/SC/CSE 1030 3.00 or AK/ITEC 2620 3.00.

Note: AS/SOSC 2312 9.00 or AS/SOSC 2340 9.00 are recommended.

Note: Wherever specified AK/ITEC courses are used to satisfy degree requirements in this program they will also be used in the general prerequisite grade point average calculation.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

Creative Writing

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

The Creative Writing program is an Honours program. Students who wish to apply for admission to the Creative Writing program are strongly advised to take one of the following courses among their first 30 university credits:

- AS/EN 1200 6.00;
- AS/EN 1300 6.00;
- AS/EN 1400 6.00
- AS/EN 1980 9.00 (cross-listed to: AS/HUMA 1980 9.00, AS/WRIT 1980 9.00);
- AS/HUMA 1100 9.00;
- AS/HUMA 1105 9.00.

Note: A maximum of six credits from the courses listed above will count for creative writing major or minor credit.

Students must successfully complete AS/EN 2900 6.00 or its equivalent before applying for admission to the Creative Writing program as a major or minor. Students taking AS/EN 2900 6.00 who wish to obtain full admission to the program as a major or minor should submit a 15-20 page portfolio of poetry and prose fiction following completion of AS/EN 2900 6.00. Students may also apply for full admission after their first 48 credits and before completion of their first 78 credits by presenting a portfolio containing work in both poetry and prose fiction as evidence of writing experience equivalent to that provided by AS/EN 2900 6.00. In either case, applicants must also fill out a Creative Writing program application form. Acceptance of the portfolio by the Creative Writing Committee constitutes full admission to the Honours Major or Honours Minor program.

It is strongly recommended that students in the Honours BA program combine creative writing with another major (excluding professional writing) or minor. Students admitted to the Honours Major or Honours Minor program should attend the advising session provided by the Creative Writing program, which is normally held in the spring. Please consult the program office for more information.

Honours BA Program

Students must complete at least 48 credits in creative writing, including:

- AS/EN 2900 6.00;
- 18 workshop credits chosen from AS/EN 3640 6.00, AS/EN 3645 6.00, AS/EN 4630 6.00, AS/EN 4640 6.00, FA/FILM 2120 6.00, FA/FILM 3120 6.00, FA/FILM 4120 6.00, FA/THEA 3290 6.00 or FA/THEA 4290 6.00, including at least six credits at the 4000 level;
- 24 additional credits chosen from the creative writing list of courses, including at least 18 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level and a maximum of six creative writing workshop credits.

Note: AS/EN 3641 6.00 and AS/EN 4635 6.00 will not fulfill the Honours Major workshop requirements, and will not count for major credit in creative writing.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program in Creative Writing described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major BA Interdisciplinary Programs

The Honours BA program in Creative Writing may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 48 credits in creative writing and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet creative writing requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits in creative writing and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

The 48 credits in creative writing must include:

- AS/EN 2900 6.00;
- 18 workshop credits chosen from AS/EN 3640 6.00, AS/EN 3645 6.00, AS/EN 4630 6.00, AS/EN 4640 6.00, FA/FILM 2120 6.00, FA/FILM 3120 6.00, FA/FILM 4120 6.00, FA/THEA 3290 6.00 or FA/THEA 4290 6.00, including at least six credits at the 4000 level;
- 24 additional credits chosen from the creative writing list of courses, including at least 18 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level and a maximum of six creative writing workshop credits.

Note: AS/EN 3641 6.00 and AS/EN 4635 6.00 will not fulfill the Honours Major workshop requirements, and will not count for major credit in creative writing.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program in Creative Writing described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor in creative writing must be pursued jointly with an Honours BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

Students must take at least 30 credits in creative writing, including:

- AS/EN 2900 6.00;
- AS/EN 3641 6.00;
- AS/EN 4635 6.00;
- 12 non-workshop credits chosen from the creative writing list of courses, including at least six credits at the 3000 or 4000 level.

Note: With permission of the program director, students in the Honours Minor program may complete an Honours Major workshop course in place of AS/EN 3641 6.00 and AS/EN 4635 6.00. Enrolment in Honours Major workshop courses is conditional upon acceptance of a 15-20 portfolio of work in the appropriate genre; acceptance of this portfolio does not guarantee admission to the course as priority is given to creative writing majors.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

Creative Writing Courses

Not all of the courses listed below will necessarily be offered in any given year.

With the approval of the program coordinator, and subject to course exclusion and in-Faculty regulations, students may complete other courses for program credit in creative writing.

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Cree

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

The Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics does not offer a degree program or certificate but does offer courses in Cree. See Cree in the Courses of Instruction section.

Criminology

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major.

Note: Students must achieve at least a grade of B (6.00) in AS/CRIM 1650 9.00 in order to be permitted to continue as a major in criminology, or to pursue additional criminology courses at the 2000, 3000 and 4000 levels. Under exceptional circumstances, non-majors who have not obtained at least a grade of B (6.00) in AS/CRIM 1650 9.00 may apply for special consideration to enrol in a criminology course for which AS/CRIM 1650 9.00 is a prerequisite. This application should be made to the coordinator of the Criminology program.

Honours BA Program

Students must complete at least 54 credits in criminology, including:

- AS/CRIM 1650 9.00 (with a minimum grade of B);
- AS/SOCI 2030 6.00;
- AS/CRIM 2650 6.00;

- AS/CRIM 2652 6.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 2652 6.00);
- AS/CRIM 3654 6.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 3654 6.00);
- AS/CRIM 3655 3.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 3655 3.00);
- AS/CRIM 3656 3.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 3656 3.00);
- AS/CRIM 4650 6.00;
- 12 additional credits chosen from the list of criminology courses, including at least six credits at the 4000 level.

Honours Double Major BA Program

Criminology may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Courses taken to meet the criminology requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the other Honours bachelor's degree program.

Students must complete at least 48 credits in criminology, including:

- AS/CRIM 1650 9.00 (with a minimum grade of B);
- AS/SOCI 2030 6.00;
- AS/CRIM 2650 6.00;
- AS/CRIM 2652 6.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 2652 6.00);
- AS/CRIM 3654 6.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 3654 6.00);
- AS/CRIM 3655 3.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 3655 3.00);
- AS/CRIM 3656 3.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 3656 3.00);
- AS/CRIM 4650 6.00;
- six additional credits at the 4000 level chosen from the list of criminology courses.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

Criminology may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 42 credits in criminology and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet the criminology requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least six credits in criminology and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

The 42 credits in criminology must include the following:

- AS/CRIM 1650 9.00 (with a minimum grade of B);
- AS/SOCI 2030 6.00;
- AS/CRIM 2650 6.00;
- AS/CRIM 2652 6.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 2652 6.00);
- AS/CRIM 3654 6.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 3654 6.00);
- AS/CRIM 3655 3.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 3655 3.00);
- AS/CRIM 3656 3.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 3656 3.00);
- AS/CRIM 4650 6.00.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

Criminology may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Courses taken to meet the criminology requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the Honours Minor bachelor's degree program.

Students must complete at least 48 credits in criminology, including:

- AS/CRIM 1650 9.00 (with a minimum grade of B);
- AS/SOCI 2030 6.00;
- AS/CRIM 2650 6.00;
- AS/CRIM 2652 6.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 2652 6.00);
- AS/CRIM 3654 6.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 3654 6.00);
- AS/CRIM 3655 3.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 3655 3.00);

- AS/CRIM 3656 3.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 3656 3.00);
- AS/CRIM 4650 6.00;
- six additional credits at the 4000 level chosen from the list of criminology courses.

Note: AS/SOCI 3810 6.00 will not count for criminology major credit.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

East Asian Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

The East Asian Studies program offers a number of undergraduate degree programs, the requirements for which are described in detail in the following sections. These degree programs have certain characteristics in common:

1. The focus of the degree programs is on the modern period. However, it is emphasized that students should also learn to appreciate the cultural traditions behind developments during the 19th and 20th centuries.
2. East Asian studies is an interdisciplinary program. Students are trained to use the concepts, skills and information of at least two academic disciplines.
3. Competence in an East Asian language (usually Chinese or Japanese) is a feature of all the degree programs except the Honours Minor.

Within the general guidelines and requirements, a student could choose from a rich array of course offerings every year to create a combination which best serves their academic interests and career aspirations. Students should consult the coordinator when designing their programs of study.

Program Distribution Requirements (Common to all programs)

1. A student must complete courses in East Asian studies from at least two departments or divisions.
2. A student must complete at least one course which is concerned mainly with pre-modern East Asia.
3. Students concentrate in either Chinese or Japanese studies, but must also study other East Asian cultures outside their area of concentration:
 - a) A student who concentrates in Chinese studies must complete at least 12 credits in non-Chinese subjects within East Asian studies;
 - b) A student who concentrates in Japanese studies must complete at least 12 credits in non-Japanese subjects within East Asian studies;
 - c) Language/translation courses will not meet program distribution requirements.
4. All students must complete at least one of the following core courses: AS/HUMA 1400 9.00 or AS/CH 2200 6.00 or AS/HIST 2710 6.00.

Specialized Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 54 credits in from the East Asian studies list of courses, including at least one core course (AS/HUMA 1400 9.00, AS/CH 2200 6.00 or AS/HIST 2710 6.00) and at least 12 credits (other than language/translation courses) at the 4000 level. Demonstrated competence in an East Asian language (usually Chinese or Japanese) at the advanced level is required. This requirement would normally be met by successful completion of AS/CH 3000 6.00 or AS/JP 3000 6.00. It may also be met by passing a competency test or by successful completion of another course recognized for the purpose.

Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 42 credits from the East Asian studies list of courses, including at least one core course (AS/HUMA 1400 9.00, AS/CH 2200 6.00 or AS/HIST 2710 6.00) and at least 12 credits (other than language/translation courses) at the 4000 level. Demonstrated competence in an East Asian language (usually Chinese or Japanese) at the intermediate level is required. This requirement will normally be met by successful completion of AS/CH 2000 6.00, or AS/JP 2000 6.00. It may also be met by passing a competency test or by successful completion of another course recognized for the purpose.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

East Asian studies may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 36 credits from the East Asian studies list of courses and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet East Asian studies requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits from the East Asian studies list of courses and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in East Asian studies comprises at least 30 credits from the East Asian studies list of courses (other than language/translation courses), including at least one core course (AS/HUMA 1400 9.00, AS/CH 2200 6.00 or AS/HIST 2710 6.00) and six credits at the 4000 level. 18 of the 30 credits must be above the 2000 level.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

East Asian Studies Courses

Not all of the courses listed below will necessarily be offered in any given year.

With the approval of the program coordinator, and subject to course exclusion and in-Faculty regulations, students may complete other courses for program credit in East Asian studies.

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Economics

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Eligibility for all economics programs and for the intermediate theory courses requires successful completion of AS/ECON 1000 3.00/AS/ECON 1010 3.00 and AS/ECON 1530 3.00/AS/ECON 1540 3.00.

AS/ECON 2300 3.00 must be successfully completed before AS/ECON 2350 3.00, and AS/ECON 2400 3.00 must be successfully completed before AS/ECON 2450 3.00. These courses cannot be taken concurrently.

All economics majors and minors should note that half (50 per cent) of the required theory courses (AS/ECON 1000 3.00/AS/ECON 1010 3.00; AS/ECON 2300 3.00/AS/ECON 2350 3.00, AS/ECON 2400 3.00/AS/ECON 2450 3.00 and, where applicable, AS/ECON 4000 3.00/AS/ECON 4010 3.00) must be taken in the Faculty of Arts. Half (50 per cent) of the total major or minor requirements must also be taken in the Faculty of Arts. Courses taken at Atkinson, Glendon or other Faculties or universities count as out-of-Faculty courses.

For double major and major/minor programs: economics courses that are borrowed to satisfy requirements of other programs may not be double-counted; they need not be replaced as long as the Faculty of Arts minimum major requirement is satisfied.

Students are responsible for meeting all listed prerequisites prior to enrolment in courses.

Specialized Honours BA Program

Students must complete at least 60 credits in economics, and must satisfy all of the following requirements.

Theory Requirement

- AS/ECON 1000 3.00 and AS/ECON 1010 3.00, AS/ECON 2300 3.00 and AS/ECON 2350 3.00, AS/ECON 2400 3.00 and AS/ECON 2450 3.00, AS/ECON 4000 3.00 and AS/ECON 4010 3.00.

Mathematics Requirement

- AS/ECON 1530 3.00 and AS/ECON 1540 3.00, AS/ECON 3530 3.00.

Statistics/Econometrics Requirement

- AS/ECON 2500 3.00, AS/ECON 3500 3.00, AS/ECON 4210 3.00.

Level Requirement

- 18 additional credits in economics and at least three additional credits at the 4000 level.

Writing Course Requirement

- At least six of the 18 level requirement credits must be writing courses in economics. In any given session, writing courses will be designated in the lecture schedule with a fourth digit of 9, e.g. AS/ECON 3249 3.00, instead of AS/ECON 3240 3.00, for Labour Economics.

Restrictions: Additional second-digit-5 AS/ECON courses may not be taken toward the Specialized Honours Major or the elective requirements. Second-digit-5 AS/ECON courses may not be used to satisfy the 3000-level or the 4000-level economics requirement.

Note: Students considering graduate studies in economics are encouraged to investigate how the mathematics and statistics requirements can be satisfied by equivalent courses in the Department of Mathematics and Statistics.

Honours BA Program

Students must complete at least 48 credits in economics, and must satisfy all of the following requirements.

Theory Requirement

- AS/ECON 1000 3.00 and AS/ECON 1010 3.00, AS/ECON 2300 3.00 and AS/ECON 2350 3.00, AS/ECON 2400 3.00 and AS/ECON 2450 3.00.

Mathematics Requirement

- AS/ECON 1530 3.00 and AS/ECON 1540 3.00.

Statistics/Econometrics Requirement

- AS/ECON 2500 3.00, AS/ECON 3210 3.00.

Level Requirement

- 18 additional credits in economics, including 12 credits at the 4000 level.

Writing Course Requirement

- At least six of the 18 level requirement credits must be writing courses in economics. In any given session, writing courses will be designated in the lecture schedule with a fourth digit of 9, e.g. AS/ECON 4309 3.00, instead of AS/ECON 4300 3.00, for Law and Economics.

Restrictions: Additional second-digit-5 AS/ECON courses may not be taken toward the Honours Major or the elective requirements. Second-digit-5 AS/ECON courses may not be used to satisfy the 3000-level or the 4000-level economics requirements.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

Economics may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Courses taken to meet economics requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least six credits in economics and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

Students must complete at least 42 credits in economics, and must satisfy all of the following requirements.

Theory Requirement

- AS/ECON 1000 3.00 and AS/ECON 1010 3.00, AS/ECON 2300 3.00 and AS/ECON 2350 3.00, AS/ECON 2400 3.00 and AS/ECON 2450 3.00.

Mathematics Requirement

- AS/ECON 1530 3.00 and AS/ECON 1540 3.00.

Statistics Requirement

- AS/ECON 2500 3.00, AS/ECON 3210 3.00.

Level Requirement

- 12 additional credits in economics, including at least six credits at the 4000 level.

Restrictions: Additional second-digit-5 AS/ECON courses may not be taken toward the Honours Major or the elective requirements. Second-digit-5 AS/ECON courses may not be used to satisfy the 3000-level or the 4000-level economics requirements.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

Students must complete at least 39 credits in economics, and must satisfy all of the following requirements.

Theory Requirement

- AS/ECON 1000 3.00 and AS/ECON 1010 3.00, AS/ECON 2300 3.00 and AS/ECON 2350 3.00, AS/ECON 2400 3.00 and AS/ECON 2450 3.00.

Mathematics Requirement

- AS/ECON 1530 3.00 and AS/ECON 1540 3.00.

Statistics Requirement

- AS/ECON 2500 3.00, AS/ECON 3210 3.00.

Level Requirement

- nine additional credits in economics.

Restrictions: The Honours Minor in economics must be pursued jointly with a non-economics Honours Major. Additional second-digit-5 AS/ECON courses may not be taken toward the major or minor in economics. Second-digit-5 AS/ECON courses may not be used to satisfy the 3000-level or 4000-level economics requirement.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

Students must complete at least 39 credits in economics, and must satisfy all of the following requirements.

Theory Requirement

- AS/ECON 1000 3.00 and AS/ECON 1010 3.00, AS/ECON 2300 3.00 and AS/ECON 2350 3.00, AS/ECON 2400 3.00 and AS/ECON 2450 3.00.

Mathematics Requirement

- AS/ECON 1530 3.00 and AS/ECON 1540 3.00.

Statistics Requirement

- AS/ECON 2500 3.00 and AS/ECON 3210 3.00.

Level Requirement

- nine additional credits in economics.

Restrictions: Additional second-digit-5 AS/ECON courses may not be taken toward the major or the elective requirements. Second-digit-5 AS/ECON courses may not be used to satisfy the 3000-level economics requirement.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that in order to obtain an BA (90 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 3000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 3000 level in the major.

Specialized Honours BA Program

The Department of Economics offers a limited enrolment Specialized Honours BA program in Economics and Business. Students who have taken 12 prerequisite credits with the required minimum program averages are encouraged to apply for admission to the program in January of the academic session in which they are completing their first year (normally 24 to 30 credits). The required average in the prerequisites (and any additional core courses) is B or 6.00, and the required overall average is C+ or 5.00. Applications received after the deadlines—the first Monday in February and before August 1—may be wait-listed. Because competition is keen, admission is not guaranteed for all students with the minimum requirements.

Students must maintain a grade point average of at least 6.00 (B) in all required courses in order to continue in, and graduate from, the program. Because some of the program's core and area of concentration courses have specific prerequisites, students may be required to complete additional courses to fulfill the economics and business requirements. Students are encouraged to regularly review degree requirements. Appointments can be made by contacting Economics and Business, 1144 Vari Hall, 416-736-5322.

Students majoring in economics and business must complete 78 credits in the program, as outlined below.

Prerequisite Courses (12 credits)

- AS/ECON 1000 3.00 and AS/ECON 1010 3.00;
- AS/ECON 1530 3.00 and AS/ECON 1540 3.00.

Core Courses (66 credits)

- AS/CSE 1520 3.00 and AS/CSE 1530 3.00 or AS/CSE 1020 3.00 and AS/CSE 1030 3.00;
- AS/ECON 2300 3.00 and AS/ECON 2350 3.00;
- AS/ECON 2400 3.00 and AS/ECON 2450 3.00;
- AS/ECON 2500 3.00 and AS/ECON 3500 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2580 6.00;
- AS/ECON 3580 3.00 and AS/ECON 3590 3.00;
- AS/ECON 4400 3.00;
- AS/ECON 4500 3.00;
- AS/ECON 3140 3.00;
- AS/ECON 4200 3.00;
- and 18 credits in an area of concentration.

The Economics and Business program must include 18 credits at the 4000 level including 12 credits in economics.

Note: A maximum of six non-economics (ECON) credits taken towards the Economics and Business (from the five Areas of Concentration) program requirements may count towards the Faculty of Arts elective requirement.

Areas of Concentration

Students will select at least 18 credits from one of the following areas of concentration:

1. Business Mathematics

Computer Science Option

The general prerequisites for 2000-level computer science courses are: AK/AS/SC/CSE 1030 3.00 with a grade of at least C+; and AK/AS/SC/MATH 1019 3.00.

The general prerequisites for 3000-level computer science courses are: AK/AS/SC/CSE 2011 3.00; one of AK/AS/SC/CSE 2001 3.00 or AK/AS/SC/CSE 2021 3.00 or AK/AS/SC/CSE 2031 3.00; a cumulative grade point average of 4.50 or better on all completed computer science courses (including only the most recent grades in repeated courses); AK/AS/SC/MATH 1300 3.00; AK/AS/SC/MATH 1310 3.00; and AS/SC/MATH 1025 3.00 or AK/AS/SC/MATH 1090 3.00. For specific course prerequisites, please refer to the computer science listings in the Courses of Instruction section of this calendar.

The general prerequisites for 4000-level computer science courses are: AK/AS/SC/CSE 2001 3.00; AK/AS/SC/CSE 2011 3.00; AK/AS/SC/CSE 2021 3.00; AK/AS/SC/CSE 2031 3.00; at least 12 credits at the 3000 level in computer science courses; a cumulative grade point average of 4.50 or better on all completed computer science courses (including only the most recent grades in repeated courses); and AK/AS/SC/MATH 1090 3.00. For specific course prerequisites, please refer to the computer science listings in the Courses of Instruction section of this calendar.

Note: To satisfy the prerequisites for courses in Operations Research and Actuarial Mathematics students may, with the permission of the director of the program, substitute AK/AS/SC/MATH 1300 3.00 and AK/AS/SC/MATH 1310 3.00 plus AK/AS/SC/MATH 2221 3.00 for AS/ECON 1530 3.00 and AS/ECON 1540 3.00 as part of their program prerequisite course requirements.

With the approval of the coordinator of the program, students may design their own area of concentration; such courses may be drawn from the offerings of any of the undergraduate Faculties.

English

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

All students majoring in English must take six credits in a 1000-level English course among their first 60 university credits. Students majoring in English are advised to take at least 12 credits in 2000-level English courses among their 30th to 60th credits. Students may only count six credits from a 1000-level English course towards their major or minor program. Students may complete a maximum of six credits from the 2200-series of AS/EN courses for major or minor credit in English.

For a complete list of courses and detailed reading lists, see the department's supplemental calendar.

Students intending to proceed to graduate school should take a broad range of courses, should avoid concentration in a particular period or genre, and, in consultation with a member of the English Department, should plan a degree program with the understanding that certain traditional subjects may be regarded as essential by some graduate schools.

Students intending to teach in Ontario schools must meet the varied requirements of various Faculties of Education, and are advised to construct a balanced degree program by doing at least some work in each major period in literary history: such students should consult specific Faculties of Education about their regulations.

Students are responsible for planning their course of study and for ensuring that all degree and major requirements are met. Members of the department will be available during the summer months, as well as during the term, to advise those students who have questions about their program or about English studies in general. Enquiries may be made through the Undergraduate Office, 208 Stong, 416-736-5166.

Specialized Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 60 credits in English, including:

- six credits from 1000-level AS/EN courses (with the exception of AS/EN 1980 9.00);
- 18 credits from 2000-level courses;
- 12 credits from 3000-level courses;
- 12 credits from 4000-level courses;
- 12 additional credits above the 1000 level.

Students must take six credits from six of the areas listed below. Six credits must be chosen from area 4.1 or 4.2. The remaining 18 credits may be chosen from the department's offerings to suit the student's interests.

Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 48 credits in English, including:

- six credits from 1000-level AS/EN courses (with the exception of AS/EN 1980 9.00);
- 18 credits from 2000-level courses;
- 24 additional credits in courses above the 2000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level.

Students must take six credits from five of the areas listed below. Six credits must be chosen from area 4.1 or 4.2.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

English may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 42 credits in English and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet English requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level including at least 12 credits in English and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

The 42 credits in English must include:

- six credits from 1000-level AS/EN courses (with the exception of AS/EN 1980 9.00);
- 12 credits from 2000-level courses;
- six credits from 3000-level courses;
- 12 credits from 4000-level courses;
- six additional credits above the 1000 level.

Students must take six credits from four of the areas listed below. Six credits must be chosen from area 4.1 or 4.2.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

Students must take at least 30 credits in English, including:

- six credits from 1000-level AS/EN courses (with the exception of AS/EN 1980 9.00);
- six credits from 2000-level courses;

- six credits from 3000-level courses;
- six credits from 4000-level courses;
- six additional credits above the 1000 level.

Students must take six credits from three of the areas listed below. Six credits must be chosen from area 4.1 or 4.2.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

Students must take at least 30 credits in English, including:

- six credits from 1000-level AS/EN courses (with the exception of AS/EN 1980 9.00);
- 12 credits from 2000-level courses;
- 12 credits from 3000-level courses.

Students must take six credits from three of the areas listed below. Six credits must be chosen from area 4.1 or 4.2 at the 3000 level.

Area Requirements

All English courses (above the 1000 level) are placed in seven areas as listed below. Not all courses are offered every year and additional courses may be added.

Note: Students may complete a maximum of six credits from the 2200-series of AS/EN courses for major or minor credit in English or for major credit in English and Professional Writing, including fulfillment of the area requirements.

Notes:

1. Some courses are listed in two areas. These may be taken to fulfill one, but not both, of the area requirements.
2. Similarly, some sections of some courses may fulfill requirements in more than one area (e.g. "Canadian Women Writers" may be counted as area 1 (Canadian) or area 5 (Gender Studies)).
3. Area 4 (British Literature) is divided into three parts. Each part may be considered a separate area. All English majors are required to take six credits from area 4.1 or 4.2.

Out-of-Faculty Courses

Subject to course exclusions, program requirements/restrictions, and residence requirements, out-of-Faculty courses may normally count for program credit toward a Faculty of Arts degree.

The following out-of-Faculty courses will not count for program credit toward a Faculty of Arts degree in English:

AK/EN 1920 6.00

- AS/EN 2910 6.00;
- AS/PRWR 2300 3.00 (cross-listed to: AS/WRIT 2300 3.00);
- nine additional credits in 2000-level English courses;
- six credits in 3000-level English courses;
- six additional credits in 2000- or 3000-level English courses;
- 12 credits in 4000-level English courses.

Area Requirements

All English courses (above the 1000 level) are placed in seven areas. Please consult the English section of this calendar for a listing of courses by area. Students must complete courses from three of the areas (other than Area 7) as follows:

- at least six credits chosen from Area 4.1 or 4.2 at the 3000 or 4000 level;
- nine credits chosen from two areas other than Areas 4.1, 4.2, or 7, including at least six credits from one of Area 1, Area 2, Area 3, Area 4.3, Area 5 or Area 6.

Stream Requirements

Students must choose one of the following professional writing streams in consultation with the program coordinator.

Book Stream

- AS/EN 3600 6.00;
- AS/EN 3602 3.00;

 GL/EN 3606 3.00
 GL/EN 3608 6.00
 GL/EN 3609 3.00

Course Substitutes

Subject to course exclusions, program requirements/restrictions, and residence requirements, the following courses are acceptable substitutes for the purpose of meeting English and professional writing program requirements:

Program Course	Course Substitutes
AS/EN 3700 6.00	AS/EN 3703 6.00
AS/PRWR 2300 3.00 (cross-listed to: AS/WRIT 2300 3.00)	AK/WRIT 3988 3.00

English as a Second Language

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

The Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics offers courses in English as a Second Language. See English as a Second Language in the Courses of Instruction section. The Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics also offers a certificate in teaching English to speakers of other languages. See the Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) section.

European Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Program

The European Studies program is an Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program. European studies majors must co-major in another department/discipline in the Faculty of Arts, or with kinesiology and health science or psychology in the Faculty of Health. Students must take at least 36 credits in the European Studies program and at least 36 credits in the co-major according to the requirements and regulations specified by each department/discipline for an Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program. Courses taken to meet European studies requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the departmental/divisional major. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least six credits in European studies and six credits in the departmental/divisional major. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

Students must complete 36 credits from the European studies list, all distinct from the courses in their other major. The European studies courses must include the following:

- AS/HUMA 2195 9.00;
- 30 credits, including six credits at the 4000 level, to be chosen from the list of European studies courses selected in consultation with the program coordinator.

Students must also satisfy a language requirement. They may do so by completing six credits in a European language (other than English) or by passing an approved competency test in a European language (other than English).

Note: A maximum of 12 credits in language courses will be counted towards the European studies major.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Courses taken to meet European studies requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the major program.

The Honours Minor in European studies comprises at least 30 credits including the following:

- AS/HUMA 2195 9.00;
- 24 credits, including six credits at the 4000 level, to be chosen from the list of European Studies program courses selected in consultation with the program coordinator.

Students must also satisfy a language requirement. They may do so by completing six credits in a European language (other than English) or by passing an approved competency test in a European language (other than English).

Note: A maximum of 12 credits in language courses will be counted towards the European studies minor.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

Streams

In areas where curricular resources suffice, such as France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Portugal, Spain or Russia, students in European studies may focus on a national or regional stream. Subject to the approval of the program coordinator, students who successfully complete at least 18 credits within such a stream will qualify to have this curricular focus noted on their transcript. Thus, a student might graduate with in political science and European studies (focus: Greece) or Italian studies and European studies (focus: Italy), or history and European studies (focus: Spain). Students who choose not to focus on a particular stream would graduate with a degree in the relevant major and a major or a minor in European studies.

Study Abroad

Students in European studies are strongly encouraged, although not required, to spend at least one academic term studying at a European university. The level of language facility generally required is equivalent to completion of at least the intermediate level, and students are encouraged to achieve such a level. Subject to the coordinator's approval, as well as letter of permission, study abroad, transfer credit, and in-Faculty regulations, courses successfully completed on such exchanges will be accepted for credit towards the major/minor and, if applicable, towards the stream in European studies.

European Studies Courses

Not all of the courses listed below will necessarily be offered in any given year.

With the approval of the program coordinator, and subject to course exclusion and in-Faculty regulations, students may complete other courses for program credit in European studies.

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

All courses offered in the Department of French Studies (AS/FR) may count for major or minor credit in European studies.

All courses offered in the Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics from the following sections may count for major or minor credit in European studies: German (AS/GER), Modern Greek (AS/GKM), Italian (AS/IT), Portuguese (AS/POR), Russian (AS/RU) and Spanish (AS/SP).

Note: For courses offered in the Department of French Studies and the Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics, please consult the European studies supplemental calendar (or Web site) to determine which courses count as language courses. For courses offered by Atkinson and Glendon that may be appropriate for this program, consult with a program adviser or the coordinator.

French Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

The Department of French Studies offers courses in three curricular areas: language, linguistics and literature.

The language sequence is a required series of language-skills courses which prepare the student for further study in the areas of linguistics and literature. AS/FR 1080 6.00 is a prerequisite to all other 2000-level courses in the department. Students who have successfully completed AS/FR 1030 6.00 or its equivalent will be eligible to take AS/FR 1080 6.00. Students enrolling in a Faculty of Arts French course for the first time must complete a French language questionnaire prior to enrolment. Failure to do so will result in denial of access to the course, and/or de-enrolment from the course.

In order to proceed to any French studies course offered at a higher level, students must obtain a minimum grade of C in each course taken within the language sequence. Students majoring or minoring in French studies must take all levels of the language sequence courses unless they are exempted from one or more levels on the recommendation of the department.

To this core of language-skills courses, majors will add further courses in French linguistics and in French literature. Students are advised that their choice of courses is also governed by departmental regulations specifying the numbers and levels of courses taken to satisfy the various program requirements. Students are encouraged to meet with the undergraduate program director.

The Department of French Studies offers the following French language courses for non-majors/minors: AS/FR 1020 6.00, AS/FR 1030 6.00, AS/FR 1060 6.00, AS/FR 2060 3.00, AS/FR 2061 3.00 and AS/FR 3060 3.00.

Students may take one academic session (which cannot be their graduating year) at a francophone university. In the case of students entering this program after the completion of 24 credits, a grade of B+ in AS/FR 1080 6.00 is the minimum requirement. For students entering the program after the successful completion of 48 credits, a grade of B+ in AS/FR 2081 3.00 or AS/FR 2082 3.00 is the minimum requirement. A minimum grade of B in either AS/FR 2100 6.00 or AS/FR 2200 6.00 is also required. In all cases, the student must have a sessional average of 6.00 (B) or above. Detailed information concerning this extra-mural year is available from the Department of French Studies or York International.

For graduate programs in French Literature, several periods of French literature may be required. For graduate programs in French Linguistics, for certain French teaching programs (BEd, MEd, M.A.T.), or for schools of translation and interpretation, an undergraduate concentration in French linguistics may be favoured. Degree students may take more than the minimum number of required courses at any level.

Specialized Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 60 credits in French studies, including:

- AS/FR 1080 6.00;
- at least nine credits chosen from: AS/FR 2081 3.00, AS/FR 2082 3.00, AS/FR 3080 6.00, AS/FR 3081 3.00 or AS/FR 3082 3.00;
- AS/FR 2100 6.00;
- AS/FR 2200 6.00;
- 33 additional credits, including at least six credits at the 3000 level and at least 12 credits at the 4000 level.

Honours BA Program

Students will take a minimum of 48 credits in French studies including:

- AS/FR 1080 6.00;
- at least nine credits chosen from: AS/FR 2081 3.00, AS/FR 2082 3.00, AS/FR 3080 6.00, AS/FR 3081 3.00 or AS/FR 3082 3.00;
- AS/FR 2100 6.00;
- AS/FR 2200 6.00;
- 21 additional credits, including at least six credits at the 3000 level and at least 12 credits at the 4000 level.

Honours iBA Program

Students will complete one of the following program options in consultation with the program coordinator.

Option A

Students will take a minimum of 45 credits in French studies including:

- AS/FR 1080 6.00;
- AS/FR 2081 3.00;
- AS/FR 2082 3.00;
- AS/FR 2100 6.00;
- AS/FR 2200 6.00;

- AS/FR 3080 6.00 or AS/FR 3081 3.00 and AS/FR 3082 3.00;
- 15 additional credits, including at least three credits at the 3000 level and at least 12 credits at the 4000 level.

In addition, students in the Honours iBA program must fulfill the following requirements:

- at least 12 credits of internationally-oriented courses chosen outside the major;
- at least one full term abroad as a full-time student at one of York University's exchange partners.

Option B

Students will take a minimum of 45 credits in French studies including:

- AS/FR 2081 3.00;
- AS/FR 2082 3.00;
- AS/FR 2100 6.00;
- AS/FR 2200 6.00;
- AS/FR 3080 6.00 or AS/FR 3081 3.00 and AS/FR 3082 3.00;
- AS/FR 4090 6.00;
- 15 additional credits, including at least three credits at the 3000 level and at least 12 credits at the 4000 level.

In addition, students in the Honours iBA program must fulfill the following requirements:

- at least 12 credits of internationally-oriented courses chosen outside the major;
- at least one full term abroad as a full-time student at one of York University's exchange partners.

Honours Double Major BA Program

French studies may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Students will take a minimum of 45 credits in French studies, including:

- AS/FR 1080 6.00;
- at least nine credits chosen from: AS/FR 2081 3.00, AS/FR 2082 3.00, AS/FR 3080 6.00, AS/FR 3081 3.00 or AS/FR 3082 3.00;
- AS/FR 2100 6.00;
- AS/FR 2200 6.00;
- 18 additional credits, including at least six credits at the 3000 level and at least 12 credits at the 4000 level.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

French studies may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 45 credits in French studies and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet French studies requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits in French studies and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

The 45 credits in French studies must include the following:

- AS/FR 1080 6.00;
- at least nine credits chosen from: AS/FR 2081 3.00, AS/FR 2082 3.00, AS/FR 3080 6.00, AS/FR 3081 3.00 or AS/FR 3082 3.00;
- AS/FR 2100 6.00;
- AS/FR 2200 6.00;
- 18 additional credits, including at least six credits at the 3000 level and at least 12 credits at the 4000 level.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Major/Minor iBA Program

The Honours iBA program in French Studies described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in French studies comprises at least 36 credits in French studies, including:

- AS/FR 1080 6.00;
- AS/FR 2081 3.00 or AS/FR 2082 3.00;
- AS/FR 2100 6.00;
- AS/FR 2200 6.00;
- 15 additional credits, including at least six credits at the 3000 level and at least six credits at the 4000 level.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of 18 credits at the 4000 level including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

Students will take at least 36 credits in French studies, including:

- AS/FR 1080 6.00;
- at least nine credits chosen from: AS/FR 2081 3.00, AS/FR 2082 3.00, AS/FR 3080 6.00, AS/FR 3081 3.00 or AS/FR 3082 3.00;
- AS/FR 2100 6.00;
- AS/FR 2200 6.00;
- nine additional credits at the 3000 level.

Certificate of Basic French Language Proficiency

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

York University students may earn a Certificate of Basic French Language Proficiency concurrent with fulfillment of the requirements for a bachelor's degree. This certificate is also open to students who already hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution, and who are admissible according to Faculty and University policies. This certificate is not, however, open to students who are pursuing or who already hold a degree in French studies.

To apply for the certificate, students must have successfully completed at least 12 credits in French studies as follows:

- AS/FR 1030 6.00, with a minimum grade of B;
- AS/FR 1060 6.00 or AS/FR 1080 6.00, with a minimum grade of B.

Certificate of Intermediate French Language Proficiency

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in health and society comprises at least 30 credits including the following:

- AS/SOSC 2110 6.00;
- AS/SOSC 2150 9.00;
- AS/SOSC 3993 3.00;
- nine additional credits at the 3000 level chosen from the health and society list of program courses, including at least six credits from the Division of Social Science;
- six social science credits at the 4000 level chosen from the list of health and society courses.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

Students will take at least 30 credits in health and society including the following:

- AS/SOSC 2110 6.00;
- AS/SOSC 2150 9.00;
- AS/SOSC 3993 3.00;

- 15 additional credits at the 3000 level chosen from the list of health and society courses, including at least six credits from the Division of Social Science.

Course Substitutes

Subject to course exclusions, program requirements/restrictions, and residence requirements, the following courses are acceptable substitutes for the purpose of meeting health and society program requirements:

Program Course	Course Substitutes
AS/SOSC 4140 6.00	AS/SOSC 4141 6.00

Health and Society Courses

Not all of the courses listed below will necessarily be offered in any given year.

With the approval of the program coordinator, and subject to course exclusion and in-Faculty regulations, students may complete other courses for program credit in health and society.

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Hebrew

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

The Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics does not offer a degree program but there is an Advanced Certificate in Hebrew and Jewish Studies and courses in Hebrew. Entry to Hebrew courses: Students will be placed in classes at a level that suits their previous experience. See Hebrew in the Courses of Instruction section.

Advanced Certificate in Hebrew and Jewish Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

York University students may earn an Advanced Certificate in Hebrew and Jewish Studies concurrent with fulfillment of the requirements for a bachelor's degree. This certificate is also open to students who already hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution, and who are admissible according to Faculty and University policies. This certificate is not, however, open to students who are pursuing or who already hold a degree in Hebrew and Jewish studies. To qualify for the Advanced Certificate in Hebrew and Jewish Studies, students must complete 12 credits in Hebrew language or literature offered in the Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics, and 24 additional credits in the areas of Hebrew language and literature and/or Jewish studies, for a total of 36 credits from the list of approved courses. No more than 18 of these credits may be taken at another university. At least 18 credits must be completed at the 3000 or 4000 level. The cumulative grade point average in all 36 credits must be at least 5.00 (C+). Detailed information, including the list of approved courses, is available in the Office of the Centre for Jewish Studies, 260 Vanier College, 416-736-5823 or the Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics, South 561 Ross, 416-736-5016.

Hellenic Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 42 credits selected from the Hellenic studies list of courses, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level, and at least six credits in Ancient Greek language and literature (AS/GK) and six credits in Modern Greek language and literature (AS/GKM). Students must include in their selection at least 12 credits covering Ancient Greece and 12 credits covering Modern Greece.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program in Hellenic Studies described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

The Honours BA program in Hellenic Studies described above may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 36 credits in Hellenic studies and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet Hellenic studies requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits in Hellenic studies and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

The 42 credits selected from the Hellenic studies list of courses must include at least six credits in Ancient Greek language and literature (AS/GK) and six credits in Modern Greek language and literature (AS/GKM). Students must include in their selection at least 12 credits covering Ancient Greece and 12 credits covering Modern Greece.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program in Hellenic Studies described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

Students will take at least 30 credits selected from the Hellenic studies list of courses, including at least six credits at the 4000 level and at least six credits in Ancient Greek language and literature (AS/GK) or Modern Greek language and literature (AS/GKM). Students must include in their selection at least six credits covering Ancient Greece and six credits covering Modern Greece.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

Specialized Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 54 credits in history, selected in consultation with the department. These must include a six credit 1000-level history course taken in the Faculty of Arts within a student's first 12 history credits. History courses taken at Glendon or Atkinson and history courses taken at other institutions may not be used to fulfill the 1000-level requirement. Students may count no more than one six credit 1000-level history course and no more than 12 credits at the 2000 level toward their major requirements. The 54 credits must include a total of at least 36 credits from the 3000 and 4000 levels, with at least 18 credits taken from 4000-level courses. A student may take six credits at the 4000 level after the completion of at least 48 credits, and 12 more after the completion of 84 credits. Of the 18 credits taken from 4000-level courses, at least 12 must be taken from 4000-level seminars as defined by the department. At least one of a student's 4000-level courses must deal with an area outside of North America (i.e. Canada and the US), and at least one must be taken in the Faculty of Arts History Department. With the permission of the department, a student may take six credits from AS/HIST 4000 6.00, AS/HIST 4900 3.00/AS/HIST 4900 6.00, AS/HIST 4990 3.00/AS/HIST 4990 6.00 or AS/HIST 4991 3.00/AS/HIST 4991 6.00. All of these count as seminars except AS/HIST 4990 3.00/AS/HIST 4990 6.00.

In addition to the courses required for their major, students in the Honours iBA program must fulfill the following requirements:

- at least 18 credits of language study in one of the modern languages offered by York University, including the Advanced I university-level course in the chosen language;
- at least 12 credits of internationally-oriented courses chosen outside the major;
- at least one full term abroad as a full-time student at one of York University's exchange partners.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

History may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 36 credits in history and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet history requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students may count no more than one six credit 1000-level history course and no more than 12 history credits at the 2000 level toward their minor requirements. Students must take at least six credits at the 4000 level after the completion of 48 credits. One of the history courses above the 1000 level must deal with an area outside of North America (i.e. Canada and the US).

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

Students will take at least 30 credits in history, selected in consultation with the department. These must include a six credit 1000-level history course taken in the Faculty of Arts within a student's first 12 history credits. History courses taken at Glendon or Atkinson and history courses taken at other institutions may not be used to fulfill the 1000-level requirement. Students may count no more than one six credit 1000-level history course and no more than 12 credits at the 2000 level toward their major requirements. One of the history courses above the 1000 level must deal with an area outside of North America (i.e. Canada and the US). A student may, with the permission of the department, take six credits in a 4000-level course.

Humanities

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Students may count a maximum of six humanities credits at the 1000 level for credit towards the major/minor in humanities.

Enrolment in 3000-level humanities courses requires the fulfilment of one of the following requirements: a previous humanities course or permission of the instructor. 3000-level humanities courses with these prerequisite requirements will be clearly identified in the Humanities Supplemental Calendar. Failure to satisfy the listed prerequisite requirement will result in being denied access to the course and/or de-enrolment from the course.

Students wishing to major or minor in humanities must contact the director of undergraduate studies, 203 Vanier College, in order to discuss their proposed program of study and arrange for a program adviser with congruent academic interests.

The following interdisciplinary Honours programs are associated with the Division of Humanities: children's studies, classical studies, classics, creative writing, East Asian studies, European studies, Hellenic studies, Latin American and Caribbean studies, religious studies, and science and technology studies. Each of these programs are designed to permit students to follow a flexible curriculum of studies with various departments and other area studies programs, along with interdisciplinary courses in the division. For more information, please consult the listings for specific interdisciplinary programs.

Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 42 credits in humanities of which at least 24 credits must be above the 2000 level, including 12 credits in 4000-level seminars.

Honours iBA Program

Students will take at least 42 credits in humanities of which at least 24 credits must be above the 2000 level, including 12 credits in 4000-level seminars.

In addition, students in the Honours iBA program must fulfill the following requirements:

- at least 18 credits of language study in one of the modern languages offered by York University, including the Advanced I university-level course in the chosen language;
- at least 12 credits of internationally-oriented courses chosen outside the major;
- at least one full term abroad as a full-time student at one of York University's exchange partners.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

Humanities may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 36 credits in humanities and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program.

Courses taken to meet humanities requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits in humanities and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Major/Minor iBA Program

The Honours iBA program in Humanities described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor BA program in Humanities comprises at least 30 credits in humanities including at least 12 credits at the 3000 level and six credits at the 4000 level.

Note: Faculty of Arts regulations require that in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major. For a humanities major, the 12 credits at the 4000 level must be humanities 4000-level seminars.

BA Program

Students will take at least 30 credits in humanities of which at least 18 credits must be at the 3000 or 4000 level.

Individualized Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Specialized Honours BA Program

The Specialized Honours program in Individualized Studies is designed for students who wish to pursue a topic or line of enquiry that requires drawing together courses from several of the University's disciplines or fields of study.

Students interested in pursuing an individualized studies degree will be asked by the coordinator to prepare a statement describing the particular subject they wish to pursue. They will also be asked to identify a set of courses, from the Faculty of Arts and elsewhere, which are relevant to this theme. If the coordinator is satisfied that the proposed subject cannot be adequately pursued under an established program or departmental major and that sufficient courses and faculty expertise exist to support individualized study in the area in question, the student will be permitted to enter the Individualized Studies program. Normally, students are eligible to join the program if they have completed at least 24 credits and no more than 66 credits by the start of the academic year.

Students in individualized studies must successfully complete and follow all the regulations for a degree in Specialized Honours in the Faculty of Arts. In addition, they must take, as part of the 54 credits relevant to their theme, the Individualized Studies Thesis Course, AS/INDV 4000 6.00. This course is to be taken during the student's final year of study.

International Development Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Students in all international development studies degree options will complete a specified number of required core courses at the 1000, 2000, 3000 and 4000 levels. Some of the degree options require the completion of at least one introductory area studies course, intended to familiarize students with the social, political, economic and cultural dynamics of one region in the developing world. Students will also be required to complete a specified number of additional optional courses offered in various academic units at the 3000 and 4000 levels, chosen from at least two of the following areas of concentration:

- culture
- diasporas and migration
- environment
- gender
- political economy
- politics, governance and policy

Specialized Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 60 credits including the following:

- AS/SOSC 1430 9.00;
- AS/SOSC 2800 6.00;
- six credits chosen from the following: AS/HUMA 1400 9.00, AS/HUMA 2310 9.00, AS/SOSC 2480 9.00, AS/SOSC 2460 9.00 or AS/SOSC 2435 6.00;
- AS/SOSC 3800 6.00;
- 18 credits, including at least six credits in each of three areas of concentration;
- AS/SOSC 4600 6.00;
- 12 credits at the 4000 level in two of the three areas of concentration.

Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 48 credits including the following:

- AS/SOSC 1430 9.00;
- AS/SOSC 2800 6.00;
- six credits chosen from the following: AS/HUMA 1400 9.00, AS/HUMA 2310 9.00, AS/SOSC 2480 9.00, AS/SOSC 2460 9.00, AS/SOSC 2435 6.00;
- AS/SOSC 3800 6.00;
- 12 credits, including at least six credits in each of two areas of concentration;
- AS/SOSC 4600 6.00;
- six credits at the 4000 level in one of the two areas of concentration.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

International development studies may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 36 credits in international development studies and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet international development studies requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least six credits in international development studies and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

The 36 credits in international development studies must include the following:

- AS/SOSC 1430 9.00;
- AS/SOSC 2800 6.00;
- AS/SOSC 3800 6.00;
- 12 credits, including at least six credits in each of two areas of concentration;
- AS/SOSC 4600 6.00.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program in International Development Studies described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in international development studies comprises at least 30 credits including the following:

- AS/SOSC 1430 9.00;
- AS/SOSC 2800 6.00;
- AS/SOSC 3800 6.00;
- 12 credits, including at least six credits in each of two areas of concentration, and including at least six credits at the 3000 or 4000 level.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

Students will take at least 30 credits including the following:

- AS/SOSC 1430 9.00;
- AS/SOSC 2800 6.00;
- AS/SOSC 3800 6.00;
- 12 credits, including at least six credits in each of two areas of concentration, and including at least six credits at the 3000 or 4000 level.

Course Substitutes

Subject to course exclusions, program requirements/restrictions, and residence requirements, the following courses are acceptable substitutes for the purpose of meeting international development studies program requirements:

Program Course	Course Substitutes
AS/SOSC 4600 6.00	AS/SOSC 4602 6.00

Areas of Concentration

Not all of the courses listed below will necessarily be offered in any given year.

With the approval of the program coordinator, and subject to course exclusion and in-Faculty regulations, students may complete other courses for program credit in international development studies.

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

For more information, please consult the listings for specific programs and certificates.

Note 1: Students who are exempted from one or more of the courses required for the degree must still complete the total number of credits required for the program. Please consult the department's annual supplemental calendar for more detailed information regarding degree requirements.

Note 2: Students who wish to take their 54th through 84th credits abroad should consult the appropriate section coordinator and International@York prior to December 15 of the previous academic session.

Language and Learning

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

The Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics does not offer a degree program or certificate but does a course in Language and Learning. See Language and Learning in the Courses of Instruction section.

Latin

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

The Department of Languages, Literature and Linguistics offer first-year Latin. Upper-level courses in Latin and courses in literature, history and culture are offered by the program in Classical Studies.

See Classical Studies and/or Classics.

Latin American and Caribbean Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Program

The Latin American and Caribbean Studies program is an Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program. Latin American and Caribbean studies majors must co-major in another department/discipline in the Faculty of Arts, or with kinesiology and health science or psychology in the Faculty of Health. Students must take at least 36 credits in the Latin American and Caribbean Studies program and at least 36 credits in the co-major according to the requirements and regulations specified by each department/discipline for an Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program. Courses taken to meet Latin American and Caribbean studies requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the departmental/divisional major. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least six credits in Latin American and Caribbean studies and six credits in the departmental/divisional major. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

The 36 credits in Latin American and Caribbean studies must include the following:

- AS/HUMA 2310 9.00 or AS/SOSC 2460 9.00;
- 24 credits chosen from the list of Latin American and Caribbean studies courses;
- six credits in Latin American and Caribbean studies at the 4000 level.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in Latin American and Caribbean studies comprises at least 30 credits including the following:

- AS/HUMA 2310 9.00 or AS/SOSC 2460 9.00;
- 18 credits chosen from the list of Latin American and Caribbean studies courses;
- six credits at the 4000 level chosen from the list of Latin American and Caribbean studies courses.

All Latin American and Caribbean studies majors/minors should arrange their program of study in consultation with the program coordinator and their co-major.

In addition to their course work, students registered in Latin American and Caribbean studies must satisfy a language requirement by demonstrating a working knowledge of either Spanish, Portuguese, French or another language (other than English) spoken in Latin America and the Caribbean which is relevant to the student's program of study. Students may satisfy this requirement by translating into English a text of no more than two pages in length. Alternatively, they may complete a university-level language course (at a level determined by a departmental placement test) with a final grade of C+ or higher. Language courses do not count toward the 36 credits required of Latin American and Caribbean studies majors.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation specifies that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits) students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

Latin American and Caribbean Studies Courses

Not all of the courses listed below will necessarily be offered in any given year.

With the approval of the program coordinator, and subject to course exclusion and in-Faculty regulations, students may complete other courses for program credit in Latin American and Caribbean studies.

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

- 12 additional credits chosen from the law and society list of courses, including at least six credits at the 4000 level.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

Law and society may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 42 credits in law and society and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet the law and society requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits in law and society and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours (Double Major) Interdisciplinary BA programs.

The 42 credits in law and society must include the following:

- AS/SOSC 2350 6.00;
- 18 credits chosen from: AS/SOSC 1210 9.00, AS/SOSC 1341 9.00, AS/SOSC 1350 9.00, AS/SOSC 2330 9.00, AS/SOSC 3360 6.00, AS/SOSC 3362 6.00, AS/SOSC 3370 6.00, AS/SOSC 3380 6.00, AS/SOSC 2652 6.00, AS/SOSC 3382 6.00, AS/SOSC 3391 6.00, AS/SOSC 3392 6.00, AS/SOSC 3653 3.00, AS/SOSC 3992 6.00, AS/SOSC 3993 3.00;
- at least one six credit capstone course chosen from the AS/SOSC 4350 6.00 to AS/SOSC 4356 6.00 series of courses;
- 12 additional credits chosen from the law and society list of courses, including at least six credits at the 4000 level.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

Law and society may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Students must complete at least 42 credits in law and society, including:

- AS/SOSC 2350 6.00;

General Certificate in Law and Society

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting certificate requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits.

York University students may earn a General Certificate in Law and Society concurrent with fulfillment of the requirements for a bachelor's degree. This certificate is not, however, open to students who are pursuing or who already hold a degree in law and society.

To qualify for the General Certificate in Law and Society, students must complete 24 credits from a list of approved law and society courses, and the cumulative grade point average in these 24 credits must be 5.00 (C+) or higher.

Course requirements for the general certificate are as follows: AS/SOSC 2350 6.00 and 18 additional credits from among the courses recognized as satisfying the degree requirements in the Law and Society program. At least six credits must be taken at the 4000 level. A maximum of 12 credits may be offered by the Political Science Department. Courses taken may not be used to fulfill both the public policy and administration degree and the General Certificate in Law and Society. For a current list of approved courses, see the law and society section of this calendar. Further information about the General Certificate in Law and Society is available from the coordinator of the Law and Society program.

Linguistics

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

In any of the programs described below, a student taking both AS/LING 1000 6.00 and AS/LING 2060 6.00 will be required to complete an additional three credits in linguistics to satisfy the linguistics component of the degree.

Specialized Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 54 credits in linguistics, including:

- 18 additional credits in linguistics (LING), including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

Linguistics may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 36 credits in linguistics and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet linguistics requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least six credits in linguistics and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

Students will take at least 36 credits in linguistics, including:

- AS/LING 1000 6.00;
- AS/LING 2110 3.00;
- AS/LING 2120 3.00;
- AS/LING 2130 3.00;
- AS/LING 2140 3.00;
- AS/LING 3120 3.00;
- AS/LING 3140 3.00;
- 12 additional credits in linguistics (LING), including at least six credits at the 4000 level.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in linguistics comprises at least 30 credits in linguistics, including:

- AS/LING 1000 6.00;
- AS/LING 2110 3.00;
- AS/LING 2120 3.00;
- AS/LING 2130 3.00;
- AS/LING 2140 3.00;
- AS/LING 3120 3.00 or AS/LING 3140 3.00;
- nine additional credits in linguistics (LING), including at least six credits at the 4000 level.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation specifies that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits) students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

Students will take at least 30 credits in linguistics, including:

- AS/LING 1000 6.00;
- AS/LING 2110 3.00;
- AS/LING 2120 3.00;
- AS/LING 2130 3.00;
- AS/LING 2140 3.00;
- AS/LING 3120 3.00 or AS/LING 3140 3.00;
- nine additional credits in linguistics (LING) at the 3000 level.

Course Substitutes

Subject to course exclusions, program requirements/restrictions, and residence requirements, the following courses are acceptable substitutes for the purpose of meeting linguistics program requirements:

Program Course	Course Substitutes
AS/LING 1000 6.00	GL/EN 2605 6.00 (cross-listed to: GL/LIN 2605 6.00)

With the approval of the program coordinator, and subject to course exclusion and in-Faculty regulations, students may complete other GL/LIN courses for program credit in linguistics in the Faculty of Arts.

Mathematics and Statistics

Note: As a result of the restructuring at the University, this program will be moved to the Faculty of Science and Engineering (pending Senate approval) as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students currently in this program in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics offers Honours BA and BA degree programs in four major subjects:

- applied mathematics
- mathematics
- mathematics for commerce
- statistics

The degree programs in each major are listed separately. A student should choose one of these majors based on interest and employment goals; but it is possible to change a major provided the requirements of the desired major can be met.

For more information, please refer to the department's supplemental calendar. Also see the department's home page on the Web at <http://www.math.yorku.ca>.

All Honours Major degree candidates in the Applied Mathematics, Mathematics, Mathematics for Commerce, and Statistics programs must complete the following set of common requirements identified as the mathematics/statistics core:

Mathematics/Statistics Core

- AS/MATH 1021 3.00;
- AS/MATH 1131 3.00;
- AS/MATH 1200 3.00;
- AS/MATH 1300 3.00;
- AS/MATH 1310 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2022 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2030 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2310 3.00.

Applied Mathematics BA Programs

Specialized Honours BA Program

- AS/CSE 1560 3.00;
- mathematics/statistics core;
- AS/MATH 2001 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2041 3.00;

- AS/MATH 3001 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3241 3.00.
- AS/MATH 3242 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3410 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3260 3.00 or AS/MATH 3170 6.00;
- at least 12 additional credits selected from mathematics (MATH) courses without second digit 5 at the 4000 level.

Honours BA Program

- AS/CSE 1560 3.00;
- mathematics/statistics core;
- AS/MATH 2041 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2270 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3241 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3242 3.00 or AS/MATH 3260 3.00 or AS/MATH 3170 6.00;
- 12 credits at the 4000 level, selected from mathematics (MATH) courses without second digit 5.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in applied mathematics consists of:

- AS/SC/CSE 1560 3.00;
- AS/SC/MATH 1300 3.00;
- AS/SC/MATH 1310 3.00;
- AS/MATH 1021 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2310 3.00;

- six credits chosen from the following: AS/SC/MATH 2041 3.00, AS/SC/MATH 2270 3.00, either AS/SC/MATH 2022 3.00 or AS/MATH 2222 3.00;
- at least 12 additional credits from mathematics (MATH) courses without second digit 5 at the 3000 level or higher, including at least one of AS/SC/MATH 3170 6.00 or AS/SC/MATH 3241 3.00 or AS/SC/MATH 3260 3.00.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

- AS/CSE 1560 3.00;
- AS/SC/MATH 1021 3.00;
- AS/SC/MATH 1131 3.00;
- AS/SC/MATH 1200 3.00;
- AS/SC/MATH 1300 3.00;
- AS/SC/MATH 1310 3.00;

- AS/MATH 2041 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2270 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3241 3.00;
- AS/SC/MATH 3260 3.00 or AS/SC/MATH 3170 6.00.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain a BA (90 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 3000 level or higher, including at least 12 credits in the major.

Mathematics BA Programs

Specialized Honours BA Program

- AS/CSE 1560 3.00;
- mathematics/statistics core;
- AS/MATH 2001 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3001 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3010 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3020 6.00 or both AS/MATH 3131 3.00 and AS/MATH 3132 3.00;
- six credits chosen from the following: AS/MATH 4000 3.00, AS/MATH 4000 6.00, AS/MATH 4001 6.00, AS/MATH 4020 6.00, AS/MATH 4030 3.00, AS/MATH 4080 6.00, AS/MATH 4110 3.00, AS/MATH 4120 3.00, AS/MATH 4130 3.00, AS/MATH 4140 3.00, AS/MATH 4150 3.00, AS/MATH 4160 3.00, AS/MATH 4170 6.00, AS/MATH 4210 3.00, AS/MATH 4230 3.00, AS/MATH 4250 6.00, AS/MATH 4280 3.00, AS/MATH 4290 3.00, AS/MATH 4300 3.00, AS/MATH 4300 6.00, AS/MATH 4430 3.00, AS/MATH 4431 3.00, AS/MATH 4630 3.00 or AS/MATH 4730 3.00;
- at least six additional credits in mathematics (MATH) courses without second digit 5 at the 4000 level (these must include either AS/MATH 4001 6.00 or AS/MATH 4020 6.00 if neither was taken above);
- and 15 additional credits in mathematics (MATH) courses without second digit 5.

Honours BA Program

- AS/CSE 1560 3.00;
- mathematics/statistics core;
- AS/MATH 2001 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3001 3.00;

- AS/MATH 3020 6.00 or both AS/MATH 3131 3.00 and AS/MATH 3132 3.00;
- six credits chosen from the following: AS/MATH 4000 3.00, AS/MATH 4000 6.00, AS/MATH 4001 6.00, AS/MATH 4020 6.00, AS/MATH 4030 3.00, AS/MATH 4080 6.00, AS/MATH 4110 3.00, AS/MATH 4120 3.00, AS/MATH 4130 3.00, AS/MATH 4140 3.00, AS/MATH 4150 3.00, AS/MATH 4160 3.00, AS/MATH 4170 6.00, AS/MATH 4210 3.00, AS/MATH 4230 3.00, AS/MATH 4250 6.00, AS/MATH 4280 3.00, AS/MATH 4290 3.00, AS/MATH 4300 3.00, AS/

- MATH 4300 6.00, AS/MATH 4430 3.00, AS/MATH 4431 3.00, AS/MATH 4630 3.00 or AS/MATH 4730 3.00;
- six additional credits in mathematics (MATH) courses without second digit 5 at the 4000 level.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major BA Interdisciplinary Programs

The Honours BA program described above may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 42 credits in mathematics and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet mathematics requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits in mathematics and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in mathematics requires:

- AS/MATH 1300 3.00;
- AS/MATH 1310 3.00;
- AS/MATH 1021 3.00;
- three credits chosen from: AS/CSE/MATH 1019 3.00, AS/MATH 1090 3.00, AS/MATH 1190 3.00, AS/MATH 1200 3.00, AS/MATH 2030 3.00 or AS/MATH 2320 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2022 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2310 3.00;
- 12 additional credits in mathematics (MATH) courses without second digit 5 at the 3000 level or higher.

Note: In all Honours Mathematics programs, AS/MATH 1021 3.00 and/or AS/MATH 2022 3.00 may be replaced by other linear algebra courses, but if the grade obtained in any such replacement course is below A then one of the following courses must be taken in addition to the Honours requirements noted in each program above: AS/MATH 1019 3.00, AS/MATH 1090 3.00, AS/MATH 1190 3.00 or AS/MATH 2320 3.00.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

- AS/CSE 1560 3.00;
- AS/MATH 1300 3.00 or equivalent;
- AS/MATH 1310 3.00 or equivalent;
- AS/MATH 1021 3.00 or equivalent;
- three credits chosen from: AS/CSE/MATH 1019 3.00, AS/MATH 1090 3.00, AS/MATH 1190 3.00, AS/MATH 1200 3.00, AS/MATH 2030 3.00 or AS/MATH 2320 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2022 3.00 or equivalent;

- AS/MATH 2310 3.00;
- 12 additional credits in mathematics (MATH) courses without second digit 5 at the 3000 level or higher.

Note: Students who have taken AS/MATH 1530 3.00 and AS/MATH 1540 3.00 or AS/MATH 1550 6.00 may not take AS/MATH 1300 3.00, but will be considered to have credit for AS/MATH 1300 3.00 and may take AS/MATH 1310 3.00.

Mathematics for Commerce Programs

Honours BA Program

The Honours BA program in Mathematics for Commerce has two streams, and students must complete the requirements of one of the streams. The Operations Research Stream (industrial optimization) and the Actuarial Stream (insurance) require more intensive calculus courses than the BA program in Mathematics for Commerce, starting in first year.

Operations Research Stream

- AS/CSE 1560 3.00;
- mathematics/statistics core;
- AS/MATH 2131 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3034 3.00 or AS/MATH 3430 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3330 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3170 6.00;
- AS/MATH 4170 6.00;
- six additional credits in mathematics (MATH) courses at the 4000 level.

Actuarial Stream

- AS/CSE 1560 3.00;
- mathematics/statistics core;
- AS/MATH 2131 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2280 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3131 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3280 6.00;
- AS/MATH 3330 3.00;
- AS/MATH 4280 3.00;
- AS/MATH 4430 3.00 or AS/MATH 4431 3.00;
- six additional credits in mathematics (MATH) courses at the 4000 level.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must complete the following courses or approved substitutes:

- AS/CSE 1520 3.00;
- AS/MATH 1550 6.00 or AS/MATH 1530 3.00 and AS/MATH 1540 3.00;
- AS/MATH 1581 3.00;
- AS/MATH 1021 3.00
- AS/MATH 2560 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2570 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3170 6.00;
- AS/MATH 3330 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3430 3.00 or AS/MATH 3034 3.00.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

Students must complete the following courses or approved substitutes:

- AS/CSE 1520 3.00;
- AS/CSE 1530 3.00;
- AS/MATH 1550 6.00 or AS/MATH 1530 3.00 and AS/MATH 1540 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2221 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2222 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2560 3.00;

- AS/MATH 2570 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2580 6.00;
- AS/MATH 3034 3.00 or AS/MATH 3430 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3170 6.00;
- AS/MATH 3330 3.00.

Note: AS/MATH 3033 3.00 may be taken instead of AS/MATH 3330 3.00.

Statistics BA Programs

Specialized Honours BA Program

- AS/CSE 1560 3.00;
- mathematics/statistics core;
- AS/MATH 2001 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2131 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3001 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3033 3.00 or AS/MATH 3330 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3034 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3131 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3132 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3430 3.00;
- 12 credits in mathematics (MATH) courses at the 4000 level with third digit 3;
- six additional credits in mathematics (MATH) courses without second digit 5.

Honours BA Program

- AS/CSE 1560 3.00;
- mathematics/statistics core;
- AS/MATH 2131 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3033 3.00 or AS/MATH 3330 3.00;
- three credits chosen from: AS/MATH 3034 3.00 or AS/MATH 3430 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3131 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3132 3.00;
- 12 credits in mathematics (MATH) courses at the 4000 level with third digit 3.

Note: In the Honours BA program, AS/MATH 2222 3.00 will be accepted as a replacement for AS/MATH 2022 3.00, but is not recommended.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major BA Interdisciplinary Programs

The Honours BA program described above may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 48 credits in statistics and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet statistics requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits in statistics and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in statistics requires:

- first-year calculus (six credits at the 1000 level without second digit 5);
- AS/MATH 1021 3.00;
- AS/MATH 1131 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2022 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2030 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2131 3.00;
- nine credits in mathematics (MATH) courses at the 2000 level or higher with third digit 3.

Note: Students who have taken AS/MATH 1530 3.00 and AS/MATH 1540 3.00 or AS/MATH 1550 6.00 may not take AS/MATH 1300 3.00, but will be considered to have credit for AS/MATH 1300 3.00 and may take AS/MATH 1310 3.00.

Note: AS/MATH 2221 3.00 and AS/MATH 2222 3.00 are not recommended, but will be accepted as course exclusions for AS/MATH 1021 3.00 and AS/MATH 2022 3.00.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

- AS/CSE 1560 3.00;
- AS/SC/MATH 1021 3.00;
- AS/SC/MATH 1131 3.00;
- AS/SC/MATH 1200 3.00;
- AS/SC/MATH 1300 3.00;
- AS/SC/MATH 1310 3.00;
- AS/SC/MATH 2022 3.00;
- AS/SC/MATH 2030 3.00;
- AS/MATH 2131 3.00;
- AS/SC/MATH 2310 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3033 3.00 or AS/MATH 3330 3.00;
- AS/MATH 3131 3.00;
- at least three additional credits in mathematics (MATH) courses at the 3000 or 4000 level with third digit 3.

Note: In the BA program, AS/MATH 2222 3.00 will be accepted as a replacement for AS/MATH 2022 3.00, but it is not recommended.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain a BA (90 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 3000 level or higher, including at least 12 credits in the major.

Note: Students who have taken AS/MATH 1530 3.00 and AS/MATH 1540 3.00 or AS/MATH 1550 6.00 may not take AS/MATH 1300 3.00, but will be considered to have credit for AS/MATH 1300 3.00 and may take AS/MATH 1310 3.00.

Philosophy

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

While there are no particular courses required for the philosophy degree, it is strongly recommended that honours majors take the following courses: AS/PHIL 2010 3.00, AS/PHIL 2015 3.00, AS/PHIL 2020 3.00, AS/PHIL 2025 3.00 and AS/PHIL 2100 3.00. All majors should also consult the undergraduate program director concerning course selection and design of individual programs.

Specialized Honours BA Program

With the advice of the department, students will take at least 54 credits in philosophy, including at least 30 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level.

Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 42 credits in philosophy, including at least 18 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

Philosophy may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 36 credits in philosophy and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet philosophy requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least six credits in philosophy and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in philosophy comprises at least 30 credits in philosophy, including at least six credits at the 4000 level.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

Students must take at least 30 credits in philosophy including at least 12 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level.

Out-of-Faculty Courses

Subject to course exclusions, program requirements/restrictions, and residence requirements, out-of-Faculty courses may normally count for program credit toward a Faculty of Arts degree.

The following out-of-Faculty courses will not count for program credit toward a Faculty of Arts degree in philosophy:

AK/PHIL 1002 6.00
 AK/PHIL 3000 3.00
 AK/PHIL 3690 3.00
 AK/PHIL 3776 3.00
 AK/ADMS 4295 6.00/AK/PHIL 4295 6.00

General Certificate in Practical Ethics

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting certificate requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits.

York University students may earn a General Certificate in Practical Ethics concurrent with fulfillment of the requirements for a bachelor's degree. Practical ethics is an exciting new area of multidisciplinary study and research which provides the opportunity to apply ethical concepts and principles to contemporary social issues. The courses offered as part of the General Certificate in Practical Ethics enable students to address questions of applied ethics and public policy in the fields of anthropology, economics, environmental studies, humanities, philosophy, political science, social science and sociology.

To qualify for the General Certificate in Practical Ethics, students must complete 24 credits and the cumulative grade point average on these 24 credits must be at least 5.00 (C+). Course requirements for the General Certificate in Practical Ethics are as follows:

- AS/PHIL 2070 3.00 and AS/PHIL 2075 3.00;
- and 18 additional credits from the Practical Ethics Certificate list of courses, of which, at least six credits must be taken at the 3000 or 4000 level. These 18 credits must be chosen so as to ensure a focus.

A maximum of six credits may be taken at the 1000 level. 12 of the 24 credits must be taken outside the Philosophy Department.

Students must register for the certificate, and written approval of a member of the advisory group for the certificate must be obtained. Such approval is conditional on the student submitting an acceptable written justification of their intended course selection. Equivalent courses must be approved by the coordinator. Students must indicate their intention to pursue the certificate by completing an enrolment form available from the Philosophy Department.

Practical Ethics Certificate Courses

Not all of the courses listed below will necessarily be offered in any given year.

Note: For purposes of meeting certificate requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits.

Students must take at least 36 credits from the religious studies list of courses and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet religious studies requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits from the religious studies list of courses and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

Students will take at least 36 credits from the religious studies list of courses, including AS/HUMA 2800 9.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 2600 9.00) and at least 12 credits at the 4000 level.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in religious studies comprises at least 30 credits from the religious studies list of courses, including AS/HUMA 2800 9.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 2600 9.00) and six credits at the 4000 level.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

Students will take at least 30 credits from the religious studies list of courses, including AS/HUMA 2800 9.00 (cross-listed to: AS/SOSC 2600 9.00) and at least 12 credits above the 2000 level.

Religious Studies Courses

Not all of the courses listed below will necessarily be offered in any given year.

With the approval of the program coordinator, and subject to course exclusion and in-Faculty regulations, students may complete other courses for program credit in religious studies.

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Russian

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: Students who are exempted from Russian language courses based on their knowledge of Russian must still successfully complete the total number of credits required for their major or minor.

Note: AS/RU 1000 6.00 will not count for major or minor credit in the Russian program.

Russian literature and culture courses which count for major or minor credit in Russian are divided into two groups:

Group A: 19th-Century Literature and Culture

AS/RU 2750 6.00, AS/RU 3720 3.00, AS/RU 3730 3.00, AS/RU 3760 3.00 or AS/RU 4760 3.00, AS/RU 3761 3.00 or AS/RU 4761 3.00, AS/RU 4550 3.00, AS/RU 4560 3.00.

Group B: 20th-Century Literature and Culture

AS/RU 3740 3.00 or AS/RU 4740 3.00, AS/RU 3750 3.00 or AS/RU 4750 3.00, AS/RU 3770 3.00 or AS/RU 4770 3.00, AS/RU 3771 3.00 or AS/RU 4771 3.00, AS/RU 3790 6.00, AS/RU 4650 3.00, AS/RU 4660 3.00.

Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 42 credits at the 2000 level or above, including the following:

- AS/RU 2000 6.00;
- AS/RU 3000 6.00;
- 30 additional credits in courses with an AS/RU course prefix, including at least six credits from each of Group A and Group B and including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level.

Sexuality Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the minor.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in sexuality studies comprises at least 30 credits, as follows:

- AS/SXST 2600 6.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/GL/WMST 2600 6.00);
- AS/SXST 4600 6.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/GL/WMST 4600 6.00);
- a minimum of 12 credits chosen from the list of primary courses and a maximum of six credits from the list of secondary courses. Of the 18 credits selected from the primary/secondary course lists, at least six credits must be at the 3000 or 4000 level.

Sexuality Studies Courses

Not all of the courses listed below will necessarily be offered in any given year.

With the approval of the program coordinator, and subject to course exclusion and in-Faculty regulations, students may complete other courses for program credit in sexuality studies.

Cross-Disciplinary Certificate in Sexuality Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting certificate requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits.

Faculty of Arts students may earn a Cross-Disciplinary Certificate in Sexuality Studies concurrent with fulfillment of the requirements for a bachelor's degree. This certificate is not, however, open to students who are pursuing or who already hold a degree in sexuality studies.

To qualify for the Cross-Disciplinary Certificate in Sexuality Studies, students must complete 24 credits and the cumulative grade point average in these 24 credits must be 4.00 (C) or higher. Course requirements for the certificate are as follows:

- AS/SXST 2600 6.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/GL/WMST 2600 6.00);
- AS/SXST 4600 6.00 (cross-listed to: AK/AS/GL/WMST 4600 6.00);
- 12 additional credits chosen from the list of sexuality studies courses, including at least six credits from the list of primary courses and at least six credits at the 3000 or 4000 level.

Social and Political Thought

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Program

The Social and Political Thought program is an Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program. The program is housed in the Division of Social Science. Social and political thought majors must co-major in another department/discipline in the Faculty of Arts, or with kinesiology and health science or psychology in the Faculty of Health. Students must take at least 36 credits in the Social and Political Thought program and at least 36 credits in the co-major according to the requirements and regulations specified by each department/discipline for an Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program. Courses taken to meet social and political thought requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the departmental/divisional major. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least six credits in social and political thought and six credits in the departmental/divisional major. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

The 36 credits in social and political thought must include the following:

- AS/SOSC 2550 6.00 or AS/SOSC 2570 9.00;
- 24 credits chosen from the list of social and political thought courses;
- AS/SOSC 4511 6.00.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in social and political thought comprises at least 30 credits including the following:

- six credits chosen from: AS/SOSC 2550 6.00 or AS/SOSC 2570 9.00;
- 18 credits at the 3000 level chosen from the Social and Political Thought program list of courses;
- six credits at the 4000 level chosen from the list of social and political thought courses.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

Social and Political Thought Courses

Not all of the courses listed below will necessarily be offered in any given year.

With the approval of the program coordinator, and subject to course exclusion and in-Faculty regulations, students may complete other courses for program credit in social and political thought.

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

Sociology may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 36 credits in sociology and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet sociology requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least six credits in sociology and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

The 36 credits in sociology must include:

- AS/SOCI 1010 6.00 in the first 48 credits;
- the 2000-level fundamentals courses: AS/SOCI 2030 6.00 (methods) and AS/SOCI 2040 6.00 (theory). Students must complete AS/SOCI 2030 6.00 and AS/SOCI 2040 6.00 within the first 84 credits and take at least six of these credits in the first 60 credits, plus any one of AS/SOCI 2050 6.00, AS/SOCI 2060 6.00 or AS/SOCI 2070 6.00;
- six credits at the 3000 level; and
- six credits at the 4000 level.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in sociology comprises at least 36 credits in sociology, including:

- AS/SOCI 1010 6.00 in the first 48 credits;
- the 2000-level fundamentals courses: AS/SOCI 2030 6.00 (methods) and AS/SOCI 2040 6.00 (theory). Students must complete AS/SOCI 2030 6.00 and AS/SOCI 2040 6.00 within the first 84 credits and take at least six of these credits in the first 60 credits, plus any one of AS/SOCI 2050 6.00, AS/SOCI 2060 6.00 or AS/SOCI 2070 6.00;
- six credits at the 3000 level; and
- six credits at the 4000 level.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

South Asian Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Program

The South Asian Studies program is housed in the Division of Social Science and is an Honours Double Major leading to a BA in the Faculty of Arts. South Asian studies majors must co-major in another department/discipline in the Faculty of Arts, or with kinesiology and health science or psychology in the Faculty of Health.

Students enrolled in this program are required to take 36 credits in their co-major according to the requirements and regulations specified by each department or division for students in Honours Double Major interdisciplinary programs. Courses taken to meet South Asian Studies program requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the departmental/divisional major. Students are similarly required to meet general education, distribution, and other degree requirements prescribed for Honours BA students by the Faculty of Arts.

Students must also take 36 credits in the South Asian Studies program as follows:

- six credits chosen from: AS/HIST 1065 6.00, AS/HIST 2790 6.00, AS/HIST 3791 6.00 or AS/HIST 3795 6.00;
- AS/SOSC 2435 6.00;
- 12 credits chosen from: AS/EN 2372 6.00, AS/EN 3440 6.00, AS/EN 3442 6.00, AS/HND 1000 6.00, AS/HND 2000 6.00, AS/HND 2700 6.00, AS/HUMA 2440 9.00, AS/HUMA 3801 6.00, AS/HUMA 3802 3.00, AS/LING 2460 3.00, AS/POLS 3065 3.00, AS/POLS 4590 3.00, AS/SOSC 1430 9.00, AS/SOSC 3970 6.00, AS/SOSC 4170 6.00, AS/SOCI 4450 6.00 or FA/FACS 4920K 3.00;
- six additional credits from the list of South Asian studies courses;
- AS/SOSC 4435 6.00.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

Students must take 30 credits in the South Asian Studies Program as follows:

- six credits chosen from: AS/HIST 1065 6.00, AS/HIST 2790 6.00, AS/HIST 3791 6.00 or AS/HIST 3795 6.00;
- AS/SOSC 2435 6.00;
- 12 credits chosen from: AS/EN 2372 6.00, AS/EN 3440 6.00, AS/EN 3442 6.00, AS/HND 1000 6.00, AS/HND 2000 6.00, AS/HND 2700 6.00, AS/HUMA 2440 9.00, AS/HUMA 3801 6.00, AS/HUMA 3802 3.00, AS/LING 2460 3.00, AS/POLS 3065 3.00, AS/POLS 4590 3.00, AS/SOSC 1430 9.00, AS/SOSC 3970 6.00, AS/SOSC 4170 6.00, AS/SOCI 4450 6.00 or FA/FACS 4920K 3.00;
- AS/SOSC 4435 6.00.

South Asian Studies Courses

Not all of the courses listed below will necessarily be offered in any given year.

With the approval of the program coordinator, and subject to course exclusion and in-Faculty regulations, students may complete other courses for program credit in South Asian studies.

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Cross-Disciplinary Certificate in South Asian Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting certificate requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits.

York University students may earn a Cross-Disciplinary Certificate in South Asian Studies concurrent with fulfillment of the requirements for a bachelor's degree. This certificate is not, however, open to students who are pursuing, or who already hold, a degree in South Asian studies.

To qualify for the Certificate in South Asian Studies, students must complete 24 credits from a list of approved South Asian courses and the cumulative grade point average in these 24 credits must be 5.00 (C+) or higher.

Course requirements for the certificate are as follows:

- AS/SOSC 2435 6.00;
- AS/SOSC 4435 6.00;
- 12 additional credits from among the courses recognized as satisfying the degree requirements in South Asian studies.

For a current list of approved courses, see the South Asian studies or Social Science Division supplemental calendar. Further information about the Certificate in South Asian Studies is available from the coordinator of the South Asian Studies program, or the undergraduate director of the Social Science Division.

Spanish

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Specialized Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 54 credits in Spanish, including the following:

- AS/SP 2000 6.00 or AS/SP 2010 6.00;
- AS/SP 2200 6.00;
- AS/SP 3000 6.00 or AS/SP 3050 6.00;
- 12 credits at the 4000 level;
- 24 additional credits at the 3000 or 4000 level.

Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 42 credits in Spanish, including the following:

- AS/SP 2000 6.00 or AS/SP 2010 6.00;
- AS/SP 2200 6.00;
- AS/SP 3000 6.00 or AS/SP 3050 6.00;
- 24 additional credits at the 3000 or 4000 level, of which at least 12 credits must be at the 4000 level.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

Spanish may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 36 credits in Spanish and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet Spanish requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits in Spanish and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

The 36 credits in Spanish must include the following:

- AS/SP 2000 6.00 or AS/SP 2010 6.00;
- AS/SP 2200 6.00;
- AS/SP 3000 6.00 or AS/SP 3050 6.00;
- 18 additional credits at the 3000 or 4000 level, of which at least 12 credits must be at the 4000 level.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

Students will take at least 30 credits in Spanish, including the following:

- AS/SP 2000 6.00 or AS/SP 2010 6.00;
- AS/SP 2200 6.00;
- AS/SP 3000 6.00 or AS/SP 3050 6.00;
- at least 12 further credits at the 3000 or 4000 level, of which at least six credits must be at the 4000 level.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

Students will take at least 30 credits in Spanish, including the following:

- AS/SP 2000 6.00 or AS/SP 2010 6.00;
- AS/SP 2200 6.00;
- AS/SP 3000 6.00 or AS/SP 3050 6.00;
- at least 12 further credits at the 3000 or 4000 level.

Note: With the approval of the program coordinator, and subject to course exclusion and in-Faculty regulations, students may complete other GL/LIN courses for program credit in linguistics in the Faculty of Arts.

Certificate of Proficiency in Spanish Language

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

York University students may earn a Certificate of Proficiency in Spanish Language concurrent with fulfillment of the requirements for a bachelor's degree. This certificate is also open to students who already hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution, and who are admissible according to Faculty and University policies. This certificate is not, however, open to students who are pursuing or who already hold a degree in Spanish within the Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics in the Faculty of Arts or within the Department of Hispanic Studies/Études Hispaniques at Glendon.

To apply for the certificate, students must have successfully completed at least 12 credits in Spanish language in the Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics as follows:

- AS/SP 2000 6.00 or AS/SP 2010 6.00;
- and AS/SP 3000 6.00 or AS/SP 3050 6.00, with a minimum grade of B;
- and a written examination and an oral interview.

Note: students who are exempted from an intermediate level language course must take another course taught in Spanish.

See Mathematics and Statistics.

Swahili

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

The Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics does not offer a degree program or certificate but does offer courses in Swahili. See Swahili in the Courses of Instruction section.

Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

York University students may earn a Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) concurrent with fulfillment of the requirements for a bachelor's degree. To qualify for admission to the Certificate in TESOL, students must have successfully completed at least 24 credits with a minimum grade point average of 4.00 (C). The certificate is also open to students who have been granted a bachelor's degree with a minimum grade point average of 4.00 (C) or equivalent. All applicants will be required to submit a supplementary application, which will include a statement of purpose.

Students may begin the program in either May or September. The application deadline for May entry is March 31, and the application deadline for September entry is June 30. Late applications for either entry will be considered, but space may be limited. Those entering in May can complete certificate requirements in one calendar year. Those entering in September normally require two years to complete certificate requirements.

Continuing students may pick up an application form from the Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics, and students who hold a bachelor's degree should contact the Office of Admissions for an application form.

As there are a limited number of spaces available in the certificate in TESOL, meeting the minimum requirements for application will not guarantee admission to the certificate program.

The certificate requires the successful completion of 30 credits as follows:

- AS/LING 1000 6.00 or AS/LING 2060 6.00;
- AS/LING 3240 3.00;
- AS/LING 3600 3.00;
- AS/LING 3160 3.00;
- three credits chosen from the following: AS/LING 2110 3.00, AS/LING 2400 3.00, AS/LING 2430 3.00 or AS/LING 2450 3.00;
- ED/TESL 3200 6.00;
- ED/TESL 3300 6.00.

Continuing students must successfully complete a bachelor's degree (90 credits) or an Honours bachelor's degree (120 credits) in order to be awarded the certificate. 18 of the 30 credits required for the certificate in TESOL will be counted towards the bachelor's degree and the 12 credits taken in the Faculty of Education will be in addition to the total number of credits required for the bachelor's degree or the Honours bachelor's degree.

Students who already hold a bachelor's degree may be exempted from a maximum of 12 of the required 30 credits, if equivalent courses have been successfully completed. Exemptions will not be given for the following required courses: AS/LING 3600 3.00, ED/TESL 3200 6.00 and ED/TESL 3300 6.00.

Further information about the Certificate in TESOL is available from the coordinator of the TESOL program or from the Department of Languages, Literatures and Linguistics.

In addition, students in the Honours iBA program must fulfill the following requirements:

- at least 18 credits of language study in one of the modern languages offered by York University, including the Advanced I university-level course in the chosen language;
- at least 12 credits of internationally-oriented courses chosen outside the major;
- at least one full term abroad as a full-time student at one of York University's exchange partners.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

Urban studies may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 36 credits in urban studies and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet urban studies requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least six credits in urban studies and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

The 36 credits in urban studies must include:

- AS/SOSC 2710 9.00 or AS/SOSC 2730 6.00;
- AS/SOSC 3700 6.00;
- AS/SOSC 4700 6.00;
- at least 18 further credits from the list of urban studies courses.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

Honours Major/Minor iBA Program

The Honours iBA program in Urban Studies described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

The Honours Minor in urban studies comprises at least 30 credits including the following:

- AS/SOSC 2710 9.00 or AS/SOSC 2730 6.00;
- AS/SOSC 3700 6.00;
- AS/SOSC 4700 6.00;
- 12 additional credits chosen from the list of urban studies courses, including at least six credits at the 3000 or 4000 level.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

Students will take at least 30 credits including the following:

- AS/SOSC 2710 9.00 or AS/SOSC 2730 6.00;
- 12 credits chosen from: AS/SOSC 3700 6.00, AS/SOSC 3710 6.00, AS/SOSC 3730 6.00, AS/SOSC 3745 3.00, AS/SOSC 3746 3.00, AS/SOSC 3760 6.00, AS/SOSC 3770 3.00 or AS/SOSC 3791 3.00;
- 12 additional credits chosen from the urban studies list of courses.

Urban Studies Courses

Not all of the courses listed below will necessarily be offered in any given year.

With the approval of the program coordinator, and subject to course exclusion and in-Faculty regulations, students may complete other courses for program credit in urban studies.

General Certificate in Urban Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Note: For purposes of meeting certificate requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits.

York University students may earn a General Certificate in Urban Studies concurrent with fulfillment of the requirements for a bachelor's degree. This certificate is not, however, open to students who are pursuing or who already hold a degree in urban studies.

To qualify for the General Certificate in Urban Studies, students must complete 24 credits from a list of approved urban studies courses, and the cumulative grade point average in these 24 credits must be 5.00 (C+) or higher.

Course requirements for the general certificate are as follows:

- AS/SOSC 2710 9.00 or AS/SOSC 2730 6.00;
- 18 additional credits from among the courses recognized as satisfying the degree requirements in urban studies, including at least six credits at the 4000 level.
- an advising appointment with a faculty member teaching in one of the core courses in the Urban Studies program.

Courses taken to fulfill the requirements for the General Certificate in Urban Studies may not also be used to fulfill requirements for the degree in public policy and administration. For a current list of approved courses, see the urban studies section of this calendar. Further information about the General Certificate in Urban Studies is available from the coordinator of the Urban Studies program or the coordinator of the Public Policy and Administration program.

Women's Studies

Note: With the establishment of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies on July 1, 2009, degrees and programs in the Faculty of Arts will be moved to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies as of the Fall/Winter 2009-2010 Session. Grandparenting provisions have been developed for students continuing in degrees and programs currently offered in the Faculty of Arts. Details are available on the York University Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

The School of Women's Studies offers a consolidated undergraduate program which brings together the Women's Studies programs from the Faculties of Arts, Atkinson and Glendon. This merged undergraduate program provides students with increased flexibility and access to a greater number and variety of women's studies courses. Courses offered through the School of Women's Studies will count as in-Faculty courses for Arts, Atkinson and Glendon students, and will be offered during the day and evening on both the Keele campus and the Glendon campus. Please consult the School of Women's Studies supplemental calendar for further information, available at the school's main office, 206 Founders College, 416-650-8144 (press 1).

The undergraduate women's studies curriculum is built around four different kinds of courses.

1. Required Courses

- AK/AS/GL/WMST 2500 6.00 or AK/AS/GL/WMST 2510 9.00: required for all women's studies majors;
- AK/AS/GL/WMST 4500 6.00: required for all women's studies majors in an Honours BA program.

2. Core Courses

The core courses are offered by the School of Women's Studies and, like the required courses, have the second digit 5 in the course number, e.g. WMST 2500 6.00. Students are required to select between 12 and 24 credits of core courses depending on their degree program. Core courses cover themes deemed essential to women's studies and will explicitly aim to develop critical reading, writing and oral presentation skills, research skills and more advanced research and theoretical skills as appropriate to the course and year level. The required and core courses will:

- focus primarily on women;
- be taught from feminist perspectives;
- be interdisciplinary;
- address the intersections of race, ethnicity, disability, sexual identity and gender;
- acknowledge the different perspectives on women in a global context;
- explicitly identify the critical skills to be developed in the course.

3. Non-Core Courses

The School of Women's Studies will offer a small number of non-core courses designed to serve a narrower disciplinary focus than the core courses, meet a particular program need (e.g. independent study or special topics courses), or appeal to non-women's studies majors. These courses will have the second digit 8 in the course number, e.g. WMST 4801 3.00.

4. Courses Offered by Other Units

Courses offered by other teaching units may be accepted for program credit or cross-listed with the School of Women's Studies. These courses will count towards the major requirements in women's studies. Please consult the School of Women's Studies mini-calendar, available in the school's main office, 206 Founders College, 416-650-8144 (press 1).

1000-Level Courses

In accordance with the student's home Faculty regulations, a maximum of six credits from the following 1000-level courses may count for major or minor credit in women's studies: AS/HUMA 1950 9.00, AS/SOSC 1185 9.00, AS/SOSC 1350 9.00, AK/AS/GL/WMST 1500 6.00, AK/HUMA 1830 6.00, AK/MODR 1700 6.00, AK/SOSC 1700 6.00, AK/SOSC 1900 6.00, AK/SOSC 1920 6.00 or GL/HUMA 1810 6.00.

Program Requirements

Note: For purposes of meeting program requirements, all foundations courses will count as six credits towards the major or minor.

Specialized Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 54 credits in women's studies. Of these, students must take AK/AS/GL/WMST 2500 6.00 or AK/AS/GL/WMST 2510 9.00 and AK/AS/GL/WMST 4500 6.00, and at least 24 additional credits from the core course offerings. Overall, 12 women's studies credits must be taken at the 4000 level.

Honours BA Program

Students will take at least 42 credits in women's studies. Of these, students must take AK/AS/GL/WMST 2500 6.00 or AK/AS/GL/WMST 2510 9.00 and AK/AS/GL/WMST 4500 6.00, and at least 18 additional credits from the core course offerings. Overall, 12 women's studies credits must be taken at the 4000 level.

Honours Double Major BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any other Honours bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved major degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA Programs

Women's studies may be linked with any Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA program in the Faculty of Arts. Students must take at least 36 credits in women's studies and at least 36 credits in the interdisciplinary program. Courses taken to meet women's studies requirements cannot also be used to meet the requirements of the interdisciplinary program. Students in these interdisciplinary programs must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level, including at least 12 credits in women's studies and six credits in the interdisciplinary program. For further details of requirements, see the listings for specific Honours Double Major Interdisciplinary BA programs.

The 36 credits in women's studies must include:

- AK/AS/GL/WMST 2500 6.00 or AK/AS/GL/WMST 2510 9.00;
- AK/AS/GL/WMST 4500 6.00;
- an additional six credits at the 4000 level;
- at least 18 additional credits from the core course offerings.

Honours Major/Minor BA Program

The Honours BA program described above may be pursued jointly with any Honours Minor bachelor's degree program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, or with approved minor degree programs in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering. For further details on requirements, see the listings for specific Honours programs that may be pursued jointly with other Faculties.

Honours Minor BA Program

The Honours Minor must be pursued jointly with an Honours Major/Minor BA program in the Faculty of Arts.

Students will take at least 30 credits in women's studies. Of these, students must take AK/AS/GL/WMST 2500 6.00 or AK/AS/GL/WMST 2510 9.00 and at least 12 additional credits from the core course offerings. Overall, 12 women's studies credits must be taken at the 3000 or 4000 level, including six credits at the 4000 level.

Note: Faculty of Arts legislation requires that, in order to obtain an Honours BA (120 credits), students must take a total of at least 18 credits at the 4000 level including at least 12 credits at the 4000 level in each Honours Major or Specialized Honours Major.

BA Program

Students will take at least 30 credits in women's studies. Of these, students must take AK/AS/GL/WMST 2500 6.00 or AK/AS/GL/WMST 2510 9.00 and at least 12 additional credits from the core course offerings. Overall, 12 women's studies credits must be taken at the 3000 or 4000 level.

Women's studies is both a complement and a corrective to established fields at York and a new academic discipline of its own. Until recently, both the humanities and the social sciences reflected predominantly male perspectives. Women have been largely invisible in literature, art, history, philosophy, politics, social sciences and law. Through cross-cultural and disciplinary assessment, women's studies exposes misconceptions about women expressed through myth, ideologies, teachings and writings. It replaces negative cultural images of women with visions that reaffirm women's strength, capability and intelligence.

In December 1997, women's studies resources at York University were formally linked under one administrative structure -- the School of Women's Studies. The School of Women's Studies unites academic resources at York University in women's studies, bringing together the undergraduate and graduate programs, the non-credit bridging program and the Centre for Feminist Research/Le centre de recherches féministes à York.

Office of Student and Academic Services (OSAS)

The Office of Student and Academic Services (OSAS) is located in 123 Atkinson Building, telephone: 416-736-5222, fax: 416-736-5923, e-mail: OSAS@yorku.ca. Office hours are: Monday-Thursday: 9:00am to 6:30pm, Friday until 4:30pm, except for June, July and August when the Faculty closes at 3:30pm. The office is closed on statutory holidays.

To assist students with academic planning, Atkinson students are strongly encouraged to visit the OSAS Web site at <http://www.atkinson.yorku.ca/OSAS/>. The OSAS Web site provides students with quick links to the following information:

- New and Continuing Students
- Study plans (degree and certificate)
- Courses
- Registrar's Office forms
- Selecting or changing a major
- Changing a degree
- Transferring to Atkinson

Returning to studies at Atkinson
Academic Integrity
Student Code of Conduct

Advising:

OSAS offers in-person advising Monday-Friday. The mornings are dedicated to drop-in advising 9am to noon. Continuing students may book an in-person afternoon or early evening appointment on the Web at:

<http://www.atkinson.yorku.ca/OSAS/>.

Continuing Students

Continuing students are expected to follow their chosen program of study as outlined in the York Undergraduate Calendar. Information on all degree/certificate program requirements and sample study plans are available through the OSAS Web site. Students with questions relating to their major may contact their school for advising. Continuing students with questions and/or problems regarding degree/certificate program requirements, academic standing, regulations governing examinations and academic standards, are invited to seek advising through OSAS.

Change of Degree

Students wishing to change their degree must submit a Change of Degree Request form to OSAS for consideration.

Pass/Fail, Alternative Grading Option

Students wishing to take a course on a pass/fail basis must submit a Pass/Fail Alternative Grading form to OSAS for approval.

New Students

New student advising: Newly admitted students are required to attend an advising appointment as a condition of admission to Atkinson. This session provides new students with valuable information on commencing studies at York University. The session consists of students participating in a group orientation session to discuss and review program requirements, course selection and scheduling, use of the Web enrolment system, fee payment and how to access student service information on the Web. Students will also meet one-on-one with an adviser to discuss their individual program of study and specific needs. Enrolment blocks on the registration and enrolment system will remain in place until such time as new students contact OSAS to book an advising appointment. Details are outlined in the Offer of Admission package. Further information for new students is available through the OSAS Web site.

Faculty transfers: Students from other York Faculties who are interested in transferring to Atkinson can obtain further information regarding requirements to transfer through the OSAS Web site. It is recommended that successful faculty transfer students meet with an OSAS adviser prior to the start of classes.

Returning students: Students who are returning to their studies after an absence of one year or more will be able to enrol in courses once their reactivation request has been processed by the Registrar's Office. It is recommended that returning students meet with an adviser prior to the start of classes. Further information is available through the OSAS Web site.

*For admission to Atkinson and to obtain an application form, or information on advanced standing (transfer credit), call the Admissions Office, telephone: 416-736-5000.

For information on enrolment, registration and degree audit, contact Student Client Services, telephone: 416-872-YORK (9675).

Office of Computing Technology and e-Learning Services

The Office of Computing Technology and e-Learning Services (OCTES) at Atkinson provides students with computing and course Web site access support for all Atkinson courses. OCTES also provides special administrative services for distance education courses (Internet and correspondence), that includes assistance for assignment submission and off-site examination scheduling.

Technology Enhanced Learning

Atkinson provides technology enhanced opportunities for teaching and learning with a generic course Web site template. Many Atkinson instructors choose to use this template to create a Web presence for their course that could provide academic information and communications for their students. Instructors inform their students of their Web usage plans at the beginning of term.

Distance Education Courses

Study at your own pace with Atkinson's distance education courses via an Internet or correspondence format. You can learn from the convenience of your home, office, or from the other side of the world. Atkinson's distance courses use the same textbooks and materials as in-class instruction and cover the same course content. Distance courses count towards your degree in exactly the same way as other in-class courses. Create a more flexible schedule by mixing in-class courses with Internet and correspondence courses or even complete an entire program by distance.

Students taking distance courses obtain instructional information, assignments, course requirements and relevant materials online. Students are required to complete assignments, (due on specific dates) and to write the exams at the University or an alternative location as scheduled.

Detailed distance education course information is available from the Next Steps Web site: <http://www.atkinson.yorku.ca/CDE/nextsteps.htm>. This site includes information for registered students, i.e. computer requirements/accounts, access instructions and specialized administrative information. Course listings and timetables are now navigated starting from the York Courses Web site page available at: <https://w2prod.sis.yorku.ca/Apps/WebObjects/cdm>. Once you find your course offering there will be a Course Web site link that includes the outline. The course outline contains academic and text requirements.

Programs Offered via Distance

Atkinson offers a bachelor of administrative studies (BAS) degree, a business economics (BA) degree and a management certificate entirely by combining the flexibility of Internet and correspondence courses. Detailed degree requirements, prerequisites and descriptions are available online in the York Undergraduate Calendar available from <http://calendars.registrar.yorku.ca/calendars/index.htm>.

Mixed-Mode Courses: In-class and Internet

Atkinson offers mixed-mode courses which blend in-class and Internet modes of delivery. These courses combine and alternate on-campus classes with Internet online lectures. Mixed-mode courses combine the best of both teaching methods.

Student and Alumni Relations (STARS) Unit and Master's Office

Atkinson's Student and Alumni Relations Unit (STARS) and Master's Office offer meaningful ways for you to get involved in your Faculty and College! STARS' programs promote community involvement, development and celebration through which you can learn new skills, meet new people and build your networks. Visit the STARS office or Web site and learn more about how to get involved through the following programs:

- Student-Alumni Mentorship program which links upper-year Atkinson students to alumni, based on common career interests
- SHARE (peer-to-peer) mentorship program which matches upper year and new students to help during the transition period
- TEAM student ambassador program which provides volunteering and skills building opportunities for students
- The ACORN - Community Development Fund that supports student, alumni and community projects that focus on community development
- New student orientations (three annually) and Smart Start for mature and part-time students
- The Classroom Reporter program that brings important dates and news into Atkinson classrooms
- Awards information sessions and scholarship/awards celebrations
- Listing and information about local, national and international volunteering opportunities
- Liaison with Atkinson student clubs and the Alumni Faculty Alumni Association
- Special professional development workshops for students and alumni, and
- A host of other initiatives that encourage student leadership development, alumni involvement, and the active participation of all Atkinson community members.

Atkinson Degree Structure

Degree Requirements

Students interested in any degree programs should contact the school/department offering the program or the Office of Student and Academic Services, 123 Atkinson Building, 416-736-5222.

General Education:

The following rules apply to the Atkinson general education requirements:

- General education courses are to be completed within the first 42 credits taken at Atkinson.
- No more than 30 general education credits will count towards a degree including 1000 level foundations courses.
- Of the 1000 level mathematics courses, only AK/MATH 1700 6.00, AK/MATH 1710 6.00 and AK/MATH 1720 6.00 fulfill the general education requirements for mathematics.
- Natural science general education courses are offered through the Faculty of Science and Engineering as 1000 level SC/NATS courses. Students who have successfully completed humanities, social science and mathematics/modes of reasoning may take a 2000- or 3000-level science and technology studies (STS) course to fulfill the natural science general education requirement. Students in a BSc degree must replace NATS with science courses as specified.
- 1000-level general education courses do not fulfill major requirements or the Faculty requirement of 18 credits outside the major unless otherwise specified. Major requirements do not fulfill general education requirements.

- Only 1000-level general education courses may count for general education credit unless otherwise specified.
- Students who take a Faculty of Arts nine-credit foundations course at the 1000 level are recognized as having satisfied six credits of course work toward the corresponding Atkinson general education area of study and three credits of course work in an elective or equivalent area of their degree program.

BA General Education Requirements

BA students must complete 24 credits as follows:

- Six credits 1000-level humanities.
- Six credits 1000-level mathematics or modes of reasoning.
- Six credits 1000-level natural science.
- Six credits 1000-level social science.

BAS General Education Requirements

BAS student must complete 18 credits chosen from the following:

- Six credits 1000-level humanities.
- Six credits 1000-level modes of reasoning.
- Six credits 1000-level natural science.
- Six credits 1000-level social science.

Note: Modes of reasoning is recommended.

BHRM General Education Requirements

BHRM students must complete either option A or B as specified. Students may not combine options.

Option A: In accordance with Atkinson general education requirements, BHRM students must complete 18 credits chosen from the following:

- Six credits 1000-level humanities.
- Six credits 1000-level modes of reasoning.
- Six credits 1000-level natural science.
- Six credits 1000-level social science.

Note: Modes of reasoning is recommended.

Option B: In accordance with Faculty of Arts general education requirements, BHRM students must complete:

- Nine-credit foundations course at the 1000-level social science or humanities.
- Six credits at the 1000-level natural science.
- Nine-credit foundations course at the 2000-level social science or humanities.

(Students who take a nine-credit foundations course in humanities at the 1000 level must then take a nine-credit foundations course in social science at the 2000 level or vice versa).

For BHRM students who complete the Faculty of Arts general education requirements, 18 credits will count towards fulfillment of the Atkinson Faculty general education requirements. The remaining six credits will count towards the fulfillment of the required credits outside administrative studies and the major.

BSc General Education Requirements

BSc students must complete 18 credits chosen from the following:

- Six credits 1000-level humanities.
- Six credits 1000-level mathematics or modes of reasoning.
- Six credits 1000-level social science.
- Six credits 1000-level chosen from: SC/BIOL 1010 6.00; SC/CHEM 1000 3.00 and SC/CHEM 1001 3.00; SC/EATS 1010 3.00 and SC/EATS 1011 3.00; SC/PHYS 1010 6.00 or SC/PHYS 1410 6.00.

Note: The BSc in computer security requires six credits modes of reasoning (and does not allow mathematics as an alternative).

BSW Honours Direct Entry General Education Requirements

BSW students are required to complete either option A or B as specified. Students may not combine options.

Option A: In accordance with Atkinson general education requirements, BSW students must complete:

- Six credits 1000-level humanities.
- Six credits 1000-level mathematics or modes of reasoning.

- Six credits 1000-level natural science.
 - Six credits 1000-level social science.
- Option B: In accordance with Faculty of Arts general education requirements, BSW students must complete:

- Nine-credit foundations course at the 1000-level social science or humanities.
- Six credits at the 1000-level natural science.
- Nine-credit foundations course at the 2000-level social science or humanities.

(Students who take a nine-credit foundations course in humanities at the 1000 level must then take a nine-credit foundations course in social science at the 2000 level or vice versa).

Majors:

Atkinson requires all students pursuing a degree to declare a major within their first 24 credits. A major is defined as a concentration of courses in a primary discipline or field of study. Upon declaring a major students will receive formal recognition on their York transcript indicating the primary discipline or field of study in their degree. The number of credits required for a major will vary with the degree program. In accordance with the program of study offerings, a major will be declared as one of the following:

120 credit Honours degree:

Specialized Honours Major – A minimum of 54 credits in a single discipline or field of study.

Honours Major – A minimum of 42 credits in a single discipline or field of study.

Honours Double Major – A minimum of 42 credits in each of two disciplines or fields of study. (Currently this option is available within the following BA degrees: Canadian studies; culture and expression; English; history; humanities; information technology; religious studies and women's studies).

Honours Major/Minor – A minimum of 42 credits in one discipline or field of study and a minimum of 30 credits in a minor is a secondary discipline or field of study. (Currently this option is available within the following BA degrees: Canadian studies; culture and expression; English; history; humanities; information technology; religious studies and women's studies).

90 credit bachelor degree:

Major – A minimum of 30 credits in one discipline or field of study.

Required Courses Outside the Major:

Most degree programs require students to complete a minimum of 18 credits outside the major. Students may not use general education courses to fulfill this requirement.

Upper-Level Courses:

All Atkinson degrees require a specific number of credits to be completed at the 3000 and 4000 level. The number of credits will vary with the degree.

Residency and in-Faculty Requirement:

All York students are required to meet a residency requirement. At least 30 credits not used towards another academic program are to be taken at York University. Half the major, double major and major/minor must be taken through Atkinson.

Honours Double Major or Major/Minor BA Program

Students in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies may combine any BA Honours Major program in the Atkinson Faculty that offers a double major or major/minor option with certain approved Honours Major and Honours Minor programs offered by the Faculty of Arts, Faculty of Environmental Studies, Faculty of Fine Arts, Faculty of Health or Faculty of Science and Engineering as listed below, subject to the following regulations:

- Students must maintain Honours standing of a cumulative grade point average of 5.00 (C+) or above for all courses taken at York. Students whose cumulative grade point average is below 5.00, may proceed in Honours on warning as long as they meet the specific minimum cumulative grade point average for their year level.

- Atkinson students registered in any Atkinson Faculty BA Honours Major program must complete at least half (50 per cent) of the requirements for the major in the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies.
- Atkinson students combining their Atkinson Honours Major with a second Honours Major or an Honours Minor program offered by another Faculty must also complete the in-Faculty requirements for that second major or minor.
- In some instances, in order to complete the requirements of some Honours Double Major or Honours Minor programs, it may be necessary for a student to complete more than 120 credits.

The below list contains the programs in other Faculties which Atkinson students may pursue jointly with any approved Atkinson BA Honours Major program that offers a double major or major/minor option. For further details, consult the Office of Student and Academic Services, 123 Atkinson.

Note 1: Any student wishing to enrol in a second major or minor program within the Faculty of Fine Arts BA degree program may require an evaluation by that Faculty. Students are advised that the BFA is only available to students registered in the Faculty of Fine Arts.

Note 2: Students in an Honours Double Major program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, Health or Science and Engineering may be eligible to combine their major with an Honours Double Major program offered through the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, students should contact their home Faculty.

Note 3: Students in an Honours Major/Minor program in the Faculties of Arts, Environmental Studies, Fine Arts, Health or Science and Engineering may be eligible to combine their major with an Honours Major/Minor program offered through the Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, students should contact their home Faculty.

Academic Standards

The following degree requirements apply to all students proceeding to a degree through Atkinson. It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that courses are selected in accordance with current degree/certificate and program requirements.

General

The following regulations apply to students taking courses at Atkinson. Applicants seeking admission are referred to the Regulations Governing Admission to Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, York University.

1. All students are required to:

- (a) observe the regulations of Atkinson and the University. Changes become effective as announced.
- (b) maintain a satisfactory standard of work. All term work must be submitted by the dates specified by the course director. Normally all term work must be submitted before the day of examination.
- (c) have discharged all financial liability to the University prior to graduation.

2. Candidates admitted to an Atkinson degree program are required to:

- (a) have been admitted to York University as degree students.
- (b) satisfy all the corequisite(s) and prerequisite(s) for courses selected for enrolment.
- (c) satisfy the program and degree requirements for one of the following degrees:

BAS
BAS Honours
BA
BA Honours
BHRM
BHRM Honours BSc
BSc Honours
BSW Honours

3. Choice of major program. Students can obtain sample programs of study outlining the degree, certificate and program requirements from the Office of Student and Academic Services Web site: <http://www.atkinson.yorku.ca/QSAS/>.

4. Residency requirement. In order to be eligible to receive a degree from Atkinson, at least 30 credits not used toward another academic program are to be taken at York University. Major requirements: at least half (50 per cent) of each Atkinson major requirement must be taken at Atkinson. (Note: the major requirement will vary in accordance with the number of credits required by each program.)

5. Cross-listed courses. Some courses in Atkinson are cross-listed, that is, they are offered jointly by two or more academic units/Faculties.

(a) Cross-listed courses may not be double counted in order to fulfill degree requirements;

(b) Cross-listed courses may not be used to fulfill the degree requirement of courses required outside the major in the programs offering the cross-listing. For example, AK/SOSC 3370 6.00 may not count as a course outside the major for students majoring in women's studies, and AK/WMST 3370 6.00 may not count as a course outside the major for students majoring in social science.

(c) Cross-listed courses (offered jointly between Atkinson and another Faculty/Faculties) used in the major will count toward satisfying the in-Faculty requirement for Atkinson.

6. Academic standing requirements for visiting students.

Individuals who wish to enrol in undergraduate credit courses, but who do not intend to complete a degree or a certificate may be admitted to York as a visiting student (refer to the Admissions section of this calendar for more information). There are three categories of visiting students:

(a) Those who hold an undergraduate degree (three-year bachelor's degree minimum) from an accredited university/university-level institution;

(b) Those who do not hold an undergraduate degree but wish to enrol in York courses to fulfill the academic, upgrading or professional development requirements of a professional designation;

(c) Those who are currently attending another recognized university and wish to take York courses on a letter of permission issued by their home institution.

Repeated course legislation does not apply to visiting students but only to academic degrees and certificates. Therefore, all courses attempted or taken will count in the overall cumulative grade point average.

Grade point average requirement: Students in categories (a) and (b) whose overall cumulative grade point average falls below 4.00 on at least 24 credits attempted will not be allowed to enrol in any subsequent session as visiting students. Students who are not permitted to re-enrol must apply for re-admission through the Admissions Office.

Credit limits: Students in category b) who have maintained an overall cumulative grade point average of 4.00 throughout their studies and who have completed 30 credits will not be allowed to enrol in subsequent sessions and must either reactivate to proceed as visiting students or may choose to apply for admission to a degree or certificate program.

Visiting students admitted to Atkinson may:

- (i) enrol in degree credit courses providing they meet the published corequisite(s) and prerequisite(s), or obtain permission of the Chair of the discipline concerned;
- (ii) not register in a course equivalent to one already completed.

7. Audit a course. With the permission of a course director, an auditor attends classes and participates in a course in the same way as other students, but does not submit assignments or write tests or examinations. Further information about admissibility, application procedures, courses available, and fees may be obtained at Student Client Services, 416-872-YORK (9675).

8. Course conflict. Course conflicts occur when students enrol in more than one course on the same day and time in the same academic session. It is a student's responsibility to ensure that his/her schedule is conflict-free and to adjust course enrolments accordingly.

9. Second degrees:

(a) A student holding a university undergraduate degree may apply for admission to studies leading to a second degree. Such students must be admissible to Atkinson. A minimum of 30 NEW credits must be completed for a second bachelor or Honours degree at York University including half the major from Atkinson. The general regulations on advanced standing would apply in all cases. The maximum number of new courses is also determined by the degree and program requirements of Atkinson.

(b) Atkinson graduates may request reclassification of their bachelor degree to Honours* (refer to the Academic Standing section).

The residency requirement for Atkinson graduates proceeding to a first Honours degree in the same major must still be satisfied, including the residency requirement in the major.*

10. Courses taken outside Atkinson:

York University courses. Atkinson degree candidates may enrol in courses offered by other York University Faculties provided they meet the publicized corequisite(s) and/or prerequisite(s). Students are responsible for ensuring that these out-of-Faculty courses meet Atkinson degree and program requirements. Out-of-Faculty courses are credited at the level at which they are taken. Please refer to the Programs of Study section.

Courses at other accredited universities. Atkinson students pursuing a degree or an Atkinson certificate may request a letter of permission to receive credit at York for courses taken at other accredited universities. Students not working toward a degree or an Atkinson certificate are not eligible for letters of permission.

It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that:

- (i) courses completed on a letter of permission meet her/his program requirements;
- (ii) she/he will fulfill residency and in-Faculty requirements for graduation or granting of the certificate;
- (iii) she/he submit the letter of permission request with course descriptions to the appropriate departmental office and return the completed form and the application fee to Student Client Services;
- (iv) a letter of permission is granted prior to enrolling courses at the other institution;
- (v) if she/he does not register for the courses or does not complete the approved courses, the student must provide the Registrar's Office with documentation from the host institution declaring that the student did not register at that institution or withdrew from the courses without academic penalty;
- (vi) arrangements are made for the host institution to forward an official transcript to the Registrar's Office as soon as final grades are available.

Note 1: Students who receive a letter of permission to take their last course(s) at another institution should not, normally, expect to graduate at the convocation directly following the session in which the letter of permission was issued.

Note 2: Some programs may have their own Faculty approved policies restricting letters of permission on the basis of accreditation or professional association requirements. Please review your school/department policy.

Regulations:

- students must be enrolled in a degree or Atkinson certificate program;
- including courses taken on a letter of permission, Atkinson students may enrol in a maximum of 18 credits in a summer session and 36 credits (18 credits per term) in a fall/winter session;
- students must be in good academic standing in order to be approved for a letter of permission;
- a letter of permission will not be granted to students who are on academic, program or debarment warning or academic probation. If a student receives an academic, program, debarment warning, or academic probation or is ineligible to proceed at the conclusion of the current session, the letter of permission will be rescinded;
- in major courses in all Honours programs, and in the BAS and BHRM 90 credit degrees, credit is granted when an approved course is successfully completed with a minimum grade of C+ (65 per cent). For all other courses credit is granted when an approved course is successfully completed with a minimum grade of C (60 per cent). The Faculty is under no obligation to accept courses taken without its permission;
- grades for courses taken at the host institution are not listed on York University transcripts and are not included in the calculation of the York grade point average.

Should a student leave York University to pursue study at another postsecondary institution without a letter of permission, upon return to York, a new application to York is required and all previous transfer credit will be reassessed.

11. Faculty transfers. Students who were last registered in an undergraduate degree program in another Faculty of York University, and who wish to transfer to Atkinson must submit a Faculty Transfer Request form to Student Client Services. Refer to the Academic Standing section for degree/program academic standing requirements.

12. Course load for Atkinson students.

Fall/winter session:

- Normally, a full time course load is 30 credits in fall/winter session.
- Students may take up to and including a maximum of 36 credits overall (18 credits per term) without permission.
- Students who wish to take more than 36 credits during the fall/winter session (18 credits per term) must submit a petition to the Atkinson Faculty Council Office.

Summer session:

- Normally, a full time course load is 15 credits in the summer session.
- Students may take up to and including 18 credits without permission.
- Students who wish to take more than 18 credits during the summer session must submit a petition to the Atkinson Faculty Council Office.

13. Examinations. Examinations are important parts of the educational process. They must be conducted under fair conditions which allow students to demonstrate what they have learned. Disruptions or attempts to obtain an unfair advantage are offences against academic process and carry severe penalties.

Language of examinations: The language(s) of instruction is (are) normally the language(s) of examination.

Identification: Students who are being tested or examined are required to present their YU-card with a photo or their YU-card without a photo plus a photo-bearing form of identification such as a driver's licence or passport.

Answer booklets: Answer booklets are the property of the University. Examination booklets and other answer forms remain the property of the University. Students may not remove them from the test or examination room without permission; nor may they possess blank examination booklets.

Final examination period: There is a final examination period at the end of each term. The dates and times of formally scheduled examinations are listed on the Current Students Web site (<http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/cs.htm>).

Religious accommodation: Students who have examination conflicts due to religious observances can complete an Examination Accommodation Agreement to write an examination at another time. For further information, and to access the Agreement form, please visit the Registrar's Office site on examinations at: <http://www.registrar.yorku.ca/services/faq.htm>.

14. Deferred standing and aegrotat standing. In some cases, students may be eligible for deferred standing or aegrotat standing on the grounds of illness, accident or family misfortune.

Deferred standing. Deferred standing (an extension) may be granted to undergraduate students who are unable to write their final examination at the scheduled time, or to submit their final assignment on the last day of classes. In order to apply for deferred standing, students must complete a Final Exam/Assignment Deferred Standing Agreement (DSA) form and reach an agreement directly with the course director for an alternative final examination date or for an extension to the deadline.

The deadline for submitting a DSA is within seven calendar days of a missed examination and/or final assignment due date. A petition for deferred standing (available through the Atkinson Faculty Council Office) may be initiated if the course director indicates on a DSA form that he/she refuses to approve deferred standing or if the request is made after the deadline has passed.

Note 1: When students do not or cannot write a mid-term examination (not held during the formal examination period), alternative arrangements to write the mid-term examination should be made within the duration of the course by the course director and individual student, at the discretion of the course director. The DSA form does not apply.

Note 2: Students who have experienced a misfortune or who are too ill to attend an examination in an Atkinson course should not attempt to do so; they must pursue deferred standing.

Note 3: Atkinson students in York courses other than Atkinson courses must arrange deferred standing in accordance with the regulations and deadlines of the Faculty offering the course.

Aegrotat standing. In cases where a student cannot be expected to complete the work for a course, aegrotat standing may be substituted for the grade on the transcript. Aegrotat standing is seldom granted and only in exceptional circumstances due to the nature and extent of the student's illness/injury and where deferred standing is inappropriate.

15. Grade reappraisal. Students may, with sufficient grounds, request that a final grade in a course be reappraised. Further information may be obtained from the school/department offering the course. Students who apply to have a grade reappraised should be aware of the following:

- requests for reappraisals must be filed with the school/department offering the course within 21 calendar days of the release of the final grade in the course;
- students may question the marking of specific pieces of work or the overall course grade. Normally, however, only tangible work may be reappraised. Tangible work may include written, graphic, digitized, modelled, video recording or audio recording formats, but not oral work;
- an original grade may be raised, lowered or confirmed;
- students wishing to request a reappraisal of a final grade should complete the appropriate form available from the school/department offering the course and return the completed form to the same office;
- decisions of Atkinson's schools/department may be appealed to the Atkinson Faculty Council Office only on the grounds of procedural irregularity.

Grading

1. All course grades, including those assigned after a deferred examination(s) are derived from an evaluation of examination and term work, unless otherwise decided by the Atkinson Faculty Council Office on the recommendation of the course director.

2. With the exception of courses explicitly required for certification by a professional body, or other exceptions agreed to by Senate, students pass or fail a course on the basis of final course average, without the additional requirement of having to obtain a passing grade on a final examination. (This does not preclude the possibility of a final examination representing more than 50 per cent of the final grade in a particular course or the requirement that a student pass a specific course lab component.)

3. Unless Senate agrees to explicit exemptions, eligibility to proceed in or graduate from an undergraduate degree program will not be based on a minimum grade requirement for each major course. It should be noted that this does not preclude setting requirements for a minimum cumulative grade point average in a major subject area. Nor does this preclude setting individual course grade requirements when a course is a prerequisite for upper-level courses or as part of a core requirement. Course grades are not official until approved by the Committee on Examinations and Academic Standards.

4. The letter-grade system is the fundamental system of assessment of performance in undergraduate programs at York University.

5. Percentage equivalents grades to letter: Atkinson uses a letter grade system of grading.

6. Repeating passed or failed courses for academic credit:

(a) Students are allowed to repeat a passed or failed course once for academic degree or certificate credit. Students should note that course availability and space considerations may preclude the possibility of repeating a course in the session they choose.

(b) When a student is allowed to repeat a course for academic degree or certificate credit, the second grade will be the grade of record and the only grade calculated in the student's grade point average (major, cumulative, sessional and overall). A course can be credited only once towards satisfaction of degree or certificate academic credit requirements.

(c) The record of both the first and second time the course was taken will appear on the student's transcript, with the first course designated as No Credit Retained (NCR).

(d) The restrictions regarding repeating a passed or failed course also apply to cross-listed courses and course credit exclusions.

The above items do not apply to graduate degree or diploma programs, the BEd degree programs of the Faculty of Education, or the LLB degree program of Osgoode Hall Law School.

When a course is repeated, the first instance of the course being taken and the grade that was awarded will continue to appear on the transcript with the designation "NCR" - "No Credit Retained" - added as a qualification beside the grade. The transcript legend will explain that the NCR designation means that neither the course credit nor grade have been included in the calculation of the student's grade point average.

7. Pass/fail alternative grading option: Students in good standing academically who have passed a minimum of 24 credits are allowed to take up to 12 credits on an ungraded basis (pass/fail alternative grading option) toward an Honours degree or six credits toward a bachelor degree. The pass/fail alternative grading option cannot be used for courses taken to satisfy major, minor, general education, Certificate requirements or 1000-level science courses.

The ungraded option must be requested from the course director/instructor on a Pass/Fail Option Application Form (available from Student Client Services) within the first two weeks of class for the specific course. The completed form must then be submitted to the Office of Student and Academic Services, 123 Atkinson Building (for Atkinson students). Students will be notified in writing of their eligibility or ineligibility.

Reversing. Students who elect to switch back to graded status can do so up to the last date to drop the course. Written notice must be received in the Registrar's Office by this date, using the space provided on the eligibility letter.

Calculation of averages and credits. Courses taken on an ungraded basis are recorded as either P/Pass or F/Fail. They do not have grade point values so they cannot be calculated into an average. P/Pass credits are added into the total number of credits earned and credits taken. F/Fail credits are added into the total number of credits failed and credits taken.

Grade reports and transcripts. The ungraded option will appear as either P or F on both grade reports and transcripts.

8. Credit/no credit: The notations "Credit" and "No Credit" will be used when an entire course is being offered on an ungraded basis. No Credit will count as an earned failing grade of F in the grade point average.

Grades in Courses

The grading scheme (i.e. kinds and weights of assignments, essays, exams etc.) is to be announced, and be available in writing, within the first two weeks of classes.

Under normal circumstances, graded feedback worth at least 15 per cent of the final grade for fall, winter or summer term, and 30 per cent for 'full year' courses offered in the fall/winter term be received by students in all courses prior to the final withdrawal date from a course without receiving a grade, with the following exceptions:

- graduate or upper level undergraduate courses where course work typically, or at the instructor's discretion, consists of a single piece of work and/or is based predominantly (or solely) on student presentations (e.g. honours theses or graduate research papers not due by the drop date etc.);
- practicum courses;
- ungraded courses;
- courses in Faculties where the drop date occurs within the first three weeks of classes;
- courses which run on a compressed schedule (a course which accomplishes its academic credits of work at a rate of more than one credit hour per two calendar weeks).

Note: Under unusual and/or unforeseeable circumstances which disrupt the academic norm, instructors are expected to provide grading schemes and academic feedback in the spirit of these regulations, as soon as possible.

Subsequent changes: In exceptional circumstances, a previously announced marking scheme for a course may be changed, but only with the unanimous consent of students; the new marking scheme must also be distributed in written form.

In courses where percentages are used as a means of reporting grades on individual pieces of work, the conversion table is used in converting percentage grades to letter grades, unless alternative provisions for scaling and/or conversion are announced to students in writing within the first two weeks of classes.

Academic Standing: Entry, Maintenance and Graduation

Academic standing depends on several factors including the number of credits a student has passed, the grade point average achieved during a particular session (sessional grade point average), the overall grade point average (cumulative grade point average), and the overall major grade point average (major grade point average).

Change of major. Students may request to change their major provided they meet the minimum academic standards required for the program requested. A Change of Major form must be completed and submitted to the appropriate school/department.

Change of degree. Students may request to change their degree after completion of their first academic session in the Faculty, provided they meet the minimum academic standards required for the program requested. A Change of Degree form must be completed and submitted to the Office of Student and Academic Services, 123 Atkinson Building.

Note: There are additional entry requirements for the BSW program.

Change of Major/Degree forms are available from Student Client Services.

Bachelor of Administrative Studies (BAS) Degree (90 Credits)

Entry/re-entry. Students are required to have two high school grade 12U mathematics courses one of which must be Advanced Functions or the equivalent, prior to entry/re-entry.

Students with less than 90 credits completed require a minimum cumulative grade point average of 5.00. At the point of completing 90 credits students who have not attained the minimum cumulative and major grade point average of 5.00 will be ineligible to enter/re-enter the program. No extra courses may be taken in a subsequent session in an effort to raise the grade point average to enter the BAS program.

Note: All students who enter/re-enter the BAS program must follow the requirements of the program in place at the time of entry/re-entry. Some programs may have limited entry.

Atkinson students may submit a change of degree request to enter/re-enter the BAS program to the Office of Student and Academic Services.

Faculty transfers. Students from other Faculties may submit a Faculty transfer request to enter the BAS program to Student Client Services.

Continuing BAS students. Students who have completed less than 90 credits and maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00 may proceed in good standing in the 90 credit or Honours BAS degree. Students who have completed 90 credits or greater with a cumulative and major average of 5.00 may apply to graduate or have the option to proceed in Honours.

Graduating with a BAS degree. Students must pass at least 90 credits which meet the Faculty's degree and program requirements, with a cumulative and major grade point average of at least 5.00.

Failure to maintain academic standing. Advising recommended. Please refer to the Academic Penalties section.

Students who have completed at least 24 York credits with a cumulative grade point average below 2.50 will be required to withdraw for 12 months and ineligible to proceed in the program.

Students who have completed less than 90 credits whose cumulative grade point average is below 5.00 will be placed on "program warning" and may continue in the 90 credit BAS degree only.

Students who have completed 90 credits or greater with a cumulative grade point average below 5.00 and/or a major grade point average below

5.00 will be ineligible to proceed or graduate. No extra courses may be taken in a subsequent session in an effort to raise the grade point average for the program. Students may petition for an Honours waiver or to be allowed additional credits to graduate with the 90 credit BAS bachelor degree. These credits if granted must be taken at York University.

Bachelor of Administrative Studies Honours (BAS Honours) Degree (120 Credits)

Entry/re-entry. Students are required to have two high school grade 12U mathematics courses one of which must be Advanced Functions or the equivalent, prior to entry/re-entry.

Students with less than 90 credits completed require a minimum cumulative grade point average of 5.00. At the point of completing 90 credits students who have not attained the minimum cumulative and major grade point average of 5.00 will be ineligible to enter/re-enter the program. No extra courses may be taken in a subsequent session in an effort to raise the grade point average to enter the BAS program.

Note: All students who enter/re-enter the BAS program must follow the requirements of the program in place at the time of entry/re-entry. Some programs may have limited entry.

Atkinson students may submit a change of degree request to enter/re-enter the BAS program to the Office of Student and Academic Services.

Faculty transfers. Students from other Faculties may submit a Faculty transfer request to enter the BAS program to Student Client Services.

Continuing BAS students. Students who have completed less than 90 credits and maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00 may proceed in good standing in the Honours BAS degree. Students who have completed 90 credits but less than 120 credits with a cumulative and major average of 5.00 may proceed in Honours.

Students who have completed 120 credits or greater who have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 5.00 and a major grade point average of 5.50 may continue in Honours if program requirements are not met or may apply to graduate.

Graduating with a BAS Honours degree. Students must pass at least 120 credits which meet the Faculty's degree and program requirements with a cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00 and a major grade point average of at least 5.50.

Option to graduate with a bachelor degree:

Students registered in the BAS Honours degree may opt to graduate with a bachelor degree if they fulfill degree and program requirements. Students who wish to take advantage of this option should complete an application to graduate available from Student Client Services.

Failure to maintain academic standing. Advising recommended. Please refer to the Academic Penalties section.

Students who have completed at least 24 York credits with a cumulative grade point average below 2.50 will be required to withdraw for 12 months and ineligible to proceed in the program.

Students who have completed less than 90 credits whose cumulative grade point average is below 5.00 will be placed on "program warning" and may continue in the 90 credit BAS degree only.

Students who have completed 90 credits or greater with a cumulative grade point average below 5.00 and/or a major grade point average below 5.00 will be ineligible to proceed. No extra courses may be taken in a subsequent session in an effort to raise the grade point average for the program.

Students may petition for an Honours waiver or to be allowed additional credits to graduate with the 90 credit BAS bachelor degree. These credits if granted must be taken at York University.

Students who have completed 120 credits or greater with a cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00 and a major grade point average of at least 5.00 will be ineligible to proceed in Honours and may apply to graduate with the 90 credit BAS degree. Students who have completed 120 credits or greater with a cumulative grade point average below 5.00 and/or a major grade point average below 5.00 will be ineligible to proceed or graduate.

Bachelor of Arts (BA) Degree (90 Credits)

Entry/re-entry. Students admitted to Atkinson are enrolled in the bachelor program requested. Students may enter/re-enter prior to completion of 102 credits.

Note: All students who enter/re-enter the BA program must follow the requirements of the program in place at the time of entry/re-entry. Some programs may have limited entry and/or further entry requirements.

Faculty transfers. Students may transfer to an Atkinson bachelor degree program provided they meet the minimum cumulative grade point average of 4.00.

Continuing. Students who maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.00 may proceed in good standing in the bachelor degree. Students who at the end of an academic session meet the minimum Honours progression requirement will automatically be placed in the Honours program (if applicable). Students at the point of enrolment in a new academic session will declare if they wish to proceed in the bachelor or Honours degree.

Graduating with a BA degree. Students must pass at least 90 credits that meet the Faculty's degree and program requirements with a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.00.

Failure to maintain academic standing. Advising recommended. Please refer to the Academic Penalties section.

Students who have completed at least 24 York credits with a cumulative grade point average below 2.50 will be required to withdraw for 12 months and ineligible to proceed in the program.

Students who have completed less than 90 credits who fail to maintain the minimum cumulative average of 4.00 will be placed on academic warning.

Additional credits to raise grade point average for graduation:

BA students who upon completion of 90 passed credits whose cumulative grade point average is below 4.00 will be allowed a maximum of 12 attempted credits beyond the 90 passed credits in an attempt to raise their cumulative grade point average to the minimum of 4.00 to continue or graduate. These courses must be taken at York University.

Note: New, repeated, passed and failed courses will count towards the total maximum number of attempted credits.

Students who have 90 passed credits and have attempted 12 credits beyond the 90, who fail to attain the minimum cumulative grade point average of 4.00 will be ineligible to continue or graduate.

Bachelor of Arts Honours (BA Honours) Degree (120 Credits)

Entry/re-entry. Students may enter/re-enter Honours if they meet the Honours warning minimum progression cumulative grade point average requirement for Honours by year level. Students who have not attained the 5.00 cumulative grade point average at the point of completing 84 credits, will be ineligible for Honours. No extra courses may be taken in a subsequent session in an effort to raise the grade point average to qualify for Honours. Please refer to the Academic Penalties section.

Note: All students who enter/re-enter the BA Honours program must follow the requirements of the program in place at the time of entry/re-entry. Some programs may have limited entry and/or further entry requirements.

Faculty transfers. Students qualify for transfer to an Atkinson Honours program provided they have met the Honours warning minimum progression cumulative grade point average requirement for Honours by year level. No extra courses may be taken in a subsequent session in an effort to raise the grade point average to qualify for Honours.

Continuing. Students may continue in an Honours program providing they maintain the Honours warning minimum progression cumulative grade point average requirement for Honours by year level.

Graduating with a BA Honours degree. Students must pass at least 120 credits which meet the Faculty's degree and program requirements with a cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00. Students registered in an Honours degree may opt to graduate with a bachelor degree (if applicable) if they fulfill degree and program requirements. Students who wish to take advantage of this option should complete an application to graduate available from Student Client Services.

Failure to maintain academic standing. Advising recommended. Please refer to the Academic Penalties section.

Students who have completed at least 24 York credits with a cumulative grade point average below 2.50 will be required to withdraw for 12 months and ineligible to proceed in the program.

Students who have completed less than 84 credits, who fail to maintain the Honours minimum cumulative grade point average requirement of 5.00 may proceed in Honours on warning provided they meet the year level progression requirements.

Students who have completed less than 84 credits, who fail to maintain the Honours warning year level progression requirement will automatically be placed in the bachelor degree, if applicable.

Students who have completed 84 credits, but less than 120 credits who fall below the cumulative grade point average of 5.00 will be ineligible to proceed in Honours. Students may petition for an Honours waiver.

Students who have completed 90 credits, but less than 120 credits whose cumulative grade point average is at least 4.00 but below 5.00 may apply to graduate with a bachelor degree (if applicable) if they fulfill degree and program requirements or petition for an Honours waiver.

Students who have completed 120 credits or greater who fail to maintain the Honours cumulative grade point average of 5.00 will be ineligible to proceed. Students may apply to graduate with a bachelor degree (if applicable) if they fulfill degree and program requirements.

Bachelor of Human Resources Management (BHRM) Degree (90 Credits)

Entry/re-entry. Students prior to entering the BHRM must have completed one 12U mathematics course or equivalent.

Students with less than 90 credits completed require a minimum cumulative grade point average of 5.00. At the point of completing 90 credits students who have not attained the minimum cumulative and major grade point average of 5.00 will be ineligible to enter/re-enter the program. No extra courses may be taken in a subsequent session in an effort to raise the grade point average to enter the BHRM program.

Note: All students who enter/re-enter the BHRM program must follow the requirements of the program in place at the time of entry/re-entry. Some programs may have limited entry.

Atkinson students may submit a change of degree request to enter/re-enter the BHRM program to the Office of Student and Academic Services.

Faculty transfers. Students from other Faculties may submit a Faculty transfer request to enter the BHRM program to Student Client Services.

Continuing BHRM students. Students who have completed less than 90 credits and maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00 may proceed in good standing in the 90 credit or Honours BHRM degree. Students who have completed 90 credits or greater with a cumulative and major average of 5.00 may apply to graduate or have the option to proceed in Honours.

Graduating with a BHRM degree. Students must pass at least 90 credits which meet the Faculty's degree and program requirements, with a cumulative and major grade point average of at least 5.00.

Failure to maintain academic standing. Advising recommended. Please refer to the Academic Penalties section.

Students who have completed at least 24 York credits with a cumulative grade point average below 2.50 will be required to withdraw for 12 months and ineligible to proceed in the program.

Students who have completed less than 90 credits whose cumulative grade point average is below 5.00 will be placed on "program warning" and may continue in the 90 credit BHRM degree only.

Students who have completed 90 credits or greater with a cumulative grade point average below 5.00 and/or a major grade point average below 5.00 will be ineligible to proceed or graduate. No extra courses may be taken in a subsequent session in an effort to raise the grade point average for the program. Students may petition for an Honours waiver or to be allowed additional credits to graduate with the 90 credit BAS bachelor degree. These credits if granted must be taken at York University.

Bachelor of Human Resources Management Honours (BHRM Honours) Degree (120 Credits)

Entry/re-entry. Students prior to entering the BHRM must have completed one 12U mathematics course or equivalent.

Students with less than 90 credits completed require a minimum cumulative grade point average of 5.00. At the point of completing 90 credits students who have not attained the minimum cumulative and major grade point average of 5.00 will be ineligible to enter/re-enter the program. No courses may be taken in a subsequent session in an effort to raise the grade point average to enter the BHRM program.

Note: All students who enter/re-enter the BHRM program must follow the requirements of the program in place at the time of entry/re-entry. Some programs may have limited entry.

Atkinson students may submit a change of degree request to enter/re-enter the BHRM program to the Office of Student and Academic Services.

Faculty transfers. Students from other Faculties may submit a Faculty transfer request to enter the BHRM program to Student Client Services.

Continuing BHRM students. Students who have completed less than 90 credits and maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00 may proceed in good standing in the Honours BHRM degree. Students who have completed 90 credits but less than 120 credits with a cumulative and major average of 5.00 may proceed in Honours.

Students who have completed 120 credits or greater who have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 5.00 and a major grade point average of 5.50 may continue in Honours if program requirements are not met or may apply to graduate.

Graduating with a BHRM Honours degree. Students must pass at least 120 credits which meet the Faculty's degree and program requirements with a cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00 and a major grade point average of at least 5.50.

Option to graduate with a bachelor degree. Students registered in the BHRM Honours degree may opt to graduate with a bachelor degree if they fulfill degree and program requirements. Students who wish to take advantage of this option should complete an application to graduate available from Student Client Services.

Failure to maintain academic standing. Advising recommended. Please refer to the Academic Penalties section.

Students who have completed at least 24 York credits with a cumulative grade point average below 2.50 will be required to withdraw for 12 months and ineligible to proceed in the program.

Students may petition for an Honours waiver or to be allowed additional credits to graduate with the 90 credit BAS bachelor degree. These credits if granted must be taken at York University.

Students who have completed 90 credits or greater with a cumulative grade point average below 5.00 and/or a major grade point average below 5.00 will be ineligible to proceed. No extra courses may be taken in a subsequent session in an effort to raise the grade point average for the program. Students may petition for an Honours waiver or to be allowed additional credits to raise the grade point average for graduation in the 90 credit BHRM program. These courses must be above the 1000 level and must be taken at York University.

Students who have completed 120 credits or greater with a cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00 and a major grade point average of at least 5.00 will be ineligible to proceed in Honours and may apply to graduate with the 90 credit BHRM degree. Students who have completed 120 credits or greater with a cumulative grade point average below 5.00 and/or a major grade point average below 5.00 will be ineligible to proceed or graduate.

Bachelor of Science (BSc) Degree (90 Credits)

Entry/re-entry. Students admitted to Atkinson are enrolled in the bachelor program requested. Students may enter/re-enter prior to completion of 102 credits.

Note: All students who enter/re-enter the BSc program must follow the requirements of the program in place at the time of entry/re-entry. Some programs may have limited entry and/or further entry requirements.

Faculty transfers. Students may transfer to an Atkinson bachelor degree program provided they meet the minimum cumulative grade point average of 4.00.

Continuing. Students who maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.00 may proceed in good standing in the bachelor degree.

Graduating with a BSc degree. Students must pass at least 90 credits that meet the Faculty's degree and program requirements with a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.00.

Failure to maintain academic standing. Advising recommended. Please refer to the Academic Penalties section.

Failure to maintain academic standing. Advising recommended. Please refer to the Academic Penalties section.

Students who have completed at least 24 York credits with a cumulative grade point average below 2.50 will be required to withdraw for 12 months and ineligible to proceed in the program.

Students who have completed less than 84 credits, who fail to maintain the Honours minimum cumulative grade point average requirement of 5.00 may proceed in Honours on warning provided they meet the year level progression requirements.

Students who have completed less than 84 credits, who fail to maintain the Honours warning year level progression requirement will automatically be placed in the bachelor degree, if applicable.

Students who have completed 84 credits, but less than 120 credits who fall below the cumulative grade point average of 5.00 will be ineligible to proceed in Honours. Students may petition for an Honours waiver.

Students who have completed 90 credits, but less than 120 credits whose cumulative grade point average is at least 4.00 but below 5.00 may apply to graduate with a bachelor degree (if applicable) if they fulfill degree and program requirements or petition for an Honours waiver.

Students who have completed 120 credits or greater who fail to maintain the Honours cumulative grade point average of 5.00 will be ineligible to proceed. Students may apply to graduate with a bachelor degree (if applicable) if they fulfill degree and program requirements.

Bachelor of Social Work Honours (BSW Honours) Degree (120 Credits)

Entry/re-entry. Students may enter/re-enter BSW Honours if they meet the Honours warning minimum progression cumulative grade point average requirement for Honours by year level. Students who have not attained the 5.00 cumulative grade point average at the point of completing 84 credits, will be ineligible for Honours. No extra courses may be taken in a subsequent session in an effort to raise the grade point average to qualify for Honours. Please refer to Academic Penalties section.

All requests for entry/re-entry also require a supplemental application and are subject to School of Social Work approval.

Note: All students who enter/re-enter the BSW Honours program must follow the requirements of the program in place at the time of entry/re-entry. Some programs may have limited entry.

Faculty transfers. Students qualify for transfer to an Atkinson Honours program provided they have met the Honours warning minimum progression cumulative grade point average requirement for Honours by year level. No extra courses may be taken in a subsequent session in an effort to raise the grade point average to qualify for Honours.

Continuing. Students may continue in an Honours program providing they maintain the Honours warning minimum progression cumulative grade point average requirement for Honours by year level.

Graduating with a BSW Honours degree. Students must pass at least 120 credits which meet the Faculty's degree and program requirements with a cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00 including a minimum grade of C (4.00) in all courses used in the major.

Failure to maintain academic standing. Advising recommended. Please refer to the Academic Penalties section.

Students are required to attain a minimum grade of C (4.00) in all courses used in the major. Students who fail to meet this standard must repeat the course(s) in the next available session and are strongly advised to make an advising appointment with the School of Social Work.

Students who have completed at least 24 York credits with a cumulative grade point average below 2.50 will be required to withdraw for 12 months and are ineligible to proceed in the program.

Students who have completed less than 84 credits, who fail to maintain the Honours minimum cumulative grade point average requirement of 5.00 may proceed in Honours on warning provided they meet the year level progression requirements. Students who fall below the Honours warning year level progression requirement will be ineligible to proceed in the BSW program. Students who wish to proceed with their studies must change their degree.

Students who have completed 84 credits, but less than 120 credits who fall below the cumulative grade point average of 5.00 will be ineligible to proceed in Honours. Students may petition for an Honours waiver.

Students who have completed 120 credits or greater who fail to maintain the Honours cumulative grade point average of 5.00 and/or have a grade of less than C (4.00) in a course used in the major will be ineligible to proceed or graduate.

Academic Penalties

Students whose academic record does not meet the Faculty or program standards are subject to the academic penalties of academic warning, Honours warning, program warning, required withdrawal, debarment warning, debarment and academic probation.

1. Academic warning for BA and BSc:

Students who, prior to completion of 90 credits, whose cumulative grade point average falls below 4.00 (C) at the end of any session, or who enter the Faculty with a grade point average equivalent to less than 4.00 (C) on the York scale, receive an academic warning.

Academic warning conditions:

Students on academic warning must achieve a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.00 (C) within the next 24 credits taken, or earn a sessional grade point average of at least 5.00 (C+) in the session in which that 24th credit is taken and in each subsequent session until the cumulative grade point average reaches 4.00 (C), or be required to withdraw. Students must attain a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.00 upon completion of 90 credits.

Students whose cumulative grade point average on at least 24 York credits is below 2.50 will be required to withdraw for 12 months.

2. Honours warning for BA, BSc, BSW:

Students who have completed less than 84 earned credits whose cumulative grade point average is below 5.00 may continue in Honours on warning provided they meet the year level progression requirements as follows:

Year 1	0-23 earned credits	Minimum cumulative grade point average 4.00
Year 2	24-53 earned credits	Minimum cumulative grade point average 4.25
Year 3	54-83 earned credits	Minimum cumulative grade point average 4.80
Year 4	84 earned credits or greater	Minimum cumulative grade point average 5.00

Note: Year level is based on the number of earned credits including transfer credit.

Honours warning conditions:

Students whose cumulative grade point average on at least 24 York credits is below 2.50 will be required to withdraw for 12 months.

BA and BSc students who fail to meet the Honours warning progression requirement will be placed in the corresponding 90-credit bachelor program if applicable.

BSW students who fail to meet the Honours warning progression requirement will be ineligible to proceed in the program. Students who have completed less than 84 credits and wish to continue their studies must change their degree. Students who have completed 84 credits but less than 120 credits may petition for an Honours waiver.

3. Program warning for BAS, BHRM:

BAS

BAS students who have completed less than 90 credits, whose cumulative grade point average is below 5.00, will be placed on program warning and may continue in the 90 credit bachelor degree only providing they meet the program warning conditions outlined below.

Program warning conditions for BAS:

BAS students on program warning, within the next 24 credits taken, must raise the cumulative grade point average to at least 5.00. At no time may the cumulative grade point average fall below 2.50 upon completion of at least 24 York credits. Upon completion of 90 credits, BAS students who do not have both the cumulative and major grade point averages of at least 5.00 will be ineligible to proceed in the program.

Note 1: Students who plan to graduate with the 90-credit bachelor BAS must meet both the cumulative and major grade point averages of at least 5.00 at the 90th credit.

Note 2: Students with both the cumulative and major grade point averages of at least 5.00 at 90 credits may elect to proceed with the Honour's degree. Graduation with the Honours BAS at the 120th credit requires the cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00 and the major grade point average of at least 5.50.

BHRM

BHRM students who have completed less than 90 credits, whose cumulative grade point average is below 5.00, will be placed on program warning and may continue in the 90 credit bachelor degree only providing they meet the program warning conditions outlined below.

Program warning conditions for BHRM:

BHRM students on program warning, within the next 24 credits taken, must raise the cumulative grade point average to at least 5.00. At no time may the cumulative grade point average fall below 2.50 upon completion of at least 24 York credits. Upon completion of 90 credits, BHRM students who do not have both the cumulative and major grade point averages of at least 5.00 will be ineligible to proceed in the program.

Note 1: Students who plan to graduate with the 90 credit bachelor BHRM must meet both the cumulative and major grade point averages of at least 5.00 at the 90th credit.

Note 2: Students with both the cumulative and major grade point averages of at least 5.00 at 90 credits may elect to proceed with the Honour's degree. Graduation with the Honours BHRM at the 120th credit requires the cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00 and the major grade point average of at least 5.50.

4. Petition to continue without interruption:

Students who have been required to withdraw may submit a petition to the Atkinson Faculty Council Office requesting permission to continue their studies without interruption. Students granted such a petition would be allowed to continue their studies on debarment warning.

5. Reactivation after required withdrawal:

Students who have been required to withdraw may apply for reactivation after the requisite period of absence by submitting a form obtainable from Student Client Services. Students who return to their studies after such a required withdrawal (as well as those who have been allowed to continue their studies by virtue of a petition to the Committee on Petitions) receive a debarment warning.

6. Debarment warning:

Students who have been required to withdraw from the Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, or from another Faculty at York, or elsewhere receive a debarment warning upon continuing their studies in the Faculty.

Debarment warning conditions. Students on debarment warning must achieve a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.00 (C) within the next 24 credits taken or earn a sessional grade point average of at least 5.00 (C+) in the session in which the 24th credit is taken and in each subsequent session until the cumulative average reaches 4.00 (C), and must then maintain this average. Students who do not fulfill these conditions will be debarred from the University. Students whose cumulative grade point average falls below 2.50 at any time while on debarment warning will be debarred.

7. Debarment:

Students who fail to meet the debarment warning conditions outlined above will be debarred from the University. Debarment, the minimum period for which is normally two years, means that the student is no longer a student at York University.

8. Petition to continue without interruption:

Students who have been debarred may submit a petition to the Atkinson Faculty Council Office requesting permission to continue their studies without interruption. Students granted such a petition would be allowed to continue their studies on academic probation.

9. Reapplying after debarment:

Students who have been debarred and who wish to resume their studies must apply for readmission through the Admissions Office, and must provide persuasive evidence that they are ready and able to complete a degree program. Students who are readmitted (as well as those who have been allowed to continue their studies by virtue of a petition to the Committee on Petitions) receive an academic probation.

10. Academic probation:

Students who have been debarred and who subsequently resume their studies in the Faculty whether by petitioning to continue without interruption or by applying for readmission, receive an academic probation. Students on academic probation must meet the debarment warning conditions outlined above; otherwise, they will be debarred.

11. Suspension:

A penalty imposed for serious academic offences for a variable but limited period during which students may not be registered in the University. This penalty may be imposed only by a Faculty-level committee which has received authority to do so from a Faculty Council.

12. Rustication:

A sanction terminating the right of students to continue as a student of the University permanently or for a fixed or indefinite period of time, imposed by the University Discipline Tribunal for non-academic misconduct.

Petitions and Appeals

Students are expected to familiarize themselves with the University policy on Petitions and Grade Reappraisal before taking any steps which may have costly repercussions or affect their academic progress. The purpose of a petition is to request an exemption from a regulation or deadline. Being unfamiliar of regulations or deadlines does not constitute a valid reason for a petition.

For further information, Atkinson students may contact: the Atkinson Faculty Council Office, 143 Atkinson Building, telephone: 416-650-8193, fax: 416-650-8179, Web site: <http://www.atkinson.yorku.ca/Council/Students/petitions.htm>, e-mail: akcouncil@mail.atkinson.yorku.ca.

1. Petition:

A written request for the waiver of an academic regulation or deadline. A petition cannot be used to create legislation (i.e. a degree program) that does not exist. Petitions are submitted to and considered by a student's home Faculty.

Petitions relating to a student's enrolment status in a course will only be considered if they are submitted within 30 days of the last day of classes. Such petitions may be considered for a period of up to one year if they are based on special circumstances.

2. Petitions procedures:

The Committee on Petitions, on behalf of the Atkinson Faculty Council, considers Atkinson student petitions for exceptions to all Faculty regulations, including petitions to continue studies without interruption in cases where a student has been required to withdraw or debarred. The Committee will give due consideration to transition difficulties documented by students in their first university session. Petitions are held in the strictest confidence. The Committee considers the petition itself, any supporting documentation (from professors or medical practitioners) and other relevant information contained in the student's record. Students may not normally appear in person.

3. Initiating a petition:

To initiate a petition, Atkinson students should obtain a petition package and relevant forms such as a Student Course Performance Summary (CPS) form, and/or an Attending Physician's Statement (APS) form, and/or a Statement by Counselling and Development Counsellor form. All forms are available from the Atkinson Faculty Council Office, 143 Atkinson Building or online at: <http://www.atkinson.yorku.ca/Council/Students/Petforms.htm>.

Note: Students in the Faculties of Arts, Education, Fine Arts and Science and Engineering must petition to the Registrar's Office. Students from Faculties not listed should contact the respective Office of Student Programs.

Student academic petitions must be presented on the appropriate petition form (available from the Atkinson Faculty Council Office) and accompanied by a personal letter outlining the specific request and statement of grounds for the petition as well as relevant original supporting documentation such as medical certificates, letters from employers etc.

Note: Student petitions regarding standing in a course must be accompanied by a Student Course Performance Summary (CPS) form filled out by the course director.

When a petition appears to be complete and has been processed by the Atkinson Faculty Council Office, it is brought anonymously to the Committee on Petitions. Students will be notified in writing of the decisions made on their petition(s).

4. Appeal:

An appeal is a written request for the alteration of the decision taken on a petition generally made to the same level but to another person, panel or committee.

Appeals against decisions of the Atkinson Committee on Petitions will be permitted only on the grounds of:

- (a) new evidence, or
- (b) evidence of procedural irregularity in the committee's consideration of the case.

Graduation and Academic Excellence

Atkinson recognizes the academic excellence of its students in appropriate ways. The following honours are recorded on a student's transcript:

1. Atkinson Sessional Academic Achievement List recognizes the outstanding achievement of the following students:

- (a) Students taking 12-17 credits in a given session who have attained a sessional grade point average of 8.00 or higher.
